Kennedy Pleads Guilty To Charge

Admits Leaving Scene

COMBINED AP & UPI

EDGARTOWN, Mass. (UPI) —Sen. Edward M. Kennedy, leaving many questions unanswered, pleaded guilty today to a charge of leaving the scene of a fatal automobile accident. He was given a suspended two-month jail sentence.

"The defendant will continue to be punished far beyond anything this court could impose," Dukes County District Judge James A. Boyle said.

In suspending the minimum sentence which could be imposed on the charge, which is a misdemeanor in Massachusetts, the judge automatically placed Kennedy on probation for two months. Most first offenders in similar cases receive suspended sentences, court officials said.

Kennedy will issue a statement at 4:30 p.m. PDT, which will be carried nationally from the family compound at Hyannis Port.

Following his court appearance, he told newsmen it would be "to explain to the people of Massachusetts." He did not say what the explanation would include.

In Washington, Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield said he was glad Kennedy, his deputy leader, had appeared in court today instead of waiting until Monday.

"I feel deep compassion for both Senator Kennedy and the

'Cushion' Trains Enter Span Talks

By PAUL E. PETERZELL

SANTA ROSA — The old proposal that trains be run across the Golden Gate Bridge, long taboo because of bridge engineers' objections, was revived today.

Bridge and highway district director L. E. Castner of Sonoma County, reporting on his trip last month aboard a train that floats on a cushion of air, told directors meeting here, "This could be the real answer to our transportation problem."

The only train system ever studied for use on the bridge was the one designed by the Bay Area Rapid Transit District almost 10 years ago. It was rejected by a panel of bridge engineers on the grounds that the train was too heavy.

Catsner, however, reported that the new Aerotrain being tested in France is much lighter. Castner reported that the train was "remarkably comfortable to ride." and that the speeds reached are 155 miles an hour in two and a half blocks.

"I don't know that this is the answer to our transportation problem," Castner said, "but it's something we should take a real hard look at."

Gen. Mgr. Dale W. Luehring commented that "although it is still too early to know whether such a system may have application in this corridor . . . its exceptionally light weight might make it attractive in connection with the use of a lower deck structure on the bridge."

Castner said that the 40-passenger train cars can be operated either singly or hooked together in a string up to eight to 10 cars. The cars planned by the French firm for commercial use would have electric engines that would drive the train at about 85 miles an hour.

The trains running on the 6.5 miles of track near Paris are powered by an airplane engine at speeds up to 250 miles per hour.

The trains run on a raised single concrete rail that the cars straddle. The train floats on a cushion of air that raises it off the surface of the rail by one and three quarter inches.

Bay Sewage Study Financing Approved

SACRAMENTO (AP) — The State Water Resources Control Board voted today to spend up to $54,000 for a study of whether tidal action in the San Francisco Bay will carry partially treated sewage out to sea.

Officials say the study is needed before plans continue on a scheme to dump sewage into the middle of the bay.

Moon Men Reported In Excellent Health

ABOARD USS HORNET (AP) — Back from the moon but isolated from the world, the men of Apollo 11 today were pronounced in better condition than astronauts returning from previous flights. (See other photos, stories, pages 6 and 10.)

After 11 hours of examining the spacemen, Dr. William Carpentier said he found no evidence of contamination from the moon. Despite one man's minor ear inflammation "I think they're in good shape," he said.

The physician said Neil A. Armstrong, Air Force Col. Edwin E. Aldrin Jr. and Air Force Lt. Col. Michael Collins showed less deterioration in heart and blood vessels than other Apollo men have had. He wasn't sure why.

But he was sure that the inflammation in one of Armstrong's ears was not important. He said there may have been a buildup of fluid in the ear due to the pressures of re-entry and that the fluid was draining.

The men will be under painstaking medical scrutiny for 21 days due to the remote possibility they might have brought to earth some unknown and potentially dangerous germs from the moon.

Actually, no one knows whether there are germs on the moon. Many scientists doubt it. But the National Aeronautics and Space Administration was taking no chances.

Confined in a silvery quarantine trailer on the Hornet's hangar deck, the space heroes could barely see the world they had thrilled. But they did call

Sacramento Roadblock To Detroit?

SACRAMENTO (UPI)—The California Senate served notice on Detroit today to develop an alternative to the internal combustion engine or peddle its product elsewhere.

Senators overwhelmingly passed a bill last night to outlaw gasoline-powered automobiles on California roads in less than six years. The vote was 26-5.

"We're going to have to do something to control pollution or it's going to kill us," said Sen. Nicholas C. Petris, the

New Sonoma Supervisor Is Appointed

I-J Special Report

SACRAMENTO — George T. De Long of Petaluma today was appointed to the Sonoma County Board of Supervisors by Gov. Ronald Reagan.

De Long, 32, replaces Leigh S. Shoemaker, 65, who resigned in May due to ill health.

De Long owns and operates George Buick-Pontiac in Petaluma and lives at 731 Cindy Lane with his wife and two children.

He is a member of the board of directors of the Petaluma Area Chamber of Commerce, vice chairman of the city water commission, chairman of the board of education educational advisory committee, treasurer of the Petaluma Rotary Club and vice president of the Young Republicans Club. De Long is a graduate of the University of California at Berkeley.

A resident of Petaluma for four years, De Long said he would turn over the operation of his business to other corporation officers so that he can devote himself full time to the office of supervisor.

De Long said he expects to be installed officially at the supervisors meeting at 10 a.m. Monday.

Manila Is Next Stop For Nixon

AGANA, Guam (AP) — President Richard M. Nixon said today Asian nations should provide more of their own defense and the United States must avoid being dragged into conflicts like Vietnam.

He made clear on the eve of a tour of Asia that while the United States must continue to play a significant role in that area of the world his administration favors a cutback in the U.S. military presence as part of its post-Vietnam policy.

Nixon's first stop on the tour is the Philippines tomorrow. He then goes also to Indonesia, Thailand, India and Pakistan before stops in Communist Romania and then England briefly. There is a possibility he will stop off in South Vietnam, as President Lyndon B. Johnson did on his tour in 1966.

While in Manila, Nixon is likely to run into some bad weather, produced by typhoon Viola. Her main force is currently 500 miles north of the capital city.

Weather forecasters report the typhoon is expected to cause no serious trouble during Nixon's 23-hour visit.

Mrs. Nixon winged in from Hawaii to joint her husband on his around-the-world trip. She had watched the Apollo 11

Two Believed Drowned Off Creek Bridge

I-J Special Report

NAPA — Two men were believed drowned today at the Sonoma Creek Bridge on Highway 37, a mile east of Highway 121 at the Sonoma-Solano county line.

Sonoma County sheriff's officers said a motorist, Joseph Hickerson Jr. of Novato, reported being flagged down at 2 a.m. by a man who said his companion had been forced off the bridge by a car.

Hickerson said the man jumped off the bridge in a rescue attempt yelling "Davy, Davy, Davy" and disappeared. Police believe the men had been pedestrians since no car was found at the scene.

A search by the Coast Guard produced no bodies. Sheriff's officers said a boat from the Mare Island Naval Shipyard would be called in to make a more thorough search.

Clean Water Watchdogs Clamp Down On San Francisco Pollution

I-J Special Report

HAYWARD — Armed to the teeth with a new state law that fines water polluters $6,000 a day, the San Francisco Bay Regional Water Quality Control Board yesterday abruptly ended its years of gently prodding San Francisco to stop its massive dumping of sewage in the bay.

"We've had stall, stall, stall, stall for years from San Francisco," declared an exasperated director of the board, Sidney S. Lippow of Martinez. Despite years of effort by the board, the city still is No. 1 on the board's priority list of polluters.

But the board, citing the powerful new antipollution law just signed by the governor, made it clear that San Francicco no longer can delay action.

In a unanimous vote, after grilling San Francisco officials for more than two hours, the six directors present adopted a resolution declaring their intention to set specific requirements for all dry and wet weather discharges from the city's three sewage areas. The setting of requirements, to be done at the Aug. 21 meeting, sets in motion the legal machinery for cease and desist orders against the city by the board.

Under the new state law, the $6,000-a-day fine can be imposed on polluters who ignore or violate cease and desist orders. The law also empowered the regional boards to get immediate court action by the attorney general against polluters.

Under the old water pollution law, there was little that could be done to punish polluters. The new law will not go into effect until 60 days after the final adjournment of the Legislature, but the regional board clearly saw no need to wait any more for San Francisco to act.

The board's resolution also took on San Francisco's opposition to joining in the multi-billion-dollar regional sewage program proposed in the Bay-Delta report by the state Water Resources Control Board. The resolution urged San Francisco's supervisors "to take no action which might jeopardize the advantages to

NEW SPLIT SEEN ON SURTAX ISSUE

Administration Turns Down Five-Month Extension Coupled To Tax Reform Bill

WASHINGTON (AP) — A new stalemate has developed between Senate Democratic leaders and the Nixon administration over extension of the income tax surcharge.

The Senate Democratic Policy Committee, after three days of discussion, agreed yesterday to offer an immediate five-months extension of the surtax with provisions to complete work on a broad tax reform measure within that time.

But administration officials—sticking with their demand for a full year extension—promptly turned down the proposals. They said a short extension would not meet the demands of anti-inflationary policy.

Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield had told the Republicans if they would accept the extension to Nov. 30, he would interrupt current debate on a missile defense system to put through the surtax bill. His plan included assurances by Democrats on the Finance Committee that the tax reform bill expected to be passed by the House in August would get to the Senate for action by Oct. 31.

If Republicans rejected the plan, Mansfield declared, his policy group would stand on its original position—no surtax extension without concurrent action on major tax reforms.

Secretary of the Treasury David M. Kennedy met yesterday with Senate Republicans in Senate GOP Leader Everett Dirksen's office to discuss the Democratic offer.

Afterwards he said "a temporary extension of the surtax does not do the job."

Real Estate Tax Reforms Could Gain U.S. $2 Billion

WASHINGTON (AP) — Recommendations made so far by a House committee working on major tax reforms would mean an increase of roughly $2 billion in federal revenue, according to spokesmen for the panel.

The Ways and Means Committee came close to finishing its policy determinations yesterday with two new proposals to tighten nonresidential real estate depreciation practices and the use of deductions by persons with considerable income already sheltered from tax.

Next week the committee will work on polishing the actual language of the broad tax reform bill. It could make further recommendations as it goes over the wording.

Estimates yesterday were that the latest two changes proposed by the panel could produce in the neighborhood of $650 million in revenue.

The real estate depreciation changes would be worth an estimated $150 million annually at the start and the proposed new deduction rules would bring in up to $500 million.

The new real estate rules would have major impact on persons who operate within existing law so as to increase their cash flow from a building in the years immediately after the construction.

Budget Cuts May Speed GIs Home

WASHINGTON (AP) — The New White House-ordered slash in defense spending may speed reduction in the size of U.S. military forces, Pentagon sources indicate.

These sources also suggested a continued slowdown in Vietnam fighting could help the Nixon administration cut spending for ammunition, B52 bomber missions and other war-related purposes.

President Richard M. Nixon has directed federal agencies to come up with further spending reductions totaling $3.5 billion, and Budget Bureau officials forecast the Pentagon will absorb more than half the amount.

Defense authorities, who earlier pared $1.7 billion from the Johnson administration's $79 billion farewell military budget, anticipated the new White House order and had been searching for places to cut deeper.

"We're going to have to squeeze hard on personnel," said one official.

New U.S. withdrawals from Vietnam, expected late this summer and fall, probably will be translated into total force levels well below the 3.45 million men projected in the budget now before Congress.

Reelection Sought

SEOUL, Korea (AP) — Taking a cue from Charles de Gaulle, President Chung Hee Park threatened today to resign unless the South Koreans amend their constitution so he can serve a third term.

Park's broadcast speech was his first announceent that he plans to run again, although this had been generally expected. The Korean Constution, which is patterned after that of the United States, bars a two-term president from running again. Park's second term expires in June 1971.

Airport Walk-Out

OAKLAND (AP) — Most San Francisco Bay Area air traffic controllers will walk off their jobs if the government disciplines workers who took sick leave last month, a spokesman says.

"I suggest that people planning trips in August reconsider and take them at another time," said Dick Holzhauer, a director of the Professional Air Traffic Control Organization, who works at the Federal Aviation Administration center at nearby Fremont.

DECLINES PARTY BID—Sen. Eugene McCarthy, D-Minnesota, announced yesterday that he would not be running for reelection as a Democrat, generating rumors that former Vice President Hubert Humphrey might take up the standard, or even that the antiwar senator might still run as an independent candidate. (UPI Telephoto)

HHH May Seek Senate Post Opened By McCarthy

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Hubert H. Humphrey will seek the Senate seat Eugene J. McCarthy has decided to vacate next year, political aides of the former vice president said today.

Humphrey's return to the Senate as a Democrat from Minnesota would give him the forum he is thought to need to go after his party's presidential nomination again in 1972.

Chances that the 1968 Democratic standard bearer would get a second shot at the White House may have been enhanced last weekend when a car driven by Sen. Edward M. Kennedy plunged off a wooden bridge. The accident killed a 28-year-old woman passenger and could put the Massachusetts senator's political future in jeopardy.

Humphrey, in Yugoslavia near the end of a European tour, including a visit to Russia, admitted that McCarthy's statement opens "many possibilities," but refused to elaborate.

But his political confidants, who declined to be named, said there was no doubt he would run for the Senate after McCarthy announced yesterday in Minneapolis that he would not seek a third term. They also brushed off Humphrey's own estimate that in 1972 he would be too old at 61 to make another bid for the presidency.

McCarthy's decision to retire from the Senate was met with formal expressions of regret and prompted speculation that the lone-wolf senator might be considering entry into the 1972 presidential race as an independent.

The 1968 contender for the Democratic nomination hinted at it when he said "there may be a political future for me" and persons close to him declined to rule out that possibility.

Pakistani President Invited To Peking

RAWALPINDI, Pakistan (UPI) —Premier Chou En-Lai of Communist China has invited Pakistani President Yahya Khan to visit Peking, the government said today.

President Richard M. Nixon is due in Pakistan to visit Khan during Nixon's world tour. The announcement of Red China's invitation gave no date nor any indication it was accepted.

WORLD NEWS IN BRIEF

Warrant For Leary

HEMET (UPI) — A warrant for the arrest of Timothy Leary was out today after an autopsy showed that a 17-year-old girl who drowned at his ranch was under the influence of LSD.

Narcotics investigators raided Leary's mountain center ranch near here yesterday and arrested five persons for possession of marijuana.

Leary, who pledged to legalize marijuana in his campaign to become California's first "psychedelic governor," was not at the hippie commune at the time.

Later in the day a warrant was issued in Riverside Municipal Court for his arrest on suspicion of contributing to the delinquency of a minor.

The victim, Charlene Renee Almeida, 17, Laguna Beach, was swimming in a 30-foot-deep pond on the ranch when she drowned last July 14. She had lived in the commune for 10 days.

Two More Murders

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — This city's homicide toll had reached 89 for this year, three more than for all of 1968, police have reported.

The latest victims were a San Bernardino night club operator, whose body was found yesterday in the trunk of an abandoned car, and an elderly polio victim who died from a beating he received July 8.

Police said the man in the car trunk was Lafayette Smyre, 45, who was convicted here in 1959 of possession and sale of narcotics. He had been shot and left in the car parked at Fisherman's Wharf for about two weeks.

The beating victim was Charlss M. Wylie, 65, who died Wednesday without regaining consciousness.

Las Vegas Strike

LAS VEGAS (UPI) — Operations at 12 hotel-casinos were threatened today by a labor dispute that began at the Dunes Hotel and spread along the glittering Las Vegas strip.

No further talks were scheduled between the Teamsters Local 995 and operating Engineers Local 501 and the Nevada Resort Association which represents the 12 hotels.

The unions represent telephone operators from desk personnel and maintenance men. They struck the Dunes early yesterday and the other 11 members of the resort association declared a lockout.

Embassy Policing

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The Nixon Administration has asked Congress to increase the strength of the White House police corps so it could better protect foreign embassies, which are complaining of vandalism, demonstrations and general harrassment.

"We are exposing ourselves terribly in the fact that we are not adequately prepared and capable of protecting foreign embassies," Eugene T. Rossides, assistant Treasury Secretary, told a Senate hearing.

Rossides said about 400 men would be needed to take over protection of the 117 embassies in th Washington metropolitan area, now without regular police protection.

Air Clog Warning

WASHINGTON (AP) — Los Angeles and San Francisco airports will experience massive air congestion in the next six years unless new building programs are instituted, a Texas congressman says.

Democratic Rep. Jack Brooks told the Senate Commerce Committee yesterday that the Department of Transportation should give Congress better data on how to control the airways and speed airport construction or face serious air traffic jams in ths two California cities and in Boston, Atlanta and Miami as well.

Drug Case Cleared

MALIBU (AP) — The brother of actress Mia Farrow is free of charges of possessing marijuana and growing peyote.

The charges against John Charles Farrow, 29, were dismissed in Malibu justice court yesterday on a technicality.

Zone Bid Granted

I-J Special Report

SANTA ROSA — The Sonoma County Board of Zoning Adjustments yesterday approved the request of Berdena Johnson Carson to place a single mobile home at 6081 Redwood Highway North, Penngrove.

Policeman Cleared

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Two police officers have been cleared of ciminal intent in the shooting of a man they mistook for a freeway sniper. Officers Norman P. O'Malley and Henry Kennedy shot Donald Lee Oughton, 29, last June 11 near the Hollywood Freeway after they stopped him to question him about a reported sniping incident.

The district attorney's office said yesterday no criminal charges would be filed against the officers. The shooting was "regrettable" but there was "a complete lack of evidence to indicate a criminal intent or act on the part of the involved officers," said Chief Deputy Dist. Atty. Lynn D. Compton.

Testimony Of Warning In Stab Case

David Vaughn Busdieker pleaded, "Dad, stay away from me," that night last December which ended with his father's death, according to testimony yesterday in Marin Superior Court.

"I don't want to fight you, I just want you to get out of here," said the 19-year-old youth, according to his mother, Violet Busdieker.

The youth is accused of fatally stabbing his father, Larry Glenn Busdieker, 45, in their Corte Madera home Dec. 18.

Mrs. Busdieker said yesterday her late husband had tried on several other occasions to assault their son. She recalled cradling her husband's head after he was stabbed. "David said, 'Mom, I'm sorry. I didn't mean to hurt Dad'," Mrs. Busdieker said.

In testimony today, Dr. John H. Manwaring, the pathologist who examined the body, said the cause of death was hemorrhaging due to a stab wound through the heart and lung.

Dr. Manwaring reported Busdieker had a blood alcohol content of .329 at the time of his death and estimated it would have taken 13 to 16 drinks to produce that level — or more if he had been drinking over a long period of time.

Dr. Manwaring also testified the stab wound in Busdieker's chest and another on his arm could not have been self-inflicted.

Testimony in the preliminary hearing pictured Busdieker in a drunken rage and threatened murder at the time of his death.

The trial was to continue today in the courtroom of Judge Harold J. Haley, with testimony expected from Pamela Busdieker, daughter of the slain man.

CAR

measure's author. "It'll asphyxiate us."

"Gentleman," Petris pleaded, "we're running out of time."

The Oakland Democrat said the cutoff date of Jan. 1, 1975, is a "practical program" since it gives automobile manufacturers plenty of time to develop a smog-free vehicle.

"We can make the decision and lead the way for the rest of states," he said, adding that the measure was a "tremendous incentive" to car makers to find a "cleaner" product.

"They'll either purify it or come up with a new one," he said.

There are now 12.5 million motor vehicles with internal combustion engines in California. About 3.5 million new and used cars are sold annually in the nation's most populous and smog-conscious state.

The only opponent of the bill during floor debate was Sen. Lou Cusanovich, R-Van Nuys. He argued supporters of the measure were special interests.

Cusanovich noted that at an earlier hearing only potential developers of steam and gas turbine engines testified strongly in favor of the Petris bill.

The automobile lobby, apparently figuring the bill was too far out to merit attention, never testified against it in committee.

But Detroit is sure to have a representative at an Assembly committee hearing, which will probably take place next week.

Sen. John A. Nejedly, who this week won Senate approval of his measure to ban DDT, strongly endorsed Petris't bill as another step in protecting California's environment.

"It forces a solution...on the automobile manufacturers of the nation," said Nejedly, R-Walnut Creek, this session's leading conservationist spokesman.

Sen. John G. Schmitz, R-Tustin, said when Petris introduced the bill he considered the action "a grandstand play."

But Schmitz said he reconsidered his position and now believes the state should move into the field of outlawing the internal combustion engine.

"As a conservative, I feel this is a legitimate function of government to step in and save lives and property," he said.

The negative votes were cast by Republican Sens. John L. Harmer, Glendale; Robert J. Lagomarsino, Ojai; Fred Marler Jr., Redding; Cusanovich and Democratic Sen. Randolph Collier, Yreka. Not voting was Sen. John F. McCarthy, R-San Rafael.

WATER

them of participation in a regional sewerage system."

The "no" was underlined in the resolution.

The resolution said the regional board would oppose any application for federal funds by San Francisco for sewer facilities that would not fit in with a regional system.

The board also voted to request San Francisco's supervisors to fix precise dates for ending pollution.

The board actions followed a presentation by San Francisco officials of a recent report by consulting engineeers on how the city could end dry weather sewage problems.

The engineers, Brown and Caldwell, recommended construction by 1971 of deepwater outfalls for the two treatment plants on the bay at a cost of $5,080,000 in 1969 dollars.

They also estimated that dumping all the city's sewage in the ocean would cost $32.6 million, but said this step would not be needed unless water quality standards were upgraded radically.

City Engineer Robert Levy told the board that San Francisco's supervisors had not yet acted on the engineers' report, completed five months ago. He said his department had enough money from previous bond issues to complete designing the extended bay outfalls, but that voter approval of another bond issue would be needed to finance the construction.

He pleaded in vain for the board to delay action on the city's wet weather sewage problem. The city has a unique system of collecting storm water and sewage waste in the same pipes, so whenever it rains the city's raw sewage bypasses the treatment plant and is dumped in the bay and ocean at 41 points.

Levy promised that the city would have a master plan completed by Aug. 1, 1971, on how to solve the wet weather problem, and insisted "a flat commitment would not be possible" when board members pressed him to estimate when construction in such a master plan could be completed.

"I'll give it some serious thought and do some talking around city hall," Levy said.

Dan P. Norris of Brown and Caldwell acknowledged that the city's three sewage plants all violated the board's pollution standards, but said the violations were "primarily in appearance and matters of aesthetics such as odors, appearance and flotables." Flotables is the polite term for gobs of feces and gelatinous blobs of oily waste.

Norris' suggestion that the city's sewage someday be dumped in the ocean brought objections from a state Department of Fish and Game biologist, Donald Lollock, who said this would kill off major fishery resources.

Citing Levy's estimate that it would cost the city seven times more to join a regional sewage system than to handle the problem itself, Lollock told the Independent-Journal after the hearing that Levy's low estimate for a go-it-alone system failed to protect the fishery resources. The regional system would have an ocean outfall much further to the south in San Mateo County, as reommended by the Department of Fish and Game.

San Francisco's sewage treatment plants "now discharge more flotables than the Bay-Delta report would ultimately allow for all dischargers in the central bay," the board's staff reported.

"We have a horrendous problem," Levy conceded.

Golden Gate Airlift Wing Leaves Hamilton

The 349th Military Airlift Wing completed its move from Hamilton Air Force Base today, ending a colorful 10-year history at the base.

The reserve wing — known as the Golden Gate Wing — was officially welcomed this morning to Travis Air Force Base where the wing was transferred after it was returned to reserve status last month. About 1,000 men were returned to reserve status.

During its stay at Hamilton, the Golden Gate Wing was called to active duty twice — once during the 1962 Cuban Crisis and again after the Pueblo was seized in January 1968.

The wing also flew emergency missions in domestic crises such as blizzards.

KENNEDY

family of Miss Kopechne," Mansfield said. He added he had not talked with Kennedy.

Mansfield said he expects Kennedy to return to the Senate. "He's a senator and he has a responsibility," Mansfield said.

Mansfield also said that so far as he is concerned Kennedy will remain the party whip for the remainder of this Congress, which would include the 1970 session.

He was asked whether the accident might cause a change in the status of Kennedy as assistant leader, to which he was elected in January.

"That's up to the Democrats in the Senate," Mansfield replied. When a reporter pointed out that leadership changes usually are made only at the beginning of a new Congress, Mansfield agreed that was true.

Kennedy, who was forced by poor weather to take the family boat to Martha's Vineyard, flew back to the compound after the court appearance.

By pleading guilty, Kennedy sidestepped the possibility of having to answer questions in court about circumstances surrounding the accident in which Mary Jo Kopechne, a 28-year-old Washington secretary, drowned when a car driven by the senator plunged into a tidal pond on Chappaquiddick Island, which lies across a small channel from Martha's Vineyard.

Kennedy, 37, stood with his eyes cast down as the suspended jail term was announced to the court, which was jammed with more than 150 newsmen and spectators.

Kennedy, whose driver's license was suspended Wednesday pending a Registry of Motor Vehicles hearing, was driving his sedan when it went off a rail-less wooden humpback bridge sometime between 11:15 p.m. Friday and 1 a.m. Saturday and plunged into eight feet of water in a tidal pond.

In a statement which appeared to startle both Walter Steele, special prosecutor for Dukes County, and Kennedy's attorneys, Judge Boyle asked, "Has there been any deliberate attempt to conceal the identity of the defendant?"

Police Chief Dominick J. Arena, looking surprised, responded, "Not to my knowledge."

Kennedy's attorney of record, Richard J. McCarron of Edgartown attempted to make a statement to the court, saying "There are legal defenses which could be made in this case."

The judge abruptly cut him off and snapped, "His plea of guilty is a concession. I don't think the defendant then should try to make a defense."

Then the judge asked McCarron, "Are there mitigating circumstances?"

"The defendant is adamant in this matter of pleading guilty," the lawyer said.

In asking for a suspended sentence, McCarron—who describes himself as a "country lawyer"—told the court, "I believe his (Kennedy's) character is well known to this court, country and the world."

Prosecutor Steele asked the judge that the U.S. Senate Whip "be incarcerated in the house of correction for two months" but that the sentence be suspended. Steele added, "I believe the sense of justice would be best served with a suspended sentence."

Arena recapped some of the circumstances surrounding the accident. Kennedy never once looked up as the police chief spoke of the tragic accident. Later Arena said, "As far as I'm concerned the case is closed."

The police chief reiterated previous statements that there was no finding of "negligence on the part of the defendant."

Kennedy, accompanied by his wife Joan, motored to the courthouse in a sedan after sailing to this resort island aboard the family cruiser Marlin when heavy overcast skies and a light rain rolled over Cape Cod, threatening plane flights.

Mrs. Kennedy appeared relaxed and composed as she sat on a wooden bench about 10 feet across the courtroom from her husband.

When Kennedy entered the second floor courtroom through a side door, he walked in front of the bench and took his seat alone. He put his head in his hands and stared at the floor.

Kennedy, who wore a neck brace Tuesday when he and his wife attended the Pennsylvania funeral of Miss Kopechne because he strained neck muscles in the accident, wore no braces today.

Bolinas Board Meet

The Bolinas Harbor District board will meet at 10 a.m., tomorrow in the district office in Bolinas to discuss its proposed 1969-70 budget.

NIXON

splashdown in Honolulu.

The President spoke to newsmen on Guam, where he rested after watching the Apollo 11 splashdown in the Pacific. He set down a rule that barred the use of direct quotations.

Aside from the situation in Asia, President Nixon also touched on the possibility of a summit conference with the leaders of the Soviet Union but said this would be useful only if it could score a breakthrough toward settlements of conflicts in Vietnam or the Middle East, or an arms control pact. He said he saw no prospect now of such a meeting.

What role the Asian leaders would like the United States to play in their area after the Vietnam war is a principal item on Nixon's discussion list for his tour.

The United States, of course, will keep its treaty commitments with Asians, he said. But, he added, it must avoid a policy that will make countries in Asia so dependent that the United States is dragged into conflicts such as Vietnam.

He conceded that this is a difficult line to follow.

The President expressed belief that the time has come for the United States to be emphatic on two points:

That the United States keep treaty commitments, for example, with Thailand under the Southeast Asia Treaty organization.

That in so far as military defense is concerned—except for a threat from a major power involving nuclear weapons—the United States will encourage and expect Asians themselves to take care of this responsibility.

At another point, Nixon said he wanted to be sure that U.S. policies all over the world will reduce U.S. involvement. He said that the United States always will be ready to lend assistance but his administration favors less actual involvement by American personnel.

Police Arrest Burglar Suspect

Luck ran out last night for a youthful burglary suspect in the habit of leaving police little notes, signed in one case with the name "Ronald Reagan."

Booked into Juvenile Hall by San Rafael officers today was Kip Einer Kelgard, 15, of 1706 Fifth Street.

Police accused him of stealing $2000 worth of equipment from San Rafael High School Sunday, West End Elementary School Monday, and Marin Cameras, 1016 B Street, yesterday.

He was picked up shortly after midnight hiding in Charlie's Market on Fourth Street with a pair of wire cutters by patrolmen on a routine check of the business district.

In one burglary the thief left a note saying, "Thank you very much for all the nice toys," signed with the Governor's name. In another he wrote, "It looks like I pulled the wool over your eyes. You should be onto me by now."

Loot recovered from a loft over Kelgard's garage included cameras, TV sets, a projector, copying machine and two stereo sets among other goods.

The arrest was made when Patrolman Barxdall W. Stinson noticed a wire screen missing from the store's rear window.

OBITUARIES

Martha McNally Dies At 68

Martha E. McNally, a Marin resident for 60 years, died yesterday in a local hospital. She was 68.

Mrs. McNally, of 730 Sunset Parkway, Novato, was the widow of Emerson O. McNally, who was a surveyor. Mrs. McNally was a retired Marin County court clerk. She was a native of Yuba City.

She was a member of the San Rafael Circle 137 of the United Order of Druids.

Survivors are a daughter, Marjory L. Valim of Novato, and a son, Emerson B. (Mickey) McNally, also of Novato, and five grandchildren.

Funeral will be at 2 p.m. tomorrow at the Harry M. Williams Mortuary, San Rafael. Burial will be private.

APOLLO

their wives by radiotelephone.

A smiling, clapping, shouting President Richard M. Nixon, aboard the Hornet to deliver his congratulations personally, had to use an intercommunications system to converse with the spacemen as they stood at a window of the isolation trailer, called a Mobile Quarantine Facility (MQF).

Nixon declared that no week since the Creation had changed the world more than this one.

The world now is larger, he said, and added that he expects his globe-circling trip in the next 10 days to demonstrate that, because of man's first footsteps on the moon, "the world has never been closed together."

Samples of the moon's crust gathered by the astronauts had already reached the Lunar Receiving Laboratory (LRL) in Houston, Tex., today. Tests start immediately in an effort to answer scientific questions that man has been asking for ages.

As Dr. Carpentier delivered his report through the MQF window, Aldrin could be seen behind him, stretched out in an easy chair, his feet up on a table in the dining area.

While the spacemen, the doctor, and a technician quarantined with them to keep the MQF systems going, must pass the hours cooped up in the MQF, the world outside heaps tribute upon the Apollo triumph.

Plans for a joint session of Congress honoring the astronauts were announced in Washington. Cables of congratulations from other countries poured into the White House.

The Hornet, steaming for Hawaii, was expected to arrive at about 11 a.m. PDT tomorrow.

The MQF will be tucked into an Air Force transport for the long flight to Ellington Air Force Base near the Space Center. There the men shift to the spacious Lunar Receiving Laboratory for the remainder of the quarantine period.

Mail Sack Stolen At Strawberry Center

Theft of $226 in cash and mail left in a sack in the Strawberry shopping Center for about 20 minutes Wednesday was reported today by the sheriff's department.

Deputies said a mailman left the sack by a mail box between 5:10 an 5:30 p.m., and when he returned to get it, the contents had been removed.

JAMES GILROY

James William Gilroy of San Rafael, an auto salesman in San Francisco, died today of a lingering illness in a San Francisco hospital. He was 23.

Survivors are his parents, Mr. and Mrs. James William Gilroy of 241 Prospect Drive, San Rafael.

Requiem Mass will be offered at 10:30 a.m. at St. Raphael's Church Mission Chapel, with burial in Mount Olivet Cemetery. The Rosary will be recited at 8:15 p.m. today at Harry M. Williams Mortuary, San Rafael.

DELOS WATSON

Funeral for Delos F. Watson, a carpenter who had lived in Marin for 28 years, will be at 10:30 a.m. tomorrow at Keaton's Mortuary, San Rafael, followed by private burial.

Watson, 65, of 110 Hawthrone Street, Santa Venetia, died yesterday at his home following a short illness.

A native of Wisconsin, he had lived in Minneapolis before moving to Marin. He was a member of Carpenters Union Local 35.

Survivors are his mother, Rose Watson of Sonoma; three brothers, Leonard Watson of Novato; Victor Watson of Walnut Creek, and Clare Watson of St. Paul, Minn., and one sister, June Frey of Sonoma.

Memorial contributions may be made to the Heart Fund.

BERGER STOCKFLETH

Funeral for Berger Stockfleth, 80, a retired engineer and naval officer, was held today in San Francisco. Inurnment followed at Cypress Lawn Memorial Park, Colma.

Stockfleth, who lived with his wife, Alma, at 16 Old Landing Road in Tiburon, died in a San Francisco hospital Wednesday after a nine-week illness.

A native of Chicago, he had lived in Marin County since 1941.

During World War II, Stockfleth was called on, even though he was then 53 years old, to take charge of assembly and repair operations at the Alameda Naval Air Station.

He was cited by Navy Secretary James Forrestal for greatly increasing the efficiency of airplane repair operations at the air station by instituting a production-line repair system.

He held the rank of commander in the Navy.

After the war, he was secretary and chief engineer of the C-A Company, a farm equipment manufacturing firm, in Riverbank, Modesto County, for several years.

Stockfleth was a former member of the Engineers Club and the Retired Officers Club.

Besides his wife, he is survived by two sons, Theodore of Chicago and Russell of Manitowoc, Wis., and a brother, Dr. Fredrick Stockfleth of Mercer Island, Wash.

The family prefers that memorial contributions be made to Lutheran Care for the Aging or the Good Shepherd Home of Terra Bella, Tulare County.

JOHN TEIXERIA

John Teixeria, 78, a retired custodian and lifetime resident of Marin County, died at a local convalescent hospital yesterday after a long illness.

Teixeria had lived in several convalescent hospitals since his retirement several years ago.

A native of Sausalito, he worked for many yars as a custodian for Marin County.

There are no immediate survivors.

Funeral arrangements ere being handled by Keaton's Mortuary in San Rafael.

MRS. RANDALL

Marguerite E. Randall, 78, a Marin County resident for 13 years and a lifetime resident of California, died in a local hospital yesterday after a long illness.

Mrs. Randall lived with her husband, Richard Ray Randall, at Edgemont Way in Inverness.

A native of Challenge Mills, Yuba County, Mrs. Randall was a member of St. Columba's Episcopal Church in Inverness.

Besides her husband, she is survived by a daughter, Mrs. Virinda Steig of Berkeley, and a son, Richard H. Randall of Geneva, Switzerland.

Private memorial services will be held tomorrow. Burial will be private.

The family prefers that memorial contributions be made to St. Columba's Episcopal Church Memorial Fund, Inverness.

San Rafael Hirings To Raise Budget

The San Rafael city council last night approved the hiring of additional personnel in several departments which, combined with new personnel already approved for other departments, will increase by about $200,000 the tentative operating budget of $3,728,701.

The action came in the final session on the operating budget. A review of the capital improvements budget, which has not been completed, is planned for early in August.

A lengthy discussion brought about no change in the city recreation department's proposed expenditure of $150,000.

Andrew J. Snyder, director of parks and recreation, appeared before the council to defend the recreation department's request, which represents about a $25,000 increase, mostly for personnel, over last year's $137,433 budget. Snyder told the council that an additional full-time and typist clerk are needed.

But council expressed doubts about the need for an additional supervisor. According to Mayor C. Paul Bettini, indications have been strong that the San Rafael school district intends to withdraw from the city's recreation program.

Charles Condrotte, business manager of the San Rafael district school, said today that the district board has given the city council one year's notice of its intention to withdraw from the recreation program because of tight funds, but that no final decision has been made.

Funds for the recreation program from the school district amounted to $24,471 last year and will be about the same this year.

"There will be a reduction in the program if the schools get out, yet we're gearing ourselves for a larger program," the mayor said.

But Snyder insisted an additional supervisor was necessary to help coordinate and expand teen programs, and Ron Koller, now the only recreation supervisor, predicted an increase in juvenile problems if "council holds back on funds now."

"But I don't like to see us build up a full-time staff when we don't know what's happening next year," City Mgr. Dan E. Andersen said, referring to the possible withdrawal of school district funds.

The council then approved the $150,000 budget but stipulated that the hiring of the new supervisor should be done on a temporary basis since the need for a personnel buildup could not be substantiated.

The council also acted on budgets in three other areas including the finance department, library and street trees and parkways.

A library budget of $158,426 (last year's $146,542) was approved after council provided an additional $3,500 for consultant's fees for an initial survey on library expansion.

Vivian Smith, head librarian, requested council to provide funds for a survey of library needs and a study of the building with the possibility of establishing branches.

The finance department budget request of $38,495 (last year's $30,721) was approved without change. Plans for m new electronic accounting system caused the major part of the increase.

Only minor changes were made in the street trees and parkways budget as council approved a sum of $79,511 (last year's $72,490) which included funds for hiring an additional groundsman.

Also approved was $123,690 (last year's $108,240) parks budget.

Councilman John A. Miskimen was absent.

Marin City Council Warily Eyes Proposed $3 Million Project

With the current developer on the threshhold of eviction, the Marin City Council last night cautiously eyed a $13 million alternative proposal for the development of Marin City.

The council got only the briefest of looks at the proposal since Ulysses J. Montgomery, the San Francisco urban consultant who made the proposal, didn't arrive at the meeting until 9:45 p.m. and the session was adjourned at 10 p.m. when the Manzanita Center closed.

The current developer of Marin City, the Marin Development Co. (formerly the California Development Corp.) has come under repeated attack for its failure to make and move forward since it was given development rights six years ago.

Many Marin City residents have demanded that the Marin County Redevelopment Agency declare the firm in default of its commitment and open up the area to other developers. A meeting is scheduled for the redevelopment agency at 8 p.m. Wednesday at Manzanita Center and a decision is expected at that time.

In his 15-minute report, Montgomery told the council that his plan called for a three-phase development over a three-year period.

Phase one includes 123 multi-family housing units, 40 single-family units and a neighborhood shopping center. Total cost of the first phase would be $4,250,000, Montgomery said, with the shopping center costing "about $250,000."

Phase two would include 123 multi-family units, and 39 single-family units at an estimated cost of $3,750,000.

The final phase would be a science industrial park at an estimated cost of $5 million.

Montgomery said that all of the funds could be available through federal programs and grants.

Montgomery told the council the program should be developed by a nonprofit community development association, owned and controlled by Marin City residents. He said the Marin City Council, already a nonprofit organization, could administer the program or could set up a subsidiary to do it.

To speed up the planning and construction time, Montgomery said, the Fillmore Community Development Association, a black-owned nonprofit sponsor of Urban Renewal Housing Projects could cosponsor the project with the Marin City nonprofit association.

The council took no action on Montgomery's proposal other than to invite him back Aug. 28, the date of a special meeting which was set to allow anybody with plans for development of businesses to outline their projects.

At least one council member, Ronald Foster, appeared cool to the plan even before he heard it, however.

During discussion prior to Montgomery's arrival, Foster said that Montgomery ". . . had left a bad taste in the community's mouth." Foster was about to expand on his statement when several other council members asked him to hold his comments until Montgomery was at the meeting to defend himself or his plans. The issue never came up after Montgomery arrived.

Widow Of Rocket Pioneer Sees A Bright Future

WORCESTER, Mass. (AP) — "I am blessed to have seen part of his dream fulfilled today," said the widow of rocketry pioneer Robert Goddard as three astronauts came home from the moon.

"I can do no less than to express the conviction that the rest will follow," Mrs. Esther Goddard said yesterday.

Mrs. Goddard said her husband first published findings on jet propulsion mentioned only the moon as a goal.

Goddard pondered the possibility of using solar energy for interplanetary travel, Mrs. Goddard said, and discussed the emigration of the human race to another solar system as our sun grows colder.

Mrs. Goddard spoke at a meeting in her honor.

Rod And Reel Strongarmed From Two Boys

Two teen-agers, described as hippies by police, strongarmed two San Anselmo boys, aged 9 and 11, yesterday for 21 cents and a rod and reel, Fairfax police reported today.

The victims of the attack under the bridge at the Marin Town and Country Club yesterday were Larry Reuss, 11, of 39 Bennett Avenue, son of Sgt. George Reuss of the Marin County Sheriff's Office, and Billy Adams, 9, son of Mr. and Mrs. William D. Adams of 52 Hillcrest Court.

Fairfax police said young Reuss was struck in the side of the face by one of the older boys but neither child apparently was hurt.

The rod and reel, worth $45, was taken from Larry and the 21 cents was taken from Billy, police said.

Girl Bruised As Car Rams Parked Auto

Patricia Barker, 16, of 37 Madrone Avenue, San Anselmo, was treated last night at Marin General Hospital for multiple bruises suffered when her car rammed a parked auto at 32 Fern Lane in San Anselmo, police reported today.

Two young girls, ages 12 and 14, who were riding with Miss Barker were uninjured in the accident at 8:28 p.m.

Carpets Taken

The Condiotti Construction Co., building homes off South McDowell Boulevard, Petaluma, told police yesterday that two rolls of carpeting valued at $1,000 had been stolen from a house under construction.

MARK OF EXCELLENCE
No. 6 in a quiet series of timely announcements published on behalf of the Bay Area Olds dealers.

(If you'd like to slip into an Olds Cutlass...)
you can't afford to pass up the Quiet Clean-Up Sale.

Calmly and quietly, we'll just state the simple facts:
Your Bay Area Olds dealers have a lot of nice new 1969 Oldsmobiles to sell. All kinds—Delta 88s, Cutlasses, Ninety-Eights and Toronados.
And there's not much selling time left.
So—they're having a sale. Quietly. No hoopla. No hysterics.
Just healthy savings on all cars, to help move the merchandise quick.
When you're selling a fine car like Oldsmobile, to Bay Area people who know good values when they see them, that's enough said.
The Quiet Clean-Up sale is on. Now it's your move.

(Pssst: Someone's going to win a Toronado—it could be you, if you're 18 or older and have a valid California driver's license. Come in, get the details, and register at your Bay Area Olds dealer's on or before August 17.)

Quietly, quickly, contact your favorite Bay Area Olds dealer.
Before everybody else snaps up his best Oldsmodeals.

APOLLO 11 CAPSULE AWAITS RECOVERY

As the Hornet (background) approaches in the early morning light of yesterday, the Apollo 11 command module floats in the Pacific, awaiting final recovery operation. The three astronauts had already been picked up by helicopter from raft at left. (See other pictures, stories, pages 1 and 10).

Next Major Decision— Mars Flight

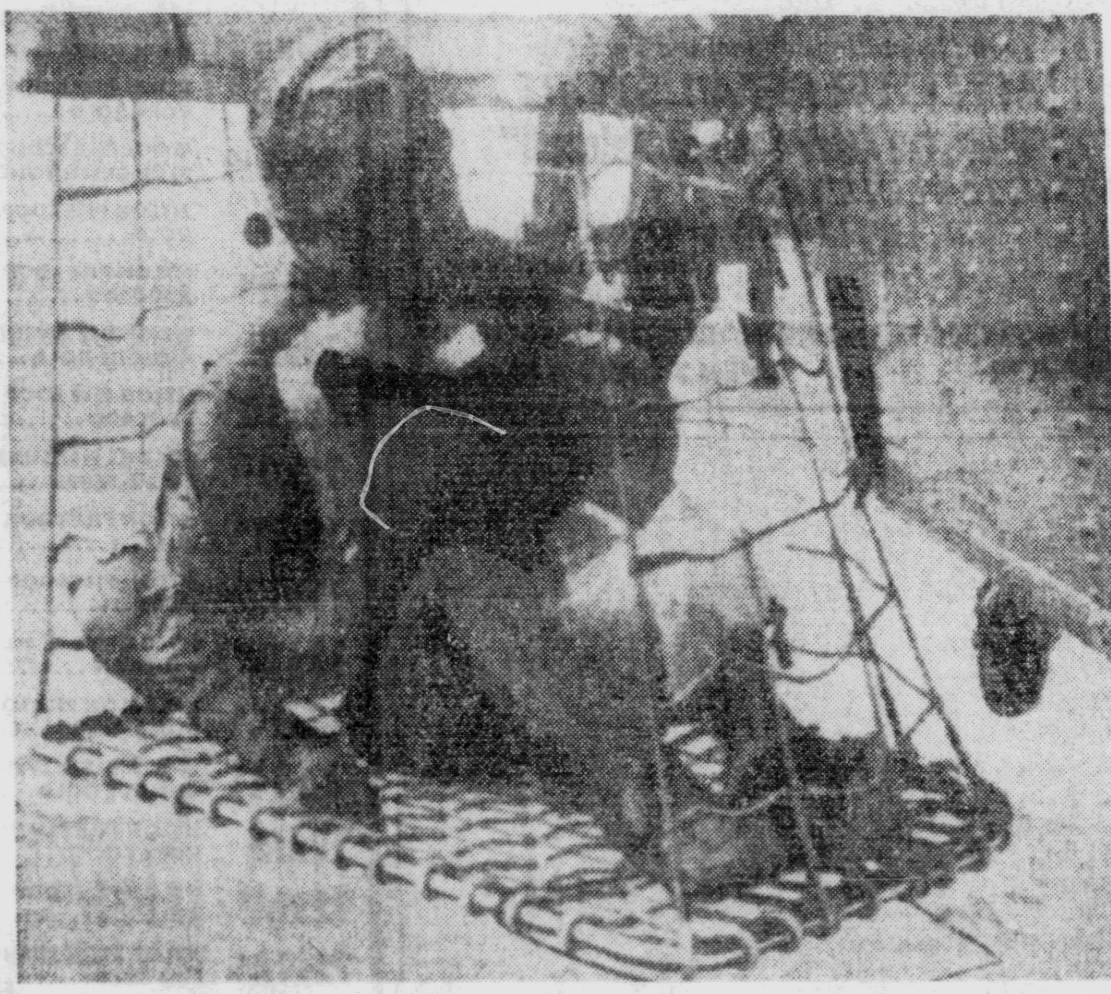
SPACE CENTER, Houston (UPI)—Man's next major space exploration should be to the planet Mars, a high space agency official said after Apollo 11's safe return from the moon.

Dr. George E. Mueller, associate administrator for manned space flight, said the "next major goal" in the space program should be "almost certainly to the planet Mars."

Apollo 11 proved man can reach farther out into the universe and America has the resources to get the job done sometime after 1980, Mueller said yesterday. What is needed, he said, is a decision, the greatest decision in the history of earth.

"The will of the people of this nation and of the world will determine whether mankind will make the great leap to the planets."

As for missions to Mars, Mueller said costs, schedule and strategy would have to be considered first. Then, he said, a decision would have to be made—whether to try to go and when—based on those considerations.



LIFTED INTO COPTER—Apollo 11 astronaut Neil Armstrong, already outfitted in his quarantine gear, rides a chairlift into the recovery helicopter following splashdown in the Pacific.

Mariner 6, 7 Zipping Toward Mars

PASADENA (AP) — While the nation celebrates Apollo 11 moon mission triumph, two unmanned spacecraft, Mariner 6 and 7, are zipping toward Mars to give earth's television viewers another space spectacular.

Mariner 6 is expected to beam back pictures of Mars from 2,000 miles from the surface next Tuesday, images that will take five and one-half minutes to travel the six million miles.

Mariner 7 is to start sending pictures back on Aug. 3. The pictures are expected to reveal new details of the planet.

A spokesman for the Jet Propulsion Laboratory, part of the National Aeronautics and Space Administration, said yesterday both Mariner missions are right on schedule.

Mars was televised by Mariner 4 in 1965, but NASA engineers promise pictures far higher in quality from Mariners 6 and 7 than was possible four years ago.

"The really important keys to our progress are the improvements in the spacecraft and the ground receiver. We have been able to increase transmitter power, raising the strength of the signal on its journey to earth," said Gerald M. Truzynski, NASA's associate administrator for tracking and data acquisition.

Since their launching, the Mariners have completed one experiment successfully. This was direct measurement in deep space of the sun's heat.

Moon Rocks Arrive At Lab Under Top Security Care

SPACE CENTER, Houston (UPI)—Sixty pounds of the moon arrive under elaborate security wraps today for the start of one of history's greatest scientific investigations.

Scientists gathered from around the world for the arrival of two planes at nearby Ellington Air Force Base with the rock and dirt samples Neil A. Armstrong and Edwin E. "Buzz" Aldrin picked up on the moon.

It is indicative of how highly prized the rock samples are that they are being sent in two planes. Space agency officials explain in case something happens to one of the aircraft there will still be another load.

Tightest security was planned to the rocks's arrival.

The rocks were left in the Apollo 11 Columbia command module when Armstrong, Aldrin and Michael Collins splashed down in the Pacific yesterday. Once the module was aboard the carrier Hornet, the samples were loaded on the aircraft and started on their journey to the LRL, an $11-million building here where the astronauts will also spend their 18-day quarantine.

The rocks will first be tested to determine if any alien substances in or on them can harm man. Because of this, all testing of the samples will be done in the LRL and a 50-day quarantine was imposed on the specimens.

Vacuum chambers and biological isolation cabinets will be "home" for the rocks for the next month and a half. Under the vacuum conditions similar to those in which they existed on the moon, many tests will be made before the samples are allowed to be tested in the open air.

White mice, minnows and plants raised in germ-free environments will be exposed to the rocks. If anything happens to the organisms, it may be an indication harmful substances are contained in the rocks.

Once scientists feel sure there is no danger, the rocks will be sliced into thin layers at the LRL. Parts of the samples will be ground up and sent to 142 of the world's top scientists who will conduct tests in their own special fields.

The rocks, however, are considered U.S. government property and although they are loaned to the scientists they must be returned to the space agency when the tests are completed.

Columbus believed that his name, Christopher, "the Christ bearer," was a symbol and that he was destined to carry the Christian faith to untaught lands.

Corte Madera Youth Get Break On Tennis

Children should not be prohibited from using the tennis courts at Corte Madera Town Park on weekends, the town's park and recreation commission has decided.

The commission Wednesday voted to eliminate the "adults only" regulation at the courts during a review of the town's tennis court rules.

The Corte Madera Park and Recreation Commission also:

EQUIPMENT — Received a request from Frank L. Nelson, fire chief, for the addition of a slide and merry-go-round type attraction at the town park.

LANDSCAPING — Directed Arthur N. Morrison, director of public works, to develop plans and prepare estimates for landscaping of Village Square island.

YOUTH — Heard a report on a proposed youth center to be housed at the old Sanitary District 2 structure next to the town park. Youth representatives requested to inspect the site and the commission directed Morrison to draw up plans for renovation of the building and report back at the next commission meeting, Aug. 27.

Pacific Crosser In San Diego

SAN DIEGO (AP) — Sharon Sites Adams piloted her 31-foot ketch into San Diego Harbor at 9:02 a.m. today, the first woman to sail across the Pacific Ocean alone.

The slender, 39-year-old California housewife traveled 6,000 miles from Yokohama, Japan. During the 74-day journey, her tiny boat was tossed by seven gales and 20-foot waves.

The pink sails of her boat fluttered in soft breezes as Mrs. Adams ended the long, lonely trip during which she was out of contact for weeks at a time.

A reception, with plenty of champagne and other delicacies was planned for Shelter Island, center of the pleasure boat marinas in San Diego.

Reagan Pays Tribute To Country Music

SACRAMENTO (UPI)—Gov. Ronald Reagan, who played "The Old Ranger" on television's "Death Valley Dawys," yesterday declared Sept. 8-14 Country and Western Music Week in California.

The governor acted on a legislative resolution authored by Assemblyman Eugene A. Chappie, R-Cool.

Jackie Watches Landing Via TV

SKORPIOS ISLAND, Greece (AP) — Mrs. Aristotle Onassis watched the Apollo 11 splash-down on a portable television while cruising in the Ionian Sea off the Italian coast.

A spokesman for the Onassis' yacht Christina said, "Mrs. Onassis is out at sea and not immediately available for comment."

Her late husband, President John F. Kennedy, launched the moon project eight years ago.

Muir Beach Development Check Sought

A couple of Muir Beach residents, alarmed that the natural resort area might be destroyed by over development, are trying to induce the state to go easy on concrete and chain link fencing.

Developer Leslie Smith and commercial photographer Bruce Harlow, who went to Sacramento to see William Penn Mott yesterday, said they were encouraged by the "sympathetic and friendly" attitude of the state director of parks and recreation.

"Mr. Mott suggested a citizen advisory committee be set up as a liaison between citizens of Marin and the state beaches and parks," said Smith. "We're afraid the state will pave the area with concrete for parking and put a chain link fence around the beach. We feel that a kinder and better treatment is possible for the beach."

Smith and Harlow announced they plan to meet with their supervisor, Michael Wornum, and suggest that the Marin County Board of Supervisors appoint a citizens advisory committee. This committee could then keep in touch with the state, suggesting guidelines for the development, not only of Muir Beach but also of Stinson Beach and other state-owned recreational areas, said Smith.

"We oppose concrete paving and chain link fences. We'd rather see Muir Beach left as it is for public enjoyment of its natural beauty."

Marin Road Record Judged Best In North Coast Area

Marin County's road department had the best safety record among departments of six north coast counties during the last fiscal year, it was revealed yesterday.

A first place award was presented at a meeting of the Marin Safety Commission by Clem Slater of Bolinas, representing the State Compensation Insurance Fund. Other counties in the northcoast region are Humboldt, Sonoma, Mendocino, Lake and Napa.

The commission appointed Richard Uchida, county personnel analyst, as vice chairman. Uchida succeeds Michael King, former deputy public works director, who resigned to take a job in Hawaii.

The commission reviewed six accidents involving county employees and found three of them preventable, but none serious enough to deserve reprimands.

Rivas Son Indicted In Murder Case

The Marin County Grand Jury last night indicted Ronald Rivas, 20, of Novato on a charge of murdering his father at their Novato home July 17.

The indictment removes the necessity for a preliminary hearing in municipal court which had been set for next Tuesday. Rivas' attorney, Robert D. Carrow, had earlier objected to the date for the preliminary asking an earlier one since he feared the case would be taken to the grand jury.

He said he would be barred from a grand jury hearing.

Rivas, who is being held in Marin County Jail without bail, will be arraigned in Superior Court Monday.

He is charged with fatally shooting his father, Fidel Ibarra Rivas, 46,,during a family argument.

Borman Predicts A Walk On Mars

HONOLULU (AP) — Apollo 8 commander astronaut Frank Borman, who watched the Apollo 11 splashdown with President Richard M. Nixon, says Americans will eventually walk on Mars.

"It's inevitable," he said yesterday, "but I can't give you a timetable. It depends on the nation's priorities."

Borman said Mars would be the likely choice for man's first interplanetary visit because "Jupiter is 700 degrees and Venus is rather inhospitable."

Hub Chamber Aid Sought For Plaza

The San Anselmo Chamber of Commerce board was asked yesterday to back a proposal to convert city parking lot "A" into a city plaza.

The proposal was made by Everett Farey, who delivered a summary of recommendations that grew out of the San Anselmo Town Meeting in May.

A chamber of commerce committee was assigned to investigate the proposal and also four others from Farey.

He urged the chamber to request the city council to order that vacant property be maintained in a neat fashion; asked support of a plan to keep San Anselmo stores open one night a week; requested an investigation of the possibility of opening a craft store in San Anselmo run by youths or retired persons, and sought support of a plan for express commute buses linking Marin and San Francisco.

The board announced it will meet again next Thursday, but then will discontinue sessions for the month of August.

Wives Know Their Lives Changed Now

SPACE CENTER, Houston (AP) — Families of the Apollo 11 heroes began a new life today, accepting congratulations from around the world for the historic moon mission.

"I like my life the way it is now but I know that from now on it will be changed, at least for a while," said Mrs. Edwin E. Aldrin Jr., wife of the second man to set foot on the moon. "I hope we, my husband and I and our children, come back to the life we have now after a while."

MRS. EDWIN E. ALDRIN
Awaiting arrival . . .

MRS. MICHAEL COLLINS
. . . of Apollo 11 husbands

"VERY HAPPY"

"I'm a very happy and proud woman," said Mrs. Michael Collins.

She added that she would not even fuss at her husband for the unexpected appearance of a mustache after the splashdown. "It's all right with me," she said. "He can keep it if he wants to."

"I think what he did was very, very great," Mrs. Neil A. Armstrong said of her husband, first man on the moon. "He and Buzz and Mike. I'm terribly, terribly proud of them."

The three wives had a prominent spokesman appearing for them when the three astronauts reached the aircraft carrier Hornet.

SPEAKS FOR WIVES

"I speak for three of the most courageous ladies in the world —your wives. I bring you their love and their congratulations," said the stand-in, President Richard M. Nixon.

The President then invited the astronauts and their wives to a state dinner in Los Angeles Aug. 13 after the 21-day quarantine which began the day the lunar module Eagle lifted them from the moon's surface.

"If the President is kind enough to invite us anywhere we will be happy to go," said Mrs. Collins.

Each home of the astronauts had its own private celebration last night with fellow astronauts and close friends making up the guest list. Their telephones rang constantly, and telegram and flower deliveries were frequent.

JOINT PARTY

Later they were guests of honor at a more public "splashdown party" thrown by space industries.

A ballroom ceiling had a moon-like decoration, bathed in blue light. Among the 12,000 pastries on the snack tables was a huge cookie inscribed "one small step for man, one giant leap for mankind," Armstrong's words, the first spoken on the moon.

Mrs. Armstrong said after the landing: "We received thousands of messages from well-wishers all over the world . . . . The kindness and faith of everyone has been a big help."

From the Society of American Florists she received a floral display that depicted a boot print on the surface of the moon. The industry organization said its gift was "a token of love from the American people."

The first firm commitment the wives have made in the coming days will be a trip early Sunday morning to Ellington Air Force Base to meet the plane bringing home their astronaut husbands in the quarantine trailer.

Splashdown Uncorks Giant Celebrations

By ASSOCIATED PRESS

With pealing bells and wailing sirens, hoarse cheers and popping firecrackers, champagne celebrations and solemn prayers, an exultant nation saluted the safe return of its Apollo 11 astronauts.

Americans in tiny crossroads towns and in sprawling concrete cities focused their attention on television screens yesterday to watch the splashdown of the spacecraft carrying the first men to walk the moon. Others listened to radio broadcasts.

CELEBRATIONS

Then the voyage of astronauts Neil A. Armstrong, Edwin E. Aldrin Jr. and Michael Collins which captured the world's imagination for eight days was over and the celebrating began.

Civil defense sirens everywhere in Los Angeles County except the City of Los Angeles wailed a two minute tribute. Church bells chimed along Fifth Avenue in New York. Ticker tape fluttered down in San Francisco.

In Armstrong's home town of Wapakoneta, Ohio, the high school band appeared in front of his parents' home on Neil Armstrong Drive and played a seranade. "Oh, bless their hearts!" said Mrs. Stephen Armstrong, the astronaut's mother.

ALDRIN TRIBUTE

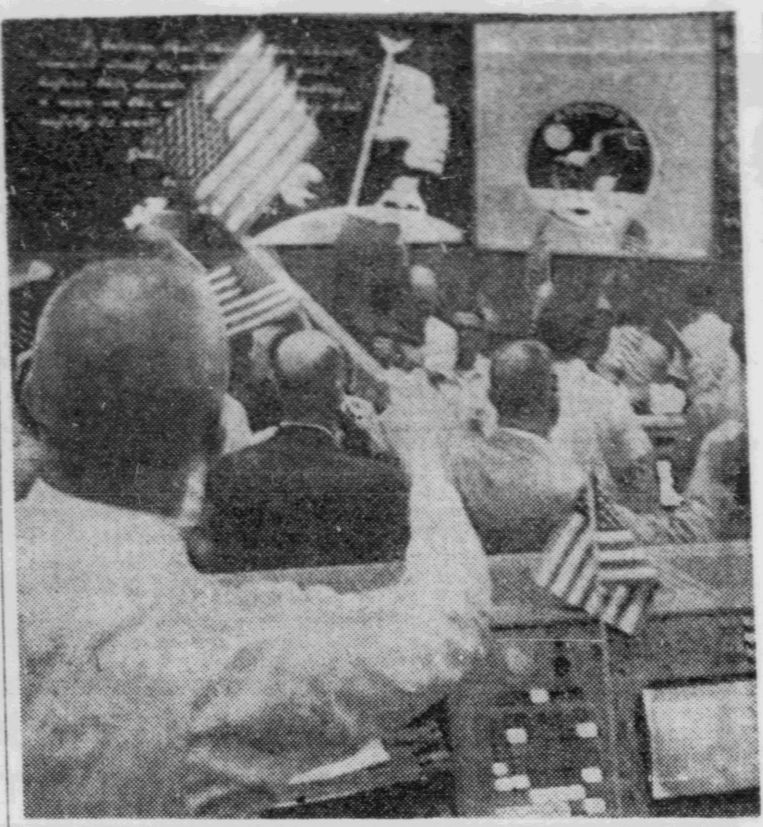
In Montclair, N.J., the Claridge Theater took down the letters on its marquee advertising the current attraction and replaced them with: "Congratulations Buzz Aldrin—Montclair Man on the Moon."

Thousands on their lunch hour in New York City jammed sidewalks in front of television showrooms to view the end of the epic adventure.

Cheers erupted on the floors of the New York and American Stock Exchanges and the tape that normally carries the price quotations flashed: "Astronauts Armstrong, Aldrin and Collins, so proudly we hail you."

In St. Patrick's Cathedral, Terence Cardinal Cooke celebrated a mass of thanksgiving.

A cubic foot of ice weighs 56 pounds while a cubic foot of fresh water weighs about 62 pounds.



FLAGS WAVE AT CENTER

The mission control center crew in Houston breaks into flag waving jubilation following the successful splashdown of Apollo 11 in the Pacific.

Warren Calls For New Look At Goals, Including Space

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Former Chief Justice Earl Warren called for a reappraisal of the nation's priorities, including the space program yesterday.

"Now that we have pierced outer space to the moon, it is time to reappraise," the spending of $20-30 billion on a space program when the nation faces "domestic problems which are at the crisis stage," Warren said.

He spoke shortly after the Apollo 11 splashdown.

"Given the same dedication of effort and appropriations" as the Apollo 11 mission "the country has the ability to accomplish in the area of human relations that which we have received in the area of scientific endeavor," he added.

"The problems of city slums, and air pollution . . . have increased geometrically," Warren told 1,500 persons attending a thanksgiving service at Grace Cathedral to honor the successful Apollo 11 mission.

Mayor Joseph Alioto said, "The moon is a majestic milestone on man's quest for the stars and it is a dramatic reminder of how far we have to go in the heavens as well as here on earth."

Meanwhile, horns honked, firecrackers popped and ticker tape fluttered from Montgomery Street buildings in the financial district as part of a celebration urged by Alioto.

The city's Civil Defense network blasted its sirens for four minutes and church bells rang.

Aldrin's Father Hits Quarantine

BRIELLE, N.J. (AP) — Col. Edwin E. Aldrin Sr., has ridiculed the quarantine his son and the other two Apollo 11 astronauts must undergo.

The 73-year-old retired colonel told a news conference yesterday that some precautions of the quarantine were the work of "some medicos" and the "long-haired guys."

"Sometime in the future they are going to have to laugh at some of the stuff we do now," he said after the Apollo 11 splashdown.

Sees Use Of Lunar Ores

SACRAMENTO, (UPI)—Prof. Hermann J. Oberth, noted German pioneer aerospace scientist and mentor of Wernher Von Braun, today predicted future moon flights will use lunar material for spaceship construction.

The 75-year-old mathematician, who in 1923 outlined a trip to the moon in a book entitled "The Rocket to Interplanetary Space," discussed future space efforts in an interview with the Sacramento Union.

"I propose manned stations on the moon for future space launches," he said, "using moon material for construction and manufacturing of spaceship materials."

Oberth of Nurnberg, Germany, watched the flight of Apollo 11 on television at his son's home in Sacramento during a visit.

Chipmunks store up food during the summer to eat during ciation, feared the development nating.

Trains Seeking Service Cutback

WASHINGTON (AP) — Western Pacific and Southern Pacific have asked permission to trim their separate passenger trains in the Western states.

Western Pacific told the Interstate Commerce Commission yesterday it wants to halt its last remaining passenger line, the California Zephyr, between San Francisco and Salt Lake City because it lost $4.5 million in the past 2½ years.

SP asked to cut its Cascade line between Portland, Ore., and Oakland to three days a week.

The three-day schedule SP said, was an alternative to discontinuing the Cascade which it claimed lost 2 million dollars during 1968 and early 1969.

Moon Stamps Going Fast In Apollo, Pa.

APOLLO, Pa. (AP) — The post office in this small town already has used up 75,000 commemorative moon stamps and has ordered another 20,000 to meet requests of collectors, Postmaster Harvey Brunner said yesterday.

The town, which has a population of about 1,300 is the only one in the nation with the name Apollo.

SACRAMENTO ROUNDUP

Reagan: No Tax Reform, Then No Adjournment

SACRAMENTO (AP) — Rebellious Assembly Democrats had this message for Republican Gov. Reagan today: "No tax reform — no adjournment."

Democratic Caucus Chairman George Zenovich of Fresno planned a confrontation with the governor to deliver a protest about the inability of GOP legislators to agree on an acceptable tax package.

At a closed session Thursday, Assembly Democrats agreed to oppose adjournment of the legislature until they have a chance to vote on a tax reform package.

Zenovich said the minority Democrats don't have the votes to block a Senate-approved adjournment resolution setting Aug. 8 as the final day for legislative business.

"We're tired of constantly taking the heat in this area," he said.

But solid Democratic opposition to adjournment would put Assembly Republicans — who are squabbling among themsevles over tax reform — on the spot.

Reagan's tax reform package amended by Republican Majority Leader W. Craig Biddle of Riverside, is stalled in the Way and Means Committee. Administration sources said the governor's staff is working on additional amendments to iron out inequities in the amended program.

Zenovich said, however, there has been no move by the Republicans to set the bills for a hearing in the committee. He said that under the Aug. 8 adjournment resolution, next Tuesday would be the last day for the Assembly to pass any of its own bills, without waiving normal rules.

For the past 10 days, Zenovich said, "we (the Democrats) have been accused by the governor, the speaker and Finance Director Caspar Weinberger that we are obstructionists."

"We're tired of constantly taking the heat in this area," he said. "The real fight is between the governor and the Speaker Bob coalition." He was referring to Republican Speaker Robert T. Monagan of Tracy.

CLEARS DOLWIG

SACRAMENTO (UPI)—Sen. Richard J. Dolwig has been cleared by the Legislative Ethics Committee of any illegality in a controversial insurance deal.

After a long day of confusion Thursday, the committee chairman, Assemblyman Harvey Johnson announced: "We have done a lot of investigating. There will be no further investigation. The committee will take no further action."

The committee met behind closed doors during the morning and afterward Johnson told newsmen the six-man panel would conduct a "preliminary investigation" of Dolwig, R-Atherton.

But puzzled committee members later protested to newsmen they already had agreed "the conduct of Sen. Dolwig is not in violation of the (legislature's) code of ethics relating to conflict of interest."

They pointed out committeemen previously signed a statement declaring the group had "reviewed all available relevant facts" and absolved the veteran senator.

When confronted by newsmen and committeemen hours after his original announcement, Johnson admitted his "preliminary investigation" already had been held.

"Be kind to me," the 64-year-old El Monte Democrat told one reporter. "I'm getting old."

The case resulted from a Los Angeles Times story that Dolwig stood to make a $185,000 profit from an investment in an insurance firm under terms of a stock-selling permit issued by the state insurance commissioner. The permit was granted after Dolwig introduced legislation—later dropped—to eliminate top-level administrative assistants in state offices, including Insurance Commissioner Richards Barger's deputy.

WELFARE

SACRAMENTO (UPI)—A bill increasing welfare aid died on the Senate floor Thursday night after some Democrats complained former Gov. Edmund G. Brown was to blame for current "low"payments.

The measure which provided a cost-of-living increase to aid to families with dependent children of $25 a month per child was killed on a 19-14 vote, 8 aye votes short of passage.

Sen. Alfred E. Alquist, D-San Jose, said his bill would have authorized only the second raise in AFDC payments since 1957. He said the other boost totaled $3.

The lawmaker said the aid increase would cost $15 million in state funds.

The Senate also rejected on a 24-9 vote a $7 million Alquist bill raising from $80 to $115 a month the state's share of the per child cost for monthly support of foster children. That bill also required 27 votes for passage.

A similar measure was vetoed last year by Gov. Ronald Reagan.

GUARD DOGS

SACRANENTO (UPI)—Dogs which are leased to guard businesses would have to be registered with local law enforcement agencies under a bill which passed the Assembly 47-11 yesterday and was sent to the Senate.

Assemblyman John Briggs, R-Fullerton, author of the bill, said the dogs should be licensed with the state Bureau of Business and Professional Standards and registered with local law enforcement agencies because they are trained to attack.

He said some firemen or policemen could be injured by the dogs if they entered property not knowing a guard dog was there.

SALARY HIKE

SACRAMENTO (UPI)—A bill raising the state attorney general's salary from $39,132 a year to $42,500 was approved by the Assembly on a 44-14 vote yesterday and sent to the Senate.

Assemblyman William T. Bagley, R-San Rafael, said his measure resolves a conflict in the law which would have reduced the salary to $35,000 beginning Jan. 1, 1971. The new salary level is effective on the same date.

Divorce Law Reforms In Legislature

SACRAMENTO (UPI)—The Legislature today was on the verge of passing the first major overhaul of divorce laws in California history.

Gov. Ronald Reagan assured lawmakers he would sign the bill, written to help the "scarred" children of broken homes.

"This is not a man's law. It is not a woman's law. It is a children's law," said Assemblyman James A. Hayes, R-Long Beach.

Hayes and Sen. Donald L. Grunsky, R-watsonville, are the legislation's authors. The bill passed the Assembly last night, 55-10, after weeks of negotiation.

TO SENATE TODAY

Grunsky planned to take it up on the Senate floor today. He predicted easy final passage.

Here are some of the far-reaching features:

It eliminates adultery as a ground for divorce. Also eliminated is the old standby, "mental cruelty."

There would be only two grounds for divorce: Incurable insanity and "irreconcilable differences."

It no longer legally would be called "divorce." It would be a "dissolution of marriage."

A wife's ability to get a job would be considered by a judge in granting alimony.

Community property would be divided "substantially" in half, unless one spouse had squandered or embezzled holdings.

Counties could set up conciliation courts if they wished, but wouldn't have to. This was a major negotiating point.

Divorces would be granted within six months, instead of a year as at present. The residency requirement also would be cut from a year to six months.

Evidence gathered by evesdropping would be barred from the courtroom.

COURT CLUTTER

"We cannot continue to allow our courts to be cluttered up with the dirty, filthy linen of divorce," said Hayes.

"The best interests of children should be our paramount concern."

Hayes explained the divorce reform would eliminate "hate-filled, lurid, bitter" fights over division of community property in which children often are forced to take sides and are left with life-long frustrations.

The bill was written into final form by a two-house conference committee.

Assemblyman John J. Miller, D-Berkeley, was a member of that committee. But he refused to sign the report.

"All this bill does," he said, "is to make it easier to get a divorce. It's not going to do anything to alleviate the pain and suffering and all the so-called horrible things that are said to go on in courts."

Assemblyman Patrick D. McGee, R-Van Nuys, noting he is a Roman Catholic, countered: "This bill is the greatest step forward in domestic relations in America in 30 years."

If signed by Reagan, as indicated, the bill would go into effect Jan. 1.

There were 280,000 marriages in California last year, but 116,000 divorces. Another 130,000 divorces are predicted for this year.

This doesn't count those Californians who journey across the state line into Nevada for a "quickie" six week divorce — or to Tijuana, Mexico, for an even quicker immediate split.

ICBM Test Success

VANDENBERG AIR FORCE BASE (AP) — The Air Force announced it successfully test launched today a Minuteman II intercontinental ballistic missile to a predetermined Pacific Ocean target.

The 1:55 a.m. test, designed to refine the missile weapon system, was conducted gy a joint Air Force-industry team, the Air Force said.

Red Fire Downs U.S. Copter, Killing Nine

SAIGON (AP) — Seven Americans and two South Vietnamese soldiers were killed when enemy gunners shot down a U.S. helicopter in the Plain of Reeds along the Cambodian border.

U.S. spokesmen said the UH1 chopper apparently was on a trooplift operation in the vast swampy region 35 miles west of Saigon when it was brought down late yesterday. They said the aircraft was destroyed, and there were no reports of any survivors.

It was the 2,878 helicopter reported lost in the war.

U.S. headquarters also reportin a 24-hour period ending at 8 a.m. today. The command said eight U.S. base and installations were hit, and 20 Americans were wounded, but no Americans were killed.

Meanwhile, American and South Vietnamese troops and American observation planes were searching a wooded area along the Cambodian frontier for 70 Vietnamese who reportedly wanted to surrender to the Saigon government after crossing the border during the night.

The report of the defectors came from a hamlet chief and filtered up through Vietnamese military channels, causing some confusion in the process. At one time it was reported that the 70 had already turned themselves over to American infantrymen and that 200 more were to follow.

Later spokesmen for the U.S. 25th Infantry Division said that part of the report was incorrect.

It was not known whether the group was made up of Viet Cong soldiers or civilian supporters.

American and South Vietnamese forces reported killing at least 35 enemy soldiers Thursday in a series of the small actions that have characterized the ground war during the battlefield lull of the past five weeks.

American B52 bombers pounded suspected enemy base camps and staging areas in provinces north and west of Saigon and in a mountainous area northwest of Da Nang.

Sweeping U.S. patrols found a total of 57 enemy bodies killed in earlier actions, including 25 near An Khe, 275 miles northeast of Saigon. They apparently were killed by air strikes, U.S. spokesmen said.

The U.S. Command announced that two more units of the U.S. Ninth Infantry Division will leave for home tomorrow in accordance with President Richard M. Nixon's order to withdraw 25,000 Americans from Vietnam by the end of August. The two units are the Third Battalion, 34th Artillery, made up of about 350 men and the 1097th Transportation Company of 200 men.

From the enemy side, Hanoi's Vietnam News Agency said the Viet Cong has set up revolutionary committees responsible to its Provisional Revolutionary Government in 35 regions or provinces of South Vietnam as well as in the cities of Saigon, Hue, Da Nang and Can Tho.

The broadcast announcement added that some 5,000 acres of land had been distributed to 10,000 inhabitants of Quang Ngai and Binh Dinh, two adjacent provinces on the north central coast of South Vietnam.

Drunken Drivers On Probation

Three persons have been placed on one year probation and fined in Marin Municipal Court for drunken driving.

Scott Chandler, 58, of 15 Maywood Way, San Rafael, who was arrested March 8 on Highway 101, was fined $175.

Henry Allen Swayze, 53, of 100 South Street, Sausalito also was fined $175. He was arrested July 5 in Corte Madera.

Booker T. Givens, 46, of Richmond, who was arrested May 2 on Highway 17, was fined $100.

Nixon Threat Suspect Asks For Help

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — A man accused of threatening to shoot President Richard M. Nixon says he welcomes a psychiatric evaluation.

"Wherever I can get psychiatric help, that's where I want to go," said George Donohue, 28, of Oakland.

He made the comment yesterday to U. S. District Court Judge Alphonse J. Zirpoli, ordered him to undergo a two-month sanity evaluation.

Zirpoli recommended Donohue be sent to the Federal Correctional Facility at Lompoc and set Sept. 24 for a psychiatric evaluation report.

Donohue, who said he is unemployed, was arrested at his home Wednesday after a telephone operator, Felicia Harris, 24, said he asked where Nixon was staying at the time in San Francisco and whether he would make any speeches. She said he then talked about shooting the President, saying he had a loaded gun.

Donohue denied threatening Nixon but said he had talked about a possible assassination.

After the call was traced, police apprehended Donohue without a struggle and found a loaded .22 caliber rifle in the house.

Black Educator Fills U.C. Post

BERKELEY (UPI)—William H. Sherrill, a Negro educator with a background of counseling minority group students, has been appointed new admissions officer for the University of California at Berkeley.

The 36-year-old Sherrill, now head of the Educational Opportunities program which advises minority group students at Berkeley, was named to the new post yesterday.

He succeeds David Barrows Stewart, who resigned earlier this month after complaining of overwork and budget restrictions imposed by Sacramento.

Retrial Granted In Sales Case

Judge E. Warren McGuire of Marin Superior Court yesterday granted a new trial for Francis Mitchell Orella, who was found guilty May 2 of selling marijuana and conspiring to sell it in 1967.

The judge ruled that Orella should have been allowed to enter a plea of not guilty for reason of insanity when he requested to do so before Judge Harold J. Haley earlier in the case.

The trial has been reset for the week of Aug. 25.

Orella was arrested during a countywide narcotics roundup in February, 1968.

Safeguard Foes Gather New Material

WASHINGTON (AP) — Senate opponents of the Safeguard missile defense program, fighting an uphill battle, say they have "newly available classified reports" casting doubt the controversial system will work.

After a strategy session yesterday, the Safeguard foes said they may seek a second secret session of the Senate to disclose the information.

Sen. Albert Gore called a meeting of his disarmament subcommittee for Wednesday to consider the material, a move which could keep the Senate from voting next week on the Safeguard.

NEW REPORTS

"There are some newly available classified reports which I have not read, which I am advised by staff are of some significance," the Tennessee Democrat told a reporter.

It is believed the new information is part of a report prepared for the Pentagon by the Institute for Defense Analysis, casting doubt on Safeguard's radars.

Earlier, opponents had dropped plans for a second secret Senate session after becoming convinced members had been informed of all available classified material.

NEW AMENDMENT

Pending before the Senate at present is an amendment by Sens. John Sherman Cooper, R-Ky., and Philip A. Hart, D-Mich., which would restrict the program to research and would bar deployment or site acquisition.

In the major action on the Senate floor yesterday, Sen. Charles Percy, R-Ill., a cosponsor of the Cooper-Hart amendment, said he would be willing to approve "the pre-production of long leadtime items such as radar components and computer safeware." He said this would prevent any delays should deployment be blocked now but a later decision be made to construct the system.

"This approach would allow us to meet any contingency in the middle and later 1970s," Percy said.

Marin Engineers Named To Posts

Two Marin men have been named assistant engineers in District 4 of the state division of highways which includes Marin County.

Dean E. Larson of 533 Silverado Drive, Tiburon, was named assistant engineer in charge of right-of-way engineering. He had been acting director of the Bay Area Transportation Study Commission.

Harold K. Taylor of 87 Carnoustie Drive, Novato, was appointed assistant engineer in charge of planning. Taylor, who has been with the district since 1949 had been an assistant engineer in charge of design.

Purse Stolen

Mabel Williams of 1504 Joan Drive, Petaluma, told police yesterday that a purse containing $19 had been stolen from her home.

WINDING UP the Italian fashion showings, Lancetti showed his collection for fall and winter, featuring long coats and kerchief hats. These checkered coats topped an ensemble of matching pants, big square glasses and large kerchiefs on the models' heads. (UPI Cablephoto)

Italian Style Wrap-Up: Jumpsuits Slim Shoulders And Flared Skirts

ROME (UPI) — The Italian fall and winter fashion collections ended as they began—showing uniformly slim shoulders and sleeves, flared skirts and countless jump suits or tunics and trousers.

Also much in evidence were maxicoats, whose lengths ranged anywhere from just below the knee to right down to the ground. The bottom of the calf was the most common length.

BOOTS FAR outnumbered shoes, even appearing with ball gowns.

Hats ranged from snug cloches cut out over the ears to ten-gallon affairs topped with fox. There were long scarves knotted around the neck and trailing to the hem, although not nearly as many as last January.

Jewelry became less obtrusive although a few chain belts hung on, some of them suspended from waist-length necklaces.

WOOLS CAME IN worsteds, often reversible, subdued plaids, tweeds, weaves dyed to look like tweeds, and some nubby boucles.

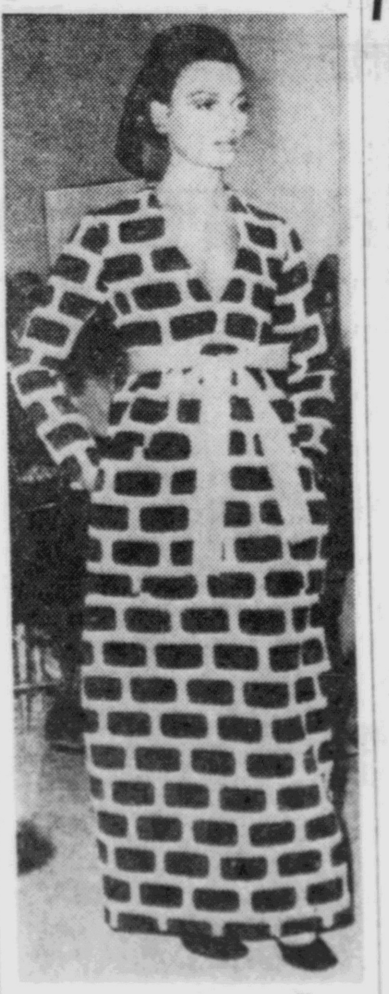
If there was one favorite color it was plum, ranging from pinky pale to clear amethyst to almost charcoal gray. Black and white, singly or together, were everywhere. Other top colors were brown, light gray, dark green and some sapphire blue and tomato red. A few designers liked pale peach, particularly in satin for evening.

Fox and lynx outnumbered the shorter haired furs such as mink. Huge floor-length maxicoats of black or white fox, some of them with an extra fold to wrap around and clutch, promised to keep the wearer warm through an Arctic trek.

The layered look was popular, often with a slim sheath pulling on over an underdress with a pleated hem which burst into fullness in motion. There were few sleeveless or short-sleeved outfits.

VALENTINO HAD a gimmick — a triangular fringed shawl as big or bigger than great-granny used for bundling up outside. He hung the point down the right side and looped the narrow ends over the left shoulder.

It's something easy to make, easy to copy, and you'll probably see it from Fifth Avenue to Main Street before Christmas.



BRICKS AND mortar make this gown by designer Heinz Riva shown in Rome this week.

Bridal Parties Go On Even Though It's July

By MOLLY MARIN

June may be the traditional month for weddings, but bridal parties are continuing for the many mid-summer brides in Marin.

Being feted at many bridal parties is Martha Drexler, who will be married on Sept. 14 to Joseph Michael Lynn in a wedding at the Mill Valley home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Drexler.

The future bridegroom is the son of Harold Thomas Lynn of West Palm Beach, Fla., and Mrs. Daniel Mauerhan of Beaumont.

A brunch-bridal shower was given by Mrs. Kent O. Seymour and Mrs. William A. Hamilton, both of Mill Valley, at the Hamilton home, and luncheons honoring the bride-elect were given by Mrs. Harrison M. Leppo and Mrs. Robert Scott, both of Mill Valley.

CULMINATION of a friendship begun when both served in the Peace Corps in Africa will be the marriage this summer of Susan Danford, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Porter R. Danford of Mill Valley, and Charles William Jorgensen III, better known as "Rusty."

He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles William Jorgensen II of Syracuse, N.Y.

The couple met when they were in training for the Peace Corps. Susan came home last December, and Rusty returned in May.

JOAN McMULLEN, who will be married tomorrow to Warren Aldrich of San Francisco, was honored at a bridal shower and luncheon by Mrs. Richard J. Schneider of Greenbrae and her daughter, Teresa, who will be the flower girl for the nuptials at St. Sebastian's Church in Greenbrae. Joan's friends and family members, including her mother, Mrs. Chester L. McMullen of Kentfield, were guests.

MORE DEBUTANTE news — Another August party has been added to the calendar, a tea given by Mrs. Dolph Hill Jr. for her debutante twin daughters, Donna and Deborah, at the Hill home in Petaluma. The other Marin debs will be on the guest list.

The Debutante Ball committee of the Marin Charitable Foundation has announced that Russell Smith of Ross will make the presentations of the debutantes at the ball, to be held Dec. 20 at the St. Francis Hotel in San Francisco. Judge Jordan Martinelli of San Ra-

Marin Women

From Truck Driver, Teacher To Careerist And Cat Fancier

By MAYBELLE SPECKMANN

Petite, blonde Sue Schaefer has enough energy and enthusiasm for five or six women and finds an outlet for her talents in many fields.

The wife of retired U.S. Army Lt. Col. Paul Schaefer and mother of two teen-age sons, Stacy, 19, and Gary, 16, Sue now has her own real estate business in Larkspur, but she has done many other things.

PLANNING TO be a teacher, she attended Middle Tennessee State Teachers College two years but was married instead to Paul, who was a second lieutenant. While he was in the South Pacific in World War II and she was living in Berkeley, she drove an ambulance for the Navy for three years.

"They were doubtful at first that I could drive what was really a huge semi-truck and trailer," she says, "but after being taught how to do it, I had no trouble. I was on call 24 hours a day to meet all ships and take stretcher cases to various hospitals in the Bay Area."

During 21 years as an Army wife Sue lived in many places, including Athens, Greece, and Bangkok, Thailand, and says that when she became bored with women's clubs and bridge, she just had to do something else.

In Bangkok she taught English for three years in the school set up in connection with the program of the United States and Thai governments.

"It was for adults," she says, "and many were professional people. Most of them could speak a little English, and I didn't have to learn to speak their language."

THE SCHAEFER family came to San Francisco in 1959 when Paul was assigned to Ft. Mason, and they immediately bought their present home in San Anselmo.

"I got the idea of going into real estate," she recalls, "from the girl who showed us property when we were looking for a home. She convinced me I would make a good real estate saleswoman — so again, to have something to do I decided to try it."

Sue first studied on her own for the examination necessary for a real estate sales license, worked as a saleswoman in San Anselmo two years, then attended a San Francisco real estate school, finally obtaining a broker's license. She opened her business in Larkspur in 1963, which her husband joined after his retirement.

"I think real estate is an excellent field for a woman," she says. "Women make better sales people than men because they know what the woman needs in a home. Also women have more patience. It's an especially good profession for housewives if they have as much as six hours a day to spend on it. Success is mostly a matter of selling yourself. When people have confidence in you, they will be loyal, and when they see what they want, they will buy it."

SUE IS secretary to the Marin County Real Estate Board and secretary to the Larkspur Chamber of Commerce. She is also a member of the Marin County Retired Officers Wives Club, and, with her husband, has been a member of the Ross Valley Players for nine years.

"No, I don't act," she says. "I just do the behind-the-scenes things."

Her major hobby is Siamese cats.

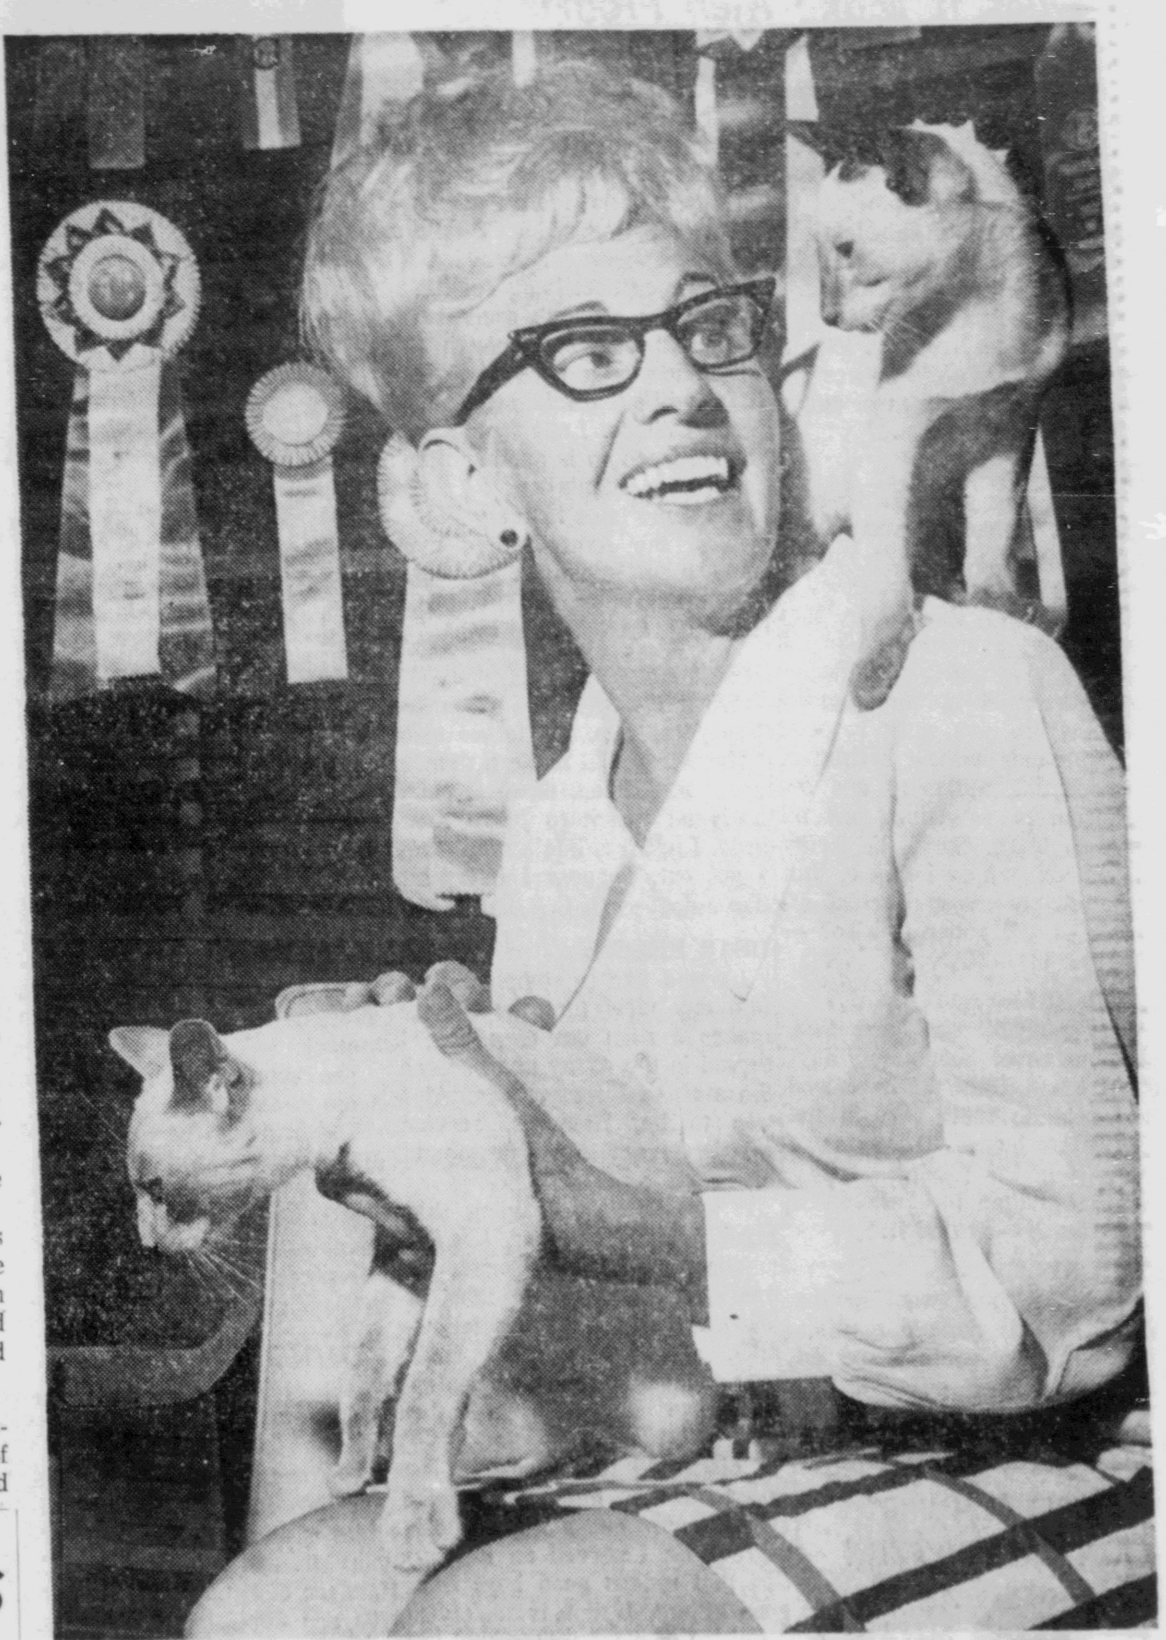
"I started with cats just as pets," she explains, "but once you get a good cat, you can get interested in breeding and showing them, and I started that in 1965."

SHE SPECIALIZES in chocolate and lilac points, two of the most recently recognized colors, and she travels many miles showing them. They have won so many ribbons that she hasn't counted them, and she is especially proud of three championships.

She is vice president of the Marin County Cat Fanciers Association.

Although she enjoys all of her activities, Sue still yearns to try other fields.

"Now I wish I were an attorney, but I guess it's too late for that," she sighed.



SUE SCHAEFER'S major hobby is breeding and showing chocolate point and lilac point Siamese cats. Two of her favorites are Ballerina, a lilac point, on her lap, and Ballerina's male chocolate point kitten Dan-D, on Sue's shoulder. His father was a chocolate point, she explains. Two of the kittens were like the mother and two like the father.

Women In Key Roles For Space Program

SPACE CENTER, Houston (AP) — The United States may not have a female astronaut, but women—from astronauts' wives to the seamstresses who sew spacesuits—play key roles in the space program.

Frances "Poppy" Northcutt, for example, is a 25-year-old Dayton, Tex., native who is a member of the flight dynamics support staff in mission control at the Manned Spacecraft Center. The tall, blonde mathematician is one of the first women to serve in an operational support role in mission control.

"There's less discrimination against women here than in any of the professional areas," she said.

Space center officials reported that 968 of the 4,400 government employes here are women.

No one disputes the role of astronaut wives in their husbands' work. They even are consulted about hubby's food tastes when the menus of dehydrated foods for the flight are selected.

Thousands of the miniscule electronic components in the Apollo 11 spacecraft and the Saturn 5 rocket were assembled by women workers.

The foods to be consumed by the astronauts, a doctor and a technician while locked in their quarantine trailer after splashdown were prepared by women.

And, of course, there are the indispensible secretaries who work for National Aeronautics and Space Administration engineers and scientists, executives of space program contractors and the astronauts themselves.

Charlotte Maltese, secretary to Apollo 9 crewmen James A. McDivitt, David R. Scott and Russell L. Schweickart, had a birthday while her astronaut bosses orbited the earth in March.

They didn't forget. The astronauts radioed to earth a musical birthday greeting.

Another woman in mission control is Larue Burbank, who designed the visual displays controllers watch to monitor a spacecraft's flight.

Dorothy Lee is an engineer at the space center whose specialty is the heat shields that protect returning spacemen from the heat of re-entry into the earth's atmosphere.

HELEN HELP US!

By HELEN BOTTEL

Military Demands Obedience; Does It Make Men From Boys?

DEAR HELEN:

As a veteran of two wars, I can say, yes, the military does make men out of boys, but it has to have something to work with. I have seen spineless fellows who remain spineless, but I have also seen boys shape up under discipline and training.

War is hell, and that is why it takes men to fight. As long as we have war, our services will continue to make men out of boys. — CHARLES S.

DEAR HELEN:

I spent four years in the service, and I think it makes men out of boys. I agree with the girl who was against the military in that some of the things they hand you seem senseless, but they do it so that you will obey an order out in the fighting zone, where you must respond to commands without hesitation.

Respecting authority and supervision is something we all have to learn. Sure, the Army insists on obedience, but shouldn't parents and school officials — and police — also? — YOUNG VETERAN

DEAR HELEN:

Saying "yes, sir" and "no, sir" has never hurt me or anyone I know. Only the ones who refuse to do their part in the service get busted. If they can't make it in the military, I pity them in civilian life, where it's really hard. — DAVE D.

DEAR HELEN:

Before my guy went in the Army, he was quite a mama's boy. When he came home on leave, he was a different fellow. He grew up. — ENGAGED TO A MAN

DEAR HELEN:

I read the letter from C. B. concerning the Army's ability (inability?) to build men. Here in Vietnam, there is no room for a boy. All the foolish games of basic training suddenly take on a new meaning and become a sometimes horrifying reality.

Our own society's present condition is evidence enough that discipline is a necessity. Freedom without discipline soon becomes chaos. Let's face it, one man's freedom is another man's restrictive regulations . . . perhaps sometimes his very life.

Yes, the Army builds more men than burning draft cards will ever suppress. SGT. MIKE L., APO, SAN FRANCISCO

DEAR HELEN:

When I went into the service five years ago, my father said, "The Army will make a man of you." But Helen, death is not a basis on which to judge manhood. I felt less like a man when I got out. I guess I felt more like a dog. — B. C.

DEAR HELEN:

I would like to completely refute any view that the service makes a man out of a boy. I served in the Army and became the man that society deemed I was to be. However, service was irrelevant to my new-found manhood.

It was not my training that made a man out of me but my emotions that were aroused by man's inhumanity to man. I learned how to kill my fellowman, saw trainees die from over-exhaustion and men beaten for mere infractions of the rules.

I discarded this period of indoctrination to machine morality and came out a man. But I regret that I served an institution that makes good boys into good killers. If this is society's definition of a man, God help us all. — A READER

NOTE TO READERS: Votes are now running three to one in favor of the Armed Services. Amazingly, most of the favorable letters are written by young people. — H.

This column is dedicated to family living, so if you're having kid trouble or just plain trouble, let Helen help you. Address Helen Bottel in care of the Independent-Journal.

Dennis Simontacchi Claims Bride In Avenal Ceremony

Dennis Simontacchi of Auburn claimed Deborah Jo Stierlen of Avenal as his bride in a Saturday ceremony at the Community Presbyterian Church in Avenal.

Mrs. Phyllis Taylor was her matron of honor, and Mrs. Edwin Squire of Davis and Joetta Segel of Santa Clara were the other attendants.

Dan Palucci of Burlingame served as best man. Seating the guests were Fred Misakian of San Francisco and Richard Stierlen of Avenal, the bride's brother.

The couple will make their home in Auburn.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard H. Stierlen of Avenal and Dennis' parents are Mr. and Mrs. Remo Simontacchi of San Rafael.

Deborah is a graduate of Avenal High School, the University of California at Davis and received a teaching credential from San Jose State College. She is a teacher with Auburn Elementary School District.

Dennis is a San Rafael High School and College of Marin graduate and received the A.B. degree from the University of California at Davis. He is employed with the U. S. Bureau of Reclamation in Auburn. He is the brother of Mrs. Gerald Carbone of Fremont and Mrs. Gary Hallin of San Francisco, and the grandson of Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Barozzi of San Anselmo and Aurelio Simontacchi of San Rafael.

Raima Harrison To Be Married

The engagement of Raima Glee Harrison to Ernie Lee Ballinger is announced by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frederic C. Harrison of Penngrove. His parents are Capt. (ret.) and Mrs. E. L. Ballinger of Sebastopol.

A graduate of Petaluma High School and Santa Rosa Junior College, Raima will enter Sonoma State College in the fall.

Larry, Lynn and Laurel Ballinger are the future bridegroom's brother and sisters. His schools are Analy High School and Santa Rosa Junior College, and he is employed by the County of Sonoma as a deputy sheriff.

A Jan. 11 wedding in Petaluma is planned by the couple.

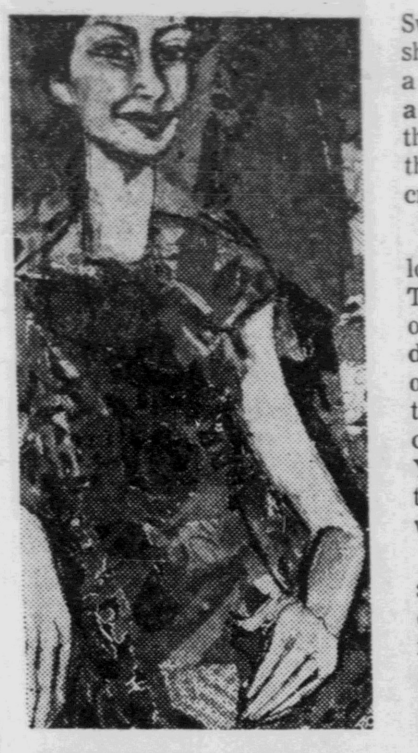
Being A 'Cut-Up' Pays Off For Israeli Artist

By JOY STILLEY



SCISSOR ART . . . Using scissors and glue rather than brush and palette, Israeli artist Ella Ra'ayoni produced this portrait entirely of bits of material and single threads.

NEW YORK (AP) — From rags to riches is the story of Israeli artist Ella Ra'ayoni's unusual works, which hang in galleries and in homes of the famous and not-so-famous the world over.

The rags are bits of fabric — silks, cottons, laces, velvets — that she uses to create "paintings" with scissors instead of a brush. Single threads pulled from silk forms lines and the whole emerges as astonishingly detailed portraits, landscapes, still lifes, animals, abstracts.

"I grow muscles carrying these things," she said, ruefully rubbing an arm and indicating the shopping bags stuffed with materials, the portfolios, the pictures scattered around her hotel room as she relaxed briefly from a hectic schedule.

IN THE UNITED States for the fourth time, she was completing a tour of galleries over the country which exhibit her work and that of her husband, Shmuel Ra'ayoni, also widely known for his oils and watercolors.

Among collectors of her works, which bring prices ranging from $40 or $50 to as much as $1,000, are Yehudi Menuhin, Princess Margaret, Lily Dache, the Duke of Bedford, Fredric March, Isaac Stern and Rita Tushingham.

Mrs. Ra'ayoni's unusual collages grew out of her search for a new art form after her husband, her high school art teacher whom she married at 19, criticized her efforts in more common media.

"I had my own ideas about composition and color combining, so I threw away the paints and went to work with cloth," the Vienna-born artist explained in her faintly accented English, which she speaks fluently, along with Hebrew, German, Yiddish and a little French, Polish and Russian.

"I HAVE ALWAYS enjoyed the feel of material," added the auburn-haired former fashion designer. "I can love with my fingers. When an artist sees something pleasant he touches it." Her expressive hands tenderly explored the piles of plain and print material, the sheers, the batiks that she dyes herself when she needs a pattern or color not in her vast store.

"I make many of my own clothes. Sometimes when I buy material intended for a dress I like it and use some for a picture, so the dress has to be without sleeves or a collar.

"Either I start with an idea or I get inspired by my material. Would you like to see how I work?" she offered, gathering up a few plastic bags of fabrics and seating herself. "I need a little bit of table and a little bit of light and scissors that cut — but first I put on my glasses."

Taking a small piece of artists' cardboard, which she must buy in this country or Switzerland and ship to Israel, she snipped a bit of goods with a swirl design. After brushing a synthetic cellulose glue on the cardboard, she smoothed the cloth down and regarded it critically.

"SEE HERE, does it not look like a bird?" she asked. Then, placing a small swatch of blue nearby, she added, "I don't know whether this is sky or not; we will see later if it is the sky. The whole business of collage is like a picture puzzle. You have parts and you have to see in your imagination where it could fit.

"He changes while I do it," she said as the snippets of cloth took on the unmistakable form of a brightly colored bird against a background of varying shades of blue. "Now I know he's a parrot — a very gay and proud one," she exclaimed, her flying fingers rapidly adding an eye, twisting a few black threads pulled from a piece of silk into feet, curving the back with a sliver of velvet.

Mrs. Ra'ayoni, who claims she has "design in my blood," went to Israel as a child when her father, an architect, took his family there in 1925. "It was because of my father's Zionist feelings that we were saved without suffering while our relatives in Poland, Austria and Germany were all killed," she said.

A SON, Ronnie, 26, who fought in the Six-Day War, is also an architect, and a younger son, Itamar, 18, will enter the Israeli army shortly, upon graduation from high school. Her husband fought in the reserve regulars and Mrs. Ra'ayoni herself formed Haifa's first traffic police unit after the British withdrew — even though she couldn't drive.

She now teaches courses in composition in the Technion, college of architecture and engineering in Haifa, where the family has a residence, in addition to a studio-home in Ein-Hod, the noted artists' colony outside Haifa.

ON THE AGENDA

Drums And Soul Music Will Be Background For Fashion Show

"A Night of Fashion" will be presented tomorrow at 8 p.m. in Marin City's Manzanita Community Center in celebration of a year's success for the custom sewing shop in Marin City.

This is the little shop established by three 17-year-old black girls, who used their sewing and design skills to start their own custom sewing and alterations business last year. The girls, all incoming seniors at Tamalpais High School, are Dolores Johnson, Alvenia Roary and Linda Duvall.

The fashion show, against a background of drums and low-pitched soul music records, will feature Afro-American clothes for men and women. Included will be lounge wear, daytime dresses, sportswear and after-five costumes. There will also be some Alvin Duskin knits and some standard men's clothes the girls began adding to their stock last spring.

The models will dance down the ramp to the rhythm of bongo drums played by James Toliver Jr., assistant to the principal at Sausalito's Martin Luther King School, and Gabe Jackson, community worker with the Sausalito Schools.

Margaret Beauchamp will be the commentator, and models, all residents of Marin City, are Lena Johnson, Morganna Howard, Patricia Howard, Flo Hamilton Debbie White, Denise Rochell, Gloria Guice, Lois Domino, Jo Ann Jackson, Ruth Armstead, Johnny Harris and Wayne Allen.

Tickets may be bought at the door at the Manzanita Center, where there will be ample parking space with attendants on duty.

THE NOVATO Hospital Volunteers will be hostesses and tour guides from 2 to 5 p.m. Sunday when the new wing of Novato General Hospital has its public viewing.

Mrs. Gerald Lombard, president of the volunters, and Mrs. Charles Johnson, director of volunteers, are in charge of the tour, assisted by Mmes. Charles Courtney, Stanley Harmon, Robert Weber, Donald Phillips, Bruce Smith, Edward Stewart, John Roos, Roy West, Richard Pond, Earl Chronister, Sebastian Tallitsch, Albert Leach, Ronald Soldavini, Willoth Stenz, Fred Burns, Rudolph Sabin, Arthur Canhan and Claude Witzel.

The volunteers will meet the guests at the front door and, following the explanation of the equipment in the new wing, they will serve refreshments in the patio.

A WHITE elephant sale will be held Sunday at the Cotati Community Festival, sponsored by Cotati Veterans of Foreign War Auxiliary Post 1006.

The unit is also planning a rummage sale in September, so is seeking items to sell. Donors may call Mrs. Frank Piazza of Cotati for pickup.

MILL VALLEY'S Blythedale Rebekah Lodge 305 will sponsor a public potluck supper and card party on Wednesday at 6:30 p.m. at the Odd Fellows Hall in Mill Valley. Mrs. Jack Clausen is chairman.

MSGR. J. G. HANLEY, coeditor of th Canadian Register of Kingston-Toronto, Canada, was a guest Saturday of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Brindel in Novato. Monsignor Hanley is visiting his cousin, Mrs. John Chelini in Mill Valley. Mr. Brindel has been the American Correspondent and book reviewer for the Canadian Register since 1963.

A DINNER honoring Mrs. Croneil Ring of San Rafael on her 75th birthday was given Saturday at Deer Park Villa in Fairfax, with 32 of her family members attending. Widowed, Mrs. Ring has been a San Rafael resident for the past 37 years.

Attending the celebration with their husbands were Helen Ring's daughters, Mmes. Frank Blagen Jr. of Hines, Ore., John Lagomarsino Jr. of San Rafael, Warren Redding of San Rafael and Peter Ferrarese of Novato. Twelve of her 14 grandchildren also were guests at the gathering, along with her seven great grandchildren.

Clean Hearth

When fireplace cleaning time comes around, sweep or vacuum out loose dirt. Then make a thick mixture of soap or detergent, pumice, a touch of ammonia, and hot water. "Paint" sides of fireplace with this mixture, let dry, and remove it with a wet scrub brush. Presto—a clean background for greens, birch logs, or a favorite floral arrangement.

CHRISTINE HALSING

Chris Halsing Bride-Elect Of Ed Maston

The engagement of Christine Halsing to Edgar Maston of Kentfield has been announced by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Grant J. Halsing of San Anselmo.

The sister of Laurie and Buzzy Halsing of San Anselmo, Christine is a graduate of Marin Catholic High School and attended the University of California at Davis. Now employed by the Emporium in San Rafael. Christine is the granddaughter of Mrs. Grant U. Halsing of San Anselmo.

Fouts-Smith Rite Is Set In Tiburon

The engagement of Barbara Ann Smith to Robert Morgan Fouts of San Francisco has been announced, and the couple plan an Oct. 23 wedding at St. Hilary's Church in Tiburon.

Barbara is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Edward Smith and the sister of Susan and Sharon Smith, all of Tiburon.

She was graduated from Redwood High School and the College of Marin and is employed as a secretary with the College of Marin in Kentfield.

Robert is the son of Robert O. Fouts of San Francisco and Mrs. Carolyn M. Fouts of Burlingame. He is the brother of Mrs. Timothy Harkins of Seattle, Nancy Fouts of Chicago, and Dan and John Fouts of San Francisco.

He was graduated from St. Joseph's Seminary in Mountain View and the University of San Francisco and is a social science teacher at Marina Junior High School.

Melanie Blaskower To Be Wed In Ross Church

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Brooks Blaskower of Ross have announced the engagement of their daughter Melanie Margaret to Charles Roberts Buxton Jr. of Berkeley. They will be married on Sept. 6 at St. John's Episcopal Church in Ross.

Melanie is the sister of Patricia, Cynthia and Richard Brooks Blaskower Jr., all of Ross. Mrs. Mildred Blaskower of San Francisco is her grandmother. She is a graduate of Katharine Branson School and is in her senior year at the University of California following studies at Colorado College at Colorado Springs. She is a member of Lagunitas Country Club.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Roberts Buxton of Littleton, Colo., are parents of the future bridegroom, and he is the brother of Janet Anne and Richard Millard Buxton and Mrs. Phillip Wilcox. Charles was graduated from Bear Creek High School in Morrison, Colo., and received a B.A. degree from Colorado College.

Nancie Mager To Become Bride In Oct. 11 Rite

An Oct. 11 wedding is planned by Nancie Anne Mager of Fairfax and John G. Laucci Jr. of San Francisco. They will live in San Rafael following a wedding trip to Kauai, Hawaii.

The bride-elect is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Edward Mager Sr. of Fairfax. Mr. and Mrs. John G. Laucci of San Francisco and San Andreas are parents of the future bridegroom.

Nancie is the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elmore Lann of San Francisco and Mrs. Helena Mager of San Rafael. She is a graduate of Sir Francis Drake High School and is employed at Ross Valley Medical Clinic in Greenbrae.

John was graduated from San Carlos High School and attended Yampa Valley College in Steamboat Springs, Colo. He is employed with Kindler, Laucci and Day, insurance brokers, in San Francisco.

Dior To Drop Hems A La '47

By JOAN DEPPA

PARIS (UPI) — Dior is dropping the hemline.

The word was out today, officially. A Dior spokesman said their designer, Marc Bohan, was producing three-fourths of his coats, dresses and suits with skirts that stopped at mid-calf or below.

But in the collection Bohan plans to unveil next week, he is also including some very, very short skirts.

"We're not allowed to use the term mini-skirt but they're very, very short," the Dior spokesman said.

The idea seems to be to give women lots of different hemlines and let then wear them as their mood, not the fashion designer, dictates.

Trousers also will play a very important role in the "new new look" which is mannish by comparison with the wasp-waisted, full-skirted original. There will be no need for the complicated padding and corsets demanded to achieve the original "new look" in 1947.

It will feature shirts, boxy jackets and long, slim but easy skirts in soft fabrics. Often the shirts are expected to be of feather-weight fabrics that cling to the figure, an idea with which Bohan already has experimented.

BOHAN WILL not be alone in trying new longer skirt lengths. Yves St. Laurent has been edging in that direction for some time. In fact, he jumped the gun and has a few dresses and coats in mid-calf length on sale in his ready-to-wear boutique in the Paris student quarter.

Pierre Cardin, one of the best designers of the "modern" haute couture school, has also announced he plans several different lengths.

All say the longer skirts will be designed for daytime as well as evening wear. But all side with Bohan in saying they will also show lots of what most people call mini-skirts.

Several collections, notably Courreges, will stick with the idea that long skirts are outdated except for glamorous evenings.

COURREGES GOES one better and says that skirts as a whole are an idea of the past and that jump suits and trousers are what the women of the future will wear.

What seems likely to emerge from the fashion shows next week is what emerged from collections in recent seasons: There are plenty of different ways, to dress and the well-dressed woman simply will choose the way or ways that suit her best.

MARC BOHAN

No Alimony Puts The Men In Jail

CAIRO (UPI)—More than 67,000 Egyptians face imprisonment for failure to pay alimony, according to the Ministry of Justice.

The ministry said a majority of divorced women here ask for imprisonment of their former husbands who fail to pay alimony decided by the courts.

In addition to the 67,000 males who already face imprisonment on charges brought by irate former wives, the ministry said 43,000 other women were deciding whether to follow this course.

As of May 1 there were 2,019 men in Egyptian jails for nonpayment of alimony.

FEATURED THIS SATURDAY

What are the trends in home decor in Marin County? What problems most commonly plague Marin home owners in their decorating? What distinguishes Marin home interiors from those of other areas? All these questions will be answered in tomorrow's I-J Marin Magazine in a special story about an unusual teacher and her unusual class. She is Stephanie Luker, home fashion adviser in Marin for Montgomery Ward & Co., and her course is called "The Art of Decorating."

Marin County residents are ardent hobbyists. And the military personnel living among us are no different than the civilian Marinites. They, too, have found unusual leisure-time pursuits that give them relaxation and satisfaction. Tomorrow's I-J weekend supplement takes a look at the diversity of hobby activities, ranging from airplane flying to guitar strumming, that is enjoyed by the men and women who work for Uncle Sam at Fort Baker.

Laughing Gas Girl Recovering Slowly

LA JOLLA (AP) — The nightmare of June 2 is ending slowly for Nora Ruffcorn. At 15, she is learning all over to eat and walk. The devil she met was laughing gas.

When police found her, she was having convulsions in the front seat of her boyfriend's car.

The boy, Brad Hunter, 17, was outside, sick to his stomack. Inside were Clare Herrick, 18 and Peter Strada, 17. Within hours, both would be dead.

An empty hospital-sized tank of nitrous oxide, about four feet high, was in the middle of the car. The couples apparently had rolled up the car's windows and opened the valve of the tank, full-blast, investigators said. Where they got the tank still isn't known. Hunter has pleaded guilty in juvenile court to two counts of manslaughter.

VEGETABLE

In a Scripps Memorial Hospital intensive care unit, Nora Ruffcorn lay in a coma three weeks, shivering between two temperature - controlled sheets which kept her from a fever.

Doctors expected her to die, then said she would be a vegetable the rest of her life. But a strong will and physical therapy enabled Nora to go home with her mother, who takes her back daily for three hours of work on muscle coordination.

The nightmare, says Nora, began as a lark — "It was just a high, like marijuana, I guess."

LETHAL PAINKILLER

The gas which dentists formerly used to kill pain is always lethal if inhaled in pure form for more than 10 minutes, a San Diego anesthetist said. "The absence of oxygen, or anoxia, causes death much like that of drowning," he said. "Nitrous oxide or laughing gas, is never administered medically in a ratio of greater than 80 per cent, with the remaining 20 per cent being pure oxygen. The ratio is usually 50-50 with another agent sometimes added. The effects of the gas are a loss of diminution of the sense of pain."

"Don't try it," Nora told newsmen yesterday. "Tell them not to try anything. I don't even smoke cigarettes anymore."

"Now the hardest thing for me to do is write. I like to write, but I can't do it now. But I can eat by myself, and dress and go to the bathroom." dress and go to the bedroom."

There is mail from people across the United States, who say they are praying for Nora.

The slim, dark-haired girl glanced at her mother. "We have a cry every so often," she said. "It helps."

Quail Hill Dust Problem Eased

Tentative agreement has been reached between neighboring property owners and developers of the Quail Hill residential and office project to halt drifting of dust at the site.

William Corrigan, attorney for the protestors, said that the developers have agreed to keep wet a dusty area on the northeast corner of the project and to do additional street sweeping in the area.

Carl S. Vella and Selwyn Sacks, owners of a 49-unit apartment house in Northgate — later joined by the Marco Investment Co., owners of a nearby dental building — filed suit in objection to the dust. The Vellas said it was damaging drapes and carpets in their building.

Named in the action, which resulted in a temporary restraining order against grading at the site, were Quail Hill, Inc. Commerce Clearing House, A. Teichert and Son, grading contractor, and 100 John Does.

Corrigan said that, in addition to the dust problem, the Vellas and the defendants have reached tentative agreement on intrusion into easement rights held by the Vellas on Quail Hill.

Corrigan expected formal agreements to be signed by Monday, lifting the restraining order granted July 17 by Marin Superior Court Judge Thomas F. Keating. A hearing was to have been held Monday.

Teens Get Voice In Sausalito Recreation Plans

Sausalito recreation commissioners agreed last night to question teen-agers as to what they want for a teen-age recreation program, commissioner Mary Lou Perrone reported.

A questionnaire will be prepared and distributed by the city's teen-age recreation group headed by recreation director Richard Paris, Mrs. Perrone said.

The commission also discussed how to improve communication between city hall and the teen group, particularly on procedures necessary to plan dances and other youth activities, she said.

The organization and future plans of the teen group were also discussed, Mrs. Perrone said.

Mill Valley Group Presents Melodrama

An old-time melodrama, "Pure as the Driven Snow or A Working Girl's Secret," will be presented at the Mill Valley Center for the Performing Arts, sponsored by the Mill Valley Parks and Recreation Department.

Performances will be given at 8:30 p.m. Aug. 8 and 9, 15 and 16, and 22 and 23. Beer and mixers will be available.

DRAMA REVIEW

New Richard II Born On Festival Stage

By JAMES E. WILLIAMS

"For violent fires soon burn out themselves," intones John of Gaunt, Duke of Lancaster. Thus is set the stage for "Richard II," expertly fashioned last night as the second offering of the Marin Shakespeare Festival at the Forest Meadows amphitheater.

Instead of presenting Richard II as a thin, graceful man of deep sensitivity (regarded by purists as the traditional image), director John Argue brings to the stage in Fredric Cook a pudgy, selfish, egotistical Richard, who is finally caught up in his own cunning.

Cook, who was so wonderfully funny as Nick Bottom in "A Midsummer Night's Dream," fulfills his assignment to a near flaw. He builds Richard in words and movements. Only in the end does a gentleness flow from this arrogant king, who by his own disregard for lawlessness forces others in his realm to unseat him from his English throne.

Equally brilliant is Robert Egan as Henry Bolingbroke, who wrests the crown from Richard. Their scenes together are never overplayed.

Cause and effect are the key words of this production. Actors change costumes on stage, serve as props, keeping the play's level keyed on Shakespeare's prose. All this helps to speed up production, which with scene changes could have strung out the tight package. But as in the past simplicity is the hallmark.

Just to see Cook and Egan is worth an evening's chill in the woody setting, but the rest of the cast is uniformly as good. Robert Feero as Duke of York, is sympathetic as Richard's cousin; David Gilliam a true support as Duke of Aumerle, to Richard's cunning actions, and Philip Sheridan as Earl of Northumberland, the catalyist, to Richard's doom.

The evilness of Richard is expertly performed by the "caterpillars of the Commonwealth," — Robert Kroll as Lord Ross; Michael Hollingsworth as Bushy, and George Moran as Green. James Haran as Duke of Lancaster, brings the forceful element which sets the stage that unfolds Richard's trickery, and Max Kelin, first as Thomas Mowbray and later as Sir Pierce of Exton, the slayer of Richard, is expertly cast.

Susan Arnell plays Richard's queen in the innocent fashion she should and Marlene Knarr as the pleading Duchess of York, is a jewel in her pleading for her son's life in the plot to kill Henry.

The use of the crown and robe of authority as representative of the decadent Richard is a great use of symbolism — the power struggle between Richard and Henry.

"Richard II," continues tonight at 8 o'clock through the weekend, with the third in the three-play season, "The two Gentlemen of Verona," opening next Thursday night.

MOTION PICTURE GUIDE

The Marin Motion Picture and Television Council provides these ratings of movies currently being shown in Marin County. The council's findings are from the California and National Parent-Teacher Association magazines and the Film Report of the Film Estimate Board. More complete reviews may be obtained by calling the San Rafael Library.

FAMILY

"Finian's Rainbow" — Musical comedy combines fantasy with satire. Sets are lovely, songs a delight and an excellent dance group.

"Gone With The Wind" — Famous film classic now transposed to super screen with stereophonic sound remains one of the landmarks in American filmmaking.

"Horse in a Grey Flannel Suit" — Delightful, lighthearted Disney comedy. Film gives opportunity to see finest horses in this country jumping the highest barriers.

"Ice Station Zebra" — Fast action, adventure and spectacular imaginative special effects make this film a thrilling dramatic experience with suspenseful mystery interwoven.

"Love Bug" — Disney presents a whimsical story about a car that not only has a heart and mind of its own, but ability to drive itself. Highly imaginative fantasy.

"Peter Pan" — Welcome reissue of long-time favorite. A Disney feature length cartoon.

"Support Your Local Sheriff" — Clever spoof of western melodrama full of high adventure and laughter.

"Winnie the Pooh" — Film imparts a gentle lesson in sharing with and sacrificing for, one's friends.

ADULTS AND TEENS

"Bandolero" — Well made and well cast, very violent western has a fitting background of fine desert scenery.

"Bridge at Remagen" — Exceptionally well made action film telling of capture of last bridge over the Rhine in 1945.

"Che" — Told in quasi-documentary style, a bloody page in recent history. To some, Che is a liberator, to the others a ruthless killer.

"If It's Tuesday, This Must Be Belgium" — Comic treatise on the habits and customs of the American tourist. Camera is focused on people and not the grand tour. Number of bedroom scenes thrown in.

"Loves of Isadora" — Splendidly mounted biography of legendary American dancer, Isadora Duncan. Her exploits of the 1900's with unorthodox body freeing philosophy of dance and her succession of lovers are highlighted in her tumultuous career.

BORDERLINE
(Most sources say Adults Only)

"Duffy" — Sophisticated tale of a million-dollar modern day piracy caper on the Mediterranean.

ADULTS ONLY

"Goodbuy Columbus" — Picture of a Jewish family is real and humorous. The warmth of the people comes through all the surface vulgarity. Explicit sex and nudity.

"If" — Harrowing British study of violently rebellious youth. Unattractive world of a boys' school. A highly disturbing film, a fantasy, perhaps, but lasting in its impact.

Indian Music Festival Slated

A festival of Indian music will be held next month at the Unitarian Fellowship of Marin, 240 Channing Way, San Rafael, to benefit the Ali Akbar College of Music.

A sarode chamber concerto will be presented, featuring Ali Akbar Khan as soloist with members of the school and the San Francisco Symphony Orchestra, on Aug. 9.

On Aug. 16, the sitar, sarode and tabla will be featured in "Jugulbandi," and on Aug. 23, the sitar and tabla will be featured, along with vocalist Sanjukta Ghosh. All performances begin at 8:30 p.m.

'Freeways' Begins Hub Summer Festival

"Freeways," a play by Paul Richards and Gerry Hiken will open the San Anselmo Festival Theater summer series program Aug. 8 at 9 p.m. in Alexander Hall, 32 Kensington Road, to be preceded by a theater dinner at the hall at 7:30 p.m.

Tickets for the play and dinner are available at the box office.

DINING OUT AND INNS

By HARRY CRAFT

Aristocratic Labels For Food May Not Refer To Quality

Next to cosmetics and many proprietary items on the market, restaurant food is near the top of the list of products that get a heavy share of high-sounding names.

Menus run over with French terms which have influenced the language of the kitchen, regardless of whether the recipe was originally French or Tasmanian. Even if a dish is served in prosaic American style it becomes customary to describe it as Americaine. And if nothing else comes to mind to point up the idiosyncratic touch of the chef or maitre d', the words "a la George," or whatever his name, can be tacked on at the end. If George chances to hit upon something particularly distinctive he may become immortalized. (Witness what happened to such creative specialists as Sergei and Vladimir).

So when a very tantalizing dish appears on the menu, described without fanfare as "stuffed sole," the diner-out who has been subjected to more elegant nomenclature may be inclined to pass over it lightly.

If you are at the Windjammer in Tiburon — pause, order and enjoy it. There is little doubt that it should be recognized in some special way for what it is — a delightful serving of filet of sole with crab and shrimp tucked in, and a sauce not too overbearing.

Actually this is only one example of the tendency at the Windjammer to underplay its attractions, which are many. Bayside scenery is among the best in Marin. Relation of the bar and cocktail lounge to the rest of the restaurant is cleverly designed to put most people at ease on making their entrance. Piano bar, presided over by Mark Williams Thursday through Sunday evenings is close enough to the action to be enjoyed by everyone. Service is good and even the chairs seem to have an extra degree of comfort.

Undoubtedly a publicity agency could make hay out of all this, but most Marinites who are regular customers just take it for granted.

This time of the year, as long as the weather is balmy, the Windjammer's outside deck increases the accent on marine atmosphere. Ordinarily on Thursday evenings when the Champagne Tours were operating, all tables in the restaurant were crowded. But the strike has cut that down and space is generally available on demand. Weekends I wouldn't take that chance. You may be able to get quick action without a reservation, but it doesn't always hold true.

NEW FOOD AND RESTAURANT operation to open on Southeast Boulevard, Sonoma County by Oct. 15 is called Mr. Swiss. Construction of a $60,000 building is planned to house the operation.

Mr. Swiss is a national concern with over 204 units throughout the country. The Rohnert Park outlet is franchised to Calvin L. Carpenter, Santa Rosa Real Estate broker. It will be operated by Mr. and Mrs. Claude Logue of Grants Pass, Ore., who are planning on moving to the area in time for school opening.

SOUTHERN MARIN RESIDENTS — and even those farther removed, will find an interesting and moderately priced selection of take-out food at Le Petite Gourmet, 33 Reed Boulevard in Strawberry.

It is east of Mill Valley Volkswagen and on the back access road to Town and Country Village. Unless you are accustomed to driving there you might not even be aware of Le Petite Gourmet's existence.

Owner Joe Alber of San Rafael opened it about five months ago as a delicatessen, but found that the biggest demand was for take-out sandwiches, entrees and family dinners — so he has gone into this almost entirely. There is also seating for 26 persons and at lunchtime this is usually taken up by local business people who prefer to eat on the premises.

MARK WILLIAMS
Plays at the Windjammer

Biggest play for dinners is in the take-home menu. Entrees include roast beef marchand de vin, ham roulades, chicken Madeira and chicken livers stroganoff. Sandwiches in petit, double-deck and super sizes feature many imported meats and cheeses. There are wines and imported and domestic beers.

Prices are particularly attractive for multiple dinners, so if you have unexpected guests, check this out. Some foods are still sold by the pound to those who prefer to prepare their own servings.

SAN ANSELMO has another Mexican restaurant at 330 San Anselmo Avenue called Juarez.

This is operated by Mario and Teresa Juarez, who serve both Mexican and American food for lunches and dinners. Hours are from 11 a.m. to 9 p.m. Mondays through Saturdays and from 4 to 9 p.m. for dinners on Sundays.

It's a small place — seating capacity is about 35, with combined counter and table service.

FROM NOW ON, I imagine you can expect the landing on the moon to give rise to all sorts of new ideas and products — related to that heavenly body by name, if nothing else.

First one in Marin I've heard about is from Eugene Lackenbach, who has Eugene's Country Club Restaurant in San Rafael. He has come up with a 'moonburger," which he hopes to get patented, copyrighted or covered by whatever exclusive rights to sell it are applicable.

All I know at this time is what Eugene has told me over the telephone — that it's different, has a flavor all its own and "is out of this world."

CALIFORNIA NIGHT at Cafe Bon Vin, San Anselmo, customarily held on the last Thursday of each month, will not take place next week as previously announced.

Circumstances beyond anyone's control prevent the appearance of the Christian Brothers head winemaker Brother Timothy — and it's too late to make satisfactory arrangements for a substitute. So the whole thing is being deferred until some later date to be announced. Brother Timothy has agreed to appear on a future California Night program.

Meanwhile Fred Cherry is working on plans for expanding his Wine Appreciation Center. New developments on this may be forthcoming in another week or so.

BERNARD'S EXECUTIVE LOUNGE in San Rafael has a new entertainment attraction on Friday and Saturday nights, from 9 p.m. to closing time.

This is Harriett West, guitarist and singer, formerly with Meridian West. She has appeared on POW and at the Hungry I.

SENOR ALFREDO'S MEXICAN RESTAURANT in San Anselmo will start keeping later hours on Aug. 1, serving dinners from 5 to 11 p.m. Fridays and Saturdays and from 5 to 10 p.m. (kitchen closes at 9:30). Lunches during the week are from 11:30 a.m. to 2 p.m. Closed Mondays.

There's a new lunch menu going into effect — simple and less expensive — Al Barthel will serve a number of tostada dishes at $1.

Make-Up Program For High School Dropouts

Beginning this fall, children of Marin County seasonal farm worker families who have dropped out of high school will be able to earn a high school diploma in HEP, a high school equivalency program open to youths between the ages of 17 and 22 at University of the Pacific in Stockton.

Admission information is available from the school.

SORRY, BROTHER TIMOTHY,

that you will be unable to bring your wines and your wit to Cafe Bon Vin next Thursday. A series of unfortunate circumstances make it necessary to postpone Brother Timothy's visit to a later date to be announced. We will try to reach those with reservations (who will receive priority when the event is rescheduled) to let them know of the change in plans. And we hope you who read this ad will contribute to the mighty power of advertising by passing the word along.

DRAMATIC IS

the exciting announcement for wine lovers coming next week. Be sure to look for the Cafe Bon Vin advertisement on this page next Friday with great eagerness.

Suez War Continues; Claims Challenged

By ASSOCIATED PRESS

Israel and Egypt followed up one of the biggest Middle East battles since 1967 with a new spurt of fighting along the Suez Canal today.

An Israeli army spokesman in Tel Aviv said Egyptian forces opened fire chiefly along the southern end of the waterway and the Israelis returned it. He said an Israeli soldier was slightly wounded.

At the same time both sides swapped claims and denials after yesterday's day-long air and ground fighting—the third big battle of the week in the canal area. And Prime Minister Golda Meir of Israel called upon the Arabs to respect the cease-fire agreement that ended the fighting in the six-day war of June 1967.

MUTUAL PEACE

"I must point out to Egypt, Jordan and Syria that we do not speak out of weakness," she said. "Let us respect the cease-fire on both sides in order to avoid death, injury and suffering. Let us hope our call is heard and answered."

An Israeli Foreign Ministry spokesman told newsmen Israel's aim is the renewal of the cease-fire "on a mutual basis" along the canal.

The spokesman claimed the recent deterioration in the canal situation is due to Egypt's policies of "denying the existence of the cease-fire."

He added: "However, there is still the possibility of avoiding a further aggravation of the situation, by sticking unconditionally to the cease-fire agreement, in line with Egypt's commitment of June 1967."

PLANE CLAIMS

Israel said seven Egyptian planes, six MIGs and one Sukhoi fighter-bomber were shot down yesterday and two were damaged. An Israeli spokesman said all Israeli aircraft returned to base and an Egyptian pilot was captured.

He said the Egyptian planes were brought down by U.S.-made Hawk ground-to-air missiles, antiaircraft guns and planes.

The spokesman added the Israelis caused "serious damage" to Egyptian positions north of El Qantara, at the northern end of the canal, and knocked out four batteries of antiaircraft missiles, artillery positions and a radar station.

CHALLENGES

Egypt admitted it lost one plane. It claimed it downed seven Israeli jets and hit three others with antiaircraft fire.

Cairo scoffed at Israeli's claim of downing so many Soviet-built Egyptian planes and challenged the Israelis to produce wreckage as proof.

Cairo radio quoted an Egyptian military source as saying: "There are hundreds of correspondents in Israel to whom it can exhibit proof to back its claims if it has any." He said Israel was trying to cover up heavy losses.

TANK FIRE

The fighting began, according to the Israeli spokesman, with Israeli planes attacking Egyptian positions "following Egypt's continual cease-fire violations."

Then artillery and tank guns traded fire along the 103-mile canal after which Egyptian aircraft struck at Israeli positions along the canal.

Israel said Egypt suffered "dozens of dead and wounded." It said one Israeli soldier was killed and eight were wounded.

Egypt said one Egyptian soldier was killed and "a few others" were injured.

At U.N. headquarters in New York, U.S. officials said the United States and the Soviet Union regard the escalation of hostilities in the Middle East as serious but both believe an all-out war is not imminent.

Six Injured In Accident On Highway

Six persons were treated yesterday at Marin General Hospital for minor injuries received in a two-car accident on Highway 101 at Lucky Drive, in Corte Madera.

Treated were four Marin City residents, Allen Brooks, 20, of 11 Cole Drive and Jesse Page, 20, of 26 Eureka Street, both for face cuts; Earl Hall, 18, of 15 Dutton Court, cut ear and multiple scrapes and bruises; and Wilbur Smith, 19, of 49 Cole Drive, scrapes and bruises.

Also treated were Stewart W. Beckett, 33, of East Hartford, Conn., and Diane Ulmer, 25, of 5 Rodeo Avenue, Sausalito, both for foreign bodies in their eyes.

California Highway Patrol officers said that Brooks was driving southbound on Highway 101 when his car clipped Beckett's car and spun into the chain link divider fence.

Page, Hall and Smith were passengers in Brook's car and Miss Ulmer was a passenger in Beckett's car.

In a related accident, Howard W. Behle, 32, of 720 Hilary Drive, Tiburon, who stopped to aid Brooks and his passengers, apparently didn't set the emergency brake properly, officers said, and his car rolled into a culvert at the side of the highway, hitting a chain link fence.

Burglars Ransack Tam Valley Residence

Burglars who cut a screen on a bathroom window at the home of Dennis Wheeler at 211 Marin Avenue, Tamalpais Valley Monday ransacked the entire house and stole a number of articles, sheriff's officers said yesterday.

Missing were two silverware sets, each containing 60 pieces, a portable radio, two suitcases, two cameras, a flashgun and a pellet gun.

Bundy To Quit City Aide Post

Robert C. Bundy, administrative assistant in Larkspur and director of recreation for Larkspur and the Town of Corte Madera since 1964, yesterday announced his resignation.

The Larkspur City Council scheduled a special session today at 4:30 p.m. to authorize the recruitment of a replacement.

Bundy, 40, said today he plans to accept a post as executive assistant to the city manager of Merced in mid-September.

His final work day in Larkspur will be Aug. 22.

Bundy also held the posts of Larkspur city treasurer and director of finance and was the city's representative on the Marin County Economic Opportunity Council.

Bundy was hired in 1964 by the Larkspur-Corte Madera Joint Recreation Commission as director at $600 a month. Less than 14 months later, he submitted his resignation when it appeared the City of Larkspur and the Larkspur School District were not going to support the joint recreation program in the fiscal year 1965-66.

He stayed on when the matter was resolved.

Hospital Board To Study Report For Expansion

The Hillcrest Hospital board last night accepted for consideration a report of the Southwestern Sonoma County Health Facilities Planning Committee that urged enlargement of the hospital.

The committee report said the 57-bed hospital should be expanded to 103 beds by 1970, 157 beds by 1980 and 262 beds by 1990. The report noted that, although the hospital is not in the geographic center of the service area, the facilities should be expanded to utilize fully the existing investment.

The committee also recommended that the hospital enlarge facilities for out patients care, labroatory and X-ray and public clinics.

The board was urged to seek financial support from both state and federal governments to fund the additions.

The Hillcrest Hospital baord also:

AIR CONDITIONING — Said bids would be opened Aug. 5 for an air conditioning unit for the hospital.

STORAGE SPACE — Heard report that plans are under way to construct a storage building for medical records and supplies.

Decision On Sports Funds To Be Delayed

Sonoma State College President Ambrose R. Nichols Jr. heard protests yesterday from the athletic department over a large budget cut by students, but upheld the decision to limit funds for intercollegiate sports.

Dr. Nichols said he met with G. Edward Rudloff, athletic director, and promised to explore all other possible methods of raising funds to sustain the athletic program.

Dr. Rudloff had said the budget slash from the $16,000 requested to $8,800 would ruin plans for the stepped-up women's sports program and the college's planned debut in intercollegiate football.

Dr. Nichols agreed that the lack of funds might endanger the program, but said he hoped that abolition could be avoided.

The $55,650 budget, which was approved by vice president James B. Enochs in Nichols' absence, originally included $500 interest-free loans for four student body officers. Enochs ruled the allocations illegal, saying all loans must be processed through the financial aids office.

The budget also withholds money for publication of the student newspaper, Steppes, which was criticized for publishing pictures of nudes and using obscene words. It will receive no funds until new guidelines have been established, Nichols said. A student-faculty committee is now preparing new rules of conduct for the newspaper staff.

Novato Man Admits Charges

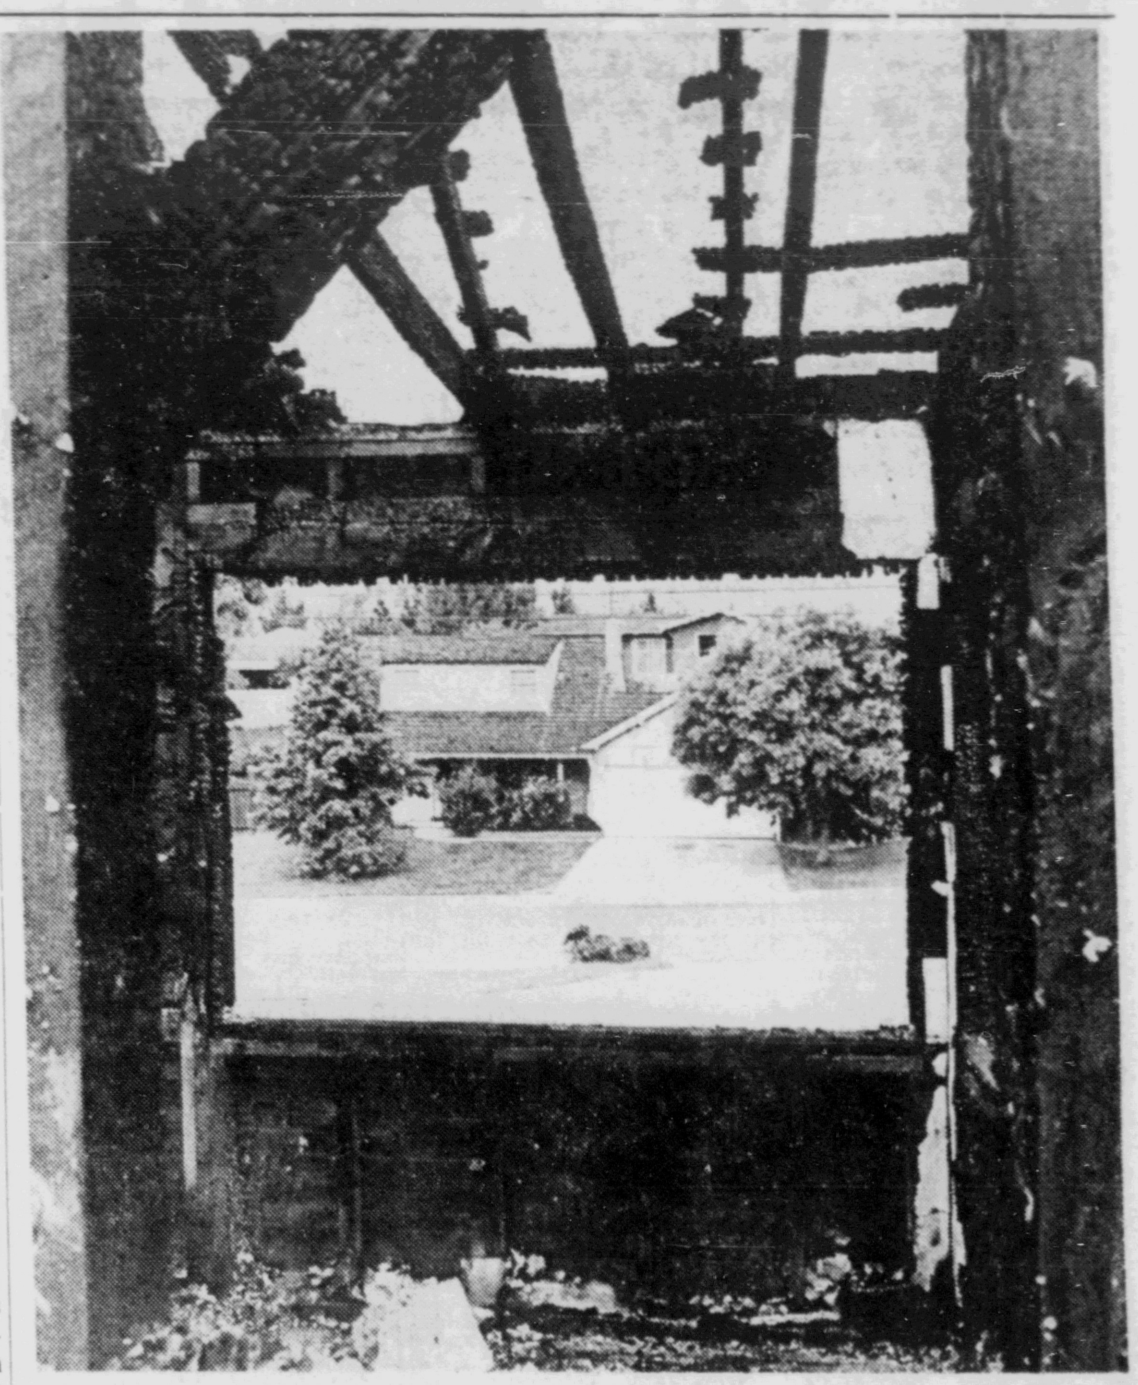
Frank E. Jordan, 20, of Novato, pleaded guilty yesterday in Marin Municipal Court to misdeameanor charges of possessing a narcotics device and petty theft.

Another charge of having beer as a minor was dismissed.

He had earlier been accused of felony possession of marijuana.

Judge Hadden W. Roth set sentencing for Aug. 29.

Jordan also faces a felony manslaughter charge stemming from an auto accident June 22 in which Michael Granlich, 16, of Novato, was killed.



ARSONIST'S HANDIWORK — The charred ruins of the William A. Edwards home at 2726 Heatherstone Drive frames a neighbor's house across the street. The Marinwood home was the third in the community to be put to the torch in a week when it went up in flames today. (Independent-Journal photo)

Arsonist Ignites Third Empty Home

A Marinwood arsonist, who concentrates on unoccupied homes, struck again today, the third time in one week, destroying a home at 2726 Heatherstone Drive.

The blaze, spotted by neighbors at 2:45 a.m., burned about 90 per cent of the one-story wood frame structure. William Edwards and his family, who occupied the home, were away on vacation in Virginia. Fireman said the Edwardses have been reached and are on their way home.

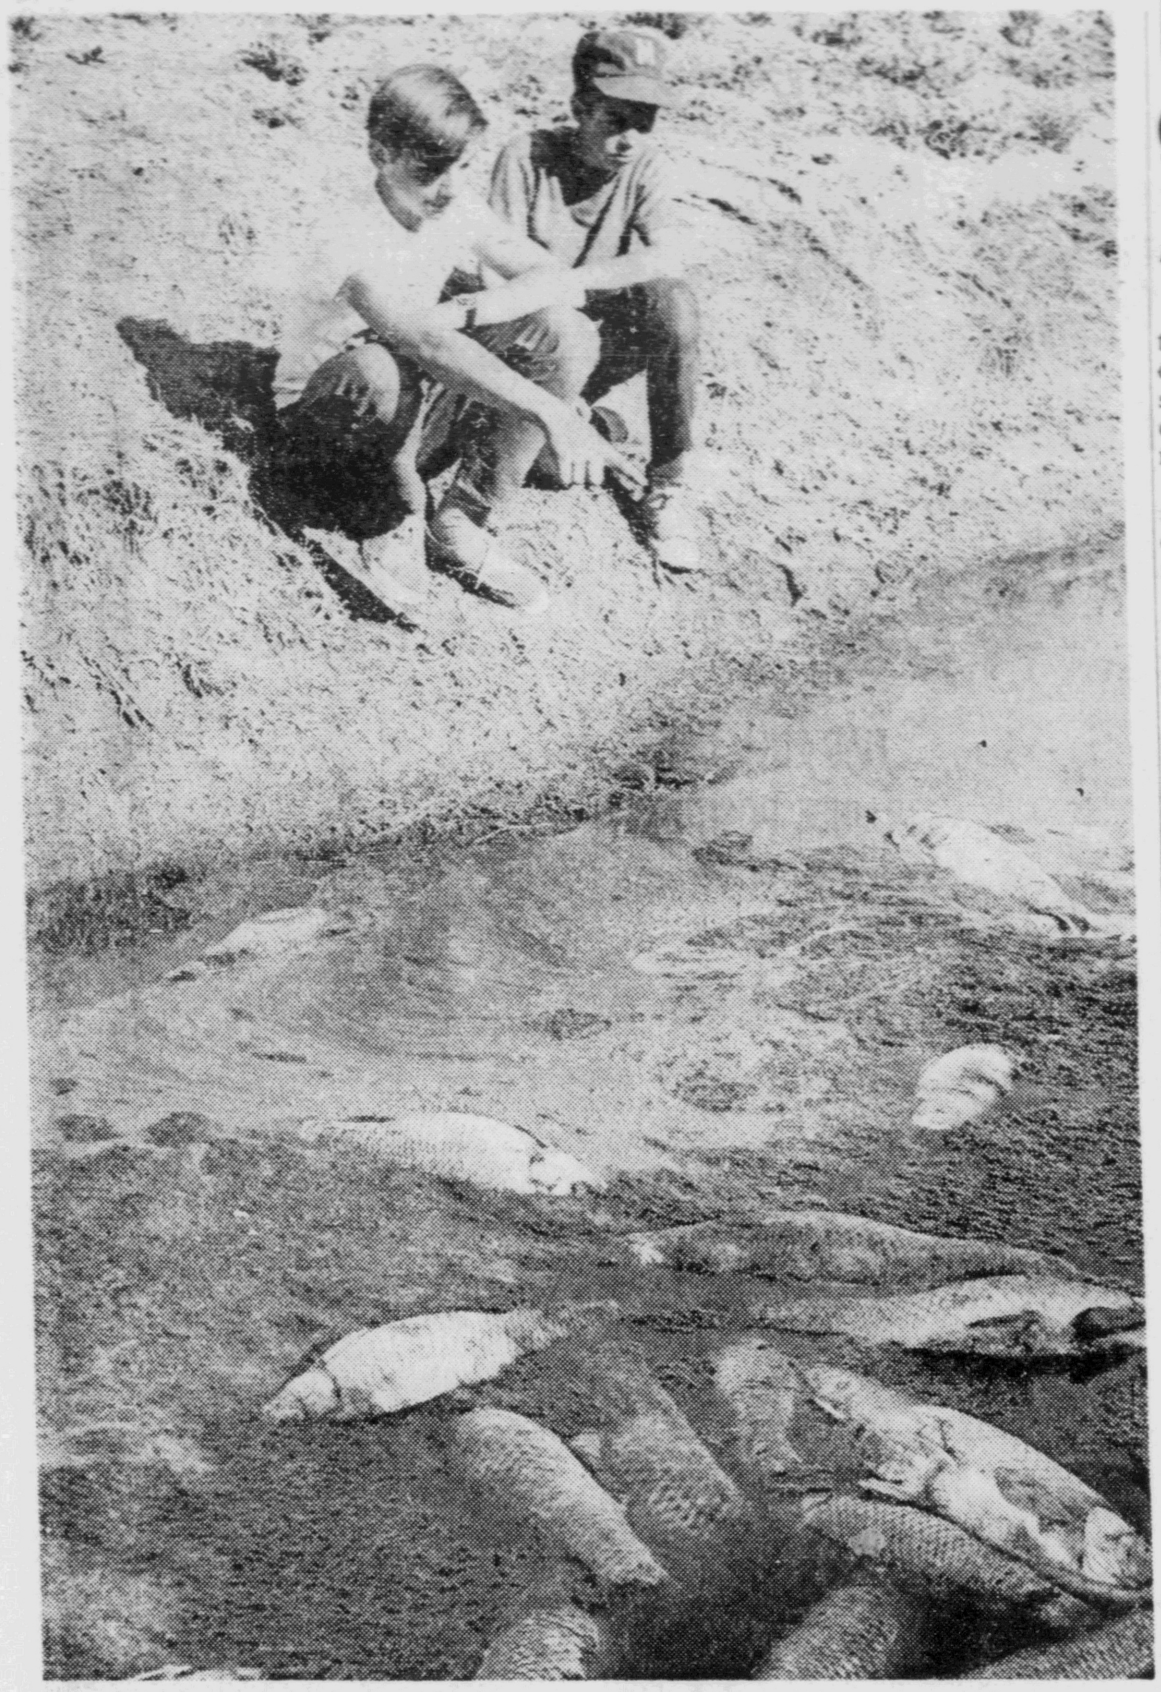
Fire prevention officer James Jackson estimated damage at $25,000. He said the arsonist had apparently poured some flammable liquid in the master bedroom and lit a match.

"When we got there, the whole place was afire," said Jackson. Eighteen men and two fire trucks, led by fire chief Gaylord E. Bonfield, battled flames and mopped up until 5:30 a.m.

Jackson said the fire appears to be the work of the same person who set three fires last weekend. On Saturday, at about 1 a.m., fire broke out at the home of Robert Gehrke at 113 Blackstone Drive. The Gehrkes were away on vacation. On Sunday about 12:50 a.m. the Leonard A. Spencer home at 234 Johnstone Drive burned. The Spencers were in the process of moving into the home, but the house was not yet occupied.

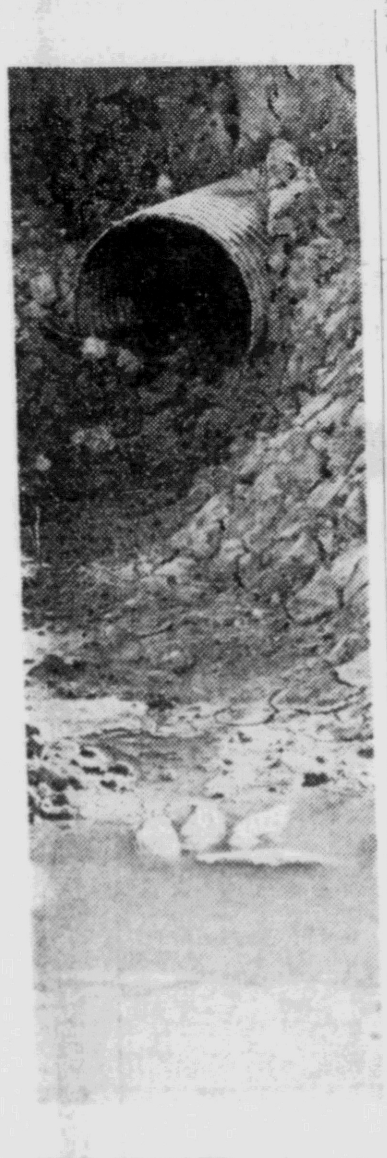
Also on Sunday another house at 248 Johnstone Drive, which had just been purchased by Francis Lum was broken into and a bottle of gasoline tossed into the living room through a window.

Marinwood firemen said they are working with the sheriff's investigators on the three arson cases and have leads on a suspect.



FISH KILL PROBED

Officials of the Bay Area Regional Water Quality Control Board and the state Department of Fish and Game are investigating the death of about 120 carp in a dammed-up canal off the north fork of Las Gallinas Creek. Jim Sherman, 12, (right) who found the dead fish yesterday, takes a close look at the fish with a friend, Jim Spini, 14. Both boys live on Vendola Drive in Santa Venetia which parallels the creek. (Independent-Journal photos by Roger Bockrath).



FISH TRAPPED — As state officials investigated the fish kill, it was theorized that the fish swam through this drainage pipe from the main creek during high tide and were trap in the stagnant canal, dammed up on both ends, when the tide receded.

Tiburon-Belvedere Drops Summer Youth Program

The Tiburon-Belvedere joint teen-age summer recreation program was discontinued last night by the Tiburon Parks and Recreation Commissimn because of disinterest by teenagers, according to Russell L. Melquist, assistant to the city manager.

Funds allocated to the program will be reserved and the program reactivated if peninsula youth show a renewed interest in summer recreation, Melquist said.

The Tiburon parks and recreation commission also:

AYALA DAY — Agreed to stage a pageant for Ayala Day celebration Sept. 6.

PARK — Approved a report listing alternative locations for a park and road on the Samuel M. Shapero property on Trestle Glen Boulevard.

Haircut Prices Due For Hike, Union Predicts

An official of Barbers Union Local 582 of San Rafael predicted today an increase in haircut rates to $3 in most of Marin's 76 barber shops by Aug. 1.

Manuel Martin, secretary-treasurer of the local, attributed the increase, from $2.75, to a rise in the cost of living.

Similar increases, to be effective Aug. 1, were announced last week in San Francisco and northern San Mateo County.

Martin said wage agreements between employers and barbers expired July 15, and, negotiations aren't scheduled to begin until October. Still, he expected a rate increase on or about Aug. 1.

The $2.75 rate has been in effect for two years, Martin said.

BAY AREA REAL ESTATE
"WHERE THE ACTION IS"

ASSUMABLE G.I. — SANTA VENETIA
Tenants have just moved out of this wonderful ranch-style home. This would be a wonderful opportunity to put a little of yourself in fixing up this home, situated on a quiet street near shopping center, schools and a beautiful neighborhood park. There are three good size bedrooms and one bath. A brick fireplace in the living room and hardwood floors throughout make this an excellent family home and the spacious corner lot offers an ideal play area for children. A rare opportunity to assume a 5¼% assumable G.I. loan with a balance of approximately $20,800, payable at $187 per month, taxes and insurance included. Just reduced to $25,500.

AMONGST THE TREES — SAN ANSELMO
will give you the feeling of a woodsy atmosphere with lots of glass and a deck all around to enjoy the view of the lovely trees. Stepping into the 2 story living room adds charm to this 2 bedroom home, one bath and an all-electric kitchen, only 5 years old. Price $28,950.

McGREGOR'S GARDEN — NOVATO
Peter would have had little trouble in finding his way out of this luscious well kept garden. Anxious owners are forced to sacrifice their lovely 3 bedroom, 2 bath home on a quiet cul-de-sac. Only 4½ years old, a few of the many features of this Fraser Designed home are: 2 fireplaces, sunken family room, king size bedrooms, hardwood floors, all cedar lined closets, but best of all, one of the beautiful yards in the area. Just transferred, assumable G.I. 5¼%. Monthly payments of $193 PITI. See it now soon, you'll love it. Price $31,950.

DECORATOR'S DELIGHT — S.R. HEIGHTS
Imagine a beautiful custom-built home situated on a rustic and tranquil half acre. The four bedrooms and three baths include a deluxe master bedroom and Roman bath. Gold leaf tiling in the sunken living room is just one outstanding feature of this elegant home. You will spend many relaxing hours in the pool area, which is complete with cabana, BBQ pit, and a deck which completely surrounds the house. Owner will consider an all inclusive deed of trust. Price $59,500.

BOAT LOVERS — SAN RAFAEL
Here is the perfect family home that boasts 100-ft. frontage on a deep-water canal. Tie up to your own spacious dock — relax on your covered patio with the BBQ ready. You'll never tire of the view from all of the large rooms to your own back yard Venice! The three bedrooms, two baths and big family kitchen lend comfort to this boat fancier's dream, close to the Marin Yacht Club. Most cooperative owner. Price just reduced $5,000 to $54,950.

LOTUS LAND — FAIRHILLS
This peaceful family home high in the hills of Fairhills in San Rafael is situated on a mostly level acre. The U-shaped floor plan encompasses a delightful outdoor living area with ample room for a pool. The house has a separate dining room, a kitchen with a distinct breakfast area, four bedrooms in addition to a den or family room. If you have been looking for a home in this price range, this property is well worth the time to inspect and check the value at a price of $69,500.

SUPREME ELEGANCE — PEACOCK GAP
First time offered — architect designed home of many unusual points of elegance. One side of every lovely room in the house captivates one of the most beautiful views in the area, the other side looks on to a tropical garden surrounding a pool. This 3 bedroom, 2½ bath home with a separate dining area is patterned not only with the thought of family living in mind, but truly offers all the prominent features of gracious style in entertaining. This home complete with air purifier and vacuum cleaning cost more than $80,000 to build and is priced at $74,500.

EXCLUSIVE GREENBRAE

Poised above the road, on a private and secluded lot, yet within walking distance to schools — a most striking home, very dramatic in design, both luxurious and elegant. Large sunken living room has cathedral beamed ceiling, dining room has enormous used brick fireplace; family room is paneled. Large master bedroom suite, 3 bedrooms and one bath on second floor. Extensive use of used brick inside and out and a steep heavy shake roof enhances the mood. $75,000. Eves. 453-5983.

EXCLUSIVE COUNTRY CLUB AREA SAN RAFAEL

On a really lovely acre of land, tranquil and clustered with lovely specimen trees with a serene view of the hills and bay, this older 2 story residence offers peace and quiet combined with convenience to town. From the spacious living room and master bedroom you walk out to a large deck. A separate entrance hall, separate dining room, den, 3 bedrooms and 2 baths, large storage areas complete the picture. The unfinished but roughed-in basement area could be made into a family room — lots of possibilities. Excellent pool site available. Owner will carry first deed of trust at 7½% with $20,000 down. $75,000. Eves. 453-5718.

TURN OF THE CENTURY QUALITY SAN RAFAEL is found in this Dominican beauty awaiting only updating of its kitchen and master bath to be as functional as tomorrow. HOW TO KEEP WELL

By DR. THEODORE R. VAN DELLEN

Healthy Suntan Can Protect Body From Ultraviolet Rays

VAN DELLEN

When the skin is exposed to the sun, certain cells are stimulated to form pigment (melanin). The ensuing tan helps to protect the body's surface from too much ultraviolet. Sunburn is likely to occur once the skin is brown because the excess pigment is nature's built-in tanning lotion.

After years of exposure to Old Sol, this protective function develops to an abnormal extent with the appearance of sharply circumscribed dark brown areas of pigmentation. These spots usually are seen on the backs of the hands, forearms, and the face. They are soft, and not scaly or pre-cancerous.

SMALL, ROUGHENED lesions (keratoses) may also develop on the epidermis. Some can be felt long before they are visible. These spots, also caused by the sun, are almost always on exposed areas. They are frequently called senile keratoses, but sun, rather than age, is responsible. Their rough, hard surface is covered by whitish or dirty brown scales. From 15 to 20 per cent of these lesions will undergo cancerous degeneration. The best remedy is surgical excision or complete destruction via electrodesiccation or cryotherapy (freezing.)

Overexposure also leads to irreversible epidermal changes. Small blood vessels and other superficial tissues deteriorate and result in dryness, loss of elasticity, coarseness, wrinkling, and a leathery appearance. These alterations also have been ascribed to growing old, but too much sun is to blame.

IN THE ELDERLY, the unexposed skin usually remains soft and smooth. Most of the surface changes seen in oldsters are related more to total overexposure than to age. Blacks have natural protection against the sun explaining why many elderly Negroes often maintain a deceptively youthful appearance.

KINDERGARTEN

Mrs. C. L. writes: My little girl missed getting into kindergarten last fall because she was one month under 5. She's a bright child and has picked up a lot from her 7-year-old sister. Would her health be harmed if I entered her in the 1st grade next September, even though she won't be 6?

REPLY

No harm, provided she can keep up with the class. Your family physician and the school principal are better judges than I. When some youngsters are entered too soon, they have trouble keeping up with the older children.

TONSILS

Mrs. B. C. writes: Will tonsillectomy in a 6-year-old help prevent further attacks of asthma?

REPLY

Yes, if the asthmatic attacks are caused by bacteria and the causative organisms are harbored in the tonsils. I assume this child has been tested for the more common causes of asthma.

WHOOPING AND AGE

E. B. writes: Can a 13-year-old contract whooping cough?

REPLY

Yes. The causative organisms are not a bit superstitious.

CYST SYMPTOMS

C. C. writes: What are the symptoms of an ovarian cyst?

REPLY

These cysts rarely produce symptoms unless they twist, are large, or rupture, or hemorrhage. Among other manifestations are menstrual disturbances and lower abdominal pain when large ovarian cysts cause enlargement of the abdomen.

COCKTAIL VITAMINS

P. S. writes: What vitamin is good to take when going to a cocktail party?

REPLY

Vitamin B sensible.

Man Arraigned In Auto Theft

Daniel E. De Costa, 21, of San Francisco has been arraigned in Marin Municipal Court on charges of auto theft and auto burglary stemming from the theft of a car in Corte Madera Sunday.

His case has been continued until Aug. 7 for entry of plea.

Police said that a 1968 Caprice was stolen from a carport at 14 Upland Circle, and nine cars were broken into in the same area. A stereo tape player was taken from one vehicle.

DeCosta and three juveniles were arrested in Santa Rosa after deputies stopped the car there.

Marin Has 17 Draftees In July —Quota Is 94

Seventeen youths were inducted into the armed forces in July by the Marin Selective Service Board, executive secretary Joy M. Kinzer reported today.

They are Paul N. Gockel of San Francisco; Robert D. Kendall, Frank A. Neer and Kenneth L. Caughie, all of San Anselmo; Scot E. Graham and Charles E. Robertson, both of Tiburon; Robert R. Schultz Jr. and Craig E. Vincent, both of Mill Valley;

Donald M. Semeski, David W. Nylund, Stephen T. Mize, James F. Edwards, Bruce J. Cornelius, and Theodore E. Fullmer IV, all of San Rafael; Mark S. Vantrease of Corte Madera, and Timothy J. Hendrickson and George J. Rossi III, both of Novato.

The number is the highest to go from Marin this year. The July quota for the county was 94 but the quota is seldom filled, Mrs. Kinzer said.

The quota for August is 30, she said.

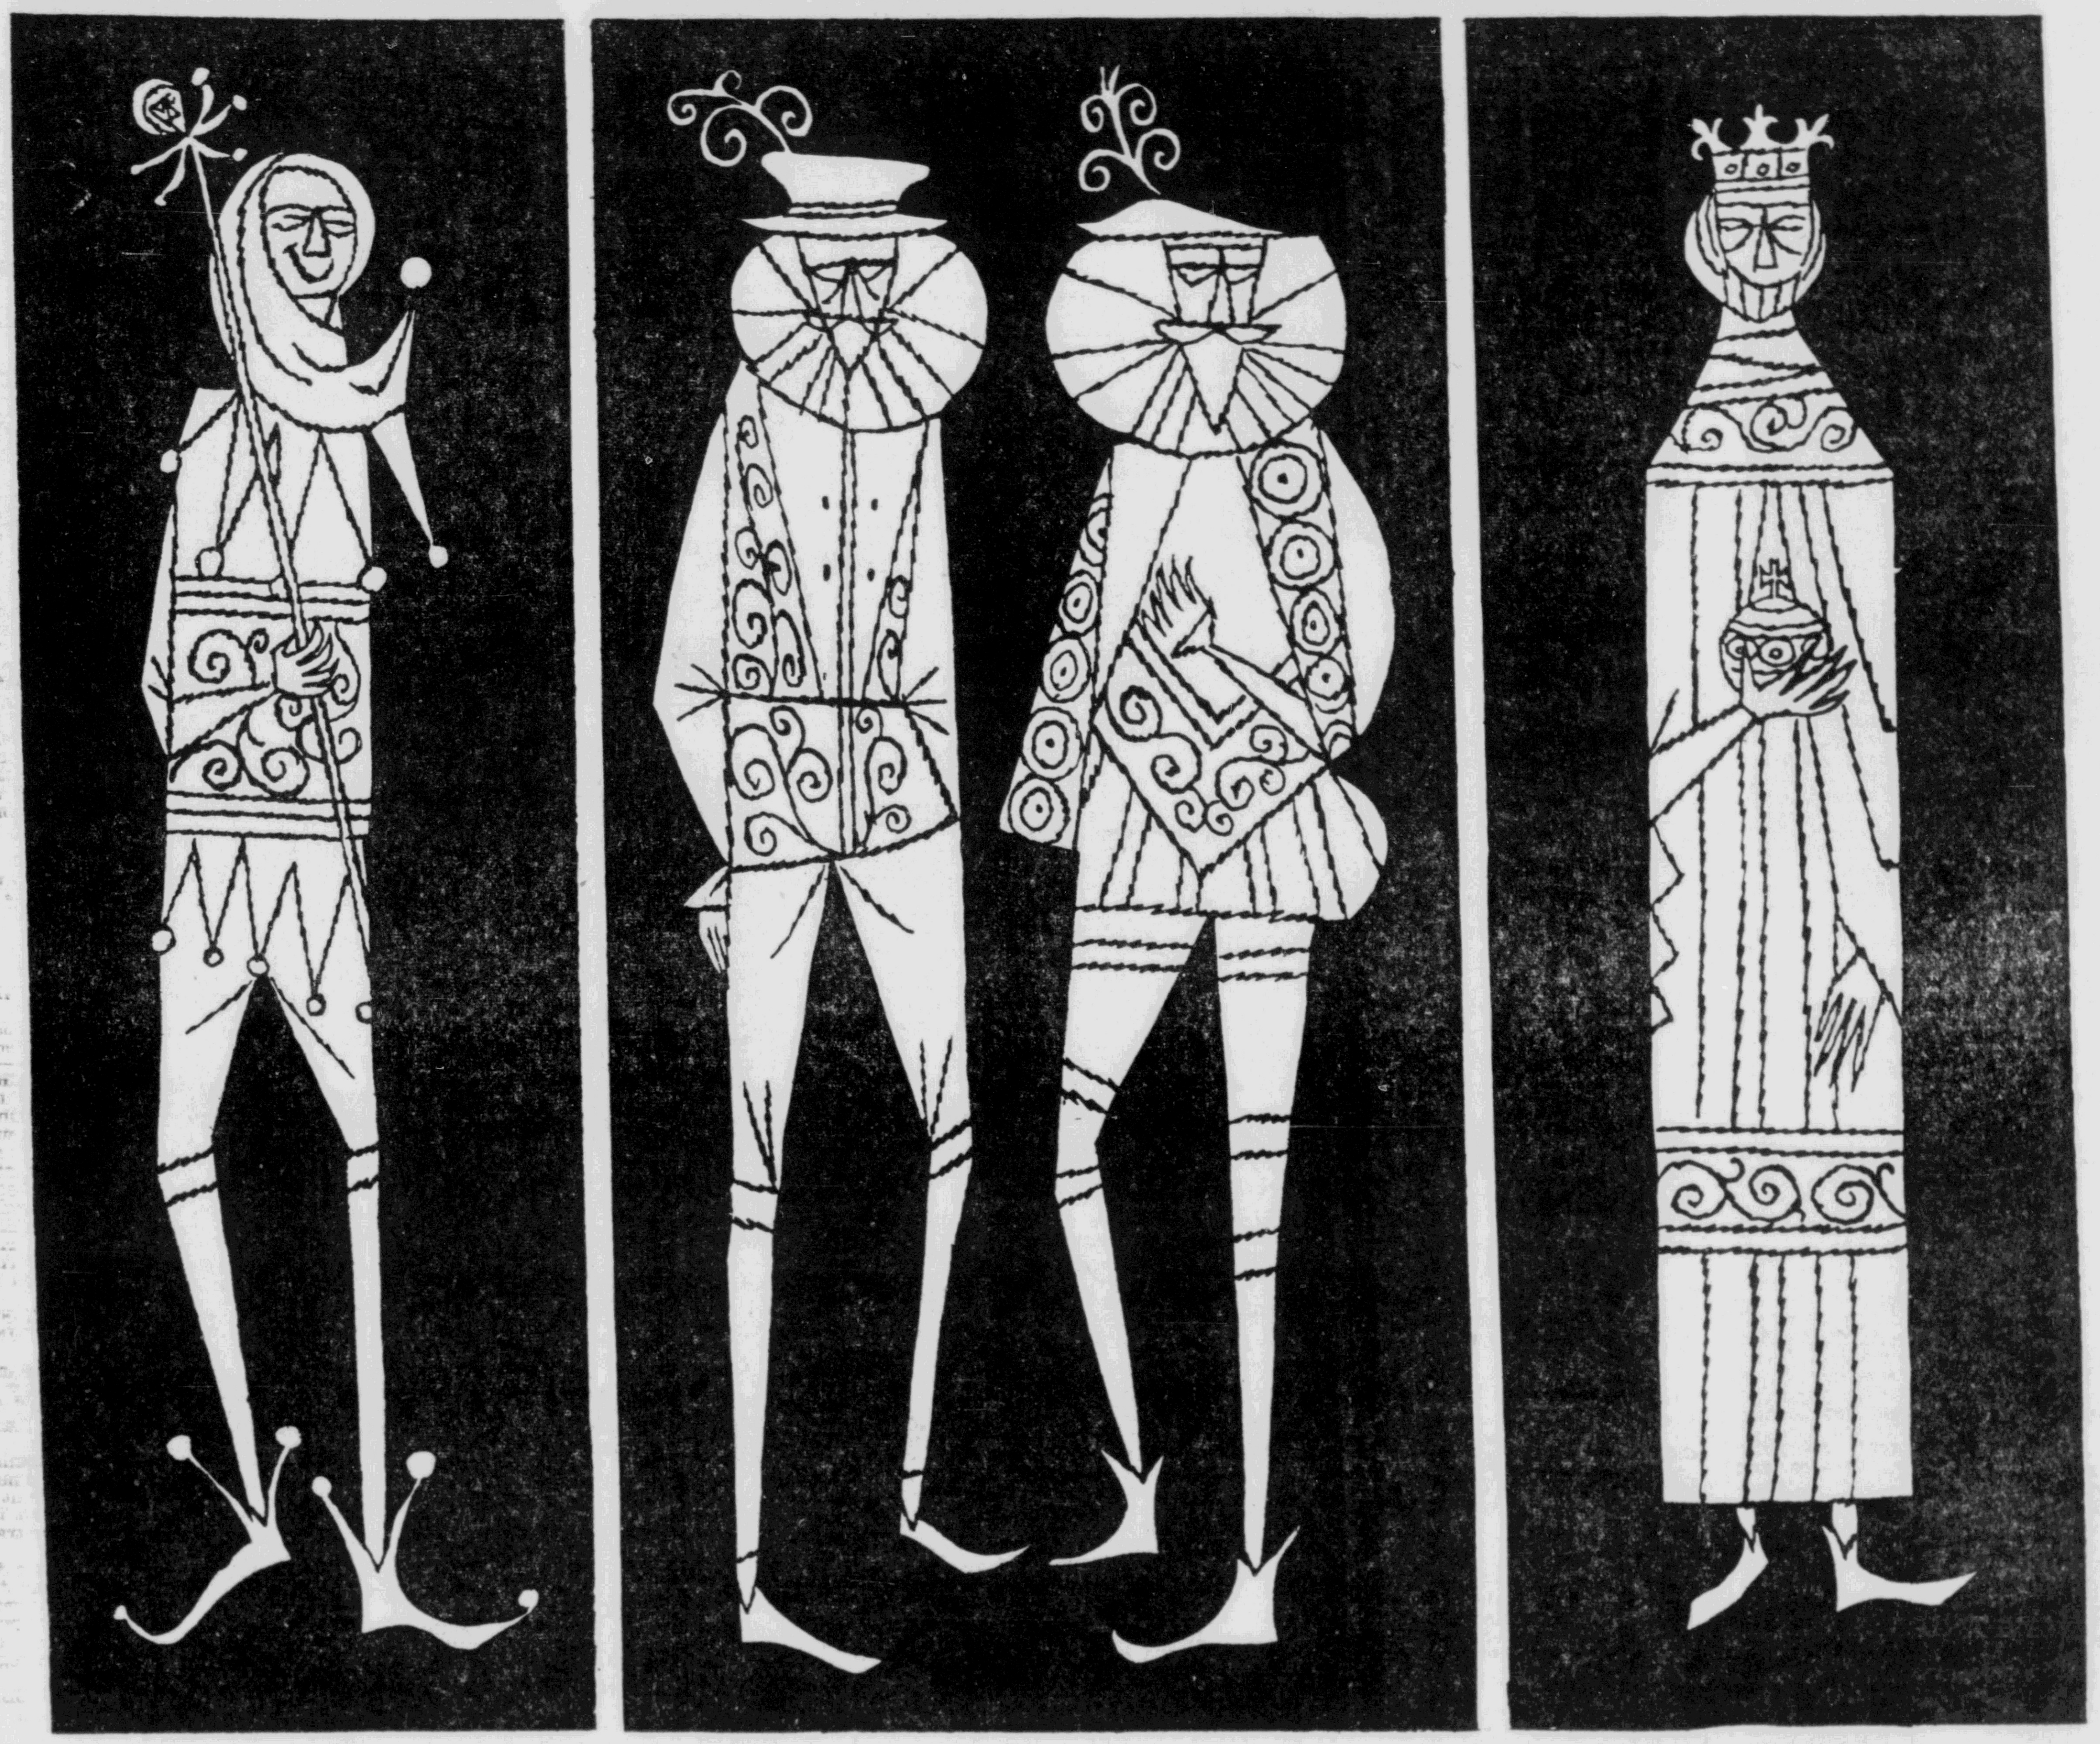
Meet Shakespeare in Marin This Summer



Meet the writer who knows more about you (and the human race) than anyone. Now's your chance!

A GREAT SEASON
3 GREAT PLAYS
JULY 17 - SEPT. 27

Take in the seat of drama, humor, wit and fun . . . one of the finest Shakespearean festivals in the U.S. . . . at fabulously beautiful Forest Meadows Theatre

Do you know there are actually PEOPLE in Marin who haven't yet been Shakespeared? People who have actually driven past Forest Meadows unaware that Shakespeare is here? Friends of yours, even. Intelligent people who read good books and others who settle for the comics? (If Queen Elizabeth I could have known this she'd have sent them to the Tower! Or given them tickets).

For you and SHE know that Shakespeare is a bit funnier than maybe the best TV writer. And can far out-gallop Mickey Spillane, Voltaire and Sophocles in running dramatic thrills up your spine.

Point is, that the Bard is in full flower this summer at Forest Meadows with three plays which he wrote shortly after Drake discovered Marin County. (He did this purposely knowing you'd discover that HE was the greatest circumnavigator of fun, wit and dramatic entertainment to conquer the natives of Marin and other parts).

But you know all this. The shame is, too many people could miss seeing Shakespeare at the Festival. Miss the villians, the heroes, the rogues, the roll of words that shake the very trees.

Gadzooks, this cannot be! Do something about it. Get tickets, flaunt them at your friends. Taunt them. Pull them away from TV, bowling and other lowbrow revels. Tell them they cannot go on living like this! Let's not keep Shakespeare waiting!

A Midsummer Night's Dream
Directed by John Olon

Richard II
Directed by John Argue

* * *

Two Gentlemen of Verona
Directed by Dan Caldwell

Plan to see all three plays. You'll be the better for it. Let's not disappoint Shakespeare, here in Marin!

Become a patron, a sponsor, even a life member. Remember, dukes and great lords sponsored Elizabethian drama — glad to! Proves how cultured you are. Rewarding!

PERFORMANCES

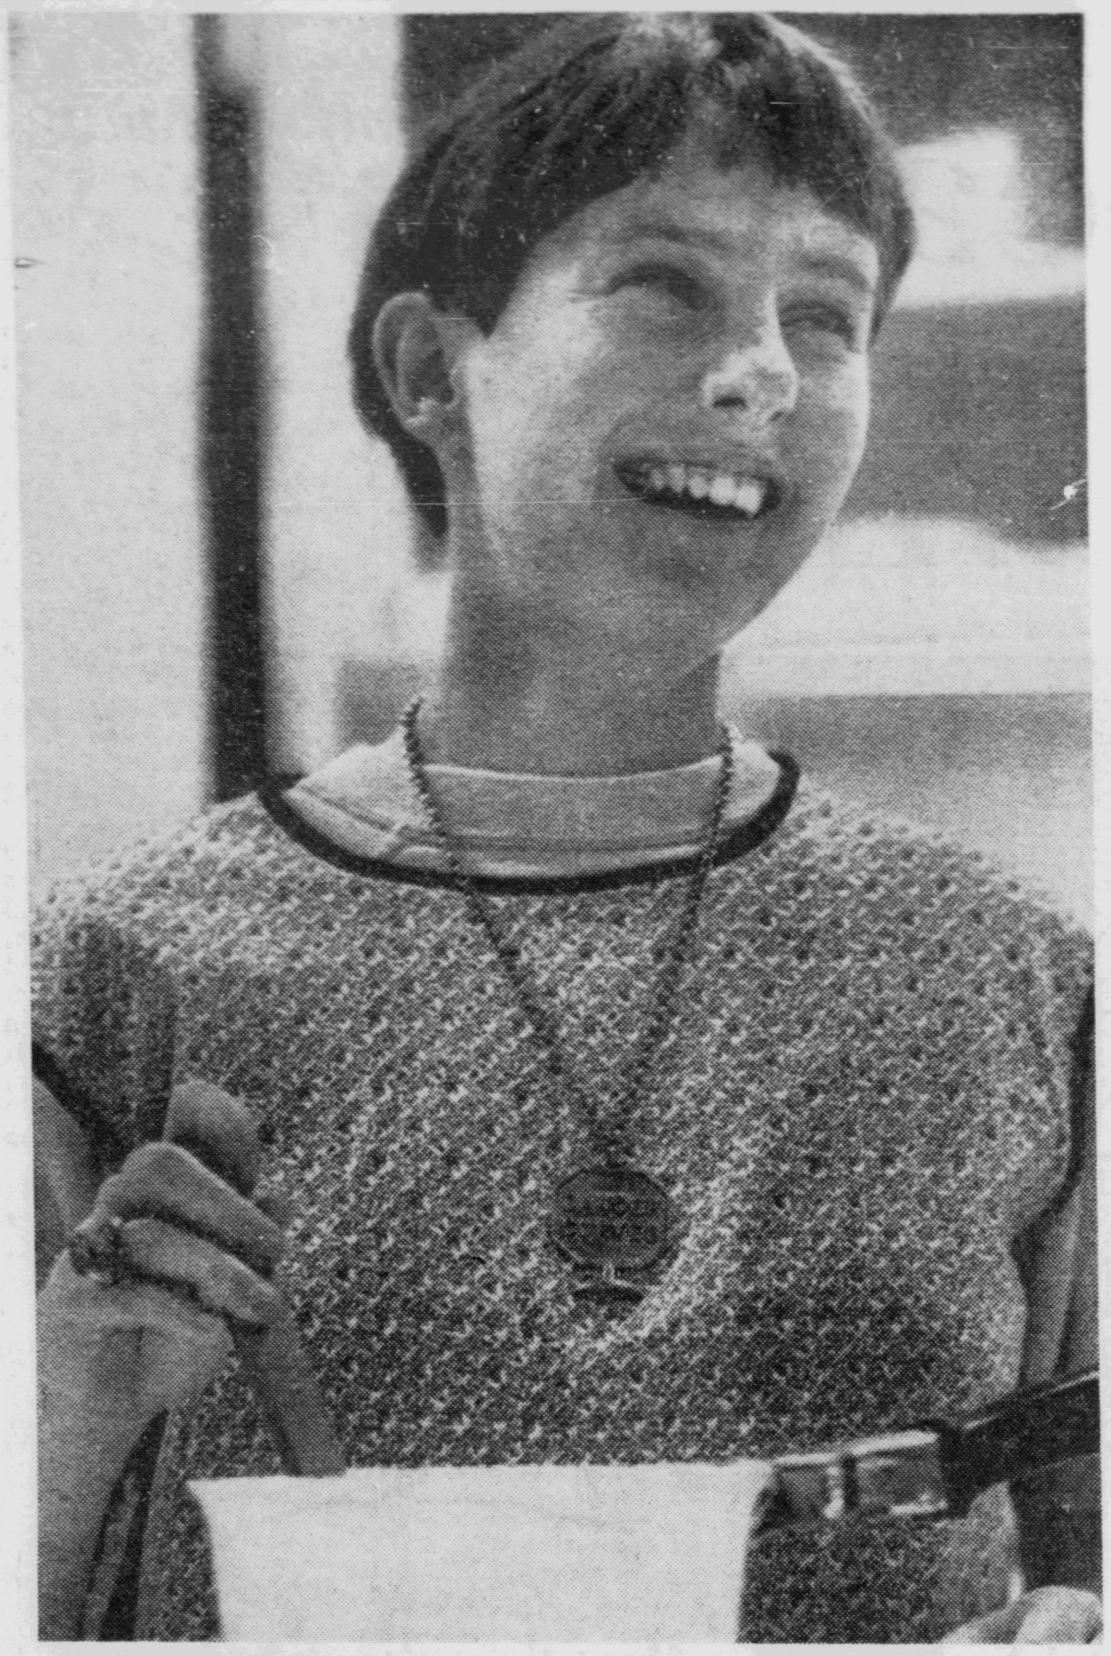
They Work Around Blindness



FUTURE HOUSEWIFE — Bonnie's warm happy smile is a "thank you" for the foundation's home economics department, which teaches blind students how to cook and perform other household chores. Kaplan, who established the foundation, said, "It is important that these children learn to integrate into their society, not as beggars, but as useful citizens. Blindness must not be treated as a tragedy, merely as a nuisance."

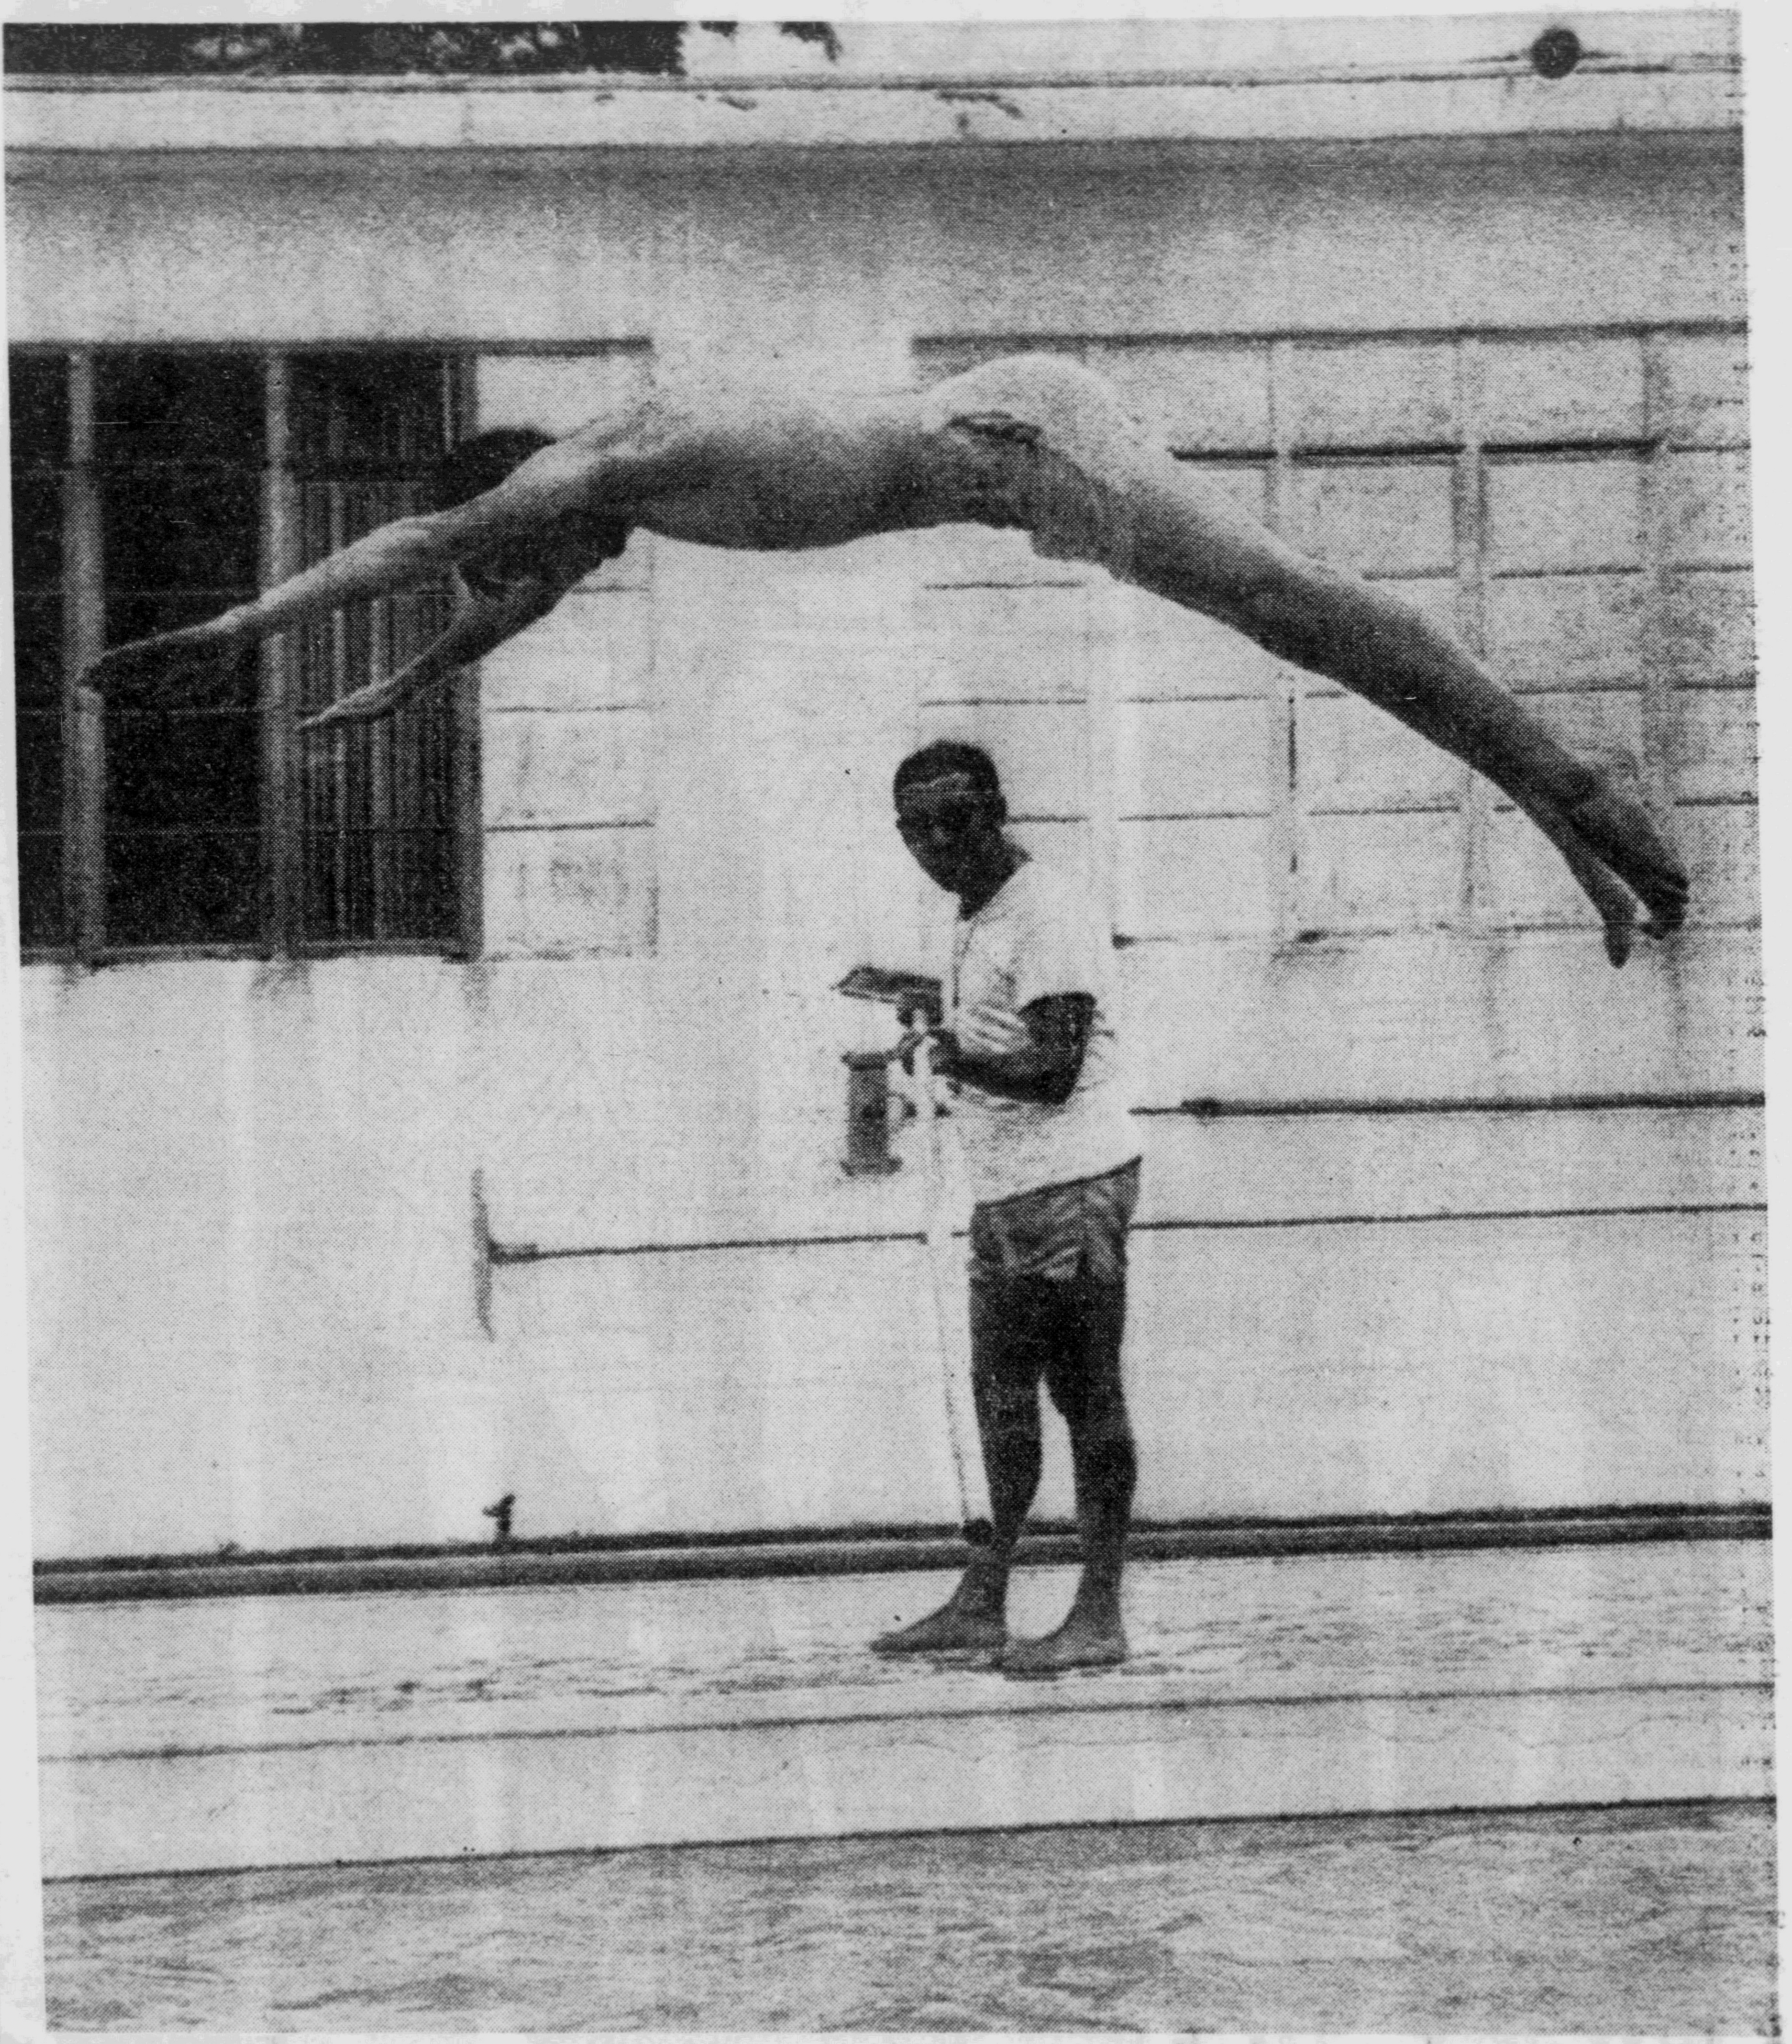
SERVING ALL OF MARIN COUNTY

ART BY TOUCH — A smile of satisfaction lights the face of Arturo, molding a leaf-shaped ash tray under the supervision of volunteer ceramics instructor Opal Shinn. According to Kaplan, the key to education for the handicapped is that "they grow with each experience in which they are allowed to participate." Another one of the classes offers the student a chance to learn the finer art of cooking.



OVERCOMES FEARS — One of the major activities of the Foundation for the Junior Blind in Los Angeles is the swimming and diving program. Here, Allan, one of the students, springs off the diving board and over a pole held by Murray Kaplan, founder of the program. Through diving drills, Allan and other blind youths learn to overcome fears of falling while developing coordination and physical conditioning.

GUIDED DARTS — Blindness is no handicap when it comes to playing darts at the Foundation for the Junior Blind. Noe, one of the better dart throwers, shows how it's done. A sighted volunteer worker first taps the dart board to give Noe direction via audible sounds. Noe is then on his own to zero in on target. His first try missed the board, but on the next two tosses he notched 50 points. Games like this help to build pride and self-confidence in the blind children.

A STRIKE — A strike for Penny is no less exciting than for any other youngster. At the recreation center, games, hobbies, and sports give the blind youths a psychological outlet and valuable life experiences from which they can live and grow into well-rounded adults.

Coin Set Stolen

James Letherbrige of 14 Portola Drive, Santa Venetia told sheriff's officers Monday that someone had stolen a coin collection and a transistor radio from his home, officers said yesterday.

Utilities Value Rise Won't Help County Tax Rate

The assessed valuation of property owned by public utility companies in Marin is up 1.7 per cent over last year, but the increase is not big enough to affect the projected county tax rate of $2.395 for fiscal 1969-70, county auditor-controller Michael Mitchell reported today.

The state board of equalization notified the county yesterday that the total assessed valuation of public utilities in Marin this year is $34,946,690, a slight increase over last year's $34,364,050.

The breakdown shows $3,237,170 for land owned by public utilities, $15,061,700 in improvements, and $16,647,800 in personal property.

Each year the state sets the assessed value for public utilities, which include telephone companies, Pacific Gas and Electric Co., Northwestern Pacific Railroad, and Radio Corporation of America.

TELEVISION IN REVIEW

From Moon Landing To Barbra Streisand

By RICK DU BROW

HOLLYWOOD (UPI) — This being moon-landing week, it seems right to speak only of the heavenly things on earth. So our subject today is CBS-TV's Barbra Streisand.

The lady currently is in Las Vegas, at the International Hotel. What she is doing there is singing. The word singing is sometimes loosely used to describe what various paid performers do. But Miss Streisand is singing, if you know what I mean. Every time she rips off the finale of "He Touched ME," the electricity bill in Las Vegas doubles, and the voltage is felt by one and all.

She is the nerviest performer you will ever see. I mean, it takes some kind of nerve to sing "Jingle Bells" with the temperature outside around 100. But she does it, and all I can tell you is that it is something else, because nobody ever sang it that way. A very groovy lady.

I think what I like best about Streisand, aside from the obvious talent, is her perversity in choice of material. The lady doesn't go by any book but her own. If she feels like singing a string of ballads, without the automatic by-the-book plight song to change the pace, then she will sing that string of ballads. And if some of those ballads are relatively obscure ones that she just happens to love, then you will get them. And you will never forget them.

She is so tuned in to the business of which she often seems to be the final perfect product that her subtle parodies of entertainment formalities touchingly reflect the nostalgia of the past as much as the lightning-quick irreverence of today. She is enveloped by the totality of American show business, past and present, just as surely as she has conquered it in her twenties.

And yet—because of this supremacy, this nerviness, this perversity in choice of material—there is something shocking, and ultimately lovely, about watching her perform in a club. The shock comes in realizing that, with all this prowess and tough experience in films, television and the theater, there is an extraordinary innocence about her in person.

I watched four Streisand performances in Vegas, and the memorable thing about each one, really, was the way her determinedly singleminded manner of doing things added up in the end to something more than an act: A revelation of character, of a person with dimension, values, passions.

A MIDWESTERN SUMMER

A summer storm gathers and nearly blots out the sun in this rural scene near Bloomfield in southeast Iowa. Similar storms have drenched Iowa for several weeks, causing flooding and heavy damage to trees, crops and buildings. (UPI Telephoto)

Board Considers Light Tubing For Home Gas

Should a new type of lightweight steel tubing be allowed for connecting liquid propane gas to homes?

This question will be considered by the county board of appeals at 2 p.m. Aug. 7 at the Civic Center. County building inspector Hans J. Berge, secretary of the board of appeals, said the meeting will be held in either the supervisors chambers or the planning commission chambers. Ray W. Foreaker Jr. is chairman of the board of appeals.

N. E. Waltenspiel, who owns the Flame Gas Co. in Santa Rosa, has applied for permission to use a lightweight steel tubing known as X trube tubing to hook up gas to homes. It has plastic coating on the exterior.

The present county code calls for standard weight wrought iron or steel but does not cover lightweight steel tubing, Berge explained.

"This type of tubing was used in the Eichler Homes for radiant heating, and there were some failures in the tubing," said Berge. "So we want the appeals board to consider it carefully."

All basket work is either plaited or coiled.

Catch your Chevrolet OK used car dealer with his prices down.

You'd probably choose an OK used car even if your Chevy dealer weren't having his Grand Slam Red Tag Sale.

But he is.

His red tag on the windshield tells you two things: that your budget will be left in good condition after you buy. That the car is in good condition before you buy.

To put it another way, you get special savings on a wide variety of used makes and models that really are something special.

Red-tagged OK used cars have been inspected, road-tested and reconditioned, as necessary. And your Chevy dealer wouldn't have it any other way. Would you?

Visit your Chevy dealer during his Grand Slam Red Tag Sale.

Sausalito Set For Blood Bank Days Next Week

Large red, gold and white banners will wave over Sausalito next week for Sausalito Community Blood Bank Days Tuesday and Wednesday.

The 18 banners, donated by Sausalito Artists and Merchants, will bear the blood bank emblem, a hand framing a drop of blood. The emblem was designed by industrial designers Walter Landor and Associates.

The Irwin Blood Bank mobile unit will be at Central School from 2 to 7 p.m. both days.

Members of Sausalito Friends of the Library have volunteered to take donor appointments. Donors can telephone Mrs. Richard L. Whitaker of 104 Buchanan Street or Mrs. Harvey Z. Klein of 121 Buchanan Street for appointments.

Other Sausalito groups supporting the blood bank days include the Chamber of Commerce, Women's Club, Lions Club and Rotary Club.

Coffee trees are perennials.

For Ken Johnson It's Long Summer Of Baseball

By GARY TISCHLER

Ken Johnson is not hitting.

This may not shake up anybody but the immediate family, but picture Arnold Palmer in a perpetual sandtrap, Joe Namath with his hands tied, Carrol Baker with her clothes on, Santa Claus with an empty toy sack, Frank Sinatra with laryngitis, and you get a rough idea of just how important this business of not hitting is to Ken Johnson.

Right now, Ken, a great swatter at Redwood High School from where he was signed to a $20,000 contract by the New York Yankees in 1968, is in St. Petersburg, Fla., trying not to think about not hitting, hoping that this particular summer will eventually go away.

Ken is a shortstop with the Yankees' Fort Lauderdale Class A farm team, which is embroiled in a torrid pennant race in the Florida State League. That's what Ken is concentrating on — helping his team in the two weeks he has left to play before he reports for a two-month round with the Army in Mississippi.

It is one way of not having to think about the nightmarish slump he's been in ever since he picked up a bat and reported to Fort Lauderdale from a five-month stint with the Army at Fort Leonard Wood, Mo., a place known affectionately as Little Korea.

Right now, he's hitting around .160, with very little progress or signs to show that things are getting any better. It is a painful and unusual situation for Johnson, a natural hitter who is not used to hitting that low for that long.

"I guess my hitting is not really prospering," he said, talking by phone from a St. Petersburg hotel. "Day by day, it doesn't get any better. Right now, I just try to do what I can to help the team and hope the summer gets over with so that I can get a better chance in spring training."

Johnson has gotten off to bad starts before, but this has been a bad start that never ended.

"It has affected me," he said. "I guess I psyched myself out. Now, when I relax and don't think about it, it doesn't bother me that much. I'll just have to scratch this off as one of those years everybody has."

Even his fielding has been affected by the hitting slump.

"My fielding is very erratic," he said. "I'll go five or six games without making an error, then I'll make two or three in a game."

Part of Ken's problems this season can be traced to the fact that he missed spring training because of his Army duty and therefore got a very late start.

But the thing about Ken Johnson is his tremendous store of optimism and confidence. Like a man who has just been hit by a truck, lost $500 at the race track, and breaks a leg in church and gets up, dusts himself off and says, "Tomorrow will be a good day."

"I'll just have to forget about this," he said. "I know I'm a good hitter. I've never been this bad and I'm not that bad a hitter. I'm a good hitter and I'm just going to have to bounce back, find myself again next spring."

The experience this summer has not all been a lost cause. He has found that he likes Florida after all, after coming away with negative feelings during his first exposure.

"It's still basically a state for old people and there's not that much to do for anybody under 21," he said. "But there's lots of beaches and plenty of girls. The cities are interesting."

He lives at a boarding house in Fort Lauderdale close to the ballpark since he doesn't have a car. On the road, the stopovers include Miami, Key West, St. Petersburg and West Palm Beach. It is not a bad life, despite the hitting, despite the humidity and the heat.

For Ken Johnson, a firm believer in himself, there is indeed, always next year, which is bound to be better.

JIM GILMARTIN

Little Leaguer Hurls Against His Buddies

Eddie Andersen, star of the Twin Cities team who will pitch against Marinwood tonight in the Little League district semifinals at Mill Valley, will be opposing some of his best friends.

Eddie transferred into the Larkspur-Corte Madera league from — Marinwood. The youngster's pitching credentials at Twin Cities make him resemble a miniature combination of Walter Johnson-Bob Feller-Sandy Koufax-Juan Marichal as he has won 12 games and lost none, struck out 184 and walked only 9 in 78 innings, and has given up 14 hits and only 3 runs, all unearned. According to Manager Aldo (Casey) Pasquinelli, Eddie is a complete ball player.

THE NEWS stories of an accident at Sears Point Raceway Sunday identified injured sports car racer Austin Walther as a San Francisco resident.

Now Novato Residents

The fact is, Austin and his bride of about one year recently moved to 1133 Elm Drive, Novato. In Sunday's races, Walther's Super-Lotus was off the track with a blown engine when it was hit by a Mini-Cooper driven by Ron Moore of San Diego. The results: Double fracture of the right leg. Austin is now home healing (Austin Healey?)

Since Sears Point has become a subsidiary of Filmways, Inc., a television-movie outfit, Walther presented the new owners with a strong cast for their next epic.

YEP, THIS is the year of the hitters, allright. Wednesday night the Ladies Auxiliary of the Larkspur Fire Department and women affiliated with the Marin Municipal Water District engaged in a softball game at Larkspur which resulted in a 19-19 tie after seven innings. Imagine that — the fire ladies with 19 runs in their hose! But, of course, the water lillies had plenty of depth on their side.

Holliday On Channel 2

AFTER FOUR YEARS of spinning records for Radio KYA, Johnny Holliday of Tiburon has jumped off the disc jockey merry-go-round onto a fulltime athletic beat as sports director for KTVU, Channel 2.

Today was his last shift as deejay and the personable 31-year-old Holliday will assume his new duties Monday.

"It's a break I've been looking for," said Johnny yesterday. "I've always been keenly intersted in sports. At Channel 2 I'll have a new sports news show five nights a week at 10 o'clock in addition to other duties directing the sports programming."

Sports followers are familiar with Holliday's tonsils for he has "moonlighted" in the past as public address announcer for the Warriors and Raiders. John will have to switch some of his football allegiance now because Channel 2 will carry some pre-season 49er games, but he'll continue P.A. work at the Oakland Coliseum.

If you're still up at 10 p.m. next Monday, give Holliday an orb and a lobe. Support your local sports reporters.

Carol Mann Shows A Lot Of Courage

KIAMESHA LAKE, N.Y. (UPI)—You've got to have heart to be a success on the ladies pro golf tour.

Carol Mann, the second leading money winner on the tour, had heart yesterday in the first round of the Ladies Professional Golfers Association 72-hole championship.

The cool weather following a day of rain caused Miss Mann to come up with a muscle spasm in her right shoulder with five holes to go. However, she parred the last five holes to come in with a three-under 70 to shart the first-round lead with Susie Berning of North Lake Tahoe.

Betsy Rawls of Spartanburg, S.C. had a lot of heart too. She last won the LPGA championship in 1959 but had nines of 37-34, one stroke off the lead. The 34 was three under par.

MacKay Triumphs

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI) — Marin County stockbroker Barry MacKay, a former touring pro who lives in Ross, dropped the first set yesterday but bounced back to beat Tom Brown, San Francisco, 3-6, 7-5, 6-4 for the men's singles title in the first $1,000 Ampex Invitational Tennis Tournament.

Briles Shows Giants How It's Done

Perry Vs. Gibson Tonight

ST. LOUIS (UPI) — A backyard product from Santa Clara University—Nelson Briles — showed the San Francisco Giants how it's done.

The chunky righthander singled home the winning run off Juan Marichal last night and picked up his 10th win as the St. Louis Cardinals nipped the Giants 2-1 in the opener of a four-game series.

PERRY VS. GIBSON

Tonight Gaylord Perry (12-7) of San Francisco opposes Bob Gibson (11-8) in a battle of righthanders.

Briles singled home Julian Javier from second to snap a 1-1 tie in the seventh inning and send Marichal down to his fifth loss after 13 victories. Mike Shannon opened the seventh with a single but was forced at second by Javier. Dal Maxvill's infield out moved Javier into scoring position at second.

The Giants jumped to a 1-0 lead in the first when Bobby Bonds singled, reached second on Briles' error and scored on two infield outs.

TORRE'S DOUBLE

St. Louis tied it up in the bottom of the inning on a single by Vada Pinson and Joe Torre's run-scoring double.

When Ken Henderson of the Giants singled with one out in the ninth, Joe Hoerner replaced Briles and struck out Jim Hart and Bobby Etheridge to notch his 12th save of the season,

Willie Mays and Henderson each collected two singles and it was a grounder by Mays that plated Bonds with the Giants' lone run.

San Francisco and Los Angeles, both losers yesterday, remained virtually deadlocked in second place in the National League West, two games behind leader Atlanta.

Little League Semifinals On Tap Today

The remaining field of four teams in the Marin County District Little League All-Star Tournament will be reduced to two tonight in a pair of semifinal games.

Twin Cities clashes with surprising Marinwood at the Mill Valley American League Park and San Rafael National takes on Novato American at Novato's Rancho Park. Both games are at 6 p.m.

The winners will meet in the championship game at the Corte Madera-Larkspur park in Corte Madera at 3 p.m. tomorrow, preceded by a consolation game between the losers at 3 p.m.

Twin Cities had come through this far on good pitching, downing Gallinas Valley, 5-1 and Mill Valley American, 4-1. Marinwood has rolled over two opponents, taking San Geronimo, 10-1 and Kentfield-Greenbrae, 10-0.

Novato American has nicked Sausalito, 1-0 and Tiburon, 7-5 while San Rafael, after a first-round bye, blasted Strawberry, 17-0.

The champion of the Marin tournament goes on to the Sectional tournament at Santa Rosa, July 31-Aug. 2.

GETS CLUTCH HIT

Sal Bando Tries A Little Harder

OAKLAND (AP) — Third baseman Sal Bando of the Oakland Athletics admits he tries a little harder with a runner in scoring position.

It was a single by Bando that scored Reggie Jackson from second base to give the A's a 2-1 victory over the Washington Senators last night.

"To make money you have to hit. And to hit you have to contact with the ball," Bando said. Sal's single was his third hit of the game and the whole bunch didn't add up to one solid blow.

OTHER WAY

"But I can remember lots of hard-hit balls that went right at someone for outs," Bando said.

The winning hit was a bloop single to short center field, just beyond the reach of shortstop Eddie Brinkman and second baseman Bernie Allen.

Jackson, who advanced to second on a wild pitch, raced home before Bando's hit could be retrieved.

Manager Hank Bauer of the A's is looking for another pitching performance tonight like the one Jim Hunter turned in last night.

DOBSON

Chuck Dobson, 11-7, will get a chance to try to equal Hunter's four-hitter when he faces Washington in the second game of the four-game series. Barry Moore, 8-5, will pitch for the Senators.

Hunter, 9-7, gave up a home run to Lee Maye in the first inning last night, then settled down to blank the Senators the rest of the way.

It was a typical game for Hunter—fast. He needed only two hours and six minutes to defeat Washington.

"When the game goes fast, they are hitting my pitch," Hunter said. He said he means the batters are swinging at the pitch he wants them to.

NO TROUBLE

Four straight times Hunter retired Frank Howard, the second leading home run hitter in the American League. He was not particularly concerned about the huge Washington slugger.

Howard is 6-foot-7 and weighs 260 pounds.

"I would rather pitch to Howard than Mike Epstein," Hunter said. "But that's because Howard is right-handed and Epstein is left-handed."

Hunter now has won four straight complete games and has given up a total of only six runs and 20 hits over that stretch.

Bobby Bonds Learning Value Of Good Timing

Bobby Bonds is making an admirable effort to time the curve ball with which he always has had difficulty. The same day the budding superstar of the Giants reached the 100-hit mark this season he also struck out for the 100th time.

Good timing is essential to good hitting. That is axiomatic in baseball. It's a truism that needs no proof. The results are self-evident.

Pitchers, with off-speed curves, constantly try to keep batters off balance, upsetting their timing. Once a batter commits his body prematurely in a forward stride, it is extremely difficult for him to keep his hands back.

WHEN THE hands move forward too quickly with the body, the result is a feeble off-balance swing at an off-speed pitch. Bobby Bonds is well aware of the fact that this has been his problem with the curve.

Twice this season Bonds has changed the position of his hands in an effort to discipline them in staying back of his body. More recently, to discipline his body in staying back, he has been trying to hit to right field instead of trying to pull every pitch to left, the natural target area for a righthanded pull hitter.

IN THAT wild 14-13 Candlestick game that opened the four-game weekend series between the Giants and Dodgers, Bonds lashed two homers over the left field fence and he said he intended to hit to right. It seemed ridiculous but it made sense.

Bonds' timing was perfect on both homers because neither his body nor hands were prematurely committed. Bonds is not a defensive hitter. He attacks the ball aggressively whether trying to go to right or left. Thus, while it might have been his original intention to go to right on the home run pitches, he was in perfect batting position to do instinctively what he does best — pull with power to left.

ONE OF the two homers came off a fast ball which pitchers know they should never throw in the strike zone to Bonds. But pitchers make mistakes, too.

The other homer came off a high hanging curve. Now, this does not mean Bonds has mastered the art of hitting the curve. The curve he hit for homer No. 20 was the kind any batter should be able to hit. However, the fact that he was in perfect position to hit it — with bat and body back — pleased him mightily.

CLYDE KING also was pleased. The rookie manager of the Giants, for whom Bonds played at Phoenix, has been quietly counseling Bonds on good batting habits. Bonds has absolute confidence in King who, above all else, doesn't want Bonds to become a defensive hitter while trying to master the curve.

"He is doing an admirable job now," said King. "If he can cut down on his strikeouts that will be fine. We certainly hope he will. But we don't want him to become a defensive punch hitter, going up there with the thought of not striking out."

AND AS for disciplining his hands in staying back even after prematurely committing his body in a forward stride, Bonds knows that Stan Musial and only a few other great hitters could do that.

"Even Musial couldn't do it all the time," King has assured Bonds. "Nobody can."

Tiburon Run Tomorrow

Fifth annual Tiburon Run, covering a distance of 8.9 miles, will be held tomorrow, beginning at 10 a.m. from the firehouse in Tiburon.

Sponsored by the Marin Athletic Club and sanctioned by the Pacific Association of the Amateur Athletic Union, the course will go down Tiburon Boulevard from the firehouse, left on Paradise Drive to Trestle Glen Drive, then left on Tiburon Drive to the finish line.

Record for the race was set July 27 of last year by Chris Miller, running unattached, with a 42 minute, 46 second clocking.

Trophies will go to the first, second and third place runners, medals for fourth through 72nd, and ribbons up to 125th. There will be three special plaques for each of two divisions, age 30-39 division and those 40 and older.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind. (AP) — Top-seeded Arthur Ashe, Richmond, Va., eliminated Tom Edlefsen, Fort Walton Beach, Fla., 6-4, 6-4, in the quarter-finals of the National Clay Court Tennis Championships yesterday.

No 'Yips' For Snead In Canada

MONTREAL (UPI) — Sam Snead is 57, old enough to have the "yips," the putting-stroke ailment that makes foot-long putts feel like long twisters, and can put a middle-aged golfer out of the tournament scene before his time.

Sam has had the "yips," but it looks like he has them beaten. He had seven one-putt greens and never needed more than two putts as he shot a five-under-par 67 for a one-stroke first-round lead in the Canadian Open which started here yesterday.

Sam has one stroke over Chick Evans, 31, who says he has never won anything of note before, and won $9,000 in 1968, his first year on the pro tour. Evans, who put on a strong finishing rush for a second-nine 33 to give him his 68, is from Northbridge, Mass.

Seven golfers are bunched at 69, including Roberto de Vicenzo and Tony Jacklin, the recent British Open winner.

They are followed by eight grouped at two-under-par 70, and 15 at 71, including Doug Sanders, Tommy Aaron, who eagled the par-5, 466-yard 18th, and defending Canadian Open champ Bob Charles.

Billy Casper, at 72, had a "very cold putter" which hurts his game.

Pinegrove, measuring 36-36—72 for the 65th Canadian Open, is no monster, but it does play 7,031 yards for the tournament. Of the 152 starters, the low 70 and ties will go on over the weekend for the $125,000 purse, with $25,000 to the winner.

PRO FOOTBALL

Giants' Sherman And Guillotine

By ASSOCIATED PRESS

Coach Vince Lombardi of the Washington Redskins is supposed to be running a tough training camp in pro football. Little attention has been paid to Allie Sherman, but the coach of the New York Giants is a stern taskmaster, too.

Sherman, determined to bring the Giants back to their once lofty status, uses what some call a modified version of a guillotine. That's because it is supposed to let a coach know who's willing to put his neck on the line.

GUILLOTINE

The so-called guillotine consists of two blocking dummies about four feet apart. A defensive man stands between them on one side. On the other side is a ball carrier and a blocker.

When the runner gets the ball he drives straight ahead between the dummies. He is not allowed to go around them. The resulting collision between the linemen and the ball carrier has helped Sherman weed out a lot of candidates in a hurry.

"Allie's not kidding," said one player. "He's letting us know that if we don't shape up he's going to get rid of us."

SCRIMMAGE

With the first preseason exhibition games only a week off, the San Diego Chargers and New Orleans Saints engaged in a two-hour scrimmage at Irvine yesterday. The Chargers scored three touchdowns, the Saints none.

Gene Foster scored two of the San Diego touchdowns on runs of 31 and 25 yards. Rookie quarterback Marty Domres passed 69 yards to Jacque MacKinnon for the other TD.

TD PASSES

Craig Morton threw two touchdown passes during a 25-minute scrimmage by the Dallas Cowboys.

The running of halfback Frank Quayle impressed Coach Lou Saban as the Denver Bronco rookies scrimmaged for the second straight day in preparation for their game with the Kansas City Chiefs tomorrow night.

Athletics Uncage A Tiger

By HERB MICHELSON

OAKLAND — The continuing saga of who's in left for the Athletics may, finally, be spilling its final ink in the prose of the 1969 baseball season.

Those who have lost sleep over this long-unfilled vacancy should now relax, for a fellow named Jose Milages Tartabull has firmly planted his flag in said soil. Whether it will do him any good depends on the whims of Charles O. Finley; but unlike his four "regular" predecessors in the port pasture this season, Jose has earned himself a full-time job.

Manager Hank Bauer (and perhaps even Finley) must be wondering why they didn't think of Jose earlier. He ascended to the regular's role on July 8, after an injury to Tommy Reynolds, who was playing because on July 3 Mike Hershberger was injured. Mike had a starting shot because Reynolds was just so-so; Reynolds had started when young Joe Rudi couldn't hit a lick. And Joe was out there because Hershberger, who started it all, hadn't come through at bat. Or something. Oh yes, young Sacramentan Bill McNulty had a brief shot at getting the job after the Hershy-Reynolds hurts, but McNulty went zero for 17 with 10 strikeouts.

So hello, Jose.

Even for the itinerant Tartabull, this has to be a strange year. He was dumped by the Red Sox to Louisville in April and a few weeks later picked up by the A's. They looked at him in pinch-hitting capacities for several weeks then sent him off to Iowa.

Came the double outfielder incapacitation, and back came "Bool," who was originally the property of the Giants before starting his major league career with the A's in K.C. in 1962. He eventually reached the Red Sox in time to see a bit of World Series action in 1967.

For all this, Tartabull is still a wisp of a 30-year-old lad at 5-11 and 157 pounds. Jose uses the heaviest bat on the A's, a stick that quite possibly is heavier than its holder.

He put it in regular service in Chicago on July 8 and didn't put it down again until the All Star break. In this 13-game span, Tartabull reacted like a suddenly uncaged tiger. He hit safely in each of those games — going 21 for 58, or .362. When added to his pinch-hitting failures earlier in the season, the two-week streak still raised his over-all average to above .300.

Tartabull's presence in the leadoff spot more than compensated for the loss by injury of Bert Campaneris. When Campy's split finger heals and he returns to short, Bauer could bat Tartabull second and set up tantalizing hit-run possibilities. For Jose sprays his safeties. In the lexicon of the A's clubhouse, "Bool" is a "ping" hitter. And most of his left-handed pings go to left field. Interestingly, he hits better against left-handed pitching.

But more importantly, Oakland won nine of the 13 games in which Tartabull started. How much more can one ask of a skinny fellow who smiles a lot?

Dodgers' Parker On Disabled List

CHICAGO (AP) — Slick fielding Wes Parker of the Los Angeles Dodgers underwent an appendectomy yesterday and will be lost to the club a minimum of three weeks.

Parker suffered the attack early in the morning and the surgery was performed at Wesley Memorial Hospital. The club placed him on the disabled list where he must remain a minimum of 21 days before being reactiviated.

Tommy Hutton was called up from the Dodgers' Spokane club in the Pacific Coast League to fill in. Hutton, also a first baseman, has been hitting .397 this month and is .284 overall with three home runs and 26 runs-batted-in.

Golden Bear On Prowl In American Classic

AKRON, Ohio (UPI)—Golf's Golden Bear is once again on the prowl.

Winless in his last 13 starts, Jack Nicklaus of Columbus, Ohio, trailed unheralded Bobby Mitchell and Terry Wilcox by one stroke today entering the second round of the $125,000 American Golf Classic at Firestone Country Club.

Mitchell and Wilcox led yesterday's record assault with five-under-par 65s while Nicklaus fired a 66 despite slamming just seven tee shots in the fairway and hitting 12 of 18 greens in regulation.

Bert Green, Tom Nieporte, Steve Reid and Ray Floyd were just two strokes off the pace at 67 while 10 others, headed by Masters champion George Archer, were bunched at 68.

Top money winner Dave Hill led a 10-man group at one-under 69. U.S. Open champ Orville Moody finished at one-over 71 while Arnold Palmer putted himself out of contention at 75.

Wilcox, 50, of Bronxville, N.Y., had failed to survive the cut in his last five tournaments, but he reeled off seven birdies, nine pars and two bogeys yesterday in his round of 32-33.

Nicklaus, Mitchell and Rodriguez tied course marks with four-under-par 13's on the back side while Floyd's 31 on the front also equalled a course record.

Keating Has More Problems

SANTA ROSA (AP) — Tom Keating, Oakland Raider tackle who missed last season because of an Achilles tendon injury, is having more leg trouble.

Because of a pulled calf muscle in his left leg, he has missed two days of contact work at the Raiders' training base in Santa Rosa.

The tendon injury was in the right leg.

Despite a number of minor injuries on the club, Coach John Madden said he was pleased with the conditioning, but added yesterday: "If we were playing a game tomorrow, I wouldn't be."

In scrimmages so far, rookie Ken Newfield from Louisiana State University has turned in the best performance—an 84-yard gain from a flare pattern.

FISH AND GAME

By AL GIDDINGS

Young Conservationist's 'Good Deed' Backfires

Last week a young fellow was fined $50 for planting carp in Phoenix Lake. He actually thought he was rescuing some species of game fish from the area of Corte Madera Creek that is being cleared for a flood control project; and his actions in planting these fish were all part of his own conservation project, probably all in good faith.

The judge must have felt the young fellow was sincere too, as he suspended $45 of the $50 fine. We shall see if the carp spawn and create a problem.

ALONG THESE same lines, the Department of Fish and Game is recommending to the Fish and Game Commission that they prohibit the importation, transportation, possession and release into the wilds, all members of the family Clariidae, which includes the so-called "walking catfish." These fish, if planted by some well meaning person, could give California a real headache. This fish grows to eight pounds and becomes a very aggressive predator. It has displaced black bass and sunfish in some Florida waters where it was unlawfully planted by tropical fish dealers. This fish can breathe out of water, and moves overland at times. Talk about seeing pink elephants, boy! How would you like to see one of these crossing your lawn? Once these fish get a foothold, no methods are known that will control or eliminate them.

One night this week I took a quick trip out on the bay with Walter Toews of Woodacre. We never got a hit, but we did run out of gas. It was 9:20, almost quitting time, and I thought the help was gone. You know what? I gave a big yell, and here comes Enos Foster along in his skiff. (That man is liable to be anywhere!) And Toews had just said, "This boat is sure more comfortable than those skiffs you're always in" — when bam — out of gas! Yep, old Enos towed us all the way in! He had no fish either; I think the tide was just too late. We saw about four caught. The best hitting time has been the last two hours of the outgoing so that made it too late for us. I guess you're all quitting at the legal time? Watch it! Check your tide book. One hour after sunset is the danger hour.

You know all this banging around in rough waters, dodging other boats, running out of gas, cleaning fish at 11 and listening to the gals about cooking dinner so late is quite a grind. I heard they got 15 sturgeon last week up by the Pump House. I think I will take a rest and fish bait for a day. You know, get there at 8 and be home by 3. Sure sounds good. The only problem is the sharks taking those hard earned ghost shrimp known as "bugs."

BOY, THAT Joe Mello must have caught so many trout up the Sierras that he is giving this fishing a rest. I thought sure he would be out salmon fishing at Tomales by now, but I hear he's been gardening. If you see him, tell him the seas are calming and the winds are slowing, and the salmon and halibut are just waiting.

THE FISH and Game Commission announced that 270 permits will be issued for the buck antelope hunt in northeastern California Aug. 23 to Sept. 1. Hunt applications should be available this week from Fish and Game offices and license agents. Your application must be in Department of Fish and Game Sacramento headquarters by 5 p.m. Tuesday, Aug. 5. The statewide public drawing for permits will be held Thursday, Aug. 7, and successful applicants will be notified by mail. The permit fee will be $15.

I RECEIVED a call about some kids chasing baby ducks, probably domestic mallards loosed in San Clementi Creek at Corte Madera. The kids were using boats and running some of the birds down. It doesn't make sense, and certainly isn't good conservation. Many of these birds mix with wild mallards and contribute to the overall wild duck population. Come on, you parents — give the kids the word!

Cyclists To Race At Santa Rosa Track On Sunday

The 20-miler, held on the one-mile track at the Sonoma County Fairgrounds, is one of the highest rated motorcycle racing shows in California.

Practice begins at 11 a.m. and qualifying at 1 p.m. Sunday. First of 10 races in the expert and amateur catagories begins at 2:30 p.m. and is topped by the 20-mile National race.

Moffat Upset At Modesto

Top-seeded Andy Moffat of Mill Valley was bitten sharply by the upset yesterday in the Modesto Swim and Racquet Club's 12th annual junior tennis tournament.

Moffat was ousted by unseeded Terry Rodgers of San Jose, 6-1, 6-2 in yesterday's play.

Lissie Manheim of Tiburon advanced into the semifinals of both girls 16 and 18 play. She'll meet Jackie Gondring of Modesto in the girls 18 semi today and Lee Connolly of Caracas, Venezuela, in the girls 16 semi.

Two Massacres In Rec Softball

A couple of genuine massacres occurred in the San Rafael Adult Softball League at Albert Field last night.

The Marinwood Merchants tore into Sears Point Raceway, 13-1, and Brandon Tire walloped Salt's Fish and Chip, 19-2. Both were B division games.

Rich Allen Back; Phils Still Lose

By ASSOCIATED PRESS

Richie Allen might be a strong candidate for Comeback of the Year honors in Philadelphia, but the Phillies seem certain to prove his return can't bring them back.

With the disappearing first baseman in the line-up for the first time since he went AWOL June 24 and was suspended, the Phillies shrugged off his presence and lost again, 7-3 at Houston last night. It was their 10th defeat in 11 games.

Even with him the first 63 games of the season, they rolled down a 26-37 record. When he pulled the latest of his disappearing acts last month that cost him $11,000 in suspended salary, the Phils went on a nine-game winning streak, but then collapsed to 13-18 without him.

The baffling slugger did his best against the Astros with a run-scoring double and a bunt single—he struck out his other two times at bat—but it will take more than Mr. Allen to make the Phillies a winner.

Earlier in the day, the Chicago Cubs showed again it will take more than Don Sutton to make them a loser as they beat the Los Angeles Dodgers 5-3, running Sutton's record against them to 0-13 in four years.

The victory increased the Cubs' Eastern Division lead in the National League to 5½ games over the New York Mets, who dropped a 4-3 decision to Cincinnati in 12 innings.

Atlanta, with Hank Aaron moving into fourth place on the all-time home run list, increased its Western Division lead with a 9-6 victory over Montreal while St. Louis dropped San Francisco and Juan Marichal 2-1.

Pittsburgh edged San Diego 4-3 in 10 innings in the other game.

Tigers' Lolich Takes Out Anger On K.C.

By ASSOCIATED PRESS

Mickey Lolich was stranded in Washington for awhile, but not long enough to suit the Kansas City Royals.

Lolich, left behind by teammate Denny McLain who flew the All-Star coop early, caught an evening commercial flight and got to Detroit in plenty of time to pitch the Tigers to a 3-1 victory over the Royals on a four-hitter last night.

RUFFLED

But the Tiger left-hander's feathers still were ruffled by the McLain affair. Denny flew off in his private plane after his brief All-Star appearance, leaving Lolich and his wife stranded without transportation. Mickey had planned on returning to Detroit in McLain's plane.

"Denny pulled a crummy trick on me," complained Lolich. Then he took out his anger on the poor Royals, striking out 13 of them and running his season's record to 14-2.

Elsewhere in the American League yesterday, Baltimore rapped Chicago 5-2, Cleveland edged Minnesota 6-5, Oakland nipped Washington 2-1. New York dropped California 3-1 and Seattle tripped Boston 8-6.

SUPPORT

Lolich, who couldn't get a little transportation help from McLain a day earlier, got plenty of long ball support from his other teammates against Kansas City.

After the Royals had scored a run on a pair of singles and a sacrifice fly in the fourth, Al Kaline's 12th homer of the season tied it for the Tigers in the bottom half of the inning.

One inning later, Don Wert and Tom Tresh both connected, giving Lolich a comfortable cushion.

A strike delivery should convert the 1-2-5-8 into a spare. The 5-pin usually is the most troublesome in this set-up and a fairly good "pocket hit" is needed to bring it down along with the others.

Riordan Wins In Cage Action

Riordan Crusaders of San Francisco, sparked by Kevin Restani's 21 points, downed the Terra Linda Trojans 66-41 last night in the Summer Recreation High School Basketball League at Drake High School. Mark Jones' 17 points led the losers.

In another game, Wilson High of San Francisco, led by Ken Mims' 21 points, demolished Novato, 71-20. The Tamalpais Indians defeated Galileo by forfeit in the other scheduled game.

MARIN BOWLING

Weddell Top Gun

By RALPH CHATOIAN

Mike Weddell, San Rafael fireman and Marin County's Masters bowling champ, is again bowler of the week.

Weddell, the only three-time winner of the Marin Masters title, rolled games of 258 and 247 and ended up with an 857 four-game series in the 555 Trios at Country Club Bowl in San Rafael.

Other big ones in the 555 Trios were Mike Tauscher, 225-842, Walt Silva, 215-828, and Dick Treadway, 218-811. Jerry Tatum rolled a 239-829 in the 510 Trios at Country Club. High three-gamer at the San Rafael lanes was a 231-608 rolled by Tom Cowles in the Alabi mixed league.

Leading the women's scoring at Country Club was Dori Simeone of the Keglerettes, 568, quite a three-game set by this 148-average roller.

Dori was followed by Bea Hoffmann, 203-560 in the Blue Chips; Barb Tobin, 554 in the Hi-Lo's; Penny Conti, 209-553 in TGIF League, and Gayle Chu, 531 in the Hi-Lo's.

THIS AND THAT — Charlotte Warcup had women's high individual game of the week at Country Club, a 234 in the Peterson Point League. . . . Dot Brusatori, 137 average, rolled a 213-505 in the Hi-Lo's. . . . In the Keglerettes League at Country Club, Shirley Santos, 141 avg., went up to a 222. . . . Jerry Gallaher had high series in the Tour League at Nave Lanes near Ignacio, 609. . . . A score of 243 was best line of the week at both Greenbrae Lanes and Nave Lanes, Charles Reichert rolling his in the Monday Men's Trio at Greenbrae and Jack Cooper, manager at Nave Lanes, getting his in the 500 Trios. . . . Craig Cole had a big week in the junior circuit, rolling 222-557 in the Adult-Juniors and 212 in the Monday Junior Doubles, both scores at Greenbrae Lanes. . . . Other big scores among Greenbrae juniors came from Keith Ray, 213-578, and Rich McPherson, 227-615. . . . Kent Dlugokenski led Country Club Bowl youngsters with 213-555.

FOR BABE — This is the last weekend for the no-tap bowling tournament to benefit the Novato Babe Ruth Baseball League, the same league which has an all-star team competing in the state tournament at Auburn. The Nave Lanes event allows the awarding of a strike when nine pins go down, and women are given automatic strikes in the third, sixth and ninth frames. The tournament, called "Strike Out for Babe Ruth," is a mixed event, with the $6 per couple entry fee helping pay some of the costs of the Novato Babe Ruthers.

HOW TO PLAY WINNING BRIDGE

By ALFRED SHEINWOLD

Revaluation Of Hand Must Be Made When Both Sides Bidding

In competitive bidding situations you must consider how many tricks your hand will take if you play it at a trump suit of your own and how many it will win if an opponent plays the hand. You must also consider how your hand compares with what your partner expects you to hold.

THE PROBLEM

In today's hand, taken from "The Secrets of Winning Bridge," by Jeff Rubens, West's problem occurs at his second turn to bid. West's hand is a defensive powerhouse, considering the fact that he has opened the bidding with three spades.

West would have made the same opening bid with seven spades to the K-Q-J and three doubletons. That hand would be worthless for defense, but the actual hand is worth a sure spade trick, a possible ruffing trick in diamonds, and the trick value or the nuisance value of J-x-x of trumps.

NO DOUBLE

East would not double four diamonds if his hand were good only for defense against diamonds. He would pass quietly and hope that North stayed there. East's double says: "Partner, we may be able to beat any contract. If they run from diamonds, let me know if you can co-operate in the defense."

DOWN THREE

When the hand was actually played West led his singleton diamond and East won with the ten and returned his singleton spade. West took the ace of spades and gave his partner a spade ruff. East then returned a trump to dummy's ace.

South led the queen of clubs from dummy, holding that trick, and continued with a low club to the ace. He then led a low trump to East's king. East cashed the king of clubs and then led a diamond, assuring West a trump trick with the jack of hearts.

500 POINTS

South was down three, and West's double made the penalty 500 instead of a mere 150 points. If West had passed four hearts, East would also pass, accepting West's warning that his hand was very poor for defense.

DAILY QUESTION

As dealer, you hold:
♠ K 3 2
♥ Q 10 9 8 6 3
♣ A 8 6.

What do you say?

ANSWER: Pass.

The hand is not quite worth an opening bid. You would bid one heart if that suit were headed by the king instead of the queen.

Dorm Rules Upheld

FRANKFORT, Ky. (AP) — The attorney general's office says state universities are not violating the civil rights of coeds by requiring them to return to the dormitory at a set time.

ALMANAC

Today is Friday, July 25, the 206th day of 1969 with 159 to follow.

The moon is between its first quarter and full phase. The morning stars are Venus and Saturn. The evening stars are Mars, Jupiter and Mercury.

On this day in history:

In 1866 Ulysses S. Grant received the rank of general of the U.S. Army, the first American officer so designated.

In 1934 Chancellor Englebert Dollfuss of Austria was assassinated by troops of the Nazi Black Guards as Adolf Hitler tried unsuccessfully to take over that Central European country.

In 1943 King Emmanuel of Italy replaced Fascist dictator Benito Mussolini. Mussolini was executed in 1945.

In 1952 Puerto Rico became a self-governing free commonwealth.

A thought for the day: Roman poet Quintus Ennius once said, "No one regards what is before his feet; we all gaze at the stars."

Pakistanic Hindus Flowing To India

NEW DELHI (AP) — Twenty-two years after the partition of British India into India and Pakistan, refugees from East Pakistan continue to trickle into this country.

During the first nine months of 1968, 4,733 left East Pakistan.

A total of 4,207,569 refugees, at last count, had come over to India from East Pakistan, a fifth of them after 1963, according to the government of West Bengal, the state in which most refugees settle.

SUCCESSFUL INVESTING

Stock Check Needed For Quick Income

By ROGER E. SPEAR

Q. At 61, I'm living on modest alimony and dividends from stocks I've held many years. I must sell something (but what?) to get $1,000 to meet this year's expenses. What's your choice for sales from the following: 100 Arkansas Louisiana Gas, 175 Mapco; 60 North American Phillips; 45 Tampax; 100 International Telephone; 185 Polaroid; 100 Reynolds Tobacco. I must also watch the capital gains tax. — J. L.

A. If you need income so badly, your present growth portfolio should be revamped — with the aid of your lawyer or a tax specialist — to plan the shift of your capital into high-yield stocks and bonds. I'm neither a lawyer nor a tax accountant so I can only state my choice of Sales candidates. These are North American Phillips — earnings have been uneven but hopefully are recovering — and Mapco. Dividends from these two yield slightly more than 2 per cent and capital gains would be noticeably less than from any of the others. You have a $50,000 portfolio which might be reinvested to yield at least $2,500, nearly four times your current dividend return of $658. The difference is much more than the $1,000 you need to meet 1969's expenses.

Q. I'm a teen-ager who would like to invest in stocks and am thinking of Atlas Corp. What do you advise? — A. W.

A. I'm glad to hear of your interest in the market and can understand why you're thinking about Atlas and its uranium mines. Because of recent operating deficits, though, I don't favor it for your initial purchase. Instead, I suggest your looking into Livingston Oil, trading around 10 on the Big Board. LVO's production and sales of crude oil and natural gas have been developing a more stable earnings pattern since 1965.

Livingston also has a stake in CATV (cable television) through franchises — already granted or about to be — in Colorado, Idaho and Oregon. Revenues from this stake in an emerging industry should expand further in fiscal 1969-70 and accelerate during the next decade.

Transcontinental Pipeline Study

NEW YORK (UPI) — A proposal for the first transcontinental large diameter oil pipeline has been announced by three major companies.

Atlantic Richfield, B. P. Oil Co., and Humble Pipe Line Co. of the Esso group, said they would make feasibility studies for such a line from the Puget Sound area to the Eastern seaboard.

The same three companies already have decided to build an 800-mile 48-inch pipeline from the Arctic slope of Alaska to the Gulf of Alaska.

Retail Sales Tax Collections Up Over Year Ago

County-wide taxable retail sales for the first quarter of 1969 were higher than those recorded in 1968, according to the Marin County Chamber of Commerce and Visitors Bureau, with all communities except Belvedere sharing in the increase.

Total transactions exceeded $60.7 million — a gain of 13.2 per cent over the $53.6 million shown in early 1968. Larkspur's $2.18 million showed the biggest percentage increase (58.4 per cent).

San Rafael as usual had the biggest volume ($27.49 million) but only a moderate 14 per cent increase over a year ago.

Among other communities, Corte Madera sales totaled $7.17 million (2.9 per cent higher); Novato $6.12 million (up 18.1 per cent); Mill Valley $3.35 million (up 29 per cent); Sausalito $3.36 million (up 10.6 per cent); San Anselmo $25.4 million (up 15.8 per cent); Fairfax $1.24 million (up 9.2 per cent); Tiburon $1.14 million (up 23.3 per cent); Ross $90,000 (up 7.1 per cent); and Belvedere $126,000 (down 2.3 per cent).

Asbestos Finding

NEW YORK (UPI) — Freeport Sulphur Co.'s Mexican subsidiary and Compania Metallurgica Penoles have announced discovery of a deposit of asbestos bearing rock ranging from 93 to 385 feet in thickness as the result of drilling tests.

Surcharge Worries Knock Stocks Down

NEW YORK (UPI) — Uncertainty over the fate of the income tax surcharge and fear that corporate profits and expansion might be cut back pulled stock prices sharply lower in moderate trading today.

The decline hit several major categories with electronics one of the hardest hit groups. Steels, oils and chemicals generally worked lower.

Ford showed independent strength in the autos. General Motors and Chrysler eased.

Fairchild Camera led a decline in the electronics. Sperry Rand, Burroughs and National Cash Register also backed off.

United and National were weaker airlines. Eastern showed some stregth. Natomas and Phillips were weaker.

Du Pont and Union Carbide showed some strength in the chemicals. Prices fell on the American Stock Exchange in fairly light trading.

Petaluma Tax Receipts Jump

Sales tax transactions in Petaluma jumped 11.2 per cent for the first three months of 1969, according to C. G. Gealta, director of finance.

Gealta said the state over-all increase was 7.9 per cent. The greatest local increase was in the building materials and farm equipment category which jumped 34.1 per cent with sales of $852,000.

In other types of businesses, the taxable transactions and percentages of increase for the first quarter were: apparel stores, 15 per cent, $383,000; general merchandise stores, 14.9 per cent, $746,000; drug stores, 14.3 per cent, $335,000; food stores, 19.4 per cent, $923,000; package liquor stores, 13.9 per cent, $106,000; eating and drinking places, 19.9 per cent, $776,000; home furnishings and appliances, .4 per cent, $458,000; auto dealers and supplies, 7.5 per cent, $1,949,000; service stations, 12 per cent, $186,000; other retail stores, 13.9 per cent, $604,000.

Easier Trade Balance Likely, U.S. Predicts

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Commerce Department trade experts have predicted that U.S. exports will increase and imports decline during the second half of this year, easing the nation's balance of payments problems.

Commerce Secretary Maurice H. Stans said a survey of trade potential indicates exports will increase by about 10 per cent over 1968 for the year as a whole.

That would require a sharp upturn in the second half of the year because exports for the January to May period were up only 4.5 per cent.

The department's bureau of international commerce predicted a "sharp" decline in imports during the rest of the year based on assumption that the administration's anti-inflation program would begin to take hold. No specific percentage decline was estimated.

Shares Offered

NEW YORK (UPI)—Atlantic Richfield Co. has offered for public sale 1,500,000 shares of common stock at $115.25 per share. The underwriting group was managed by Smith Barney and Co.

THIS WEEK IN BUSINESS

Construction Begins For Tape Lab

Construction has begun on a $3.5 million research and development laboratory for the Ampex Corp. magnetic tape division in Redwood City.

The two-story 54,000-square-foot building will house administrative offices, research and testing laboratories, process development and pilot line facilities for producing experimental magnetic tapes. It is scheduled for completion in May, 1970.

This week Ampex Corp. filed a registration statement with the Securities and Exchange Commission for $60 million of convertible subordinate debentures. Terms have not been determined and will be announced at the time of offering which will be made through a group of underwriters headed by Blyth and Co., Inc. and Lazard Freres and Co.

BURGERMEISTER (FORMERLY BURGERMEISTER BREWING CORP.), San Francisco may become a subsidiary of Meister Brau, Inc. The latter has entered into an option agreement with Jos. Schlitz Brewing Co. to purchase Burgermeister assets. The sale has already been approved by the U. S. District Court in San Francisco under a 1966 decree which ordered Schlitz to divest itself of Burgermeister assets. Scheduled closing date is Oct. 1. Founded in 1891, Meister Brau has its principal marketing area in the midwest.

COLDWELL, BANKER AND CO. has signed an agreement with the Forest E. Olsen Companies providing for the sale of substantially all Olsen assets in exchange for shares of Coldwell, Banker common stock. Principal Olsen companies are Forest E. Olsen, Inc., Landmark Escrow Services, Inc. and Certified Mortgage Co., Inc. They will be operated under existing management as Coldwell, Banker subsidiaries.

INSTRUMENT SYSTEMS CORP., an integrated electronics company with diversified holdings in packaging, home furnishings, automotive and industrial products, has acquired four companies with total sales of $14.4 million: Grant Pulley and Hardware Corp. of New York state; Schiller Brothers, Inc. in New Jersey; and Midway Hardware Co. and Western Synthetic Felt, both of Los Angeles. Instrument Systems reported sales of $85 million last year and profits of $4.5 million.

SOUTHERN PACIFIC has asked the Interstate Commerce Commission to approve tri-weekly operation of its Cascade passenger trains, which now run daily in each direction between Portland and Oakland. A similar application for tri-weekly operation of the Sunset between Los Angeles and New Orleans was made last week.

KAISER ALUMINUM AND CHEMICAL CORP. has formed a new subsidiary company, Kaiser Trading Co. and will begin immediately to engage in the purchase and sale of various commodities on a worldwide basis. Kaiser Trading will concentrate initially on metals, chemicals and ores, functioning primarily on a "purchase-sell" basis, but will also seek possibilities in barter arrangements.

PACIFIC GAS AND ELECTRIC CO. earnings per share of common stock in the second quarter amounted to 62 cents — unchanged from the corresponding quarter of 1968. For the 12 months ended June 30, earnings were $2.64 a share, compared with $2.45 in the preceding 12 months.

COMMERCE CLEARING HOUSE, INC. reported sales of $22.2 million for the first half of 1969, compared with last year's $18.5 million. Net earnings were $2.1 million or 59 cents a share, up from $2 million or 44 cents a share for the same period last year. The company plans to establish its western regional headquarters at Northgate, Marin County.

WALLACE-MURRAY CORP., manufacturer of building products, plumbingware, automotive and diesel engine components and cutting tools, has completed its acquisition of Fayette Tubular Products, Inc. Wallace-Murray had sales of $205 million in 1968 and has 25 plants in the U. S. and Canada.

Knox Bill As Amended Does The Job Required

Sensible control over the future of San Francisco Bay seems assured — unless those who would extend control to land not within the bay block it by demanding "all or nothing."

Richmond Assemblyman John T. Knox's AB 2057, as amended and approved by the Senate Finance Committee on Tuesday night, meets the requirements for a "strong bay fill control" measure advocated by Gov. Ronald Reagan, by legislators on both sides of the aisle, and by what appears to be a substantial majority of residents of the Bay Area.

STRANGELY, HOWEVER, the committee action drew hisses from the large "save the bay" crowd that attended the hearing in the state capitol.

The hisses resulted because the committee amended out of the measure a provision to extend jurisdiction of the Bay Conservation and Development Commission beyond the bay itself to a band of shoreline beginning at five feet above sea level at high tide and extending back 100 feet from that level.

THE BCDC had asked controls extending back 1,000 feet from this five-foot line. This proposal, which would have placed large areas of Marin County under control of the agency, drew great opposition, and Knox cut it to 100 feet.

IN ELIMINATING the so-called "shoreline control," the Senate committee spelled out what seems to us to be a significant and legitimate limit to BCDC's jurisdiction.

Purpose of the bill is to save the bay from filling. This it will do in its present form.

Establishing the line five feet above the mean high tide line allows for control over areas subject to flooding by the bay itself.

Moving the line farther back, however, would mean that BCDC would go beyond being a bay fill control agency and become a zoning agency for dry lands lying within the jurisdictions of cities and counties around the bay.

Much land that is far from the bay and could not, except by long stretch of the imagination, be called part of the bay is within 100 feet of areas five feet above mean high tide. Actually, giving the BCDC jurisdiction to the five-foot level carries its powers quite far beyond the bay itself in some places —as in Kentfield, for instance.

To make BCDC a zoning agency for land that is far above sea level, never was part of the bay, and may not need so much as a cubic yard of fill for development, would contribute little to saving the bay. But it would undoubtedly result in much confusion and conflict. In the long run, we suspect, it would considerably hamper bay control itself.

IT IS TO BE HOPED, therefore, that the bill will pass the Senate in its present form and that the Assembly will concur in the amendment.

Bay fill control is there. Control of the salt ponds is there. Perpetuation of BCDC is there. An attempted power grab to turn BCDC into a land use zoning agency as well as a bay control agency can endanger the whole "save the bay" project.

Emotions were high at the Tuesday night hearing. But those who hissed the committee were really hissing the very thing they stand for: control of further filling of the bay.

Assemblyman Knox has done a good job. The Senate committee has, we believe, polished that job by eliminating a provision fraught with danger to future bay control.

Phew! Those Pretty Flowers

Those big Shasta daisies, which grow so abundantly in Marin's gardens and achieve a size in the neighborhood of four inches per blossom, are really handsome flowers. They resemble a white corona around the central sun of pollen yellow stamens.

But their fragrance is something else again. They smell bad, but they don't really reek. Their foul odor is not so obvious that it precludes their being used in bouquets of cut flowers. However, those who use them in this way may expect some quizzical expressions, furtive glances at the bottoms of shoes, and a generally uncomfortable attitude from the uninitiated.

AFFAIRS OF STATE

Failure To Act On Tax Reform Invites New 'Proposition 9'

By HENRY C. MacARTHUR

SACRAMENTO (CNS) — It has been apparent for quite some time that the 1969 session of the Legislature will not complete any program of tax reform before the contemplated date of adjournment Aug. 8.

Because of its lassitude on this subject, it was pointed out by Caspar W. Weinberger, state director of finance, the Legislature is borrowing a lot of trouble not only for itself but also for the state. Its failure to take action is merely an invitation for another Proposition 9, which was an initiative on the 1968 ballot proposing a limit on property taxes, known as the "Watson Amendment."

The so-called "Watson Amendment" went down to defeat primarily because the 1968 Legislature adopted a hurry-up substitute, which was labeled "tax relief" and provided a $70 rebate to taxpayers occupying their homes and a subsequent $750 exemption for them.

This was the anodyne offered hard-pressed California taxpayers until "further study" resulted in some better form of tax relief.

MORE THAN a year has gone by, and there is no indication that anything better is going to be enacted this year.

All of which brings the inevitable conclusion that if any organization brings some sort of revision edition before the public again, it might stand a much better chance of becoming enacted into the constitution.

ALTHOUGH there has been much speculation as to why the Legislature has not acted on tax reform, the answer appears to be rather simple. The year 1969 is not an election year, and therefore, if a practical and acceptable program were adopted this year, there would be no immediate political benefit. Wise politicians do not miss many opportunities to capitalize on issues that can do them some good when elections are in the offing.

The governor's tax reform plan, announced some months ago, recognizes, says Weinberger, that the homeowners' real estate tax is one of the most regressive in the state. Therefore, the plan proposes to shift some of the burden to three forms of taxation directly related to ability to pay.

The three forms are the sales tax, the income tax, and the non-residential real estate tax. None of these items will be welcomed for increases, but on the other hand, they are designed to benefit the homeowner and take some of the load for education off his back.

Nixon's Seventh Crisis Caused By Temporizing

(Reprinted from St. Louis Post-Dispatch)

There can be little question that President Nixon faces what is now widely described as a crisis of leadership. . . .

So far as domestic problems are concerned Mr. Nixon promised us a policy of standstill during his campaign, and he is carrying out the promise. He won election by exploiting the fears and prejudices arising from black protest, student rebellion, and a rising crime rate. He promised "law and order." He offered obliquely to shift the balance of tension in favor of the white majority. He presented himself as the candidate of firmness, of righteousness, of respectability. But he never presented a program of positive action to deal with the underlying sources of the social crisis, and his six months in office have not produced one.

IT IS PRECISELY because Mr. Nixon stands for no positive policy, but only for a strategy of jockeying among conflicting pressures, that his administration is in trouble. For weeks congressional leaders have waited, with respect to one urgent problem after another, for Mr. Nixon to present his program. They are now beginning to realize that there isn't any program. When circumstances force the administration to move in some direction, it settles the matter by trying to move several ways at once. The one common element in its strategy is a desire to maintain the status quo.

Thus Mr. Nixon narrowly wins extension of the surtax in the House, but meets a roadblock in the Senate's strong sentiment for simultaneous tax reform. To control inflation he needs the surtax, and to extend the surtax he needs a program for tax reform; but since any such program would upset the status quo, he is paralyzed with indecision, and the surtax remains stalled. Dr. Knowles is scuttled because Mr. Nixon cannot resist the American Medical Association, and then, in response to pressures from the other side, the President finds a "liberal" substitute for Dr. Knowles and offers a medical care program which essentially maintains the status quo.

To pay off Strom Thurmond, the administration tampers with the voting rights act and relaxes guidelines for school desegregation. Then, to appease the other side, it backs away on voting rights and files a series of school cases designed to show that the guidelines will be retained. Result, the status quo.

AND SO it goes with the student rebellion — tough talk from Attorney General Mitchell, exhortations by the President for toughness by university administrators, equivocation toward legislation on the problem, and the likely result, the status quo. Likewise the Safeguard antiballistic missile program represents essentially a continuation of Johnson administration policies, to change which would upset the military-industrial complex. Because he cannot resist the pressures of that special interest, Mr. Nixon strives to maintain the arms race in status quo.

There is a theory that the President has staked his political future on the gamble that if he can taper off the Vietnam war and bring about a detente with the Soviets, he will not be required to grapple with the deep social problems of racial tension, decaying cities, poverty amid affluence, and inadequate public services. If the theory is correct, he has deliberately chosen a policy of studied inaction with respect to domestic affairs. We would prefer to think otherwise, but we must admit the pattern of his administration tends to support the theory.

The truth is that our domestic problems are so acute, and the massive remedies they require have been so long delayed, that the country simply cannot afford a period of standstill. Mr. Nixon is a minority president with a Democratic House and Senate and a split Republican party whose moderate elements grow increasingly restive. The answer to his "crisis of leadership" is the adoption of positive domestic policies which can command the support of that constituency. More standstill can only deepen the crisis.

I expect to pass through this world but once; any good thing therefore that I can do, or any kindness that I can show to any fellow-creature, let me do it now; let me not defer or neglect it, for I shall not pass this way again. — Stephen Grellet.

Leitzell Driveway Found Unchanged

Your front page story of July 22 related charges that Charles R. Leitzell, San Anselmo's city engineer, had used city crews to "install" his driveway.

We are happy to state for the public record that we have visited the Leitzell home occasionally since they moved into it several years ago and have seen no change whatsoever in the existing driveway.

It will be interesting to see if the anonymous slanderers, whose cause Councilman Robert Scott advanced, will have the guts to stand up in public.

It will also be interesting to see if the I-J, which gave front-page space to these baseless charges, will have the decency to give similar prominence to a story on interviews with the Lietzells' immediate neighbors, giving their statements on the alleged changes in this driveway. Otherwise, we may see the usual case of the lie outracing the truth while a newspaper turns to more "interesting" front page stories than the fact that one of the best city engineers in the county has been grossly maligned.

THE DRUMMONDS

Kennedy Already Out Of Race For 1972 Presidential Nomination

By ROSCOE and GEOFFREY DRUMMOND

WASHINGTON — Sen. Edward Kennedy will have plenty of time to decide if the unexplained events following the tragic drowning accident near Edgartown, Mass., in which he was involved will force him to abandon his presidential hopes.

The reason is that, in the judgment of Democratic leaders who wished him well, he had already decided not to seek the 1972 nomination.

Mike Mansfield, the outspoken Senate Democratic leader, who would have more reason to know than most, told a group of reporters before the accident that Kennedy, now assistant Senate leader, was turning aside from plans to go after the '72 nomination and wanted to tamp down all pressures that he try for it.

It was implicit in what Mansfield said that 1972 would not be a good year for Kennedy to run since, as Mansfield saw it, President Nixon was doing very well and would likely be re-elected.

THIS MEANS that Kennedy will have time to appraise the impact of the accident, and more particularly what occurred after it, on his political standing throughout the country.

Kennedy's standing has been high — although not so high as President Nixon's. Most politicians were sure that he could not only win the '72 nomination but could get it for the asking.

THERE IS a considerable difference between Mansfield's appraisal of the effect of the accident on Kennedy's political future and that of Washington's political writers.

Mansfield views it as insignificant and dismisses it as "something that could happen to anybody."

But political reporters conclude that it is a "serious blow" to his career, and they report "deep concern among his friends."

THIS JUDGMENT rests on two points omitted by Mansfield:

1—The adverse political effects do not come from the accident, "which could happen to anybody," but from Kennedy's conduct after the accident in not reporting it to the police until more than eight hours after it happened and in providing the police with on adequate explanation of why he didn't.

2—Kennedy is not "just anybody." He is a potential president of the United States, and the standards by which the public judges presidents and potential presidents are more exacting than those by which they judge "just anybody."

RELATIONS between the press and Kennedy are friendly. There is certainly no wish to do him harm. Reporters have almost invariably found him candid and cordial, and when he has not been available his aides have willingly spoken for him. This hasn't been the case since the accident, and the reporters find a curtain of silence between them and his associates.

What is needed from Kennedy, if he is to avert a permanent, perhaps fatal blow to his national career, is a precise, verifiable and persuasive account of everything he did and of every conversation he had with friends from the time he left the scene of the accident to the time, more than eight hours later, when he went to the police after they had already learned of it.

Edward has a great reservoir of good will and trust. His conduct as a political leader, especially in some very trying moments during and after the miasmic Chicago convention has been impeccable. His conduct as a private citizen must match it. He has earned credibility, but after the events in Edgartown it will have to be renewed or Senator Kennedy will have imperiled his political future.

Missiles Flying Over U.S.? Up To Nixon To Decide

By ROBERT S. ALLEN and JOHN A. GOLDSMITH

WASHINGTON — President Nixon may have to make the decision on whether the Air Force may test-fire Minuteman missiles from operational silos, across part of the United States and into the Pacific Ocean.

The Air Force has requested clearance for a number of such ICBM test firings. The request, pending for a couple of months, technically is on the desk of Secy. of Defense Melvin R. Laird.

Some Air Force officials believe, however, that a final go-ahead would have to come from the White House, because of the touchy policy question involved in such over-flights. There are some admitted safety hazards.

AIR FORCE spokesmen have told Congress that trajectories for the tests would not pass over heavily populated areas. The Minuteman test missiles would carry dummy warheads, and each would have a "destruct" device so that it could be blown up if it veered into an erratic or dangerous flight path.

However, Lt. Gen. Marvin L. McNickle, Air Force deputy chief of staff for research and development, has told the Senate Armed Services Committee that lack of a "foolproof" system for destroying errant missiles has prevented such "full range" operational tests of intercontinental missiles so far.

One problem is that blowing up a missile early in its flight, while it is still in the atmosphere, produces a shower of hardware. Another problem is that the Minuteman first stage is expended in the atmosphere and falls to earth, where it could do some damage.

IN 1966, to conduct test firings from operational Minuteman silos, the Air Force began using so-called "seven-second missiles." In those, the Minuteman first stage included fuel for a seven-second flight, only enough to take it about 5,000 feet downrange.

One such test, of a Minuteman I missile from a silo near Rapid City, S.D., was completely successful. The early version Minuteman behaved exactly as planned.

However, the second test, involving a more advanced Minuteman II missile at a base near Grand Forks, N.D., failed because of a faulty diode in a piece of ground equipment.

A second Minuteman II test at the Grand Forks base also failed. This time a capacitor in the missile's guidance system was blamed.

In 1968, two years later, another attempt was made to launch one of the same seven-second missiles at Grand Forks. Again it failed, this time because of a faulty electrical connection.

Now the Air Force says all those problems have been remedied.

As it is an ancient truth that freedom cannot be legislated into existence, so it is no less obvious that freedom cannot be censored into existence. — Dwight D. Eisenhower.

All Is Harmony In Mill Valley —After The Meeting, That Is

"You're a play-at-home, stay-at-home, eight o'clock sleepy-time gal.

"Rosalie, my darling, Rosalie . . . .

"Mary, Mary, sweet as any name can be . . .

"Wait 'til the sun shines, Nellie, and the clouds go drifting by . . .

"Good evening, ladies and gentlemen. From high atop the Office in downtown Mill Valley where we bring you Bill and His Boys."

AND THERE HE WAS, William H. Cunningham, Mill Valley's new city manager, playing away on the piano as if he were born to it. Next to him was Public Works Director Ross Benson providing the rhythm section with the spoons. And, around the piano in one of Mill Valley's local pubs Monday night were an assortment of city councilmen, press, city staff and friends, ranging in age from 25 to 55, singing the old songs as though they had never gone out of style.

Cunningham plays a mean piano and Benson's spoons were incomparable. Then there was the singing . . .

One wit suggested that someone ought to set the council meetings to music to keep things lively. "Down in Mill Valley, valley so low . . ."

Cunningham's attempts to play something more current ("By the time I get to Phoenix") failed. Even the young folk wanted the old tunes.

At the end, everyone went home promising to be in better voice for the next council meeting when the music will begin again — this time joined by Planning Director Harvey E. Bragdon playing his junior golden harp.

EARLIER in the evening tempers once again had gotten frayed as the council's liberal-conservative split showed itself stronger than ever.

The only note of levity was provided when Mill Valley's noted conservationist, Elizabeth Terwilliger, asked the council for permission to erect a fence near the city's new boat dock at the end of Sycamore Avenue.

After all, Mrs. T. said, we need the fence to protect the city's new boat and to store equipment . . .

In a slow-motion double-take, the councilmen, one by one, dropped their jaws and stared. Mrs. T. was well into her second wind by the time someone managed to hoarsely whisper, "Boat? What boat?"

"Why the city's new sailboat," Mrs. T. blithely replied. "You don't expect us to have sailing classes without a boat, do you?"

The press section and audience started giggling while the council still gaped.

Finally, a councilman said, "I don't remember appropriating money for a boat in the budget."

Oh no, Mrs. T. explained. "Don (Dimitratos, parks and recreation director) got it for $500. He's awfully good at getting good buys."

Well, it turned out that Dimitratos was offered a bargain on the small Pelican and financed it out of recreation fees for the sailing class, a normal practice in providing equipment for specialty programs.

Cunningham, only on the job a few days, signed the purchase order assuming the councilmen were aware of what was going on.

Well, they are now.

SPEAKING of city government, Sausalito's city manager, George M. Patterson, a mean piano player himself, received a well-deserved pat on the back last week when the California Society of Certified Public Accountants awarded Sausalito the 1969 municipal accounting award for the greatest improvement in accounting procedures during the previous fiscal year.

The innovations which won Patterson the award were converting the city from single entry to double entry bookkeeping and installing a pegboard system for recording transactions.

Other improvements cited included adoption of a long-term capital improvement program, revised interim financial reporting practices, implementation of procedures for recording encumbrances, creation of a more meaningful chart of accounts, utilization of group purchasing procedures, and improvements in preliminary and final budget formats.

Moon Landing Reflects Efficiency; County Communications Need It

Fusselman

How many times Sunday night did you rouse yourself and shake off the feeling that you had dozed off and were dreaming that you were seeing phantom-like beings hopping around in a never-never land, excitedly telling what they were finding and doing?

Yup, as an elderly German neighbor and friend of my grandmother would say, "So be I." David Brinkley just about hit it: "I don't believe it. I see it. I know it's happening, but I still don't believe it." happening, but I still don't believe it."

The whole thing fairly boggles the mind — to sit and watch and hear President Nixon, alone in his office, talking to Neil Armstrong on the moon, over a quarter of a million miles away. Then the tight feeling in the chest that came with the fear that the Eagle might fail on the blast-off.

A few hours later came the good news that it had done its stuff — that they were docked with the Columbia and those three were on their way home. Three brave and wonderful wives could now try to relax from the tension they had been under.

When you consider that 10 or 11 years of good and earnest effort, which had apparently been quite free from bureaucratic nonsense and drag, could produce this detail-filled success, you can be hopeful that this same application of available, high grade intelligence will be solving the pressing problems of our cities, without the present bureaucratic nonsense and drag.

BEFORE ME are three clippings of extensive stories in the I-J about our Marin County communications department — June 4, July 8, July 16. It's good they are extensive.

This really important department is one the public rarely hears anything of. It is relatively as important to our county as that which made the flights of all the Apollo missions possible. Without that information and direction which comes from the dispatchers at "com-center," your police, fire and ambulance services, as well as the public works, would be as a blind man seeking his way. And conversely, any of the services needing help or assistance could be badly hampered and in danger without this radio service.

To keep such a system at peak efficiency requires the constant attention of technicians, who virtually live with components of all kinds and descriptions — exactly as the telephone service is maintained. This new man is violating every principle of the profession. Companies like the Tel and Tel spend much time on personnel matters, to see that that element of the service is smoothly operating as well as the equipment. This new director is doing just the opposite.

He was told by the board of supervisors to lay off his efforts to change and disrupt things and that a year would be taken to make a complete study of everything involved. This he is not doing, hence the resignations and deterioration of equipment which is bound to occur.

More to come.

Kennedy Pleads Guilty To Charge

Admits Leaving Scene

COMBINED AP & UPI

EDGARTOWN, Mass. (UPI) —Sen. Edward M. Kennedy, leaving many questions unanswered, pleaded guilty today to a charge of leaving the scene of a fatal automobile accident. He was given a suspended two-month jail sentence.

"The defendant will continue to be punished far beyond anything this court could impose," Dukes County District Judge James A. Boyle said.

In suspending the minimum sentence which could be imposed on the charge, which is a misdemeanor in Massachusetts, the judge automatically placed Kennedy on probation for two months. Most first offenders in similar cases receive suspended sentences, court officials said.

Kennedy will issue a statement at 4:30 p.m. PDT, which will be carried nationally from the family compound at Hyannis Port.

Following his court appearance, he told newsmen it would be "to explain to the people of Massachusetts." He did not say what the explanation would include.

In Washington, Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield said he was glad Kennedy, his deputy leader, had appeared in court today instead of waiting until Monday.

"I feel deep compassion for both Senator Kennedy and the

'Cushion' Trains Enter Span Talks

By PAUL E. PETERZELL

SANTA ROSA — The old proposal that trains be run across the Golden Gate Bridge, long taboo because of bridge engineers' objections, was revived today.

Bridge and highway district director L. E. Castner of Sonoma County, reporting on his trip last month aboard a train that floats on a cushion of air, told directors meeting here, "This could be the real answer to our transportation problem."

The only train system ever studied for use on the bridge was the one designed by the Bay Area Rapid Transit District almost 10 years ago. It was rejected by a panel of bridge engineers on the grounds that the train was too heavy.

Catsner, however, reported that the new Aerotrain being tested in France is much lighter. Castner reported that the train was "remarkably comfortable to ride." and that the speeds reached are 155 miles an hour in two and a half blocks.

"I don't know that this is the answer to our transportation problem," Castner said, "but it's something we should take a real hard look at."

Gen. Mgr. Dale W. Luehring commented that "although it is still too early to know whether such a system may have application in this corridor . . . its exceptionally light weight might make it attractive in connection with the use of a lower deck structure on the bridge."

Castner said that the 40-passenger train cars can be operated either singly or hooked together in a string up to eight to 10 cars. The cars planned by the French firm for commercial use would have electric engines that would drive the train at about 85 miles an hour.

The trains running on the 6.5 miles of track near Paris are powered by an airplane engine at speeds up to 250 miles per hour.

The trains run on a raised single concrete rail that the cars straddle. The train floats on a cushion of air that raises it off the surface of the rail by one and three quarter inches.

Bay Sewage Study Financing Approved

SACRAMENTO (AP) — The State Water Resources Control Board voted today to spend up to $54,000 for a study of whether tidal action in the San Francisco Bay will carry partially treated sewage out to sea.

Officials say the study is needed before plans continue on a scheme to dump sewage into the middle of the bay.

Moon Men Reported In Excellent Health

ABOARD USS HORNET (AP) — Back from the moon but isolated from the world, the men of Apollo 11 today were pronounced in better condition than astronauts returning from previous flights. (See other photos, stories, pages 6 and 10.)

After 11 hours of examining the spacemen, Dr. William Carpentier said he found no evidence of contamination from the moon. Despite one man's minor ear inflammation "I think they're in good shape," he said.

The physician said Neil A. Armstrong, Air Force Col. Edwin E. Aldrin Jr. and Air Force Lt. Col. Michael Collins showed less deterioration in heart and blood vessels than other Apollo men have had. He wasn't sure why.

But he was sure that the inflammation in one of Armstrong's ears was not important. He said there may have been a buildup of fluid in the ear due to the pressures of re-entry and that the fluid was draining.

The men will be under painstaking medical scrutiny for 21 days due to the remote possibility they might have brought to earth some unknown and potentially dangerous germs from the moon.

Actually, no one knows whether there are germs on the moon. Many scientists doubt it. But the National Aeronautics and Space Administration was taking no chances.

Confined in a silvery quarantine trailer on the Hornet's hangar deck, the space heroes could barely see the world they had thrilled. But they did call

New Sonoma Supervisor Is Appointed

I-J Special Report

SACRAMENTO — George T. De Long of Petaluma today was appointed to the Sonoma County Board of Supervisors by Gov. Ronald Reagan.

De Long, 32, replaces Leigh S. Shoemaker, 65, who resigned in May due to ill health.

De Long owns and operates George Buick-Pontiac in Petaluma and lives at 731 Cindy Lane with his wife and two children.

He is a member of the board of directors of the Petaluma Area Chamber of Commerce, vice chairman of the city water commission, chairman of the board of education educational advisory committee, treasurer of the Petaluma Rotary Club and vice president of the Young Republicans Club. De Long is a graduate of the University of California at Berkeley.

A resident of Petaluma for four years, De Long said he would turn over the operation of his business to other corporation officers so that he can devote himself full time to the office of supervisor.

De Long said he expects to be installed officially at the supervisors meeting at 10 a.m. Monday.

Manila Is Next Stop For Nixon

AGANA, Guam (AP) — President Richard M. Nixon said today Asian nations should provide more of their own defense and the United States must avoid being dragged into conflicts like Vietnam.

He made clear on the eve of a tour of Asia that while the United States must continue to play a significant role in that area of the world his administration favors a cutback in the U.S. military presence as part of its post-Vietnam policy.

Nixon's first stop on the tour is the Philippines tomorrow. He then goes also to Indonesia, Thailand, India and Pakistan before stops in Communist Romania and then England briefly. There is a possibility he will stop off in South Vietnam, as President Lyndon B. Johnson did on his tour in 1966.

While in Manila, Nixon is likely to run into some bad weather, produced by typhoon Viola. Her main force is currently 500 miles north of the capital city.

Weather forecasters report the typhoon is expected to cause no serious trouble during Nixon's 23-hour visit.

Mrs. Nixon winged in from Hawaii to joint her husband on his around-the-world trip. She had watched the Apollo 11

Two Believed Drowned Off Creek Bridge

I-J Special Report

NAPA — Two men were believed drowned today at the Sonoma Creek Bridge on Highway 37, a mile east of Highway 121 at the Sonoma-Solano county line.

Sonoma County sheriff's officers said a motorist, Joseph Hickerson Jr. of Novato, reported being flagged down at 2 a.m. by a man who said his companion had been forced off the bridge by a car.

Hickerson said the man jumped off the bridge in a rescue attempt yelling "Davy, Davy, Davy" and disappeared. Police believe the men had been pedestrians since no car was found at the scene.

A search by the Coast Guard produced no bodies. Sheriff's officers said a boat from the Mare Island Naval Shipyard would be called in to make a more thorough search.

Clean Water Watchdogs Clamp Down On San Francisco Pollution

I-J Special Report

HAYWARD — Armed to the teeth with a new state law that fines water polluters $6,000 a day, the San Francisco Bay Regional Water Quality Control Board yesterday abruptly ended its years of gently prodding San Francisco to stop its massive dumping of sewage in the bay.

"We've had stall, stall, stall, stall for years from San Francisco," declared an exasperated director of the board, Sidney S. Lippow of Martinez. Despite years of effort by the board, the city still is No. 1 on the board's priority list of polluters.

But the board, citing the powerful new antipollution law just signed by the governor, made it clear that San Francicco no longer can delay action.

In a unanimous vote, after grilling San Francisco officials for more than two hours, the six directors present adopted a resolution declaring their intention to set specific requirements for all dry and wet weather discharges from the city's three sewage areas. The setting of requirements, to be done at the Aug. 21 meeting, sets in motion the legal machinery for cease and desist orders against the city by the board.

Under the new state law, the $6,000-a-day fine can be imposed on polluters who ignore or violate cease and desist orders. The law also empowered the regional boards to get immediate court action by the attorney general against polluters.

Under the old water pollution law, there was little that could be done to punish polluters. The new law will not go into effect until 60 days after the final adjournment of the Legislature, but the regional board clearly saw no need to wait any more for San Francisco to act.

The board's resolution also took on San Francisco's opposition to joining in the multi-billion-dollar regional sewage program proposed in the Bay-Delta report by the state Water Resources Control Board. The resolution urged San Francisco's supervisors "to take no action which might jeopardize the advantages to

Administration Turns Down Five-Month Extension Coupled To Tax Reform Bill

WASHINGTON (AP) — A new stalemate has developed between Senate Democratic leaders and the Nixon administration over extension of the income tax surcharge.

The Senate Democratic Policy Committee, after three days of discussion, agreed yesterday to offer an immediate five-months extension of the surtax with provisions to complete work on a broad tax reform measure within that time.

But administration officials—sticking with their demand for a full year extension—promptly turned down the proposals. They said a short extension would not meet the demands of anti-inflationary policy.

Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield had told the Republicans if they would accept the extension to Nov. 30, he would interrupt current debate on a missile defense system to put through the surtax bill. His plan included assurances by Democrats on the Finance Committee that the tax reform bill expected to be passed by the House in August would get to the Senate for action by Oct. 31.

If Republicans rejected the plan, Mansfield declared, his policy group would stand on its original position—no surtax extension without concurrent action on major tax reforms.

Secretary of the Treasury David M. Kennedy met yesterday with Senate Republicans in Senate GOP Leader Everett Dirksen's office to discuss the Democratic offer.

Afterwards he said "a temporary extension of the surtax does not do the job."

Real Estate Tax Reforms Could Gain U.S. $2 Billion

WASHINGTON (AP) — Recommendations made so far by a House committee working on major tax reforms would mean an increase of roughly $2 billion in federal revenue, according to spokesmen for the panel.

The Ways and Means Committee came close to finishing its policy determinations yesterday with two new proposals to tighten nonresidential real estate depreciation practices and the use of deductions by persons with considerable income already sheltered from tax.

Next week the committee will work on polishing the actual language of the broad tax reform bill. It could make further recommendations as it goes over the wording.

Estimates yesterday were that the latest two changes proposed by the panel could produce in the neighborhood of $650 million in revenue.

The real estate depreciation changes would be worth an estimated $150 million annually at the start and the proposed new deduction rules would bring in up to $500 million.

The new real estate rules would have major impact on persons who operate within existing law so as to increase their cash flow from a building in the years immediately after the construction.

Budget Cuts May Speed GIs Home

WASHINGTON (AP) — The New White House-ordered slash in defense spending may speed reduction in the size of U.S. military forces, Pentagon sources indicate.

These sources also suggested a continued slowdown in Vietnam fighting could help the Nixon administration cut spending for ammunition, B52 bomber missions and other war-related purposes.

President Richard M. Nixon has directed federal agencies to come up with further spending reductions totaling $3.5 billion, and Budget Bureau officials forecast the Pentagon will absorb more than half the amount.

Defense authorities, who earlier pared $1.7 billion from the Johnson administration's $79 billion farewell military budget, anticipated the new White House order and had been searching for places to cut deeper.

"We're going to have to squeeze hard on personnel," said one official.

New U.S. withdrawals from Vietnam, expected late this summer and fall, probably will be translated into total force levels well below the 3.45 million men projected in the budget now before Congress.

Airport Walk-Out

OAKLAND (AP) — Most San Francisco Bay Area air traffic controllers will walk off their jobs if the government disciplines workers who took sick leave last month, a spokesman says.

"I suggest that people planning trips in August reconsider and take them at another time," said Dick Holzhauer, a director of the Professional Air Traffic Control Organization, who works at the Federal Aviation Administration center at nearby Fremont.

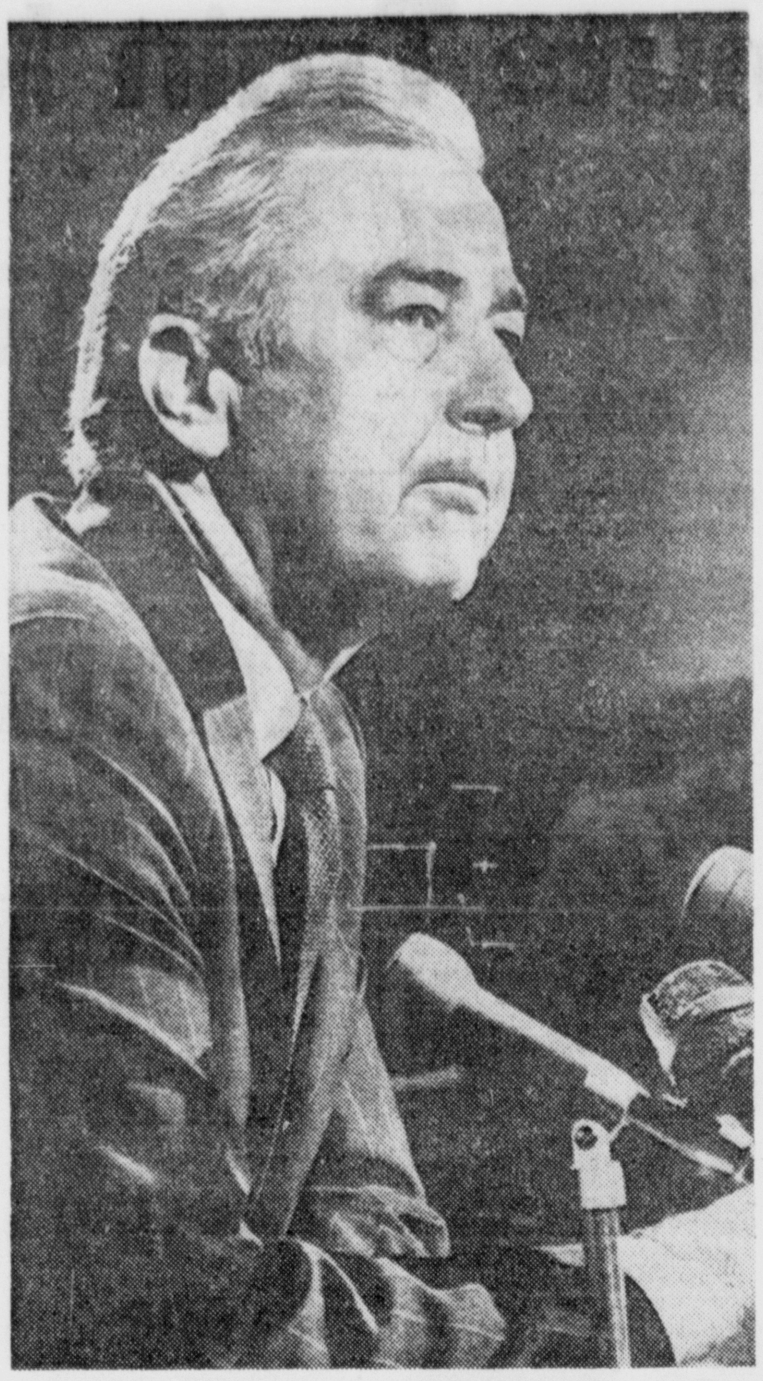
Reelection Sought

SEOUL, Korea (AP) — Taking a cue from Charles de Gaulle, President Chung Hee Park threatened today to resign unless the South Koreans amend their constitution so he can serve a third term.

Park's broadcast speech was his first announceent that he plans to run again, although this had been generally expected. The Korean Constution, which is patterned after that of the United States, bars a two-term president from running again. Park's second term expires in June 1971.



DECLINES PARTY BID—Sen. Eugene McCarthy, D-Minnesota, announced yesterday that he would not be running for reelection as a Democrat, generating rumors that former Vice President Hubert Humphrey might take up the standard, or even that the antiwar senator might still run as an independent candidate. (UPI Telephoto)

HHH May Seek Senate Post Opened By McCarthy

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Hubert H. Humphrey will seek the Senate seat Eugene J. McCarthy has decided to vacate next year, political aides of the former vice president said today.

Humphrey's return to the Senate as a Democrat from Minnesota would give him the forum he is thought to need to go after his party's presidential nomination again in 1972.

Chances that the 1968 Democratic standard bearer would get a second shot at the White House may have been enhanced last weekend when a car driven by Sen. Edward M. Kennedy plunged off a wooden bridge. The accident killed a 28-year-old woman passenger and could put the Massachusetts senator's political future in jeopardy.

Humphrey, in Yugoslavia near the end of a European tour, including a visit to Russia, admitted that McCarthy's statement opens "many possibilities," but refused to elaborate.

But his political confidants, who declined to be named, said there was no doubt he would run for the Senate after McCarthy announced yesterday in Minneapolis that he would not seek a third term. They also brushed off Humphrey's own estimate that in 1972 he would be too old at 61 to make another bid for the presidency.

McCarthy's decision to retire from the Senate was met with formal expressions of regret and prompted speculation that the lone-wolf senator might be considering entry into the 1972 presidential race as an independent.

The 1968 contender for the Democratic nomination hinted at it when he said "there may be a political future for me" and persons close to him declined to rule out that possibility.

WORLD NEWS IN BRIEF

Warrant For Leary

HEMET (UPI) — A warrant for the arrest of Timothy Leary was out today after an autopsy showed that a 17-year-old girl who drowned at his ranch was under the influence of LSD.

Narcotics investigators raided Leary's mountain center ranch near here yesterday and arrested five persons for possession of marijuana.

Leary, who pledged to legalize marijuana in his campaign to become California's first "psychedelic governor," was not at the hippie commune at the time.

Later in the day a warrant was issued in Riverside Municipal Court for his arrest on suspicion of contributing to the delinquency of a minor.

The victim, Charlene Renee Almeida, 17, Laguna Beach, was swimming in a 30-foot-deep pond on the ranch when she drowned last July 14. She had lived in the commune for 10 days.

Two More Murders

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — This city's homicide toll had reached 89 for this year, three more than for all of 1968, police have reported.

The latest victims were a San Bernardino night club operator, whose body was found yesterday in the trunk of an abandoned car, and an elderly polio victim who died from a beating he received July 8.

Police said the man in the car trunk was Lafayette Smyre, 45, who was convicted here in 1959 of possession and sale of narcotics. He had been shot and left in the car parked at Fisherman's Wharf for about two weeks.

The beating victim was Charlss M. Wylie, 65, who died Wednesday without regaining consciousness.

Las Vegas Strike

LAS VEGAS (UPI) — Operations at 12 hotel-casinos were threatened today by a labor dispute that began at the Dunes Hotel and spread along the glittering Las Vegas strip.

No further talks were scheduled between the Teamsters Local 995 and operating Engineers Local 501 and the Nevada Resort Association which represents the 12 hotels.

The unions represent telephone operators from desk personnel and maintenance men. They struck the Dunes early yesterday and the other 11 members of the resort association declared a lockout.

Embassy Policing

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The Nixon Administration has asked Congress to increase the strength of the White House police corps so it could better protect foreign embassies, which are complaining of vandalism, demonstrations and general harrassment.

"We are exposing ourselves terribly in the fact that we are not adequately prepared and capable of protecting foreign embassies," Eugene T. Rossides, assistant Treasury Secretary, told a Senate hearing.

Rossides said about 400 men would be needed to take over protection of the 117 embassies in th Washington metropolitan area, now without regular police protection.

The Dogon tribe of West Africa believes weaving originated with a spirit who spat out sacred thread and wove it on a loom made from his jaws, teeth and lips, National Geographic says.

Air Clog Warning

WASHINGTON (AP) — Los Angeles and San Francisco airports will experience massive air congestion in the next six years unless new building programs are instituted, a Texas congressman says.

Democratic Rep. Jack Brooks told the Senate Commerce Committee yesterday that the Department of Transportation should give Congress better data on how to control the airways and speed airport construction or face serious air traffic jams in ths two California cities and in Boston, Atlanta and Miami as well.

Policeman Cleared

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Two police officers have been cleared of ciminal intent in the shooting of a man they mistook for a freeway sniper. Officers Norman P. O'Malley and Henry Kennedy shot Donald Lee Oughton, 29, last June 11 near the Hollywood Freeway after they stopped him to question him about a reported sniping incident.

The district attorney's office said yesterday no criminal charges would be filed against the officers. The shooting was "regrettable" but there was "a complete lack of evidence to indicate a criminal intent or act on the part of the involved officers," said Chief Deputy Dist. Atty. Lynn D. Compton.

Testimony Of Warning In Stab Case

David Vaughn Busdieker pleaded, "Dad, stay away from me," that night last December which ended with his father's death, according to testimony yesterday in Marin Superior Court.

"I don't want to fight you, I just want you to get out of here," said the 19-year-old youth, according to his mother, Violet Busdieker.

The youth is accused of fatally stabbing his father, Larry Glenn Busdieker, 45, in their Corte Madera home Dec. 18.

Mrs. Busdieker said yesterday her late husband had tried on several other occasions to assault their son. She recalled cradling her husband's head after he was stabbed. "David said, 'Mom, I'm sorry. I didn't mean to hurt Dad'," Mrs. Busdieker said.

In testimony today, Dr. John H. Manwaring, the pathologist who examined the body, said the cause of death was hemorrhaging due to a stab wound through the heart and lung.

Dr. Manwaring reported Busdieker had a blood alcohol content of .329 at the time of his death and estimated it would have taken 13 to 16 drinks to produce that level — or more if he had been drinking over a long period of time.

Dr. Manwaring also testified the stab wound in Busdieker's chest and another on his arm could not have been self-inflicted.

Testimony in the preliminary hearing pictured Busdieker in a drunken rage and threatened murder at the time of his death.

The trial was to continue today in the courtroom of Judge Harold J. Haley, with testimony expected from Pamela Busdieker, daughter of the slain man.

CAR

measure's author. "It'll asphyxiate us."

"Gentleman," Petris pleaded, "we're running out of time."

The Oakland Democrat said the cutoff date of Jan. 1, 1975, is a "practical program" since it gives automobile manufacturers plenty of time to develop a smog-free vehicle.

"We can make the decision and lead the way for the rest of states," he said, adding that the measure was a "tremendous incentive" to car makers to find a "cleaner" product.

"They'll either purify it or come up with a new one," he said.

There are now 12.5 million motor vehicles with internal combustion engines in California. About 3.5 million new and used cars are sold annually in the nation's most populous and smog-conscious state.

The only opponent of the bill during floor debate was Sen. Lou Cusanovich, R-Van Nuys. He argued supporters of the measure were special interests.

Cusanovich noted that at an earlier hearing only potential developers of steam and gas turbine engines testified strongly in favor of the Petris bill.

The automobile lobby, apparently figuring the bill was too far out to merit attention, never testified against it in committee.

But Detroit is sure to have a representative at an Assembly committee hearing, which will probably take place next week.

Sen. John A. Nejedly, who this week won Senate approval of his measure to ban DDT, strongly endorsed Petris't bill as another step in protecting California's environment.

"It forces a solution...on the automobile manufacturers of the nation," said Nejedly, R-Walnut Creek, this session's leading conservationist spokesman.

Sen. John G. Schmitz, R-Tustin, said when Petris introduced the bill he considered the action "a grandstand play."

But Schmitz said he reconsidered his position and now believes the state should move into the field of outlawing the internal combustion engine.

"As a conservative, I feel this is a legitimate function of government to step in and save lives and property," he said.

The negative votes were cast by Republican Sens. John L. Harmer, Glendale; Robert J. Lagomarsino, Ojai; Fred Marler Jr., Redding; Cusanovich and Democratic Sen. Randolph Collier, Yreka. Not voting was Sen. John F. McCarthy, R-San Rafael.

them of participation in a regional sewerage system."

The "no" was underlined in the resolution.

The resolution said the regional board would oppose any application for federal funds by San Francisco for sewer facilities that would not fit in with a regional system.

The board also voted to request San Francisco's supervisors to fix precise dates for ending pollution.

The board actions followed a presentation by San Francisco officials of a recent report by consulting engineeers on how the city could end dry weather sewage problems.

The engineers, Brown and Caldwell, recommended construction by 1971 of deepwater outfalls for the two treatment plants on the bay at a cost of $5,080,000 in 1969 dollars.

They also estimated that dumping all the city's sewage in the ocean would cost $32.6 million, but said this step would not be needed unless water quality standards were upgraded radically.

City Engineer Robert Levy told the board that San Francisco's supervisors had not yet acted on the engineers' report, completed five months ago. He said his department had enough money from previous bond issues to complete designing the extended bay outfalls, but that voter approval of another bond issue would be needed to finance the construction.

He pleaded in vain for the board to delay action on the city's wet weather sewage problem. The city has a unique system of collecting storm water and sewage waste in the same pipes, so whenever it rains the city's raw sewage bypasses the treatment plant and is dumped in the bay and ocean at 41 points.

Levy promised that the city would have a master plan completed by Aug. 1, 1971, on how to solve the wet weather problem, and insisted "a flat commitment would not be possible" when board members pressed him to estimate when construction in such a master plan could be completed.

"I'll give it some serious thought and do some talking around city hall," Levy said.

Dan P. Norris of Brown and Caldwell acknowledged that the city's three sewage plants all violated the board's pollution standards, but said the violations were "primarily in appearance and matters of aesthetics such as odors, appearance and flotables." Flotables is the polite term for gobs of feces and gelatinous blobs of oily waste.

Norris' suggestion that the city's sewage someday be dumped in the ocean brought objections from a state Department of Fish and Game biologist, Donald Lollock, who said this would kill off major fishery resources.

Citing Levy's estimate that it would cost the city seven times more to join a regional sewage system than to handle the problem itself, Lollock told the Independent-Journal after the hearing that Levy's low estimate for a go-it-alone system failed to protect the fishery resources. The regional system would have an ocean outfall much further to the south in San Mateo County, as reommended by the Department of Fish and Game.

San Francisco's sewage treatment plants "now discharge more flotables than the Bay-Delta report would ultimately allow for all dischargers in the central bay," the board's staff reported.

"We have a horrendous problem," Levy conceded.

Golden Gate Airlift Wing Leaves Hamilton

The 349th Military Airlift Wing completed its move from Hamilton Air Force Base today, ending a colorful 10-year history at the base.

The reserve wing — known as the Golden Gate Wing — was officially welcomed this morning to Travis Air Force Base where the wing was transferred after it was returned to reserve status last month. About 1,000 men were returned to reserve status.

During its stay at Hamilton, the Golden Gate Wing was called to active duty twice — once during the 1962 Cuban Crisis and again after the Pueblo was seized in January 1968.

The wing also flew emergency missions in domestic crises such as blizzards.

family of Miss Kopechne," Mansfield said. He added he had not talked with Kennedy.

Mansfield said he expects Kennedy to return to the Senate. "He's a senator and he has a responsibility," Mansfield said.

Mansfield also said that so far as he is concerned Kennedy will remain the party whip for the remainder of this Congress, which would include the 1970 session.

He was asked whether the accident might cause a change in the status of Kennedy as assistant leader, to which he was elected in January.

"That's up to the Democrats in the Senate," Mansfield replied. When a reporter pointed out that leadership changes usually are made only at the beginning of a new Congress, Mansfield agreed that was true.

Kennedy, who was forced by poor weather to take the family boat to Martha's Vineyard, flew back to the compound after the court appearance.

By pleading guilty, Kennedy sidestepped the possibility of having to answer questions in court about circumstances surrounding the accident in which Mary Jo Kopechne, a 28-year-old Washington secretary, drowned when a car driven by the senator plunged into a tidal pond on Chappaquiddick Island, which lies across a small channel from Martha's Vineyard.

Kennedy, 37, stood with his eyes cast down as the suspended jail term was announced to the court, which was jammed with more than 150 newsmen and spectators.

Kennedy, whose driver's license was suspended Wednesday pending a Registry of Motor Vehicles hearing, was driving his sedan when it went off a rail-less wooden humpback bridge sometime between 11:15 p.m. Friday and 1 a.m. Saturday and plunged into eight feet of water in a tidal pond.

In a statement which appeared to startle both Walter Steele, special prosecutor for Dukes County, and Kennedy's attorneys, Judge Boyle asked, "Has there been any deliberate attempt to conceal the identity of the defendant?"

Police Chief Dominick J. Arena, looking surprised, responded, "Not to my knowledge."

Kennedy's attorney of record, Richard J. McCarron of Edgartown attempted to make a statement to the court, saying "There are legal defenses which could be made in this case."

The judge abruptly cut him off and snapped, "His plea of guilty is a concession. I don't think the defendant then should try to make a defense."

Then the judge asked McCarron, "Are there mitigating circumstances?"

"The defendant is adamant in this matter of pleading guilty," the lawyer said.

In asking for a suspended sentence, McCarron—who describes himself as a "country lawyer"—told the court, "I believe his (Kennedy's) character is well known to this court, country and the world."

Prosecutor Steele asked the judge that the U.S. Senate Whip "be incarcerated in the house of correction for two months" but that the sentence be suspended. Steele added, "I believe the sense of justice would be best served with a suspended sentence."

Arena recapped some of the circumstances surrounding the accident. Kennedy never once looked up as the police chief spoke of the tragic accident. Later Arena said, "As far as I'm concerned the case is closed."

The police chief reiterated previous statements that there was no finding of "negligence on the part of the defendant."

Kennedy, accompanied by his wife Joan, motored to the courthouse in a sedan after sailing to this resort island aboard the family cruiser Marlin when heavy overcast skies and a light rain rolled over Cape Cod, threatening plane flights.

Mrs. Kennedy appeared relaxed and composed as she sat on a wooden bench about 10 feet across the courtroom from her husband.

When Kennedy entered the second floor courtroom through a side door, he walked in front of the bench and took his seat alone. He put his head in his hands and stared at the floor.

Kennedy, who wore a neck brace Tuesday when he and his wife attended the Pennsylvania funeral of Miss Kopechne because he strained neck muscles in the accident, wore no braces today.

Bolinas Board Meet

The Bolinas Harbor District board will meet at 10 a.m., tomorrow in the district office in Bolinas to discuss its proposed 1969-70 budget.

NIXON

splashdown in Honolulu.

The President spoke to newsmen on Guam, where he rested after watching the Apollo 11 splashdown in the Pacific. He set down a rule that barred the use of direct quotations.

Aside from the situation in Asia, President Nixon also touched on the possibility of a summit conference with the leaders of the Soviet Union but said this would be useful only if it could score a breakthrough toward settlements of conflicts in Vietnam or the Middle East, or an arms control pact. He said he saw no prospect now of such a meeting.

What role the Asian leaders would like the United States to play in their area after the Vietnam war is a principal item on Nixon's discussion list for his tour.

The United States, of course, will keep its treaty commitments with Asians, he said. But, he added, it must avoid a policy that will make countries in Asia so dependent that the United States is dragged into conflicts such as Vietnam.

He conceded that this is a difficult line to follow.

The President expressed belief that the time has come for the United States to be emphatic on two points:

That the United States keep treaty commitments, for example, with Thailand under the Southeast Asia Treaty organization.

That in so far as military defense is concerned—except for a threat from a major power involving nuclear weapons—the United States will encourage and expect Asians themselves to take care of this responsibility.

At another point, Nixon said he wanted to be sure that U.S. policies all over the world will reduce U.S. involvement. He said that the United States always will be ready to lend assistance but his administration favors less actual involvement by American personnel.

Police Arrest Burglar Suspect

Luck ran out last night for a youthful burglary suspect in the habit of leaving police little notes, signed in one case with the name "Ronald Reagan."

Booked into Juvenile Hall by San Rafael officers today was Kip Einer Kelgard, 15, of 1706 Fifth Street.

Police accused him of stealing $2000 worth of equipment from San Rafael High School Sunday, West End Elementary School Monday, and Marin Cameras, 1016 B Street, yesterday.

He was picked up shortly after midnight hiding in Charlie's Market on Fourth Street with a pair of wire cutters by patrolmen on a routine check of the business district.

In one burglary the thief left a note saying, "Thank you very much for all the nice toys," signed with the Governor's name. In another he wrote, "It looks like I pulled the wool over your eyes. You should be onto me by now."

Loot recovered from a loft over Kelgard's garage included cameras, TV sets, a projector, copying machine and two stereo sets among other goods.

The arrest was made when Patrolman Barxdall W. Stinson noticed a wire screen missing from the store's rear window.

OBITUARIES

Martha McNally Dies At 68

Martha E. McNally, a Marin resident for 60 years, died yesterday in a local hospital. She was 68.

Mrs. McNally, of 730 Sunset Parkway, Novato, was the widow of Emerson O. McNally, who was a surveyor. Mrs. McNally was a retired Marin County court clerk. She was a native of Yuba City.

She was a member of the San Rafael Circle 137 of the United Order of Druids.

Survivors are a daughter, Marjory L. Valim of Novato, and a son, Emerson B. (Mickey) McNally, also of Novato, and five grandchildren.

Funeral will be at 2 p.m. tomorrow at the Harry M. Williams Mortuary, San Rafael. Burial will be private.

APOLLO

their wives by radiotelephone.

A smiling, clapping, shouting President Richard M. Nixon, aboard the Hornet to deliver his congratulations personally, had to use an intercommunications system to converse with the spacemen as they stood at a window of the isolation trailer, called a Mobile Quarantine Facility (MQF).

Nixon declared that no week since the Creation had changed the world more than this one.

The world now is larger, he said, and added that he expects his globe-circling trip in the next 10 days to demonstrate that, because of man's first footsteps on the moon, "the world has never been closed together."

Samples of the moon's crust gathered by the astronauts had already reached the Lunar Receiving Laboratory (LRL) in Houston, Tex., today. Tests start immediately in an effort to answer scientific questions that man has been asking for ages.

As Dr. Carpentier delivered his report through the MQF window, Aldrin could be seen behind him, stretched out in an easy chair, his feet up on a table in the dining area.

While the spacemen, the doctor, and a technician quarantined with them to keep the MQF systems going, must pass the hours cooped up in the MQF, the world outside heaps tribute upon the Apollo triumph.

Plans for a joint session of Congress honoring the astronauts were announced in Washington. Cables of congratulations from other countries poured into the White House.

The Hornet, steaming for Hawaii, was expected to arrive at about 11 a.m. PDT tomorrow.

The MQF will be tucked into an Air Force transport for the long flight to Ellington Air Force Base near the Space Center. There the men shift to the spacious Lunar Receiving Laboratory for the remainder of the quarantine period.

Mail Sack Stolen At Strawberry Center

Theft of $226 in cash and mail left in a sack in the Strawberry shopping Center for about 20 minutes Wednesday was reported today by the sheriff's department.

Deputies said a mailman left the sack by a mail box between 5:10 an 5:30 p.m., and when he returned to get it, the contents had been removed.

JAMES GILROY

James William Gilroy of San Rafael, an auto salesman in San Francisco, died today of a lingering illness in a San Francisco hospital. He was 23.

Survivors are his parents, Mr. and Mrs. James William Gilroy of 241 Prospect Drive, San Rafael.

Requiem Mass will be offered at 10:30 a.m. at St. Raphael's Church Mission Chapel, with burial in Mount Olivet Cemetery. The Rosary will be recited at 8:15 p.m. today at Harry M. Williams Mortuary, San Rafael.

DELOS WATSON

Funeral for Delos F. Watson, a carpenter who had lived in Marin for 28 years, will be at 10:30 a.m. tomorrow at Keaton's Mortuary, San Rafael, followed by private burial.

Watson, 65, of 110 Hawthrone Street, Santa Venetia, died yesterday at his home following a short illness.

A native of Wisconsin, he had lived in Minneapolis before moving to Marin. He was a member of Carpenters Union Local 35.

Survivors are his mother, Rose Watson of Sonoma; three brothers, Leonard Watson of Novato; Victor Watson of Walnut Creek, and Clare Watson of St. Paul, Minn., and one sister, June Frey of Sonoma.

BERGER STOCKFLETH

Funeral for Berger Stockfleth, 80, a retired engineer and naval officer, was held today in San Francisco. Inurnment followed at Cypress Lawn Memorial Park, Colma.

Stockfleth, who lived with his wife, Alma, at 16 Old Landing Road in Tiburon, died in a San Francisco hospital Wednesday after a nine-week illness.

A native of Chicago, he had lived in Marin County since 1941.

During World War II, Stockfleth was called on, even though he was then 53 years old, to take charge of assembly and repair operations at the Alameda Naval Air Station.

He was cited by Navy Secretary James Forrestal for greatly increasing the efficiency of airplane repair operations at the air station by instituting a production-line repair system.

He held the rank of commander in the Navy.

After the war, he was secretary and chief engineer of the C-A Company, a farm equipment manufacturing firm, in Riverbank, Modesto County, for several years.

Stockfleth was a former member of the Engineers Club and the Retired Officers Club.

Besides his wife, he is survived by two sons, Theodore of Chicago and Russell of Manitowoc, Wis., and a brother, Dr. Fredrick Stockfleth of Mercer Island, Wash.

The family prefers that memorial contributions be made to Lutheran Care for the Aging or the Good Shepherd Home of Terra Bella, Tulare County.

JOHN TEIXERIA

John Teixeria, 78, a retired custodian and lifetime resident of Marin County, died at a local convalescent hospital yesterday after a long illness.

Teixeria had lived in several convalescent hospitals since his retirement several years ago.

A native of Sausalito, he worked for many yars as a custodian for Marin County.

There are no immediate survivors.

Funeral arrangements ere being handled by Keaton's Mortuary in San Rafael.

MRS. RANDALL

Marguerite E. Randall, 78, a Marin County resident for 13 years and a lifetime resident of California, died in a local hospital yesterday after a long illness.

Mrs. Randall lived with her husband, Richard Ray Randall, at Edgemont Way in Inverness.

A native of Challenge Mills, Yuba County, Mrs. Randall was a member of St. Columba's Episcopal Church in Inverness.

Besides her husband, she is survived by a daughter, Mrs. Virinda Steig of Berkeley, and a son, Richard H. Randall of Geneva, Switzerland.

Private memorial services will be held tomorrow. Burial will be private.

The family prefers that memorial contributions be made to St. Columba's Episcopal Church Memorial Fund, Inverness.

San Rafael Hirings To Raise Budget

The San Rafael city council last night approved the hiring of additional personnel in several departments which, combined with new personnel already approved for other departments, will increase by about $200,000 the tentative operating budget of $3,728,701.

The action came in the final session on the operating budget. A review of the capital improvements budget, which has not been completed, is planned for early in August.

A lengthy discussion brought about no change in the city recreation department's proposed expenditure of $150,000.

Andrew J. Snyder, director of parks and recreation, appeared before the council to defend the recreation department's request, which represents about a $25,000 increase, mostly for personnel, over last year's $137,433 budget. Snyder told the council that an additional full-time and typist clerk are needed.

But council expressed doubts about the need for an additional supervisor. According to Mayor C. Paul Bettini, indications have been strong that the San Rafael school district intends to withdraw from the city's recreation program.

Charles Condrotte, business manager of the San Rafael district school, said today that the district board has given the city council one year's notice of its intention to withdraw from the recreation program because of tight funds, but that no final decision has been made.

Funds for the recreation program from the school district amounted to $24,471 last year and will be about the same this year.

"There will be a reduction in the program if the schools get out, yet we're gearing ourselves for a larger program," the mayor said.

But Snyder insisted an additional supervisor was necessary to help coordinate and expand teen programs, and Ron Koller, now the only recreation supervisor, predicted an increase in juvenile problems if "council holds back on funds now."

"But I don't like to see us build up a full-time staff when we don't know what's happening next year," City Mgr. Dan E. Andersen said, referring to the possible withdrawal of school district funds.

The council then approved the $150,000 budget but stipulated that the hiring of the new supervisor should be done on a temporary basis since the need for a personnel buildup could not be substantiated.

The council also acted on budgets in three other areas including the finance department, library and street trees and parkways.

A library budget of $158,426 (last year's $146,542) was approved after council provided an additional $3,500 for consultant's fees for an initial survey on library expansion.

Vivian Smith, head librarian, requested council to provide funds for a survey of library needs and a study of the building with the possibility of establishing branches.

The finance department budget request of $38,495 (last year's $30,721) was approved without change. Plans for m new electronic accounting system caused the major part of the increase.

Only minor changes were made in the street trees and parkways budget as council approved a sum of $79,511 (last year's $72,490) which included funds for hiring an additional groundsman.

Also approved was $123,690 (last year's $108,240) parks budget.

Councilman John A. Miskimen was absent.

Marin City Council Warily Eyes Proposed $3 Million Project

With the current developer on the threshhold of eviction, the Marin City Council last night cautiously eyed a $13 million alternative proposal for the development of Marin City.

The council got only the briefest of looks at the proposal since Ulysses J. Montgomery, the San Francisco urban consultant who made the proposal, didn't arrive at the meeting until 9:45 p.m. and the session was adjourned at 10 p.m. when the Manzanita Center closed.

The current developer of Marin City, the Marin Development Co. (formerly the California Development Corp.) has come under repeated attack for its failure to make and move forward since it was given development rights six years ago.

Many Marin City residents have demanded that the Marin County Redevelopment Agency declare the firm in default of its commitment and open up the area to other developers. A meeting is scheduled for the redevelopment agency at 8 p.m. Wednesday at Manzanita Center and a decision is expected at that time.

In his 15-minute report, Montgomery told the council that his plan called for a three-phase development over a three-year period.

Phase one includes 123 multi-family housing units, 40 single-family units and a neighborhood shopping center. Total cost of the first phase would be $4,250,000, Montgomery said, with the shopping center costing "about $250,000."

Phase two would include 123 multi-family units, and 39 single-family units at an estimated cost of $3,750,000.

The final phase would be a science industrial park at an estimated cost of $5 million.

Montgomery said that all of the funds could be available through federal programs and grants.

Montgomery told the council the program should be developed by a nonprofit community development association, owned and controlled by Marin City residents. He said the Marin City Council, already a nonprofit organization, could administer the program or could set up a subsidiary to do it.

To speed up the planning and construction time, Montgomery said, the Fillmore Community Development Association, a black-owned nonprofit sponsor of Urban Renewal Housing Projects could cosponsor the project with the Marin City nonprofit association.

The council took no action on Montgomery's proposal other than to invite him back Aug. 28, the date of a special meeting which was set to allow anybody with plans for development of businesses to outline their projects.

At least one council member, Ronald Foster, appeared cool to the plan even before he heard it, however.

During discussion prior to Montgomery's arrival, Foster said that Montgomery ". . . had left a bad taste in the community's mouth." Foster was about to expand on his statement when several other council members asked him to hold his comments until Montgomery was at the meeting to defend himself or his plans. The issue never came up after Montgomery arrived.

Widow Of Rocket Pioneer Sees A Bright Future

WORCESTER, Mass. (AP) — "I am blessed to have seen part of his dream fulfilled today," said the widow of rocketry pioneer Robert Goddard as three astronauts came home from the moon.

"I can do no less than to express the conviction that the rest will follow," Mrs. Esther Goddard said yesterday.

Mrs. Goddard said her husband first published findings on jet propulsion mentioned only the moon as a goal.

Goddard pondered the possibility of using solar energy for interplanetary travel, Mrs. Goddard said, and discussed the emigration of the human race to another solar system as our sun grows colder.

Mrs. Goddard spoke at a meeting in her honor.

Rod And Reel Strongarmed From Two Boys

Two teen-agers, described as hippies by police, strongarmed two San Anselmo boys, aged 9 and 11, yesterday for 21 cents and a rod and reel, Fairfax police reported today.

The victims of the attack under the bridge at the Marin Town and Country Club yesterday were Larry Reuss, 11, of 39 Bennett Avenue, son of Sgt. George Reuss of the Marin County Sheriff's Office, and Billy Adams, 9, son of Mr. and Mrs. William D. Adams of 52 Hillcrest Court.

Fairfax police said young Reuss was struck in the side of the face by one of the older boys but neither child apparently was hurt.

The rod and reel, worth $45, was taken from Larry and the 21 cents was taken from Billy, police said.

Girl Bruised As Car Rams Parked Auto

Patricia Barker, 16, of 37 Madrone Avenue, San Anselmo, was treated last night at Marin General Hospital for multiple bruises suffered when her car rammed a parked auto at 32 Fern Lane in San Anselmo, police reported today.

Two young girls, ages 12 and 14, who were riding with Miss Barker were uninjured in the accident at 8:28 p.m.

Carpets Taken

The Condiotti Construction Co., building homes off South McDowell Boulevard, Petaluma, told police yesterday that two rolls of carpeting valued at $1,000 had been stolen from a house under construction.

APOLLO 11 CAPSULE AWAITS RECOVERY

As the Hornet (background) approaches in the early morning light of yesterday, the Apollo 11 command module floats in the Pacific, awaiting final recovery operation. The three astronauts had already been picked up by helicopter from raft at left. (See other pictures, stories, pages 1 and 10).

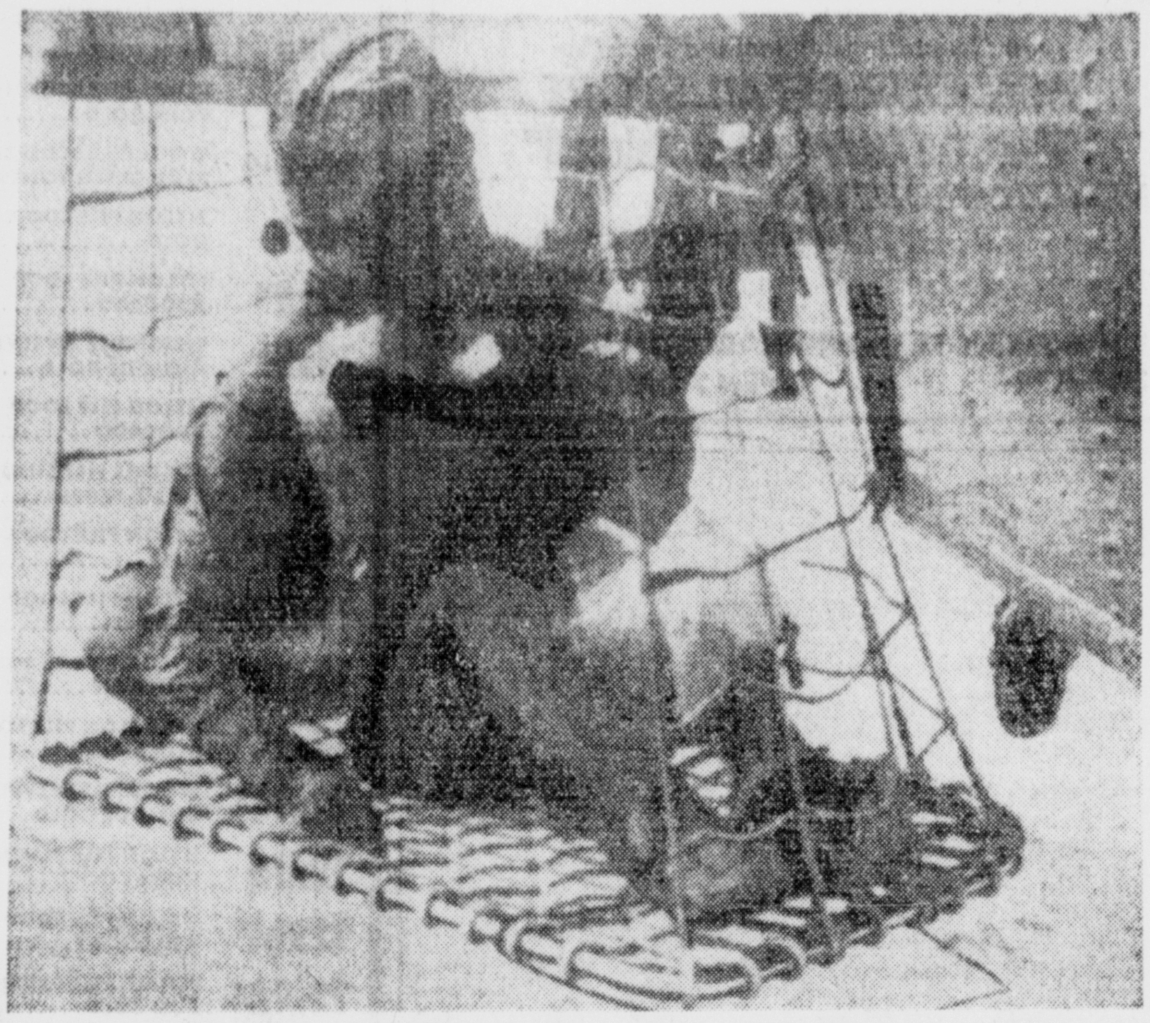
REENTRY—A passenger aboard a Quantas airliner flying from Australia to Honolulu, catches the fiery reentry of Apollo 11 on camera.



LIFTED INTO COPTER—Apollo 11 astronaut Neil Armstrong, already outfitted in his quarantine gear, rides a chairlift into the recovery helicopter following splashdown in the Pacific.

Next Major Decision—Mars Flight

SPACE CENTER, Houston (UPI)—Man's next major space exploration should be to the planet Mars, a high space agency official said after Apollo 11's safe return from the moon.

Dr. George E. Mueller, associate administrator for manned space flight, said the "next major goal" in the space program should be "almost certainly to the planet Mars."

Apollo 11 proved man can reach farther out into the universe and America has the resources to get the job done sometime after 1980, Mueller said yesterday. What is needed, he said, is a decision, the greatest decision in the history of earth.

"The will of the people of this nation and of the world will determine whether mankind will make the great leap to the planets."

As for missions to Mars, Mueller said costs, schedule and strategy would have to be considered first. Then, he said, a decision would have to be made—whether to try to go and when—based on those considerations.

Mariner 6, 7 Zipping Toward Mars

PASADENA (AP) — While the nation celebrates Apollo 11 moon mission triumph, two unmanned spacecraft, Mariner 6 and 7, are zipping toward Mars to give earth's television viewers another space spectacular.

Mariner 6 is expected to beam back pictures of Mars from 2,000 miles from the surface next Tuesday, images that will take five and one-half minutes to travel the six million miles.

Mariner 7 is to start sending pictures back on Aug. 3. The pictures are expected to reveal new details of the planet.

A spokesman for the Jet Propulsion Laboratory, part of the National Aeronautics and Space Administration, said yesterday both Mariner missions are right on schedule.

Mars was televised by Mariner 4 in 1965, but NASA engineers promise pictures far higher in quality from Mariners 6 and 7 than was possible four years ago.

"The really important keys to our progress are the improvements in the spacecraft and the ground receiver. We have been able to increase transmitter power, raising the strength of the signal on its journey to earth," said Gerald M. Truzynski, NASA's associate administrator for tracking and data acquisition.

Since their launching, the Mariners have completed one experiment successfully. This was direct measurement in deep space of the sun's heat.

Moon Rocks Arrive At Lab Under Top Security Care

SPACE CENTER, Houston (UPI)—Sixty pounds of the moon arrive under elaborate security wraps today for the start of one of history's greatest scientific investigations.

Scientists gathered from around the world for the arrival of two planes at nearby Ellington Air Force Base with the rock and dirt samples Neil A. Armstrong and Edwin E. "Buzz" Aldrin picked up on the moon.

It is indicative of how highly prized the rock samples are that they are being sent in two planes. Space agency officials explain in case something happens to one of the aircraft there will still be another load.

Tightest security was planned to the rocks's arrival.

The rocks were left in the Apollo 11 Columbia command module when Armstrong, Aldrin and Michael Collins splashed down in the Pacific yesterday. Once the module was aboard the carrier Hornet, the samples were loaded on the aircraft and started on their journey to the LRL, an $11-million building here where the astronauts will also spend their 18-day quarantine.

The rocks will first be tested to determine if any alien substances in or on them can harm man. Because of this, all testing of the samples will be done in the LRL and a 50-day quarantine was imposed on the specimens.

Vacuum chambers and biological isolation cabinets will be "home" for the rocks for the next month and a half. Under the vacuum conditions similar to those in which they existed on the moon, many tests will be made before the samples are allowed to be tested in the open air.

White mice, minnows and plants raised in germ-free environments will be exposed to the rocks. If anything happens to the organisms, it may be an indication harmful substances are contained in the rocks.

Once scientists feel sure there is no danger, the rocks will be sliced into thin layers at the LRL. Parts of the samples will be ground up and sent to 142 of the world's top scientists who will conduct tests in their own special fields.

The rocks, however, are considered U.S. government property and although they are loaned to the scientists they must be returned to the space agency when the tests are completed.

Columbus believed that his name, Christopher, "the Christ bearer," was a symbol and that he was destined to carry the Christian faith to untaught lands.

Corte Madera Youth Get Break On Tennis

Children should not be prohibited from using the tennis courts at Corte Madera Town Park on weekends, the town's park and recreation commission has decided.

The commission Wednesday voted to eliminate the "adults only" regulation at the courts during a review of the town's tennis court rules.

The Corte Madera Park and Recreation Commission also:

EQUIPMENT — Received a request from Frank L. Nelson, fire chief, for the addition of a slide and merry-go-round type attraction at the town park.

LANDSCAPING — Directed Arthur N. Morrison, director of public works, to develop plans and prepare estimates for landscaping of Village Square island.

YOUTH — Heard a report on a proposed youth center to be housed at the old Sanitary District 2 structure next to the town park. Youth representatives requested to inspect the site and the commission directed Morrison to draw up plans for renovation of the building and report back at the next commission meeting, Aug. 27.

Pacific Crosser In San Diego

SAN DIEGO (AP) — Sharon Sites Adams piloted her 31-foot ketch into San Diego Harbor at 9:02 a.m. today, the first woman to sail across the Pacific Ocean alone.

The slender, 39-year-old California housewife traveled 6,000 miles from Yokohama, Japan. During the 74-day journey, her tiny boat was tossed by seven gales and 20-foot waves.

The pink sails of her boat fluttered in soft breezes as Mrs. Adams ended the long, lonely trip during which she was out of contact for weeks at a time.

A reception, with plenty of champagne and other delicacies was planned for Shelter Island, center of the pleasure boat marinas in San Diego.

MARIN FIRE CALLS

YESTERDAY:

Reagan Pays Tribute To Country Music

SACRAMENTO (UPI)—Gov. Ronald Reagan, who played "The Old Ranger" on television's "Death Valley Dawys," yesterday declared Sept. 8-14 Country and Western Music Week in California.

The governor acted on a legislative resolution authored by Assemblyman Eugene A. Chappie, R-Cool.

Jackie Watches Landing Via TV

SKORPIOS ISLAND, Greece (AP) — Mrs. Aristotle Onassis watched the Apollo 11 splashdown on a portable television while cruising in the Ionian Sea off the Italian coast.

A spokesman for the Onassis' yacht Christina said, "Mrs. Onassis is out at sea and not immediately available for comment."

Her late husband, President John F. Kennedy, launched the moon project eight years ago.

Muir Beach Development Check Sought

A couple of Muir Beach residents, alarmed that the natural resort area might be destroyed by over development, are trying to induce the state to go easy on concrete and chain link fencing.

Developer Leslie Smith and commercial photographer Bruce Harlow, who went to Sacramento to see William Penn Mott yesterday, said they were encouraged by the "sympathetic and friendly" attitude of the state director of parks and recreation.

"Mr. Mott suggested a citizen advisory committee be set up as a liaison between citizens of Marin and the state beaches and parks," said Smith. "We're afraid the state will pave the area with concrete for parking and put a chain link fence around the beach. We feel that a kinder and better treatment is possible for the beach."

Smith and Harlow announced they plan to meet with their supervisor, Michael Wornum, and suggest that the Marin County Board of Supervisors appoint a citizens advisory committee. This committee could then keep in touch with the state, suggesting guidelines for the development, not only of Muir Beach but also of Stinson Beach and other state-owned recreational areas, said Smith.

"We oppose concrete paving and chain link fences. We'd rather see Muir Beach left as it is for public enjoyment of its natural beauty."

Marin Road Record Judged Best In North Coast Area

Marin County's road department had the best safety record among departments of six north coast counties during the last fiscal year, it was revealed yesterday.

A first place award was presented at a meeting of the Marin Safety Commission by Clem Slater of Bolinas, representing the State Compensation Insurance Fund. Other counties in the northcoast region are Humboldt, Sonoma, Mendocino, Lake and Napa.

The commission appointed Richard Uchida, county personnel analyst, as vice chairman. Uchida succeeds Michael King, former deputy public works director, who resigned to take a job in Hawaii.

The commission reviewed six accidents involving county employees and found three of them preventable, but none serious enough to deserve reprimands.

Rivas Son Indicted In Murder Case

The Marin County Grand Jury last night indicted Ronald Rivas, 20, of Novato on a charge of murdering his father at their Novato home July 17.

The indictment removes the necessity for a preliminary hearing in municipal court which had been set for next Tuesday. Rivas' attorney, Robert D. Carrow, had earlier objected to the date for the preliminary asking an earlier one since he feared the case would be taken to the grand jury.

He said he would be barred from a grand jury hearing.

Rivas, who is being held in Marin County Jail without bail, will be arraigned in Superior Court Monday.

He is charged with fatally shooting his father, Fidel Ibarra Rivas, 46,,during a family argument.

Borman Predicts A Walk On Mars

HONOLULU (AP) — Apollo 8 commander astronaut Frank Borman, who watched the Apollo 11 splashdown with President Richard M. Nixon, says Americans will eventually walk on Mars.

"It's inevitable," he said yesterday, "but I can't give you a timetable. It depends on the nation's priorities."

Borman said Mars would be the likely choice for man's first interplanetary visit because "Jupiter is 700 degrees and Venus is rather inhospitable."

Hub Chamber Aid Sought For Plaza

The San Anselmo Chamber of Commerce board was asked yesterday to back a proposal to convert city parking lot "A" into a city plaza.

The proposal was made by Everett Farey, who delivered a summary of recommendations that grew out of the San Anselmo Town Meeting in May.

A chamber of commerce committee was assigned to investigate the proposal and also four others from Farey.

He urged the chamber to request the city council to order that vacant property be maintained in a neat fashion; asked support of a plan to keep San Anselmo stores open one night a week; requested an investiagtion of the possibility of opening a craft store in San Anselmo run by youths or retired persons, and sought support of a plan for express commute buses linking Marin and San Francisco.

The board announced it will meet again next Thursday, but then will discontinue sessions for the month of August.

Wives Know Their Lives Changed Now

SPACE CENTER, Houston (AP) — Families of the Apollo 11 heroes began a new life today, accepting congratulations from around the world for the historic moon mission.

"I like my life the way it is now but I know that from now on it will be changed, at least for a while," said Mrs. Edwin E. Aldrin Jr., wife of the second man to set foot on the moon. "I hope we, my husband and I and our children, come back to the life we have now after a while."

MRS. EDWIN E. ALDRIN
Awaiting arrival . . .

MRS. MICHAEL COLLINS
. . . of Apollo 11 husbands

"VERY HAPPY"

"I'm a very happy and proud woman," said Mrs. Michael Collins.

She added that she would not even fuss at her husband for the unexpected appearance of a mustache after the splashdown. "It's all right with me," she said. "He can keep it if he wants to."

"I think what he did was very, very great," Mrs. Neil A. Armstrong said of her husband, first man on the moon. "He and Buzz and Mike. I'm terribly, terribly proud of them."

The three wives had a prominent spokesman appearing for them when the three astronauts reached the aircraft carrier Hornet.

SPEAKS FOR WIVES

"I speak for three of the most courageous ladies in the world —your wives. I bring you their love and their congratulations," said the stand-in, President Richard M. Nixon.

The President then invited the astronauts and their wives to a state dinner in Los Angeles Aug. 13 after the 21-day quarantine which began the day the lunar module Eagle lifted them from the moon's surface.

"If the President is kind enough to invite us anywhere we will be happy to go," said Mrs. Collins.

Each home of the astronauts had its own private celebration last night with fellow astronauts and close friends making up the guest list. Their telephones rang constantly, and telegram and flower deliveries were frequent.

JOINT PARTY

Later they were guests of honor at a more public "splashdown party" thrown by space industries.

A ballroom ceiling had a moon-like decoration, bathed in blue light. Among the 12,000 pastries on the snack tables was a huge cookie inscribed "one small step for man, one giant leap for mankind," Armstrong's words, the first spoken on the moon.

Mrs. Armstrong said after the landing: "We received thousands of messages from well-wishers all over the world .... The kindness and faith of everyone has been a big help."

From the Society of American Florists she received a floral display that depicted a boot print on the surface of the moon. The industry organization said its gift was "a token of love from the American people."

The first firm commitment the wives have made in the coming days will be a trip early Sunday morning to Ellington Air Force Base to meet the plane bringing home their astronaut husbands in the quarantine trailer.

Splashdown Uncorks Giant Celebrations

By ASSOCIATED PRESS

With pealing bells and wailing sirens, hoarse cheers and popping firecrackers, champagne celebrations and solemn prayers, an exultant nation saluted the safe return of its Apollo 11 astronauts.

Americans in tiny crossroads towns and in sprawling concrete cities focused their attention on television screens yesterday to watch the splashdown of the spacecraft carrying the first men to walk the moon. Others listened to radio broadcasts.

CELEBRATIONS

Then the voyage of astronauts Neil A. Armstrong, Edwin E. Aldrin Jr. and Michael Collins which captured the world's imagination for eight days was over and the celebrating began.

Civil defense sirens everywhere in Los Angeles County except the City of Los Angeles wailed a two minute tribute. Church bells chimed along Fifth Avenue in New York. Ticker tape fluttered down in San Francisco.

In Armstrong's home town of Wapakoneta, Ohio, the high school band appeared in front of his parents' home on Neil Armstrong Drive and played a serenade. "Oh, bless their hearts!" said Mrs. Stephen Armstrong, the astronaut's mother.

ALDRIN TRIBUTE

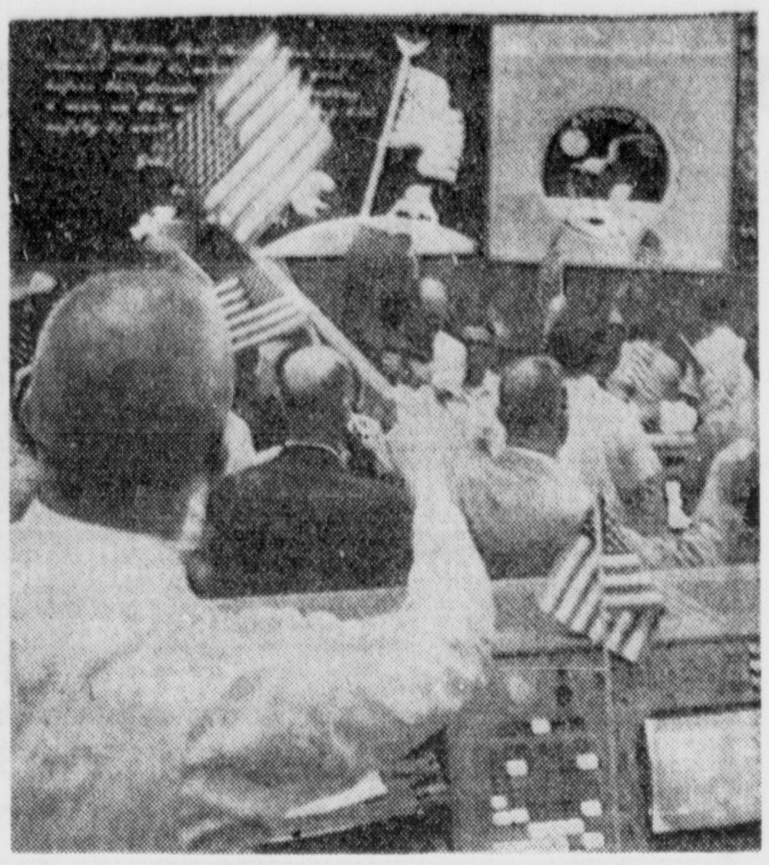
In Montclair, N.J., the Clairidge Theater took down the letters on its marquee advertising the current attraction and replaced them with: "Congratulations Buzz Aldrin—Montclair Man on the Moon."

Thousands on their lunch hour in New York City jammed sidewalks in front of television showrooms to view the end of the epic adventure.

Cheers erupted on the floors of the New York and American Stock Exchanges and the tape that normally carries the price quotations flashed: "Astronauts Armstrong, Aldrin and Collins, so proudly we hail you."

In St. Patrick's Cathedral, Terence Cardinal Cooke celebrated a mass of thanksgiving.

A cubic foot of ice weighs 56 pounds while a cubic foot of fresh water weighs about 62 pounds.



FLAGS WAVE AT CENTER

The mission control center crew in Houston breaks into flag waving jubilation following the successful splashdown of Apollo 11 in the Pacific.

Warren Calls For New Look At Goals, Including Space

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Former Chief Justice Earl Warren called for a reappraisal of the nation's priorities, including the space program yesterday.

"Now that we have pierced outer space to the moon, it is time to reappraise," the spending of $20-30 billion on a space program when the nation faces "domestic problems which are at the crisis stage," Warren said.

He spoke shortly after the Apollo 11 splashdown.

"Given the same dedication of effort and appropriations" as the Apollo 11 mission "the country has the ability to accomplish in the area of human relations that which we have received in the area of scientific endeavor," he added.

"The problems of city slums, and air pollution . . . have increased geometrically," Warren told 1,500 persons attending a thanksgiving service at Grace Cathedral to honor the successful Apollo 11 mission.

Mayor Joseph Alioto said, "The moon is a majestic milestone on man's quest for the stars and it is a dramatic reminder of how far we have to go in the heavens as well as here on earth."

Meanwhile, horns honked, firecrackers popped and ticker tape fluttered from Montgomery Street buildings in the financial district as part of a celebration urged by Alioto.

The city's Civil Defense network blasted its sirens for four minutes and church bells rang.

Aldrin's Father Hits Quarantine

BRIELLE, N.J. (AP) — Col. Edwin E. Aldrin Sr., has ridiculed the quarantine his son and the other two Apollo 11 astronauts must undergo.

The 73-year-old retired colonel told a news conference yesterday that some precautions of the quarantine were the work of "some medicos" and the "long-haired guys."

"Sometime in the future they are going to have to laugh at some of the stuff we do now," he said after the Apollo 11 splashdown.

Sees Use Of Lunar Ores

SACRAMENTO, (UPI)—Prof. Hermann J. Oberth, noted German pioneer aerospace scientist and mentor of Wernher Von Braun, today predicted future moon flights will use lunar material for spaceship construction.

The 75-year-old mathematician, who in 1923 outlined a trip to the moon in a book entitled "The Rocket to Interplanetary Space," discussed future space efforts in an interview with the Sacramento Union.

"I propose manned stations on the moon for future space launches," he said, "using moon material for construction and manufacturing of spaceship materials."

Oberth of Nurnberg, Germany, watched the flight of Apollo 11 on television at his son's home in Sacramento during a visit.

Chipmunks store up food during the summer to eat during ciation, feared the development nating.

Trains Seeking Service Cutback

WASHINGTON (AP) — Western Pacific and Southern Pacific have asked permission to trim their separate passenger trains in the Western states.

Western Pacific told the Interstate Commerce Commission yesterday it wants to halt its last remaining passenger line, the California Zephyr, between San Francisco and Salt Lake City because it lost $4.5 million in the past 2½ years.

SP asked to cut its Cascade line between Portland, Ore., and Oakland to three days a week.

The three-day schedule SP said, was an alternative to discontinuing the Cascade which it claimed lost 2 million dollars during 1968 and early 1969.

Moon Stamps Going Fast In Apollo, Pa.

APOLLO, Pa. (AP) — The post office in this small town already has used up 75,000 commemorative moon stamps and has ordered another 20,000 to meet requests of collectors, Postmaster Harvey Brunner said yesterday.

The town, which has a population of about 1,300 is the only one in the nation with the name Apollo.

SACRAMENTO ROUNDUP

Reagan: No Tax Reform, Then No Adjournment

SACRAMENTO (AP) — Rebellious Assembly Democrats had this message for Republican Gov. Reagan today: "No tax reform — no adjournment."

Democratic Caucus Chairman George Zenovich of Fresno planned a confrontation with the governor to deliver a protest about the inability of GOP legislators to agree on an acceptable tax package.

At a closed session Thursday, Assembly Democrats agreed to oppose adjournment of the legislature until they have a chance to vote on a tax reform package.

Zenovich said the minority Democrats don't have the votes to block a Senate-approved adjournment resolution setting Aug. 8 as the final day for legislative business.

"We're tired of constantly taking the heat in this area," he said.

But solid Democratic opposition to adjournment would put Assembly Republicans — who are squabbling among themsevles over tax reform — on the spot.

Reagan's tax reform package amended by Republican Majority Leader W. Craig Biddle of Riverside, is stalled in the Way and Means Committee. Administration sources said the governor's staff is working on additional amendments to iron out inequities in the amended program.

Zenovich said, however, there has been no move by the Republicans to set the bills for a hearing in the committee. He said that under the Aug. 8 adjournment resolution, next Tuesday would be the last day for the Assembly to pass any of its own bills, without waiving normal rules.

For the past 10 days, Zenovich said, "we (the Democrats) have been accused by the governor, the speaker and Finance Director Caspar Weinberger that we are obstructionists."

"We're tired of constantly taking the heat in this area," he said. "The real fight is between the governor and the Speaker Bob coalition." He was referring to Republican Speaker Robert T. Monagan of Tracy.

CLEARS DOLWIG

SACRAMENTO (UPI)—Sen. Richard J. Dolwig has been cleared by the Legislative Ethics Committee of any illegality in a controversial insurance deal.

After a long day of confusion Thursday, the committee chairman, Assemblyman Harvey Johnson announced: "We have done a lot of investigating. There will be no further investigation. The committee will take no further action."

The committee met behind closed doors during the morning and afterward Johnson told newsmen the six-man panel would conduct a "preliminary investigation" of Dolwig, R-Atherton.

But puzzled committee members later protested to newsmen they already had agreed "the conduct of Sen. Dolwig is not in violation of the (legislature's) code of ethics relating to conflict of interest."

They pointed out committeemen previously signed a statement declaring the group had "reviewed all available relevant facts" and absolved the veteran senator.

When confronted by newsmen and committeemen hours after his original announcement, Johnson admitted his "preliminary investigation" already had been held.

"Be kind to me," the 64-year-old El Monte Democrat told one reporter. "I'm getting old."

The case resulted from a Los Angeles Times story that Dolwig stood to make a $185,000 profit from an investment in an insurance firm under terms of a stock-selling permit issued by the state insurance commissioner. The permit was granted after Dolwig introduced legislation—later dropped—to eliminate top-level administrative assistants in state offices, including Insurance Commissioner Richards Barger's deputy.

WELFARE

SACRAMENTO (UPI)—A bill increasing welfare aid died on the Senate floor Thursday night after some Democrats complained former Gov. Edmund G. Brown was to blame for current "low"payments.

The measure which provided a cost-of-living increase to aid to families with dependent children of $25 a month per child was killed on a 19-14 vote, 8 aye votes short of passage.

Sen. Alfred E. Alquist, D-San Jose, said his bill would have authorized only the second raise in AFDC payments since 1957. He said the other boost totaled $3.

The lawmaker said the aid increase would cost $15 million in state funds.

The Senate also rejected on a 24-9 vote a $7 million Alquist bill raising from $80 to $115 a month the state's share of the per child cost for monthly support of foster children. That bill also required 27 votes for passage.

A similar measure was vetoed last year by Gov. Ronald Reagan.

GUARD DOGS

SACRANENTO (UPI)—Dogs which are leased to guard businesses would have to be registered with local law enforcement agencies under a bill which passed the Assembly 47-11 yesterday and was sent to the Senate.

Assemblyman John Briggs, R-Fullerton, author of the bill, said the dogs should be licensed with the state Bureau of Business and Professional Standards and registered with local law enforcement agencies because they are trained to attack.

He said some firemen or policemen could be injured by the dogs if they entered property not knowing a guard dog was there.

SALARY HIKE

SACRAMENTO (UPI)—A bill raising the state attorney general's salary from $39,132 a year to $42,500 was approved by the Assembly on a 44-14 vote yesterday and sent to the Senate.

Assemblyman William T. Bagley, R-San Rafael, said his measure resolves a conflict in the law which would have reduced the salary to $35,000 beginning Jan. 1, 1971. The new salary level is effective on the same date.

Divorce Law Reforms In Legislature

SACRAMENTO (UPI)—The Legislature today was on the verge of passing the first major overhaul of divorce laws in California history.

Gov. Ronald Reagan assured lawmakers he would sign the bill, written to help the "scarred" children of broken homes.

"This is not a man's law. It is not a woman's law. It is a children's law," said Assemblyman James A. Hayes, R-Long Beach.

Hayes and Sen. Donald L. Grunsky, R-watsonville, are the legislation's authors. The bill passed the Assembly last night, 55-10, after weeks of negotiation.

TO SENATE TODAY

Grunsky planned to take it up on the Senate floor today. He predicted easy final passage.

Here are some of the far-reaching features:

It eliminates adultery as a ground for divorce. Also eliminated is the old standby, "mental cruelty."

There would be only two grounds for divorce: Incurable insanity and "irreconcilable differences."

It no longer legally would be called "divorce." It would be a "dissolution of marriage."

A wife's ability to get a job would be considered by a judge in granting alimony.

Community property would be divided "substantially" in half, unless one spouse had squandered or embezzled holdings.

Counties could set up conciliation courts if they wished, but wouldn't have to. This was a major negotiating point.

Divorces would be granted within six months, instead of a year as at present. The residency requirement also would be cut from a year to six months.

Evidence gathered by evesdropping would be barred from the courtroom.

COURT CLUTTER

"We cannot continue to allow our courts to be cluttered up with the dirty, filthy linen of divorce," said Hayes.

"The best interests of children should be our paramount concern."

Hayes explained the divorce reform would eliminate "hate-filled, lurid, bitter" fights over division of community property in which children often are forced to take sides and are left with life-long frustrations.

The bill was written into final form by a two-house conference committee.

Assemblyman John J. Miller, D-Berkeley, was a member of that committee. But he refused to sign the report.

"All this bill does," he said, "is to make it easier to get a divorce. It's not going to do anything to alleviate the pain and suffering and all the so-called horrible things that are said to go on in courts."

Assemblyman Patrick D. McGee, R-Van Nuys, noting he is a Roman Catholic, countered: "This bill is the greatest step forward in domestic relations in America in 30 years."

If signed by Reagan, as indicated, the bill would go into effect Jan. 1.

There were 280,000 marriages in California last year, but 116,000 divorces. Another 130,000 divorces are predicted for this year.

This doesn't count those Californians who journey across the state line into Nevada for a "quickie" six week divorce — or to Tijuana, Mexico, for an even quicker immediate split.

ICBM Test Success

VANDENBERG AIR FORCE BASE (AP) — The Air Force announced it successfully test launched today a Minuteman II intercontinental ballistic missile to a predetermined Pacific Ocean target.

The 1:55 a.m. test, designed to refine the missile weapon system, was conducted gy a joint Air Force-industry team, the Air Force said.

Red Fire Downs U.S. Copter, Killing Nine

SAIGON (AP) — Seven Americans and two South Vietnamese soldiers were killed when enemy gunners shot down a U.S. helicopter in the Plain of Reeds along the Cambodian border.

U.S. spokesmen said the UH1 chopper apparently was on a trooplift operation in the vast swampy region 35 miles west of Saigon when it was brought down late yesterday. They said the aircraft was destroyed, and there were no reports of any survivors.

It was the 2,878 helicopter reported lost in the war.

U.S. headquarters also report-in a 24-hour period ending at 8 a.m. today. The command said eight U.S. base and installations were hit, and 20 Americans were wounded, but no Americans were killed.

Meanwhile, American and South Vietnamese troops and American observation planes were searching a wooded area along the Cambodian frontier for 70 Vietnamese who reportedly wanted to surrender to the Saigon government after crossing the border during the night.

The report of the defectors came from a hamlet chief and filtered up through Vietnamese military channels, causing some confusion in the process. At one time it was reported that the 70 had already turned themselves over to American infantrymen and that 200 more were to follow.

Later spokesmen for the U.S. 25th Infantry Division said that part of the report was incorrect.

It was not known whether the group was made up of Viet Cong soldiers or civilian supporters.

American and South Vietnamese forces reported killing at least 35 enemy soldiers Thursday in a series of the small actions that have characterized the ground war during the battlefield lull of the past five weeks.

American B52 bombers pounded suspected enemy base camps and staging areas in provinces north and west of Saigon and in a mountainous area northwest of Da Nang.

Sweeping U.S. patrols found a total of 57 enemy bodies killed in earlier actions, including 25 near An Khe, 275 miles northeast of Saigon. They apparently were killed by air strikes, U.S. spokesmen said.

The U.S. Command announced that two more units of the U.S. Ninth Infantry Division will leave for home tomorrow in accordance with President Richard M. Nixon's order to withdraw 25,000 Americans from Vietnam by the end of August. The two units are the Third Battalion, 34th Artillery, made up of about 350 men and the 1097th Transportation Company of 200 men.

From the enemy side, Hanoi's Vietnam News Agency said the Viet Cong has set up revolutionary committees responsible to its Provisional Revolutionary Government in 35 regions or provinces of South Vietnam as well as in the cities of Saigon, Hue, Da Nang and Can Tho.

The broadcast announcement added that some 5,000 acres of land had been distributed to 10,000 inhabitants of Quang Ngai and Binh Dinh, two adjacent provinces on the north central coast of South Vietnam.

Drunken Drivers On Probation

Three persons have been placed on one year probation and fined in Marin Municipal Court for drunken driving.

Scott Chandler, 58, of 15 Maywood Way, San Rafael, who was arrested March 8 on Highway 101, was fined $175.

Henry Allen Swayze, 53, of 100 South Street, Sausalito also was fined $175. He was arrested July 5 in Corte Madera.

Booker T. Givens, 46, of Richmond, who was arrested May 2 on Highway 17, was fined $100.

Nixon Threat Suspect Asks For Help

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — A man accused of threatening to shoot President Richard M. Nixon says he welcomes a psychiatric evaluation.

"Wherever I can get psychiatric help, that's where I want to go," said George Donohue, 28, of Oakland.

He made the comment yesterday to U. S. District Court Judge Alphonse J. Zirpoli, ordered him to undergo a two-month sanity evaluation.

Zirpoli recommended Donohue be sent to the Federal Correctional Facility at Lompoc and set Sept. 24 for a psychiatric evaluation report.

Donohue, who said he is unemployed, was arrested at his home Wednesday after a telephone operator, Felicia Harris, 24, said he asked where Nixon was staying at the time in San Francisco and whether he would make any speeches. She said he then talked about shooting the President, saying he had a loaded gun.

Donohue denied threatening Nixon but said he had talked about a possible assassination.

After the call was traced, police apprehended Donohue without a struggle and found a loaded .22 caliber rifle in the house.

Black Educator Fills U.C. Post

BERKELEY (UPI)—William H. Sherrill, a Negro educator with a background of counseling minority group students, has been appointed new admissions officer for the University of California at Berkeley.

The 36-year-old Sherrill, now head of the Educational Opportunities program which advises minority group students at Berkeley, was named to the new post yesterday.

He succeeds David Barrows Stewart, who resigned earlier this month after complaining of overwork and budget restrictions imposed by Sacramento.

Retrial Granted In Sales Case

Judge E. Warren McGuire of Marin Superior Court yesterday granted a new trial for Francis Mitchell Orella, who was found guilty May 2 of selling marijuana and conspiring to sell it in 1967.

The judge ruled that Orella should have been allowed to enter a plea of not guilty for reason of insanity when he requested to do so before Judge Harold J. Haley earlier in the case.

The trial has been reset for the week of Aug. 25.

Orella was arrested during a countywide narcotics roundup in February, 1968.

Safeguard Foes Gather New Material

WASHINGTON (AP) — Senate opponents of the Safeguard missile defense program, fighting an uphill battle, say they have "newly available classified reports" casting doubt the controversial system will work.

After a strategy session yesterday, the Safeguard foes said they may seek a second secret session of the Senate to disclose the information.

Sen. Albert Gore called a meeting of his disarmament subcommittee for Wednesday to consider the material, a move which could keep the Senate from voting next week on the Safeguard.

NEW REPORTS

"There are some newly available classified reports which I have not read, which I am advised by staff are of some significance," the Tennessee Democrat told a reporter.

It is believed the new information is part of a report prepared for the Pentagon by the Institute for Defense Analysis, casting doubt on Safeguard's radars.

Earlier, opponents had dropped plans for a second secret Senate session after becoming convinced members had been informed of all available classified material.

NEW AMENDMENT

Pending before the Senate at present is an amendment by Sens. John Sherman Cooper, R-Ky., and Philip A. Hart, D-Mich., which would restrict the program to research and would bar deployment or site acquisition.

In the major action on the Senate floor yesterday, Sen. Charles Percy, R-Ill., a cosponsor of the Cooper-Hart amendment, said he would be willing to approve "the pre-production of long leadtime items such as radar components and computer safeware." He said this would prevent any delays should deployment be blocked now but a later decision be made to construct the system.

"This approach would allow us to meet any contingency in the middle and later 1970s," Percy said.

Marin Engineers Named To Posts

Two Marin men have been named assistant engineers in District 4 of the state division of highways which includes Marin County.

Dean E. Larson of 533 Silverado Drive, Tiburon, was named assistant engineer in charge of right-of-way engineering. He had been acting director of the Bay Area Transportation Study Commission.

Harold K. Taylor of 87 Carnoustie Drive, Novato, was appointed assistant engineer in charge of planning. Taylor, who has been with the district since 1949 had been an assistant engineer in charge of design.

Purse Stolen

Mabel Williams of 1504 Joan Drive, Petaluma, told police yesterday that a purse containing $19 had been stolen from her home.

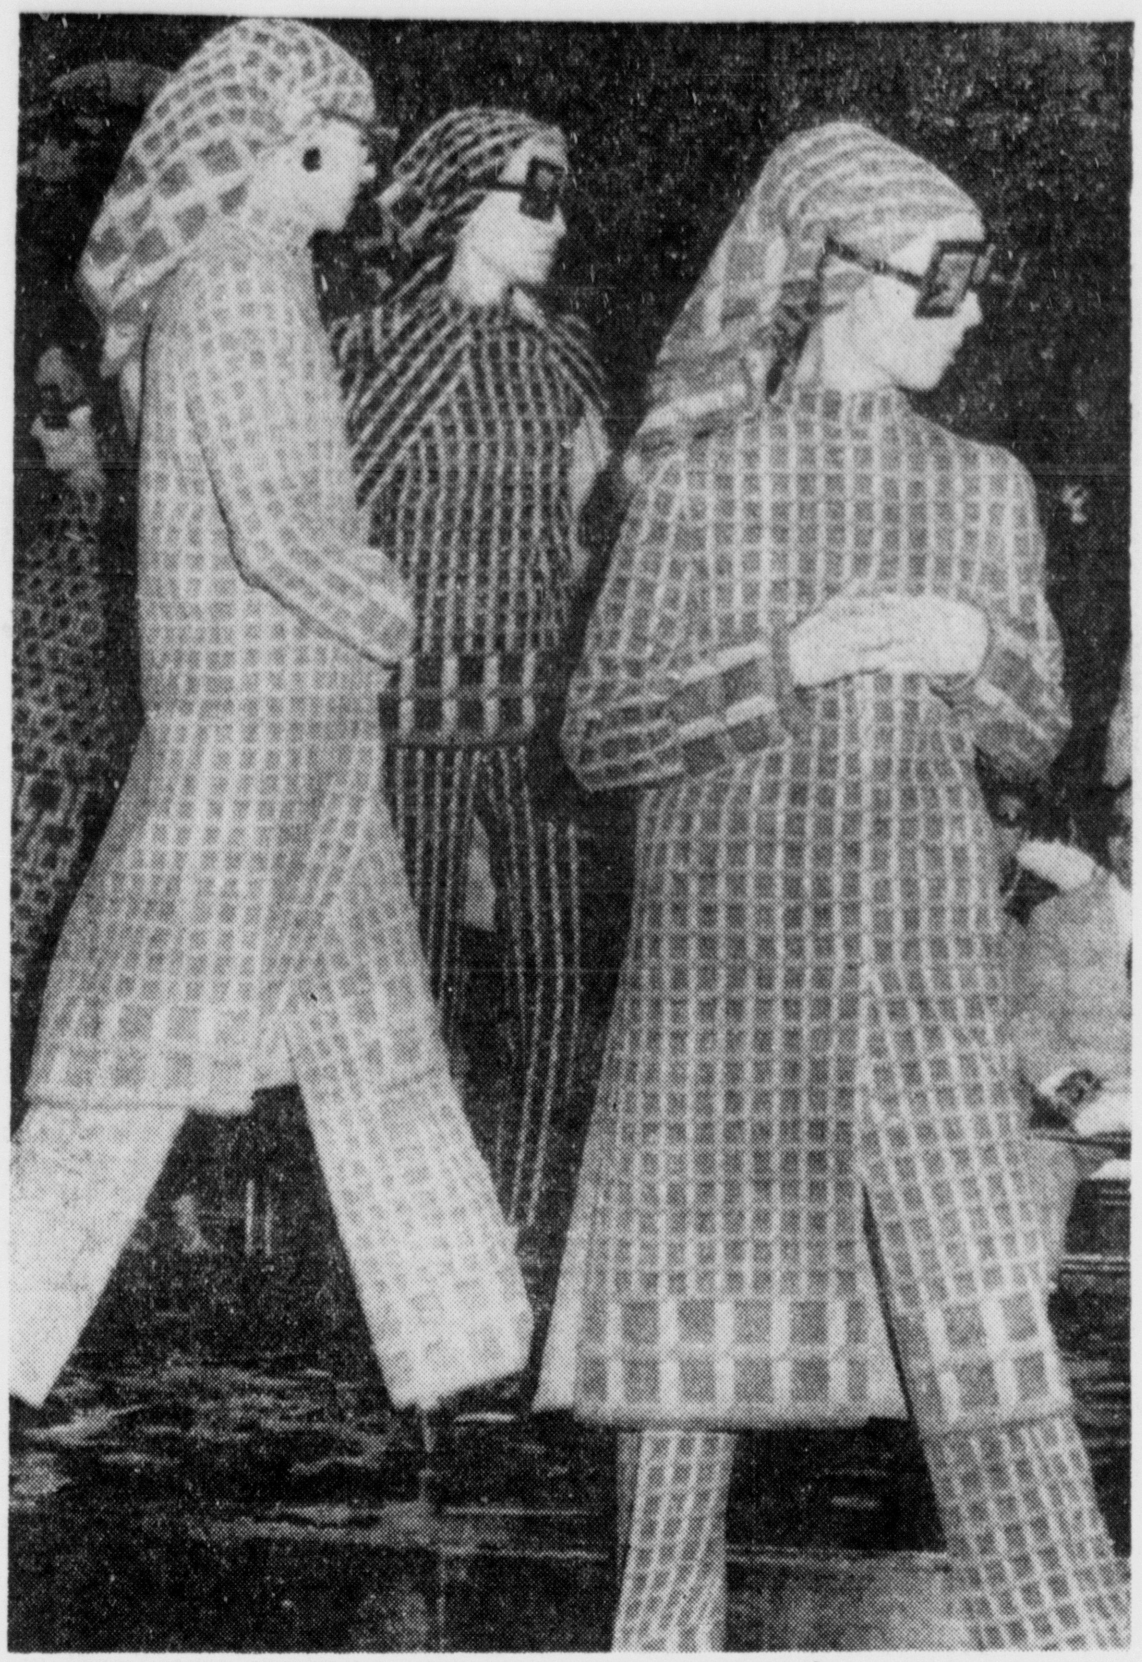
Marin Women



WINDING UP the Italian fashion showings, Lancetti showed his collection for fall and winter, featuring long coats and kerchief hats. These checkered coats topped an ensemble of matching pants, big square glasses and large kerchiefs on the models' heads. (UPI Cablephoto)

Italian Style Wrap-Up: Jumpsuits Slim Shoulders And Flared Skirts

ROME (UPI) — The Italian fall and winter fashion collections ended as they began—showing uniformly slim shoulders and sleeves, flared skirts and countless jump suits or tunics and trousers.

Also much in evidence were maxicoats, whose lengths ranged anywhere from just below the knee to right down to the ground. The bottom of the calf was the most common length.

BOOTS FAR outnumbered shoes, even appearing with ball gowns.

Hats ranged from snug cloches cut out over the ears to ten-gallon affairs topped with fox. There were long scarves knotted around the neck and trailing to the hem, although not nearly as many as last January.

Jewelry became less obtrusive although a few chain belts hung on, some of them suspended from waist-length necklaces.

WOOLS CAME IN worsteds, often reversible, subdued plaids, tweeds, weaves dyed to look like tweeds, and some nubby boucles.

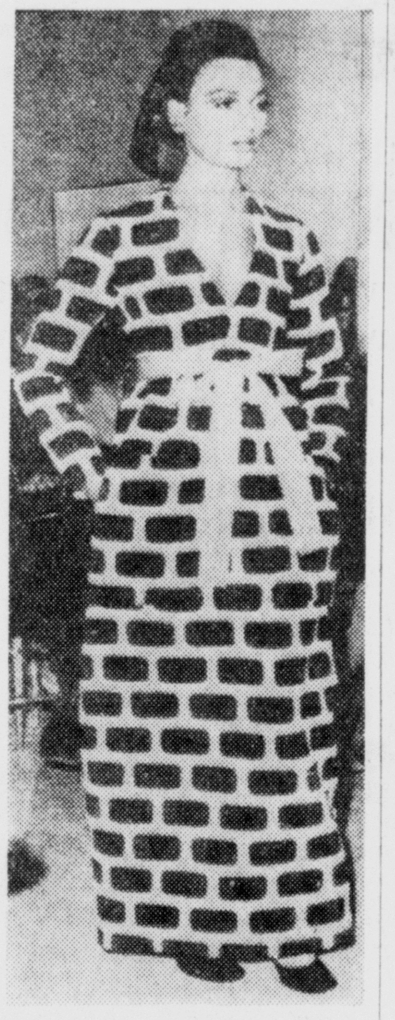
If there was one favorite color it was plum, ranging from pinky pale to clear amethyst to almost charcoal gray. Black and white, singly or together, were everywhere. Other top colors were brown, light gray, dark green and some sapphire blue and tomato red. A few designers liked pale peach, particularly in satin for evening.

Fox and lynx outnumbered the shorter haired furs such as mink. Huge floor-length maxicoats of black or white fox, some of them with an extra fold to wrap around and clutch, promised to keep the wearer warm through an Arctic trek.

The layered look was popular, often with a slim sheath pulling on over an underdress with a pleated hem which burst into fullness in motion. There were few sleeveless or short-sleeved outfits.

VALENTINO HAD a gimmick — a triangular fringed shawl as big or bigger than great-granny used for bundling up outside. He hung the point down the right side and looped the narrow ends over the left shoulder.

It's something easy to make, easy to copy, and you'll probably see it from Fifth Avenue to Main Street before Christmas.



BRICKS AND mortar make this gown by designer Heinz Riva shown in Rome this week.

Bridal Parties Go On Even Though It's July

By MOLLY MARIN

June may be the traditional month for weddings, but bridal parties are continuing for the many mid-summer brides in Marin.

Being feted at many bridal parties is Martha Drexler, who will be married on Sept. 14 to Joseph Michael Lynn in a wedding at the Mill Valley home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Drexler.

The future bridegroom is the son of Harold Thomas Lynn of West Palm Beach, Fla., and Mrs. Daniel Mauerhan of Beaumont.

A brunch-bridal shower was given by Mrs. Kent O. Seymour and Mrs. William A. Hamilton, both of Mill Valley, at the Hamilton home, and luncheons honoring the bride-elect were given by Mrs. Harrison M. Leppo and Mrs. Robert Scott, both of Mill Valley.

CULMINATION of a friendship begun when both served in the Peace Corps in Africa will be the marriage this summer of Susan Danford, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Porter R. Danford of Mill Valley, and Charles William Jorgensen III, better known as "Rusty."

He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles William Jorgensen II of Syracuse, N.Y.

The couple met when they were in training for the Peace Corps. Susan came home last December, and Rusty returned in May.

JOAN McMULLEN, who will be married tomorrow to Warren Aldrich of San Francisco, was honored at a bridal shower and luncheon by Mrs. Richard J. Schneider of Greenbrae and her daughter, Teresa, who will be the flower girl for the nuptials at St. Sebastian's Church in Greenbrae. Joan's friends and family members, including her mother, Mrs. Chester L. McMullen of Kentfield, were guests.

MORE DEBUTANTE news — Another August party has been added to the calendar, a tea given by Mrs. Dolph Hill Jr. for her debutante twin daughters, Donna and Deborah, at the Hill home in Petaluma. The other Marin debs will be on the guest list.

The Debutante Ball committee of the Marin Charitable Foundation has announced that Russell Smith of Ross will make the presentations of the debutantes at the ball, to be held Dec. 20 at the St. Francis Hotel in San Francisco. Judge Jordan Martinelli of San Ra-

From Truck Driver, Teacher To Careerist And Cat Fancier

By MAYBELLE SPECKMANN

Petite, blonde Sue Schaefer has enough energy and enthusiasm for five or six women and finds an outlet for her talents in many fields.

The wife of retired U.S. Army Lt. Col. Paul Schaefer and mother of two teen-age sons, Stacy, 19, and Gary, 16, Sue now has her own real estate business in Larkspur, but she has done many other things.

PLANNING TO be a teacher, she attended Middle Tennessee State Teachers College two years but was married instead to Paul, who was a second lieutenant. While he was in the South Pacific in World War II and she was living in Berkeley, she drove an ambulance for the Navy for three years.

"They were doubtful at first that I could drive what was really a huge semi-truck and trailer," she says, "but after being taught how to do it, I had no trouble. I was on call 24 hours a day to meet all ships and take stretcher cases to various hospitals in the Bay Area."

During 21 years as an Army wife Sue lived in many places, including Athens, Greece, and Bangkok, Thailand, and says that when she became bored with women's clubs and bridge, she just had to do something else.

In Bangkok she taught English for three years in the school set up in connection with the program of the United States and Thai governments.

"It was for adults," she says, "and many were professional people. Most of them could speak a little English, and I didn't have to learn to speak their language."

THE SCHAEFER family came to San Francisco in 1959 when Paul was assigned to Ft. Mason, and they immediately bought their present home in San Anselmo.

"I got the idea of going into real estate," she recalls, "from the girl who showed us property when we were looking for a home. She convinced me I would make a good real estate saleswoman — so again, to have something to do I decided to try it."

Sue first studied on her own for the examination necessary for a real estate sales license, worked as a saleswoman in San Anselmo two years, then attended a San Francisco real estate school, finally obtaining a broker's license. She opened her business in Larkspur in 1963, which her husband joined after his retirement.

"I think real estate is an excellent field for a woman," she says. "Women make better sales people than men because they know what the woman needs in a home. Also women have more patience. It's an especially good profession for housewives if they have as much as six hours a day to spend on it. Success is mostly a matter of selling yourself. When people have confidence in you, they will be loyal, and when they see what they want, they will buy it."

SUE IS secretary to the Marin County Real Estate Board and secretary to the Larkspur Chamber of Commerce. She is also a member of the Marin County Retired Officers Wives Club, and, with her husband, has been a member of the Ross Valley Players for nine years.

"No, I don't act," she says. "I just do the behind-the-scenes things."

Her major hobby is Siamese cats.

"I started with cats just as pets," she explains, "but once you get a good cat, you can get interested in breeding and showing them, and I started that in 1965."

SHE SPECIALIZES in chocolate and lilac points, two of the most recently recognized colors, and she travels many miles showing them. They have won so many ribbons that she hasn't counted them, and she is especially proud of three championships.

She is vice president of the Marin County Cat Fanciers Association.

Although she enjoys all of her activities, Sue still yearns to try other fields.

"Now I wish I were an attorney, but I guess it's too late for that," she sighed.

SUE SCHAEFER'S major hobby is breeding and showing chocolate point and lilac point Siamese cats. Two of her favorites are Ballerina, a lilac point, on her lap, and Ballerina's male chocolate point kitten Dan-D, on Sue's shoulder. His father was a chocolate point, she explains. Two of the kittens were like the mother and two like the father.

Women In Key Roles For Space Program

SPACE CENTER, Houston (AP) — The United States may not have a female astronaut, but women—from astronauts' wives to the seamstresses who sew spacesuits—play key roles in the space program.

Frances "Poppy" Northcutt, for example, is a 25-year-old Dayton, Tex., native who is a member of the flight dynamics support staff in mission control at the Manned Spacecraft Center. The tall, blonde mathematician is one of the first women to serve in an operational support role in mission control.

"There's less discrimination against women here than in any of the professional areas," she said.

Space center officials reported that 968 of the 4,400 government employes here are women.

No one disputes the role of astronaut wives in their husbands' work. They even are consulted about hubby's food tastes when the menus of dehydrated foods for the flight are selected.

Thousands of the miniscule electronic components in the Apollo 11 spacecraft and the Saturn 5 rocket were assembled by women workers.

The foods to be consumed by the astronauts, a doctor and a technician while locked in their quarantine trailer after splashdown were prepared by women.

And, of course, there are the indispensible secretaries who work for National Aeronautics and Space Administration engineers and scientists, executives of space program contractors and the astronauts themselves.

Charlotte Maltese, secretary to Apollo 9 crewmen James A. McDivitt, David R. Scott and Russell L. Schweickart, had a birthday while her astronaut bosses orbited the earth in March.

They didn't forget. The astronauts radioed to earth a musical birthday greeting.

Another woman in mission control is Larue Burbank, who designed the visual displays controllers watch to monitor a spacecraft's flight.

Dorothy Lee is an engineer at the space center whose specialty is the heat shields that protect returning spacemen from the heat of re-entry into the earth's atmosphere.

HELEN HELP US!

By HELEN BOTTEL

Military Demands Obedience; Does It Make Men From Boys?

DEAR HELEN:

As a veteran of two wars, I can say, yes, the military does make men out of boys, but it has to have something to work with. I have seen spineless fellows who remain spineless, but I have also seen boys shape up under discipline and training.

War is hell, and that is why it takes men to fight. As long as we have war, our services will continue to make men out of boys. — CHARLES S.

DEAR HELEN:

I spent four years in the service, and I think it makes men out of boys. I agree with the girl who was against the military in that some of the things they hand you seem senseless, but they do it so that you will obey an order out in the fighting zone, where you must respond to commands without hesitation.

Respecting authority and supervision is something we all have to learn. Sure, the Army insists on obedience, but shouldn't parents and school officials — and police — also? — YOUNG VETERAN

DEAR HELEN:

Saying "yes, sir" and "no, sir" has never hurt me or anyone I know. Only the ones who refuse to do their part in the service get busted. If they can't make it in the military, I pity them in civilian life, where it's really hard. — DAVE D.

DEAR HELEN:

Before my guy went in the Army, he was quite a mama's boy. When he came home on leave, he was a different fellow. He grew up. — ENGAGED TO A MAN

DEAR HELEN:

I read the letter from C. B. concerning the Army's ability (inability?) to build men. Here in Vietnam, there is no room for a boy. All the foolish games of basic training suddenly take on a new meaning and become a sometimes horrifying reality.

Our own society's present condition is evidence enough that discipline is a necessity. Freedom without discipline soon becomes chaos. Let's face it, one man's freedom is another man's restrictive regulations . . . perhaps sometimes his very life.

Yes, the Army builds more men than burning draft cards will ever suppress. SGT. MIKE L., APO, SAN FRANCISCO

DEAR HELEN:

When I went into the service five years ago, my father said, "The Army will make a man of you." But Helen, death is not a basis on which to judge manhood. I felt less like a man when I got out. I guess I felt more like a dog. — B. C.

DEAR HELEN:

I would like to completely refute any view that the service makes a man out of a boy. I served in the Army and became the man that society deemed I was to be. However, service was irrelevant to my new-found manhood.

It was not my training that made a man out of me but my emotions that were aroused by man's inhumanity to man. I learned how to kill my fellowman, saw trainees die from over-exhaustion and men beaten for mere infractions of the rules.

I discarded this period of indoctrination to machine morality and came out a man. But I regret that I served an institution that makes good boys into good killers. If this is society's definition of a man, God help us all. — A READER

NOTE TO READERS: Votes are now running three to one in favor of the Armed Services. Amazingly, most of the favorable letters are written by young people. — H.

Dennis Simontacchi Claims Bride In Avenal Ceremony

Dennis Simontacchi of Auburn claimed Deborah Jo Stierlen of Avenal as his bride in a Saturday ceremony at the Community Presbyterian Church in Avenal.

Mrs. Phyllis Taylor was her matron of honor, and Mrs. Edwin Squire of Davis and Joetta Segel of Santa Clara were the other attendants.

Dan Palucci of Burlingame served as best man. Seating the guests were Fred Misakian of San Francisco and Richard Stierlen of Avenal, the bride's brother.

The couple will make their home in Auburn.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard H. Stierlen of Avenal and Dennis' parents are Mr. and Mrs. Remo Simontacchi of San Rafael.

Deborah is a graduate of Avenal High School, the University of California at Davis and received a teaching credential from San Jose State College. She is a teacher with Auburn Elementary School District.

Dennis is a San Rafael High School and College of Marin graduate and received the A.B. degree from the University of California at Davis. He is employed with the U. S. Bureau of Reclamation in Auburn. He is the brother of Mrs. Gerald Carbone of Fremont and Mrs. Gary Hallin of San Francisco, and the grandson of Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Barozzi of San Anselmo and Aurelio Simontacchi of San Rafael.

Raima Harrison To Be Married

The engagement of Raima Glee Harrison to Ernie Lee Ballinger is announced by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frederic C. Harrison of Penngrove. His parents are Capt. (ret.) and Mrs. E. L. Ballinger of Sebastopol.

A graduate of Petaluma High School and Santa Rosa Junior College, Raima will enter Sonoma State College in the fall.

Larry, Lynn and Laurel Ballinger are the future bridegroom's brother and sisters. His schools are Analy High School and Santa Rosa Junior College, and he is employed by the County of Sonoma as a deputy sheriff.

A Jan. 11 wedding in Petaluma is planned by the couple.

Being A 'Cut-Up' Pays Off For Israeli Artist

By JOY STILLEY

NEW YORK (AP) — From rags to riches is the story of Israeli artist Ella Ra'ayoni's unusual works, which hang in galleries and in homes of the famous and not-so-famous the world over.

The rags are bits of fabric — silks, cottons, laces, velvets — that she uses to create "paintings" with scissors instead of a brush. Single threads pulled from silk forms lines and the whole emerges as astonishingly detailed portraits, landscapes, still lifes, animals, abstracts.

"I grow muscles carrying these things," she said, ruefully rubbing an arm and indicating the shopping bags stuffed with materials, the portfolios, the pictures scattered around her hotel room as she relaxed briefly from a hectic schedule.

IN THE UNITED States for the fourth time, she was completing a tour of galleries over the country which exhibit her work and that of her husband, Shmuel Ra'ayoni, also widely known for his oils and watercolors.

Among collectors of her works, which bring prices ranging from $40 or $50 to as much as $1,000, are Yehudi Menuhin, Princess Margaret, Lily Dache, the Duke of Bedford, Fredric March, Isaac Stern and Rita Tushingham.

Mrs. Ra'ayoni's unusual collages grew out of her search for a new art form after her husband, her high school art teacher whom she married at 19, criticized her efforts in more common media.

"I had my own ideas about composition and color combining, so I threw away the paints and went to work with cloth," the Vienna-born artist explained in her faintly accented English, which she speaks fluently, along with Hebrew, German, Yiddish and a little French, Polish and Russian.

"I HAVE ALWAYS enjoyed the feel of material," added the auburn-haired former fashion designer. "I can love with my fingers. When an artist sees something pleasant he touches it." Her expressive hands tenderly explored the piles of plain and print material, the sheers, the batiks that she dyes herself when she needs a pattern or color not in her vast store.

"I make many of my own clothes. Sometimes when I buy material intended for a dress I like it and use some for a picture, so the dress has to be without sleeves or a collar.

"Either I start with an idea or I get inspired by my material. Would you like to see how I work?" she offered, gathering up a few plastic bags of fabrics and seating herself. "I need a little bit of table and a little bit of light and scissors that cut — but first I put on my glasses."

Taking a small piece of artists' cardboard, which she must buy in this country or Switzerland and ship to Israel, she snipped a bit of goods with a swirl design. After brushing a synthetic cellulose glue on the cardboard, she smoothed the cloth down and regarded it critically.

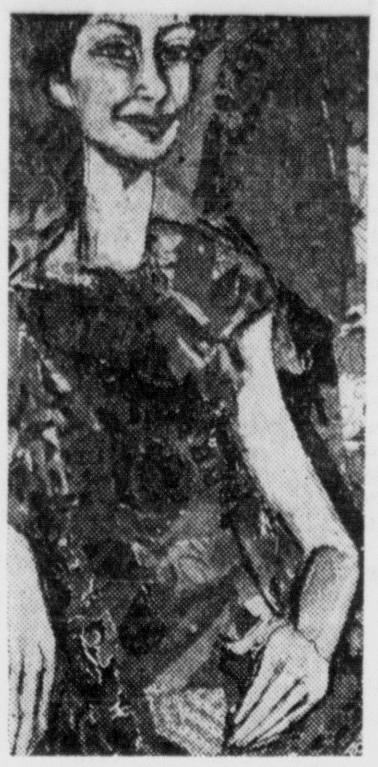
"SEE HERE, does it not look like a bird?" she asked. Then, placing a small swatch of blue nearby, she added, "I don't know whether this is sky or not; we will see later if it is the sky. The whole business of collage is like a picture puzzle. You have parts and you have to see in your imagination where it could fit.

"He changes while I do it," she said as the snippets of cloth took on the unmistakable form of a brightly colored bird against a background of varying shades of blue. "Now I know he's a parrot — a very gay and proud one," she exclaimed, her flying fingers rapidly adding an eye, twisting a few black threads pulled from a piece of silk into feet, curving the back with a sliver of velvet.

Mrs. Ra'ayoni, who claims she has "design in my blood," went to Israel as a child when her father, an architect, took his family there in 1925. "It was because of my father's Zionist feelings that we were saved without suffering while our relatives in Poland, Austria and Germany were all killed," she said.

A SON, Ronnie, 26, who fought in the Six-Day War, is also an architect, and a younger son, Itamar, 18, will enter the Israeli army shortly, upon graduation from high school. Her husband fought in the reserve regulars and Mrs. Ra'ayoni herself formed Haifa's first traffic police unit after the British withdrew — even though she couldn't drive.

She now teaches courses in composition in the Technion, college of architecture and engineering in Haifa, where the family has a residence, in addition to a studio-home in Ein-Hod, the noted artists' colony outside Haifa.



SCISSOR ART . . . Using scissors and glue rather than brush and palette, Israeli artist Ella Ra'ayoni produced this portrait entirely of bits of material and single threads.

LINDA SCRIBNER

Harrigan-Scribner Betrothal

The engagement of Linda Diane Scribner of Novato and William L. Harrigan Jr. of Petaluma is being announced by the bride-elect's mother, Mrs. Ronald J. Scribner of Novato.

Linda is the daughter of the late Ronald J. Scribner and the sister of Donald T. Scribner of Sacramento and Darryl S. Scribner of Novato. Mrs. Mildred Williams of Ukiah is her grandmother. She was graduated from Novato High School and will attend College of Marin in September. She is employed at a shoe store in Corte Madera.

William is the son of Mrs. Donald J. Patton of Kona Coast, Hawaii and William L. Harrigan Sr. of San Anselmo. He is the brother of Mrs. John Kingsley of San Rafael, Cecy Harrigan of San Rafael, Robert Harrigan of Novato and Patti Ellen Patton of Kona Coast. Mr. and Mrs. William M. Keaton of San Rafael are his grandparents.

The future bridegroom was graduated from Novato High School and attended College of Marin. He is employed as a plumber in Mill Valley.

ON THE AGENDA

Drums And Soul Music Will Be Background For Fashion Show

"A Night of Fashion" will be presented tomorrow at 8 p.m. in Marin City's Manzanita Community Center in celebration of a year's success for the custom sewing shop in Marin City.

This is the little shop established by three 17-year-old black girls, who used their sewing and design skills to start their own custom sewing and alterations business last year. The girls, all incoming seniors at Tamalpais High School, are Dolores Johnson, Alvenia Roary and Linda Duvall.

The fashion show, against a background of drums and low-pitched soul music records, will feature Afro-American clothes for men and women. Included will be lounge wear, daytime dresses, sportswear and after-five costumes. There will also be some Alvin Duskin knits and some standard men's clothes the girls began adding to their stock last spring.

The models will dance down the ramp to the rhythm of bongo drums played by James Toliver Jr., assistant to the principal at Sausalito's Martin Luther King School, and Gabe Jackson, community worker with the Sausalito Schools.

Margaret Beauchamp will be the commentator, and models, all residents of Marin City, are Lena Johnson, Morganna Howard, Patricia Howard, Flo Hamilton Debbie White, Denise Rochell, Gloria Guice, Lois Domino, Jo Ann Jackson, Ruth Armstead, Johnny Harris and Wayne Allen.

Tickets may be bought at the door at the Manzanita Center, where there will be ample parking space with attendants on duty.

THE NOVATO Hospital Volunteers will be hostesses and tour guides from 2 to 5 p.m. Sunday when the new wing of Novato General Hospital has its public viewing.

Mrs. Gerald Lombard, president of the volunters, and Mrs. Charles Johnson, director of volunteers, are in charge of the tour, assisted by Mmes. Charles Courtney, Stanley Harmon, Robert Weber, Donald Phillips, Bruce Smith, Edward Stewart, John Roos, Roy West, Richard Pond, Earl Chronister, Sebastian Tallitsch, Albert Leach, Ronald Soldavini, Willoth Stenz, Fred Burns, Rudolph Sabin, Arthur Canhan and Claude Witzel.

The volunteers will meet the guests at the front door and, following the explanation of the equipment in the new wing, they will serve refreshments in the patio.

A WHITE elephant sale will be held Sunday at the Cotati Community Festival, sponsored by Cotati Veterans of Foreign War Auxiliary Post 1006.

The unit is also planning a rummage sale in September, so is seeking items to sell. Donors may call Mrs. Frank Piazza of Cotati for pickup.

MILL VALLEY'S Blythedale Rebekah Lodge 305 will sponsor a public potluck supper and card party on Wednesday at 6:30 p.m. at the Odd Fellows Hall in Mill Valley. Mrs. Jack Clausen is chairman.

Dior To Drop Hems A La '47

By JOAN DEPPA

PARIS (UPI) — Dior is dropping the hemline.

The word was out today, officially. A Dior spokesman said their designer, Marc Bohan, was producing three-fourths of his coats, dresses and suits with skirts that stopped at mid-calf or below.

But in the collection Bohan plans to unveil next week, he is also including some very, very short skirts.

"We're not allowed to use the term mini-skirt but they're very, very short," the Dior spokesman said.

The idea seems to be to give women lots of different hemlines and let then wear them as their mood, not the fashion designer, dictates.

Trousers also will play a very important role in the "new new look" which is mannish by comparison with the wasp-waisted, full-skirted original. There will be no need for the complicated padding and corsets demanded to achieve the original "new look" in 1947.

It will feature shirts, boxy jackets and long, slim but easy skirts in soft fabrics. Often the shirts are expected to be of feather-weight fabrics that cling to the figure, an idea with which Bohan already has experimented.

BOHAN WILL not be alone in trying new longer skirt lengths. Yves St. Laurent has been edging in that direction for some time. In fact, he jumped the gun and has a few dresses and coats in mid-calf length on sale in his ready-to-wear boutique in the Paris student quarter.

Pierre Cardin, one of the best designers of the "modern" haute couture school, has also announced he plans several different lengths.

All say the longer skirts will be designed for daytime as well as evening wear. But all side with Bohan in saying they will also show lots of what most people call mini-skirts.

Several collections, notably Courreges, will stick with the idea that long skirts are outdated except for glamorous evenings.

COURREGES GOES one better and says that skirts as a whole are an idea of the past and that jump suits and trousers are what the women of the future will wear.

What seems likely to emerge from the fashion shows next week is what emerged from collections in recent seasons: There are plenty of different ways to dress and the well-dressed woman simply will choose the way or ways that suit her best.

No Alimony Puts The Men In Jail

CAIRO (UPI)—More than 67,000 Egyptians face imprisonment for failure to pay alimony, according to the Ministry of Justice.

The ministry said a majority of divorced women here ask for imprisonment of their former husbands who fail to pay alimony decided by the courts.

In addition to the 67,000 males who already face imprisonment on charges brought by irate former wives, the ministry said 43,000 other women were deciding whether to follow this course.

As of May 1 there were 2,019 men in Egyptian jails for nonpayment of alimony.

FEATURED THIS SATURDAY

What are the trends in home decor in Marin County? What problems most commonly plague Marin home owners in their decorating? What distinguishes Marin home interiors from those of other areas? All these questions will be answered in tomorrow's I-J Marin Magazine in a special story about an unusual teacher and her unusual class. She is Stephanie Luker, home fashion adviser in Marin for Montgomery Ward & Co., and her course is called "The Art of Decorating."

Marin County residents are ardent hobbyists. And the military personnel living among us are no different than the civilian Marinites. They, too, have found unusual leisure-time pursuits that give them relaxation and satisfaction. Tomorrow's I-J weekend supplement takes a look at the diversity of hobby activities, ranging from airplane flying to guitar strumming, that is enjoyed by the men and women who work for Uncle Sam at Fort Baker.

Laughing Gas Girl Recovering Slowly

NORA BUFFCORN
Laughing gas victim

LA JOLLA (AP) — The nightmare of June 2 is ending slowly for Nora Ruffcorn. At 15, she is learning all over to eat and walk. The devil she met was laughing gas.

When police found her, she was having convulsions in the front seat of her boyfriend's car.

The boy, Brad Hunter, 17, was outside, sick to his stomack. Inside were Clare Herrick, 18 and Peter Strada, 17. Within hours, both would be dead.

An empty hospital-sized tank of nitrous oxide, about four feet high, was in the middle of the car. The couples apparently had rolled up the car's windows and opened the valve of the tank, full-blast, investigators said. Where they got the tank still isn't known. Hunter has pleaded guilty in juvenile court to two counts of manslaughter.

VEGETABLE

In a Scripps Memorial Hospital intensive care unit, Nora Ruffcorn lay in a coma three weeks, shivering between two temperature - controlled sheets which kept her from a fever.

Doctors expected her to die, then said she would be a vegetable the rest of her life. But a strong will and physical therapy enabled Nora to go home with her mother, who takes her back daily for three hours of work on muscle coordination.

The nightmare, says Nora, began as a lark — "It was just a high, like marijuana, I guess."

LETHAL PAINKILLER

The gas which dentists formerly used to kill pain is always lethal if inhaled in pure form for more than 10 minutes, a San Diego anesthetist said. "The absence of oxygen, or anoxia, causes death much like that of drowning," he said. "Nitrous oxide or laughing gas, is never administered medically in a ratio of greater than 80 per cent, with the remaining 20 per cent being pure oxygen. The ratio is usually 50-50 with another agent sometimes added. The effects of the gas are a loss of diminution of the sense of pain."

"Don't try it," Nora told newsmen yesterday. "Tell them not to try anything. I don't even smoke cigarettes anymore."

"Now the hardest thing for me to do is write. I like to write, but I can't do it now. But I can eat by myself, and dress and go to the bathroom." dress and go to the bedroom."

There is mail from people across the United States, who say they are praying for Nora.

The slim, dark-haired girl glanced at her mother. "We have a cry every so often," she said. "It helps."

Quail Hill Dust Problem Eased

Tentative agreement has been reached between neighboring property owners and developers of the Quail Hill residential and office project to halt drifting of dust at the site.

William Corrigan, attorney for the protestors, said that the developers have agreed to keep wet a dusty area on the northeast corner of the project and to do additional street sweeping in the area.

Carl S. Vella and Selwyn Sacks, owners of a 49-unit apartment house in Northgate — later joined by the Marco Investment Co., owners of a nearby dental building — filed suit in objection to the dust. The Vellas said it was damaging drapes and carpets in their building.

Named in the action, which resulted in a temporary restraining order against grading at the site, were Quail Hill, Inc. Commerce Clearing House, A. Teichert and Son, grading contractor, and 100 John Does.

Corrigan said that, in addition to the dust problem, the Vellas and the defendants have reached tentative agreement on intrusion into easement rights held by the Vellas on Quail Hill.

Corrigan expected formal agreements to be signed by Monday, lifting the restraining order granted July 17 by Marin Superior Court Judge Thomas F. Keating. A hearing was to have been held Monday.

Teens Get Voice In Sausalito Recreation Plans

Sausalito recreation commissioners agreed last night to question teen-agers as to what they want for a teen-age recreation program, commissioner Mary Lou Perrone reported.

A questionnaire will be prepared and distributed by the city's teen-age recreation group headed by recreation director Richard Paris, Mrs. Perrone said.

The commission also discussed how to improve communication between city hall and the teen group, particularly on procedures necessary to plan dances and other youth activities, she said.

The organization and future plans of the teen group were also discussed, Mrs. Perrone said.

Mill Valley Group Presents Melodrama

An old-time melodrama, "Pure as the Driven Snow or A Working Girl's Secret," will be presented at the Mill Valley Center for the Performing Arts, sponsored by the Mill Valley Parks and Recreation Department.

Performances will be given at 8:30 p.m. Aug. 8 and 9, 15 and 16, and 22 and 23. Beer and mixers will be available.

New Richard II Born On Festival Stage

By JAMES E. WILLIAMS

"For violent fires soon burn out themselves," intones John of Gaunt, Duke of Lancaster. Thus is set the stage for "Richard II," expertly fashioned last night as the second offering of the Marin Shakespeare Festival at the Forest Meadows amphitheater.

Instead of presenting Richard II as a thin, graceful man of deep sensitivity (regarded by purists as the traditional image), director John Argue brings to the stage in Fredric Cook a pudgy, selfish, egotistical Richard, who is finally caught up in his own cunning.

Cook, who was so wonderfully funny as Nick Bottom in "A Midsummer Night's Dream," fulfills his assignment to a near flaw. He builds Richard in words and movements. Only in the end does a gentleness flow from this arrogant king, who by his own disregard for lawlessness forces others in his realm to unseat him from his English throne.

Equally brilliant is Robert Egan as Henry Bolingbroke, who wrests the crown from Richard. Their scenes together are never overplayed.

Cause and effect are the key words of this production. Actors change costumes on stage, serve as props, keeping the play's level keyed on Shakespeare's prose. All this helps to speed up production, which with scene changes could have strung out the tight package. But as in the past simplicity is the hallmark.

Just to see Cook and Egan is worth an evening's chill in the woody setting, but the rest of the cast is uniformly as good. Robert Feero as Duke of York, is sympathetic as Richard's cousin; David Gilliam a true support as Duke of Aumerle, to Richard's cunning actions, and Philip Sheridan as Earl of Northumberland, the catalyist, to Richard's doom.

The evilness of Richard is expertly performed by the "caterpillars of the Commonwealth," — Robert Kroll as Lord Ross; Michael Hollingsworth as Bushy, and George Moran as Green. James Haran as Duke of Lancaster, brings the forceful element which sets the stage that unfolds Richard's trickery, and Max Kelin, first as Thomas Mowbray and later as Sir Pierce of Exton, the slayer of Richard, is expertly cast.

Susan Arnell plays Richard's queen in the innocent fashion she should and Marlene Knarr as the pleading Duchess of York, is a jewel in her pleading for her son's life in the plot to kill Henry.

The use of the crown and robe of authority as representative of the decadent Richard is a great use of symbolism — the power struggle between Richard and Henry.

"Richard II," continues tonight at 8 o'clock through the weekend, with the third in the three-play season, "The two Gentlemen of Verona," opening next Thursday night.

San Anselmo Police Jail AWOL Soldier

San Anselmo police yesterday arrested a 19-year-old soldier reported WOL from Fort Lewis, Wash., since May 17. He was picked up at a home at 105 Allyn Avenue.

Pvt. Lindon F. Bishop was taken to Marin County jail to await the arrival of military police.

MOTION PICTURE GUIDE

The Marin Motion Picture and Television Council provides these ratings of movies currently being shown in Marin County. The council's findings are from the California and National Parent-Teacher Association magazines and the Film Report of the Film Estimate Board. More complete reviews may be obtained by calling the San Rafael Library.

FAMILY

"Finian's Rainbow" — Musical comedy combines fantasy with satire. Sets are lovely, songs a delight and an excellent dance group.

"Gone With The Wind" — Famous film classic now transposed to super screen with stereophonic sound remains one of the landmarks in American filmmaking.

"Horse in a Grey Flannel Suit" — Delightful, lighthearted Disney comedy. Film gives opportunity to see finest horses in this country jumping the highest barriers.

"Ice Station Zebra" — Fast action, adventure and spectacular imaginative special effects make this film a thrilling dramatic experience with suspenseful mystery interwoven.

"Love Bug" — Disney presents a whimsical story about a car that not only has a heart and mind of its own, but ability to drive itself. Highly imaginative fantasy.

"Peter Pan" — Welcome reissue of long-time favorite. A Disney feature length cartoon.

"Support Your Local Sheriff" — Clever spoof of western melodrama full of high adventure and laughter.

"Winnie the Pooh" — Film imparts a gentle lesson in sharing with and sacrificing for, one's friends.

ADULTS AND TEENS

"Bandolero" — Well made and well cast, very violent western has a fitting background of fine desert scenery.

"Bridge at Remagen" — Exceptionally well made action film telling of capture of last bridge over the Rhine in 1945.

"Che" — Told in quasi-documentary style, a bloody page in recent history. To some, Che is a liberator, to the others a ruthless killer.

"If It's Tuesday, This Must Be Belgium" — Comic treatise on the habits and customs of the American tourist. Camera is focused on people and not the grand tour. Number of bedroom scenes thrown in.

"Loves of Isadora" — Splendidly mounted biography of legendary American dancer, Isadora Duncan. Her exploits of the 1900's with unorthodox body freeing philosophy of dance and her succession of lovers are highlighted in her tumultuous career.

BORDERLINE
(Most sources say Adults Only)

"Duffy" — Sophisticated tale of a million-dollar modern day piracy caper on the Mediterranean.

ADULTS ONLY

"Goodbuy Columbus" — Picture of a Jewish family is real and humorous. The warmth of the people comes through all the surface vulgarity. Explicit sex and nudity.

"If" — Harrowing British study of violently rebellious youth. Unattractive world of a boys' school. A highly disturbing film, a fantasy, perhaps, but lasting in its impact.

Indian Music Festival Slated

A festival of Indian music will be held next month at the Unitarian Fellowship of Marin, 240 Channing Way, San Rafael, to benefit the Ali Akbar College of Music.

A sarode chamber concerto will be presented, featuring Ali Akbar Khan as soloist with members of the school and the San Francisco Symphony Orchestra, on Aug. 9.

On Aug. 16, the sitar, sarode and tabla will be featured in "Jugulbandi," and on Aug. 23, the sitar and tabla will be featured, along with vocalist Sanjukta Ghosh. All performances begin at 8:30 p.m.

'Freeways' Begins Hub Summer Festival

"Freeways," a play by Paul Richards and Gerry Hiken will open the San Anselmo Festival Theater summer series program Aug. 8 at 9 p.m. in Alexander Hall, 32 Kensington Road, to be preceded by a theater dinner at the hall at 7:30 p.m.

Tickets for the play and dinner are available at the box office.

Marin Dining And Wining

DINING OUT AND INNS

By HARRY CRAFT

Aristocratic Labels For Food May Not Refer To Quality

Next to cosmetics and many proprietary items on the market, restaurant food is near the top of the list of products that get a heavy share of high-sounding names.

Menus run over with French terms which have influenced the language of the kitchen, regardless of whether the recipe was originally French or Tasmanian. Even if a dish is served in prosaic American style it becomes customary to describe it as Americaine. And if nothing else comes to mind to point up the idiosyncratic touch of the chef or maitre d', the words "a la George," or whatever his name, can be tacked on at the end. If George chances to hit upon something particularly distinctive he may become immortalized. (Witness what happened to such creative specialists as Sergei and Vladimir).

So when a very tantalizing dish appears on the menu, described without fanfare as "stuffed sole," the diner-out who has been subjected to more elegant nomenclature may be inclined to pass over it lightly.

If you are at the Windjammer in Tiburon — pause, order and enjoy it. There is little doubt that it should be recognized in some special way for what it is — a delightful serving of filet of sole with crab and shrimp tucked in, and a sauce not too overbearing.

Actually this is only one example of the tendency at the Windjammer to underplay its attractions, which are many. Bayside scenery is among the best in Marin. Relation of the bar and cocktail lounge to the rest of the restaurant is cleverly designed to put most people at ease on making their entrance. Piano bar, presided over by Mark Williams Thursday through Sunday evenings is close enough to the action to be enjoyed by everyone. Service is good and even the chairs seem to have an extra degree of comfort.

Undoubtedly a publicity agency could make hay out of all this, but most Marinites who are regular customers just take it for granted.

This time of the year, as long as the weather is balmy, the Windjammer's outside deck increases the accent on marine atmosphere. Ordinarily on Thursday evenings when the Champagne Tours were operating, all tables in the restaurant were crowded. But the strike has cut that down and space is generally available on demand. Weekends I wouldn't take that chance. You may be able to get quick action without a reservation, but it doesn't always hold true.

NEW FOOD AND RESTAURANT operation to open on Southeast Boulevard, Sonoma County by Oct. 15 is called Mr. Swiss. Construction of a $60,000 building is planned to house the operation.

Mr. Swiss is a national concern with over 204 units throughout the country. The Rohnert Park outlet is franchised to Calvin L. Carpenter, Santa Rosa Real Estate broker. It will be operated by Mr. and Mrs. Claude Logue of Grants Pass, Ore., who are planning on moving to the area in time for school opening.

SOUTHERN MARIN RESIDENTS — and even those farther removed, will find an interesting and moderately priced selection of take-out food at Le Petite Gourmet, 33 Reed Boulevard in Strawberry.

It is east of Mill Valley Volkswagen and on the back access road to Town and Country Village. Unless you are accustomed to driving there you might not even be aware of Le Petite Gourmet's existence.

Owner Joe Alber of San Rafael opened it about five months ago as a delicatessen, but found that the biggest demand was for take-out sandwiches, entrees and family dinners — so he has gone into this almost entirely. There is also seating for 26 persons and at lunchtime this is usually taken up by local business people who prefer to eat on the premises.

MARK WILLIAMS
Plays at the Windjammer

Biggest play for dinners is in the take-home menu. Entrees include roast beef marchand de vin, ham roulades, chicken Madeira and chicken livers stroganoff. Sandwiches in petit, double-deck and super sizes feature many imported meats and cheeses. There are wines and imported and domestic beers.

Prices are particularly attractive for multiple dinners, so if you have unexpected guests, check this out. Some foods are still sold by the pound to those who prefer to prepare their own servings.

SAN ANSELMO has another Mexican restaurant at 330 San Anselmo Avenue called Juarez.

This is operated by Mario and Teresa Juarez, who serve both Mexican and American food for lunches and dinners. Hours are from 11 a.m. to 9 p.m. Mondays through Saturdays and from 4 to 9 p.m. for dinners on Sundays.

It's a small place — seating capacity is about 35, with combined counter and table service.

FROM NOW ON, I imagine you can expect the landing on the moon to give rise to all sorts of new ideas and products — related to that heavenly body by name, if nothing else.

First one in Marin I've heard about is from Eugene Lackenbach, who has Eugene's Country Club Restaurant in San Rafael. He has come up with a 'moonburger," which he hopes to get patented, copyrighted or covered by whatever exclusive rights to sell it are applicable.

All I know at this time is what Eugene has told me over the telephone — that it's different, has a flavor all its own and "is out of this world."

CALIFORNIA NIGHT at Cafe Bon Vin, San Anselmo, customarily held on the last Thursday of each month, will not take place next week as previously announced.

Circumstances beyond anyone's control prevent the appearance of the Christian Brothers head winemaker Brother Timothy — and it's too late to make satisfactory arrangements for a substitute. So the whole thing is being deferred until some later date to be announced. Brother Timothy has agreed to appear on a future California Night program.

Meanwhile Fred Cherry is working on plans for expanding his Wine Appreciation Center. New developments on this may be forthcoming in another week or so.

BERNARD'S EXECUTIVE LOUNGE in San Rafael has a new entertainment attraction on Friday and Saturday nights, from 9 p.m. to closing time.

This is Harriett West, guitarist and singer, formerly with Meridian West. She has appeared on POW and at the Hungry I.

SENOR ALFREDO'S MEXICAN RESTAURANT in San Anselmo will start keeping later hours on Aug. 1, serving dinners from 5 to 11 p.m. Fridays and Saturdays and from 5 to 10 p.m. (kitchen closes at 9:30). Lunches during the week are from 11:30 a.m. to 2 p.m. Closed Mondays.

There's a new lunch menu going into effect — simple and less expensive — Al Barthel will serve a number of tostada dishes at $1.

Make-Up Program For High School Dropouts

Beginning this fall, children of Marin County seasonal farm worker families who have dropped out of high school will be able to earn a high school diploma in HEP, a high school equivalency program open to youths between the ages of 17 and 22 at University of the Pacific in Stockton.

Admission information is available from the school.

WINE DISCOVERIES at CAFE BON VIN
SORRY, BROTHER TIMOTHY,
that you will be unable to bring your wines and your wit to Cafe Bon Vin next Thursday. A series of unfortunate circumstances make it necessary to postpone Brother Timothy's visit to a later date to be announced. We will try to reach those with reservations (who will receive priority when the event is rescheduled) to let them know of the change in plans. And we hope you who read this ad will contribute to the mighty power of advertising by passing the word along.
DRAMATIC IS
the exciting announcement for wine lovers coming next week. Be sure to look for the Cafe Bon Vin advertisement on this page next Friday with great eagerness.

Suez War Continues; Claims Challenged

By ASSOCIATED PRESS

Israel and Egypt followed up one of the biggest Middle East battles since 1967 with a new spurt of fighting along the Suez Canal today.

An Israeli army spokesman in Tel Aviv said Egyptian forces opened fire chiefly along the southern end of the waterway and the Israelis returned it. He said an Israeli soldier was slightly wounded.

At the same time both sides swapped claims and denials after yesterday's day-long air and ground fighting—the third big battle of the week in the canal area. And Prime Minister Golda Meir of Israel called upon the Arabs to respect the cease-fire agreement that ended the fighting in the six-day war of June 1967.

MUTUAL PEACE

"I must point out to Egypt, Jordan and Syria that we do not speak out of weakness," she said. "Let us respect the cease-fire on both sides in order to avoid death, injury and suffering. Let us hope our call is heard and answered."

An Israeli Foreign Ministry spokesman told newsmen Israel's aim is the renewal of the cease-fire "on a mutual basis" along the canal.

The spokesman claimed the recent deterioration in the canal situation is due to Egypt's policies of "denying the existence of the cease-fire."

He added: "However, there is still the possibility of avoiding a further aggravation of the situation, by sticking unconditionally to the cease-fire agreement, in line with Egypt's commitment of June 1967."

PLANE CLAIMS

Israel said seven Egyptian planes, six MIGs and one Sukhoi fighter-bomber were shot down yesterday and two were damaged. An Israeli spokesman said all Israeli aircraft returned to base and an Egyptian pilot was captured.

He said the Egyptian planes were brought down by U.S.-made Hawk ground-to-air missiles, antiaircraft guns and planes.

The spokesman added the Israelis caused "serious damage" to Egyptian positions north of El Qantara, at the northern end of the canal, and knocked out four batteries of antiaircraft missiles, artillery positions and a radar station.

CHALLENGES

Egypt admitted it lost one plane. It claimed it downed seven Israeli jets and hit three others with antiaircraft fire.

Cairo scoffed at Israeli's claim of downing so many Soviet-built Egyptian planes and challenged the Israelis to produce wreckage as proof.

Cairo radio quoted an Egyptian military source as saying: "There are hundreds of correspondents in Israel to whom it can exhibit proof to back its claims if it has any." He said Israel was trying to cover up heavy losses.

TANK FIRE

The fighting began, according to the Israeli spokesman, with Israeli planes attacking Egyptian positions "following Egypt's continual cease-fire violations."

Then artillery and tank guns traded fire along the 103-mile canal after which Egyptian aircraft struck at Israeli positions along the canal.

Israel said Egypt suffered "dozens of dead and wounded." It said one Israeli soldier was killed and eight were wounded.

Egypt said one Egyptian soldier was killed and "a few others" were injured.

At U.N. headquarters in New York, U.S. officials said the United States and the Soviet Union regard the escalation of hostilities in the Middle East as serious but both believe an all-out war is not imminent.

Six Injured In Accident On Highway

Six persons were treated yesterday at Marin General Hospital for minor injuries received in a two-car accident on Highway 101 at Lucky Drive, in Corte Madera.

Treated were four Marin City residents, Allen Brooks, 20, of 11 Cole Drive and Jesse Page, 20, of 26 Eureka Street, both for face cuts; Earl Hall, 18, of 15 Dutton Court, cut ear and multiple scrapes and bruises; and Wilbur Smith, 19, of 49 Cole Drive, scrapes and bruises.

Also treated were Stewart W. Beckett, 33, of East Hartford, Conn., and Diane Ulmer, 25, of 5 Rodeo Avenue, Sausalito, both for foreign bodies in their eyes.

California Highway Patrol officers said that Brooks was driving southbound on Highway 101 when his car clipped Beckett's car and spun into the chain link divider fence.

Page, Hall and Smith were passengers in Brook's car and Miss Ulmer was a passenger in Beckett's car.

In a related accident, Howard W. Behle, 32, of 720 Hilary Drive, Tiburon, who stopped to aid Brooks and his passengers, apparently didn't set the emergency brake properly, officers said, and his car rolled into a culvert at the side of the highway, hitting a chain link fence.

Burglars Ransack Tam Valley Residence

Burglars who cut a screen on a bathroom window at the home of Dennis Wheeler at 211 Marin Avenue, Tamalpais Valley Monday ransacked the entire house and stole a number of articles, sheriff's officers said yesterday.

Missing were two silverware sets, each containing 60 pieces, a portable radio, two suitcases, two cameras, a flashgun and a pellet gun.

FISH KILL PROBED

Officials of the Bay Area Regional Water Quality Control Board and the state Department of Fish and Game are investigating the death of about 120 carp in a dammed-up canal off the north fork of Las Gallinas Creek. Jim Sherman, 12, (right) who found the dead fish yesterday, takes a close look at the fish with a friend, Jim Spini, 14. Both boys live on Vendola Drive in Santa Venetia which parallels the creek. Bundy To Quit City Aide Post

Robert C. Bundy, administrative assistant in Larkspur and director of recreation for Larkspur and the Town of Corte Madera since 1964, yesterday announced his resignation.

The Larkspur City Council scheduled a special session today at 4:30 p.m. to authorize the recruitment of a replacement.

Bundy, 40, said today he plans to accept a post as executive assistant to the city manager of Merced in mid-September.

His final work day in Larkspur will be Aug. 22.

Bundy also held the posts of Larkspur city treasurer and director of finance and was the city's representative on the Marin County Economic Opportunity Council.

Bundy was hired in 1964 by the Larkspur-Corte Madera Joint Recreation Commission as director at $600 a month. Less than 14 months later, he submitted his resignation when it appeared the City of Larkspur and the Larkspur School District were not going to support the joint recreation program in the fiscal year 1965-66.

He stayed on when the matter was resolved.

Hospital Board To Study Report For Expansion

The Hillcrest Hospital board last night accepted for consideration a report of the Southwestern Sonoma County Health Facilities Planning Committee that urged enlargement of the hospital.

The committee report said the 57-bed hospital should be expanded to 103 beds by 1970, 157 beds by 1980 and 262 beds by 1990. The report noted that, although the hospital is not in the geographic center of the service area, the facilities should be expanded to utilize fully the existing investment.

The committee also recommended that the hospital enlarge facilities for out patients care, labroatory and X-ray and public clinics.

The board was urged to seek financial support from both state and federal governments to fund the additions.

The Hillcrest Hospital baord also:

AIR CONDITIONING — Said bids would be opened Aug. 5 for an air conditioning unit for the hospital.

STORAGE SPACE — Heard report that plans are under way to construct a storage building for medical records and supplies.

Decision On Sports Funds To Be Delayed

Sonoma State College President Ambrose R. Nichols Jr. heard protests yesterday from the athletic department over a large budget cut by students, but upheld the decision to limit funds for intercollegiate sports.

Dr. Nichols said he met with G. Edward Rudloff, athletic director, and promised to explore all other possible methods of raising funds to sustain the athletic program.

Dr. Rudloff had said the budget slash from the $16,000 requested to $8,800 would ruin plans for the stepped-up women's sports program and the college's planned debut in intercollegiate football.

Dr. Nichols agreed that the lack of funds might endanger the program, but said he hoped that abolition could be avoided.

The $55,650 budget, which was approved by vice president James B. Enochs in Nichols' absence, originally included $500 interest-free loans for four student body officers. Enochs ruled the allocations illegal, saying all loans must be processed through the financial aids office.

The budget also withholds money for publication of the student newspaper, Steppes, which was criticized for publishing pictures of nudes and using obscene words. It will receive no funds until new guidelines have been established, Nichols said. A student-faculty committee is now preparing new rules of conduct for the newspaper staff.

Novato Man Admits Charges

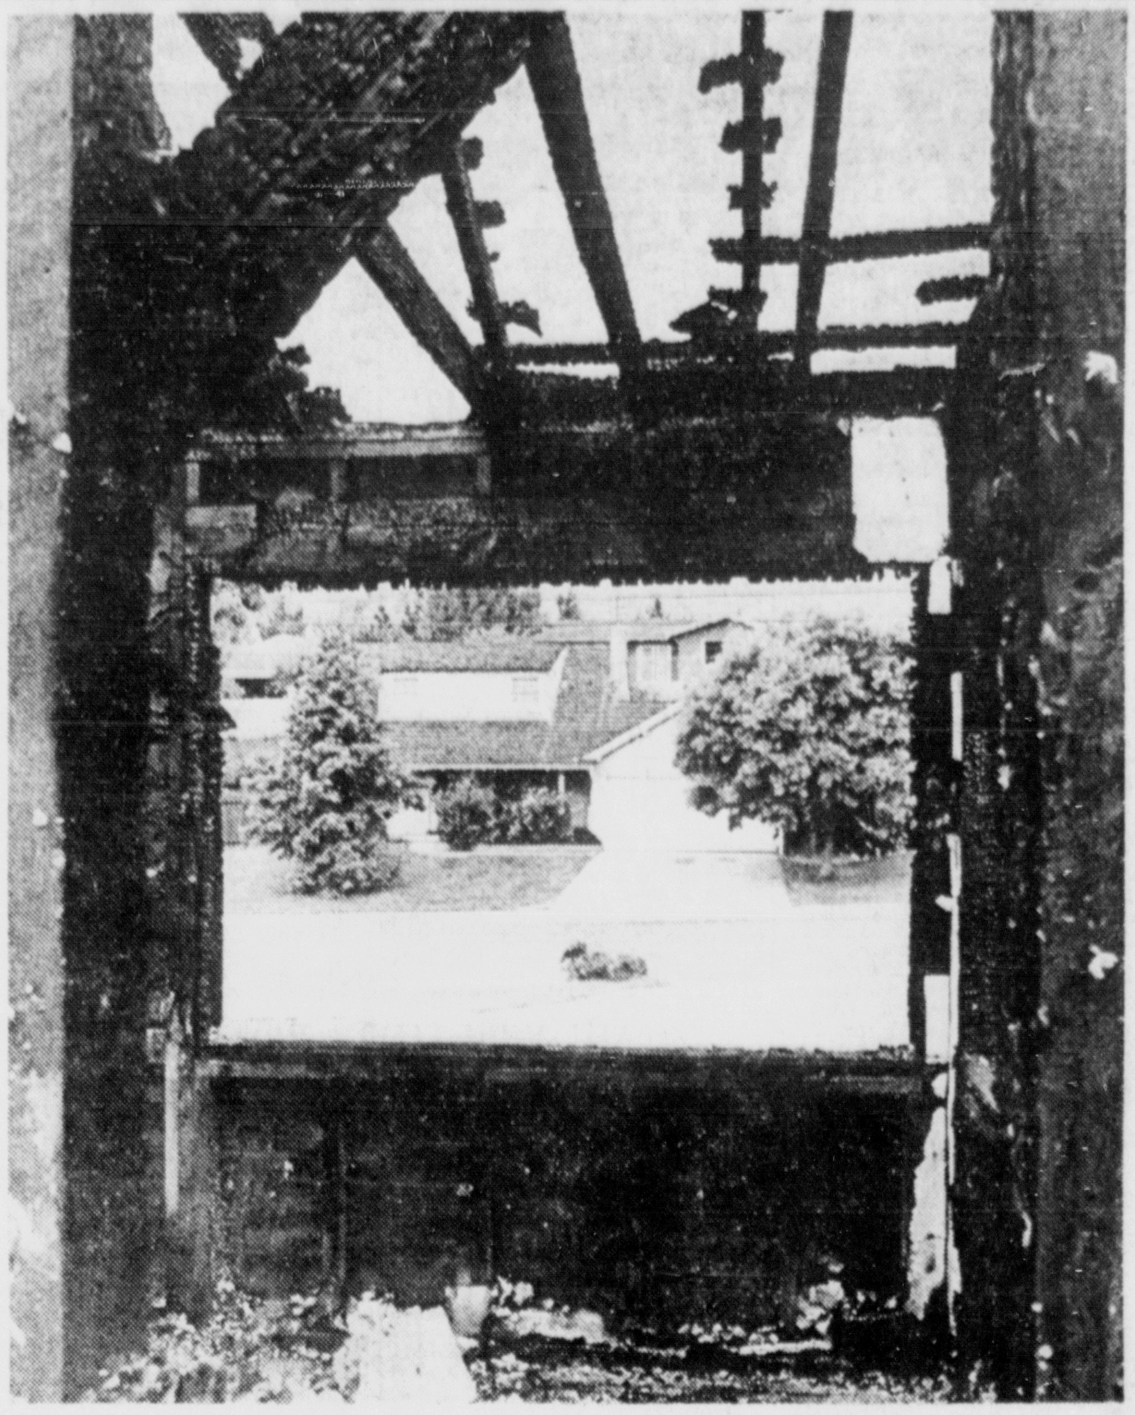
Frank E. Jordan, 20, of Novato, pleaded guilty yesterday in Marin Municipal Court to misdeameanor charges of possessing a narcotics device and petty theft.

Another charge of having beer as a minor was dismissed.

He had earlier been accused of felony possession of marijuana.

Judge Hadden W. Roth set sentencing for Aug. 29.

Jordan also faces a felony manslaughter charge stemming from an auto accident June 22 in which Michael Granlich, 16, of Novato, was killed.



ARSONIST'S HANDIWORK — The charred ruins of the William A. Edwards home at 2726 Heatherstone Drive frames a neighbor's house across the street. The Marinwood home was the third in the community to be put to the torch in a week when it went up in flames today. (Independent-Journal photo)

Arsonist Ignites Third Empty Home

A Marinwood arsonist, who concentrates on unoccupied homes, struck again today, the third time in one week, destroying a home at 2726 Heatherstone Drive.

The blaze, spotted by neighbors at 2:45 a.m., burned about 90 per cent of the one-story wood frame structure. William Edwards and his family, who occupied the home, were away on vacation in Virginia. Fireman said the Edwardses have been reached and are on their way home.

Fire prevention officer James Jackson estimated damage at $25,000. He said the arsonist had apparently poured some flammable liquid in the master bedroom and lit a match.

"When we got there, the whole place was afire," said Jackson. Eighteen men and two fire trucks, led by fire chief Gaylord E. Bonfield, battled flames and mopped up until 5:30 a.m.

Jackson said the fire appears to be the work of the same person who set three fires last weekend. On Saturday, at about 1 a.m., fire broke out at the home of Robert Gehrke at 113 Blackstone Drive. The Gehrkes were away on vacation. On Sunday about 12:50 a.m. the Leonard A. Spencer home at 234 Johnstone Drive burned. The Spencers were in the process of moving into the home, but the house was not yet occupied.

Also on Sunday another house at 248 Johnstone Drive, which had just been purchased by Francis Lum was broken into and a bottle of gasoline tossed into the living room through a window.

Marinwood firemen said they are working with the sheriff's investigators on the three arson cases and have leads on a suspect.

Tiburon-Belvedere Drops Summer Youth Program

The Tiburon - Belvedere joint teen-age summer recreation program was discontinued last night by the Tiburon Parks and Recreation Commissimn because of disinterest by teenagers, according to Russell L. Melquist, assistant to the city manager.

Funds allocated to the program will be reserved and the program reactivated if peninsula youth show a renewed interest in summer recreation, Melquist said.

The Tiburon parks and recreation commission also:

AYALA DAY — Agreed to stage a pageant for Ayala Day celebration Sept. 6.

PARK — Approved a report listing alternative locations for a park and road on the Samuel M. Shapero property on Trestle Glen Boulevard.

FISH TRAPPED — As state officials investigated the fish kill, it was theorized that the fish swam through this drainage pipe from the main creek during high tide and were trap in the stagnant canal, dammed up on both ends, when the tide receded.

Haircut Prices Due For Hike, Union Predicts

An official of Barbers Union Local 582 of San Rafael predicted today an increase in haircut rates to $3 in most of Marin's 76 barber shops by Aug. 1.

Manuel Martin, secretary-treasurer of the local, attributed the increase, from $2.75, to a rise in the cost of living.

Similar increases, to be effective Aug. 1, were announced last week in San Francisco and northern San Mateo County.

Martin said wage agreements between employers and barbers expired July 15, and, negotiations aren't scheduled to begin until October. Still, he expected a rate increase on or about Aug. 1.

The $2.75 rate has been in effect for two years, Martin said.

"WHERE THE ACTION IS"

ASSUMABLE G.I. — SANTA VENETIA

Tenants have just moved out of this wonderful ranch-style home. This would be a wonderful opportunity to put a little of yourself in fixing up this home, situated on a quiet street near shopping center, schools and a beautiful neighborhood park. There are three good size bedrooms and one bath. A brick fireplace in the living room and hardwood floors throughout make this an excellent family home and the spacious corner lot offers an ideal play area for children. A rare opportunity to assume a 5¼% assumable G.I. loan with a balance of approximately $20,800, payable at $187 per month, taxes and insurance included. Just reduced to $25,500.

AMONGST THE TREES — SAN ANSELMO

will give you the feeling of a woodsy atmosphere with lots of glass and a deck all around to enjoy the view of the lovely trees. Stepping into the 2 story living room adds charm to this 2 bedroom home, one bath and an all-electric kitchen, only 5 years old. Price $28,950.

McGREGOR'S GARDEN — NOVATO

Peter would have had little trouble in finding his way out of this luscious well kept garden. Anxious owners are forced to sacrifice their lovely 3 bedroom, 2 bath home on a quiet cul-de-sac. Only 4½ years old, a few of the many features of this Fraser Designed home are: 2 fireplaces, sunken family room, king size bedrooms, hardwood floors, all cedar lined closets, but best of all, one of the beautiful yards in the area. Just transferred, assumable G.I. 5¼%. Monthly payments of $193 PITI. See it now soon, you'll love it. Price $31,950.

DECORATOR'S DELIGHT — S.R. HEIGHTS

Imagine a beautiful custom-built home situated on a rustic and tranquil half acre. The four bedrooms and three baths include a deluxe master bedroom and Roman bath. Gold leaf tiling in the sunken living room is just one outstanding feature of this elegant home. You will spend many relaxing hours in the pool area, which is complete with cabana, BBQ pit, and a deck which completely surrounds the house. Owner will consider an all inclusive deed of trust. Price $59,500.

BOAT LOVERS — SAN RAFAEL

Here is the perfect family home that boasts 100-ft. frontage on a deep-water canal. Tie up to your own spacious dock — relax on your covered patio with the BBQ ready. You'll never tire of the view from all of the large rooms to your own back yard Venice! The three bedrooms, two baths and big family kitchen lend comfort to this boat fancier's dream, close to the Marin Yacht Club. Most cooperative owner. Price just reduced $5,000 to $54,950.

LOTUS LAND — FAIRHILLS

This peaceful family home high in the hills of Fairhills in San Rafael is situated on a mostly level acre. The U-shaped floor plan encompasses a delightful outdoor living area with ample room for a pool. The house has a separate dining room, a kitchen with a distinct breakfast area, four bedrooms in addition to a den or family room. If you have been looking for a home in this price range, this property is well worth the time to inspect and check the value at a price of $69,500.

SUPREME ELEGANCE — PEACOCK GAP

First time offered — architect designed home of many unusual points of elegance. One side of every lovely room in the house captivates one of the most beautiful views in the area, the other side looks on to a tropical garden surrounding a pool. This 3 bedroom, 2½ bath home with a separate dining area is patterned not only with the thought of family living in mind, but truly offers all the prominent features of gracious style in entertaining. This home complete with air purifier and vacuum cleaning cost more than $80,000 to build and is priced at $74,500.

HOW TO KEEP WELL

By DR. THEODORE R. VAN DELLEN

Healthy Suntan Can Protect Body From Ultraviolet Rays

VAN DELLEN

When the skin is exposed to the sun, certain cells are stimulated to form pigment (melanin). The ensuing tan helps to protect the body's surface from too much ultraviolet. Sunburn is likely to occur once the skin is brown because the excess pigment is nature's built-in tanning lotion.

After years of exposure to Old Sol, this protective function develops to an abnormal extent with the appearance of sharply circumscribed dark brown areas of pigmentation. These spots usually are seen on the backs of the hands, forearms, and the face. They are soft, and not scaly or pre-cancerous.

SMALL, ROUGHENED lesions (keratoses) may also develop on the epidermis. Some can be felt long before they are visible. These spots, also caused by the sun, are almost always on exposed areas. They are frequently called senile keratoses, but sun, rather than age, is responsible. Their rough, hard surface is covered by whitish or dirty brown scales. From 15 to 20 per cent of these lesions will undergo cancerous degeneration. The best remedy is surgical excision or complete destruction via electrodesiccation or cryotherapy (freezing.)

Overexposure also leads to irreversible epidermal changes. Small blood vessels and other superficial tissues deteriorate and result in dryness, loss of elasticity, coarseness, wrinkling, and a leathery appearance. These alterations also have been ascribed to growing old, but too much sun is to blame.

IN THE ELDERLY, the unexposed skin usually remains soft and smooth. Most of the surface changes seen in oldsters are related more to total overexposure than to age. Blacks have natural protection against the sun explaining why many elderly Negroes often maintain a deceptively youthful appearance.

(Questions on medical topics will be answered by mail if accompanied by stamped, self-addressed envelope to the Independent-Journal.)

KINDERGARTEN

Mrs. C. L. writes: My little girl missed getting into kindergarten last fall because she was one month under 5. She's a bright child and has picked up a lot from her 7-year-old sister. Would her health be harmed if I entered her in the 1st grade next September, even though she won't be 6?

REPLY

No harm, provided she can keep up with the class. Your family physician and the school principal are better judges than I. When some youngsters are entered too soon, they have trouble keeping up with the older children.

TONSILS

Mrs. B. C. writes: Will tonsillectomy in a 6-year-old help prevent further attacks of asthma?

REPLY

Yes, if the asthmatic attacks are caused by bacteria and the causative organisms are harbored in the tonsils. I assume this child has been tested for the more common causes of asthma.

WHOOPING AND AGE

E. B. writes: Can a 13-year-old contract whooping cough?

REPLY

Yes. The causative organisms are not a bit superstitious.

CYST SYMPTOMS

C. C. writes: What are the symptoms of an ovarian cyst?

REPLY

These cysts rarely produce symptoms unless they twist, are large, or rupture, or hemorrhage. Among other manifestations are menstrual disturbances and lower abdominal pain when large ovarian cysts cause enlargement of the abdomen.

COCKTAIL VITAMINS

P. S. writes: What vitamin is good to take when going to a cocktail party?

REPLY

Vitamin B sensible.

Man Arraigned In Auto Theft

Daniel E. De Costa, 21, of San Francisco has been arraigned in Marin Municipal Court on charges of auto theft and auto burglary stemming from the theft of a car in Corte Madera Sunday.

His case has been continued until Aug. 7 for entry of plea.

Police said that a 1968 Caprice was stolen from a carport at 14 Upland Circle, and nine cars were broken into in the same area. A stereo tape player was taken from one vehicle.

DeCosta and three juveniles were arrested in Santa Rosa after deputies stopped the car there.

Marin Has 17 Draftees In July —Quota Is 94

Seventeen youths were inducted into the armed forces in July by the Marin Selective Service Board, executive secretary Joy M. Kinzer reported today.

They are Paul N. Gockel of San Francisco; Robert D. Kendall, Frank A. Neer and Kenneth L. Caughie, all of San Anselmo; Scot E. Graham and Charles E. Robertson, both of Tiburon; Robert R. Schultz Jr. and Craig E. Vincent, both of Mill Valley;

Donald M. Semeski, David W. Nylund, Stephen T. Mize, James F. Edwards, Bruce J. Cornelius, and Theodore E. Fullmer IV, all of San Rafael; Mark S. Vantrease of Corte Madera, and Timothy J. Hendrickson and George J. Rossi III, both of Novato.

The number is the highest to go from Marin this year. The July quota for the county was 94 but the quota is seldom filled, Mrs. Kinzer said.

The quota for August is 30, she said.

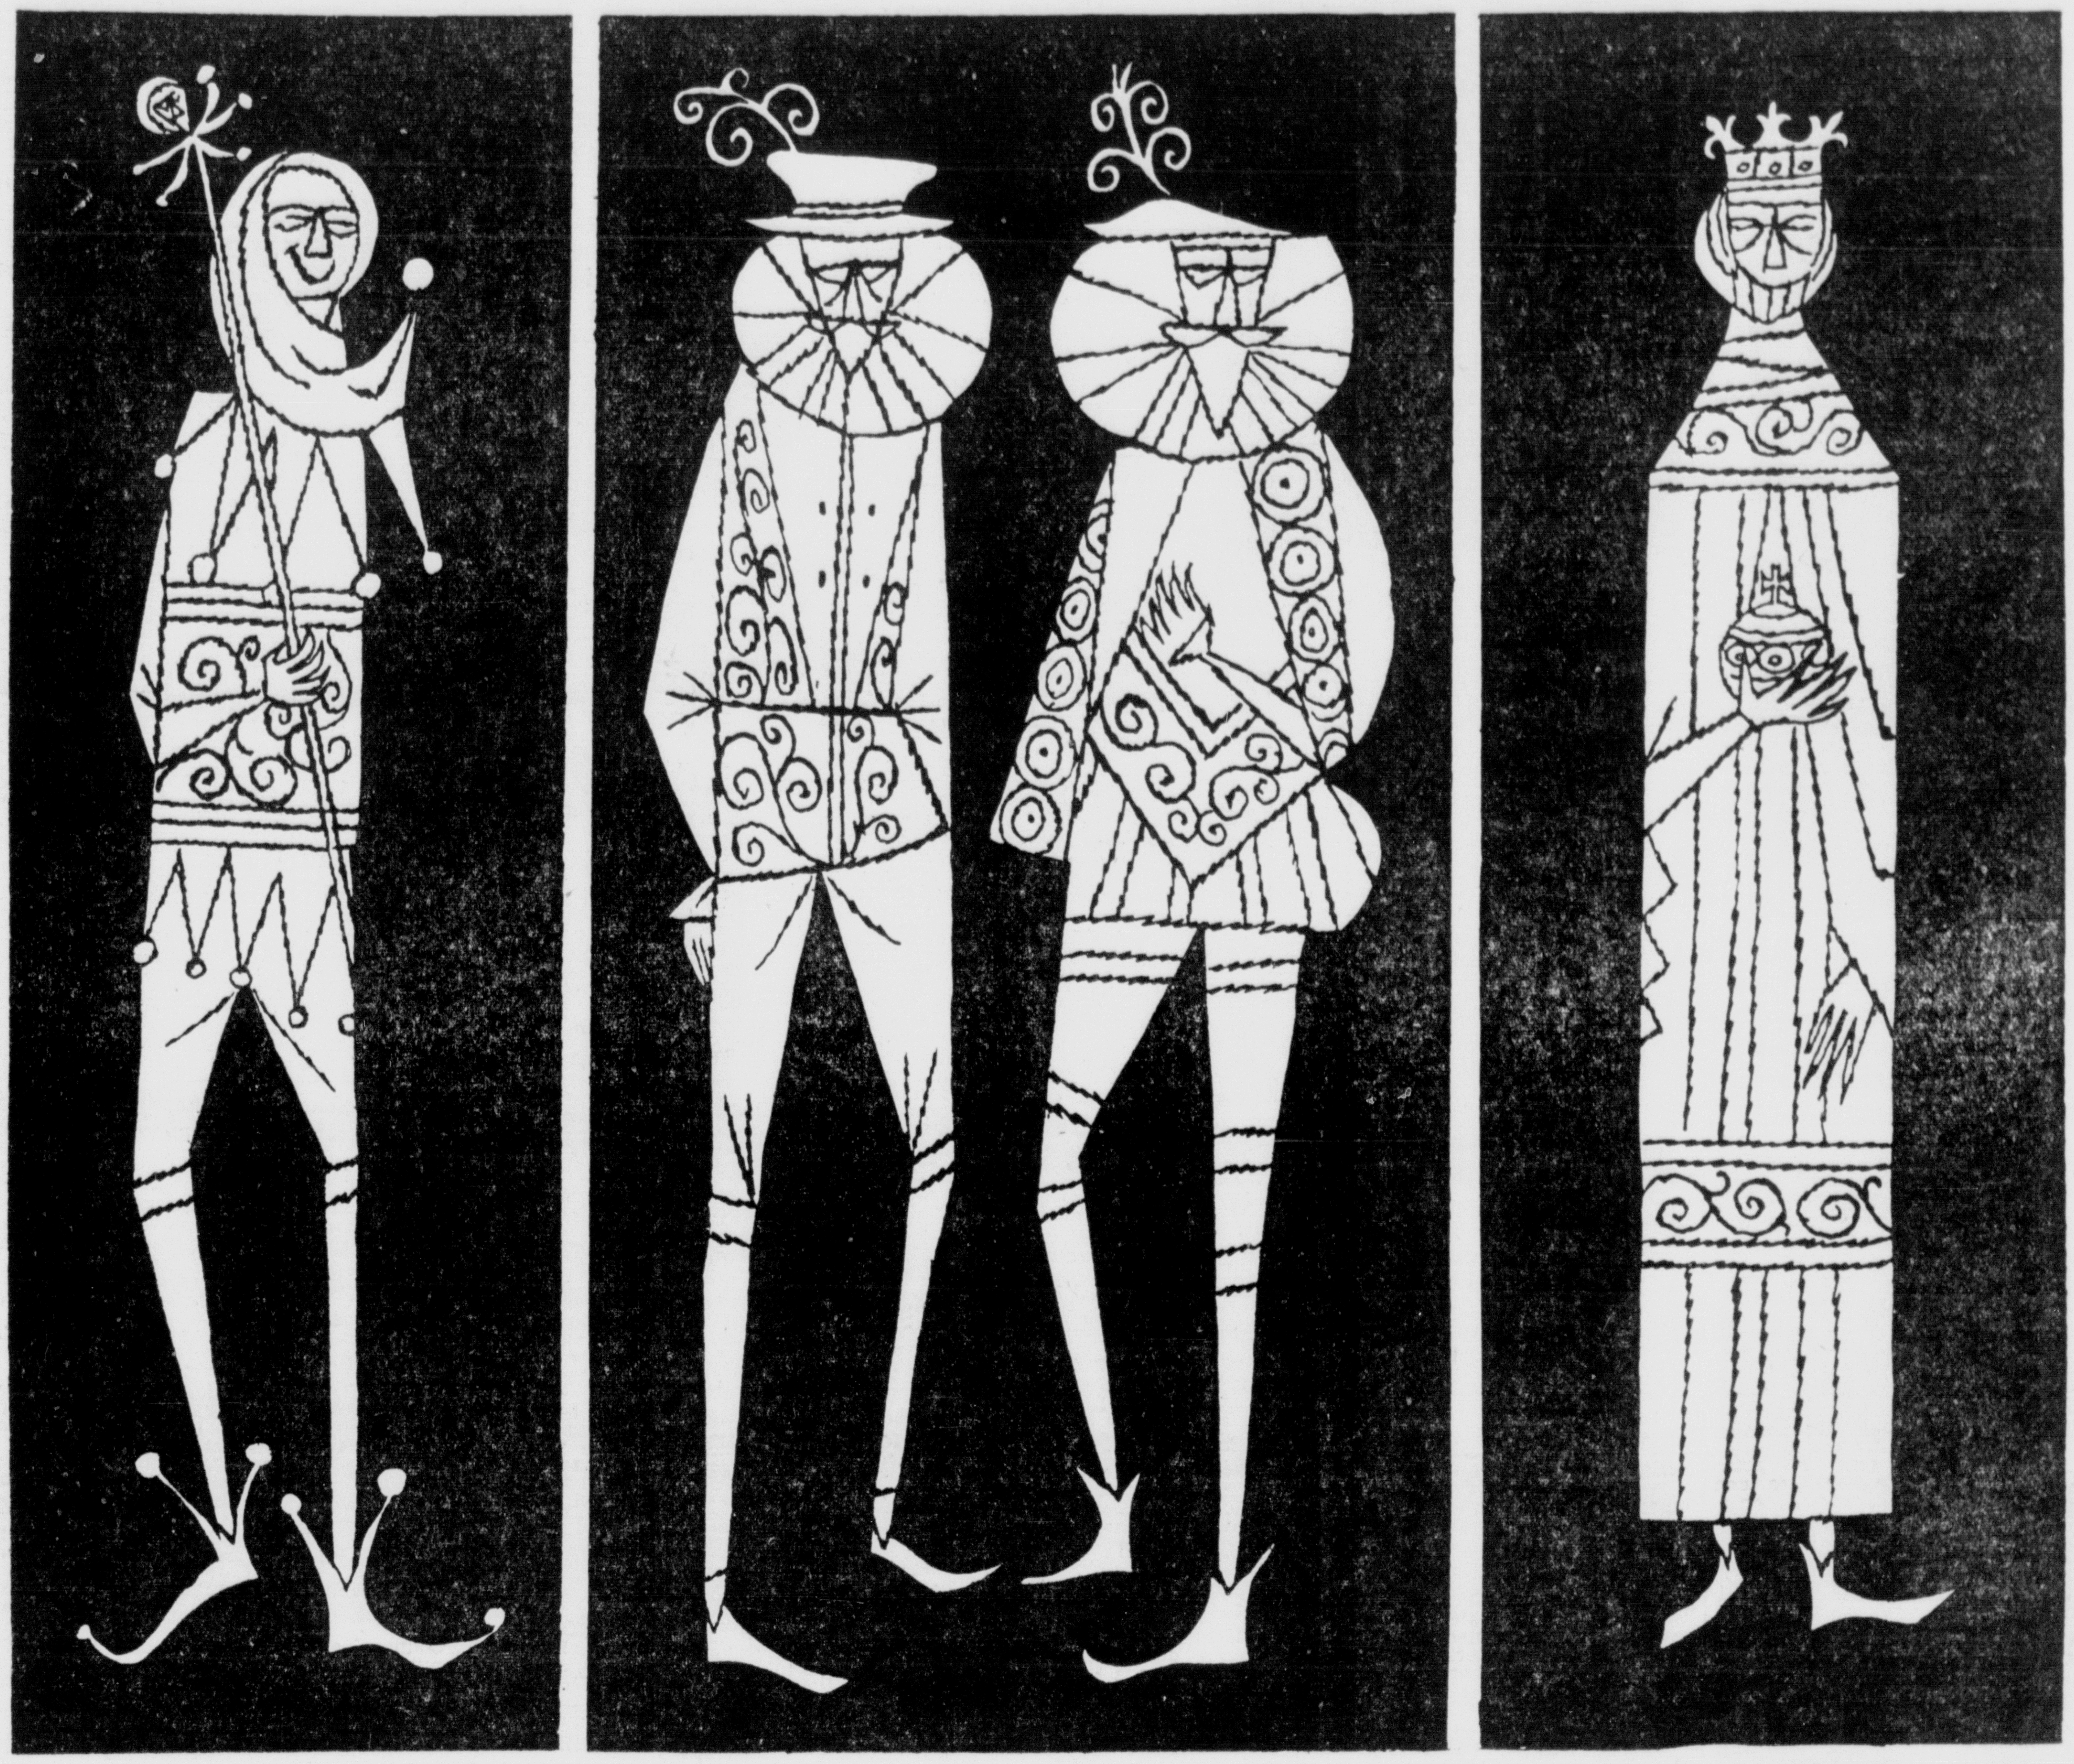
Meet Shakespeare in Marin This Summer



Meet the writer who knows more about you (and the human race) than anyone. Now's your chance!

A GREAT SEASON

3 GREAT PLAYS

JULY 17 - SEPT. 27

Take in the seat of drama, humor, wit and fun . . . one of the finest Shakespearean festivals in the U.S. . . . at fabulously beautiful Forest Meadows Theatre

Do you know there are actually PEOPLE in Marin who haven't yet been Shakespeared? People who have actually driven past Forest Meadows unaware that Shakespeare is here? Friends of yours, even. Intelligent people who read good books and others who settle for the comics? (If Queen Elizabeth I could have known this she'd have sent them to the Tower! Or given them tickets).

For you and SHE know that Shakespeare is a bit funnier than maybe the best TV writer. And can far out-gallop Mickey Spillane, Voltaire and Sophocles in running dramatic thrills up your spine.

Point is, that the Bard is in full flower this summer at Forest Meadows with three plays which he wrote shortly after Drake discovered Marin County. (He did this purposely knowing you'd discover that HE was the greatest circumnavigator of fun, wit and dramatic entertainment to conquer the natives of Marin and other parts).

But you know all this. The shame is, too many people could miss seeing Shakespeare at the Festival. Miss the villians, the heroes, the rogues, the roll of words that shake the very trees.

Gadzooks, this cannot be! Do something about it. Get tickets, flaunt them at your friends. Taunt them. Pull them away from TV, bowling and other low-brow revels. Tell them they cannot go on living like this! Let's not keep Shakespeare waiting!

A Midsummer Night's Dream
Directed by John Olon

Richard II
Directed by John Argue

* * *

Two Gentlemen of Verona
Directed by Dan Caldwell

Plan to see all three plays. You'll be the better for it. Let's not disappoint Shakespeare, here in Marin!

Become a patron, a sponsor, even a life member. Remember, dukes and great lords sponsored Elizabethian drama — glad to! Proves how cultured you are. Rewarding!

PERFORMANCES

Every Thursday, Friday & Saturday from July 17th to Sept. 27th.
Curtain time: 8:00 p.m.
Matinees: Sat., Aug. 16 - 23 - 30; Sept. 6 - 13 - 20 - 27 at 2:00 p.m.

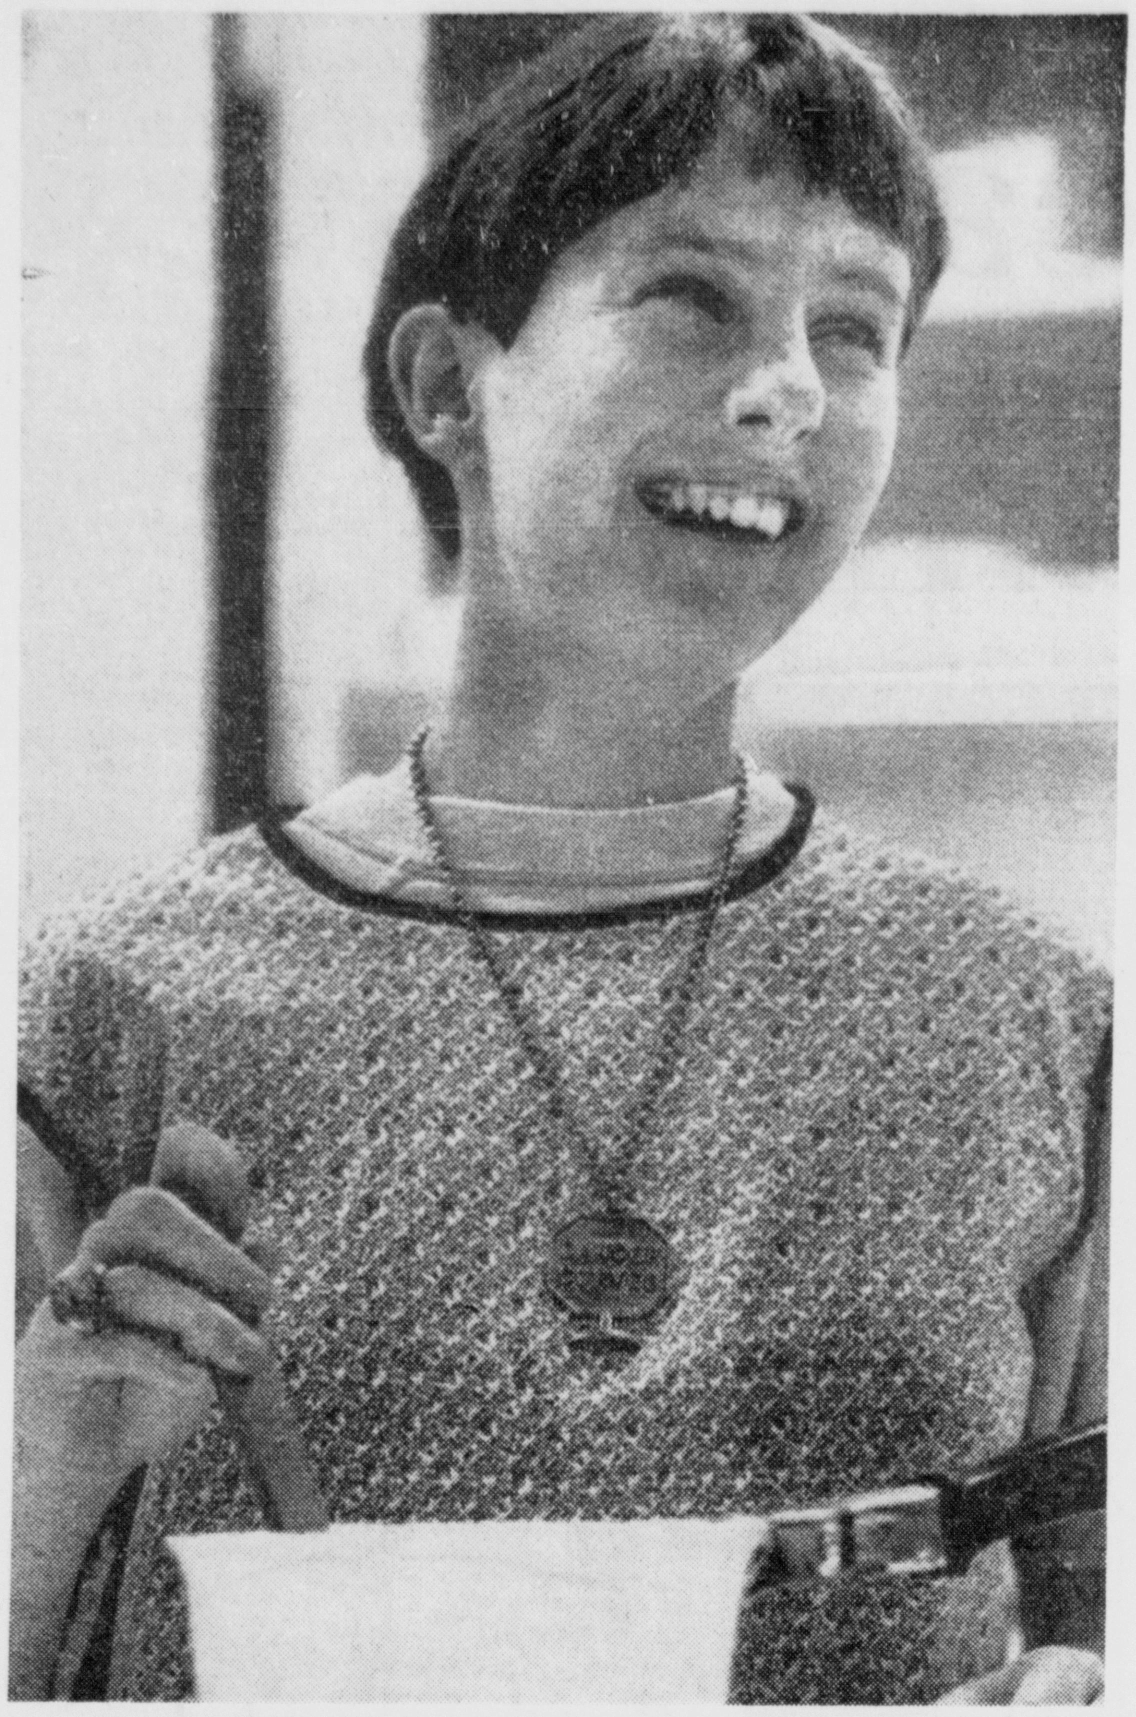
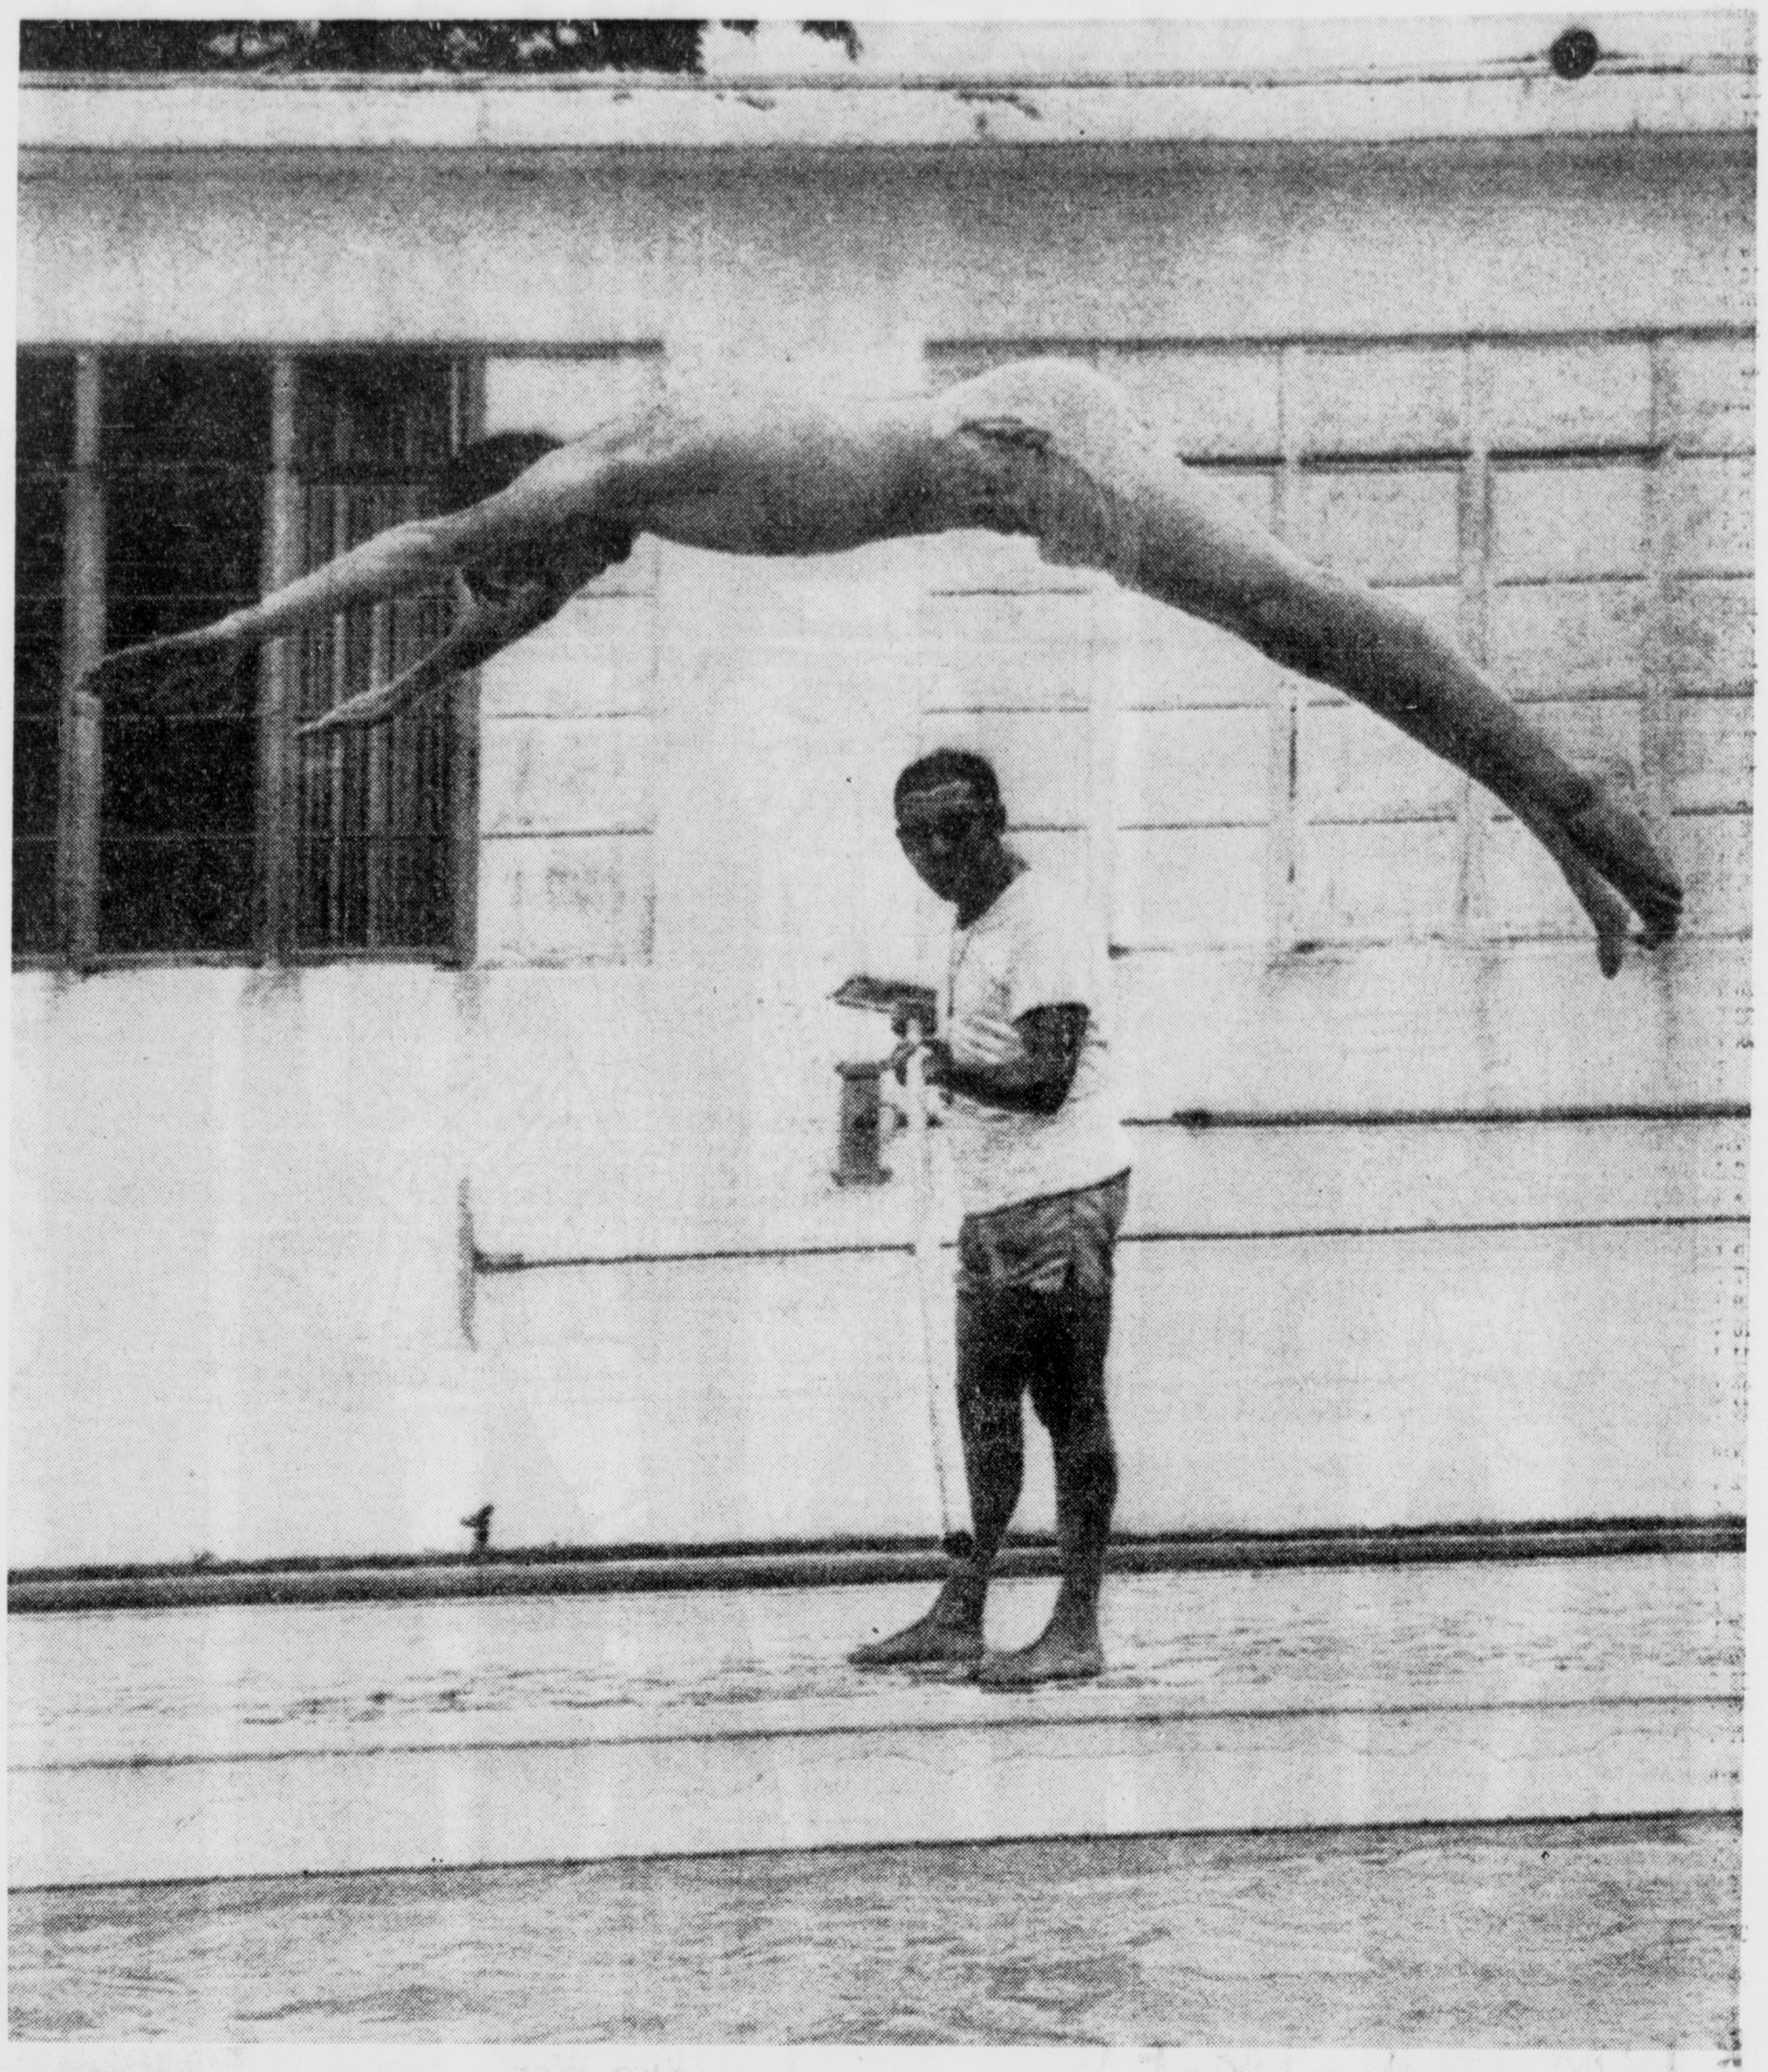
They Work Around Blindness



FUTURE HOUSEWIFE — Bonnie's warm happy smile is a "thank you" for the foundation's home economics department, which teaches blind students how to cook and perform other household chores. Kaplan, who established the foundation, said, "It is important that these children learn to integrate into their society, not as beggars, but as useful citizens. Blindness must not be treated as a tragedy, merely as a nuisance."



OVERCOMES FEARS — One of the major activities of the Foundation for the Junior Blind in Los Angeles is the swimming and diving program. Here, Allan, one of the students, springs off the diving board and over a pole held by Murray Kaplan, founder of the program. Through diving drills, Allan and other blind youths learn to overcome fears of falling while developing coordination and physical conditioning.

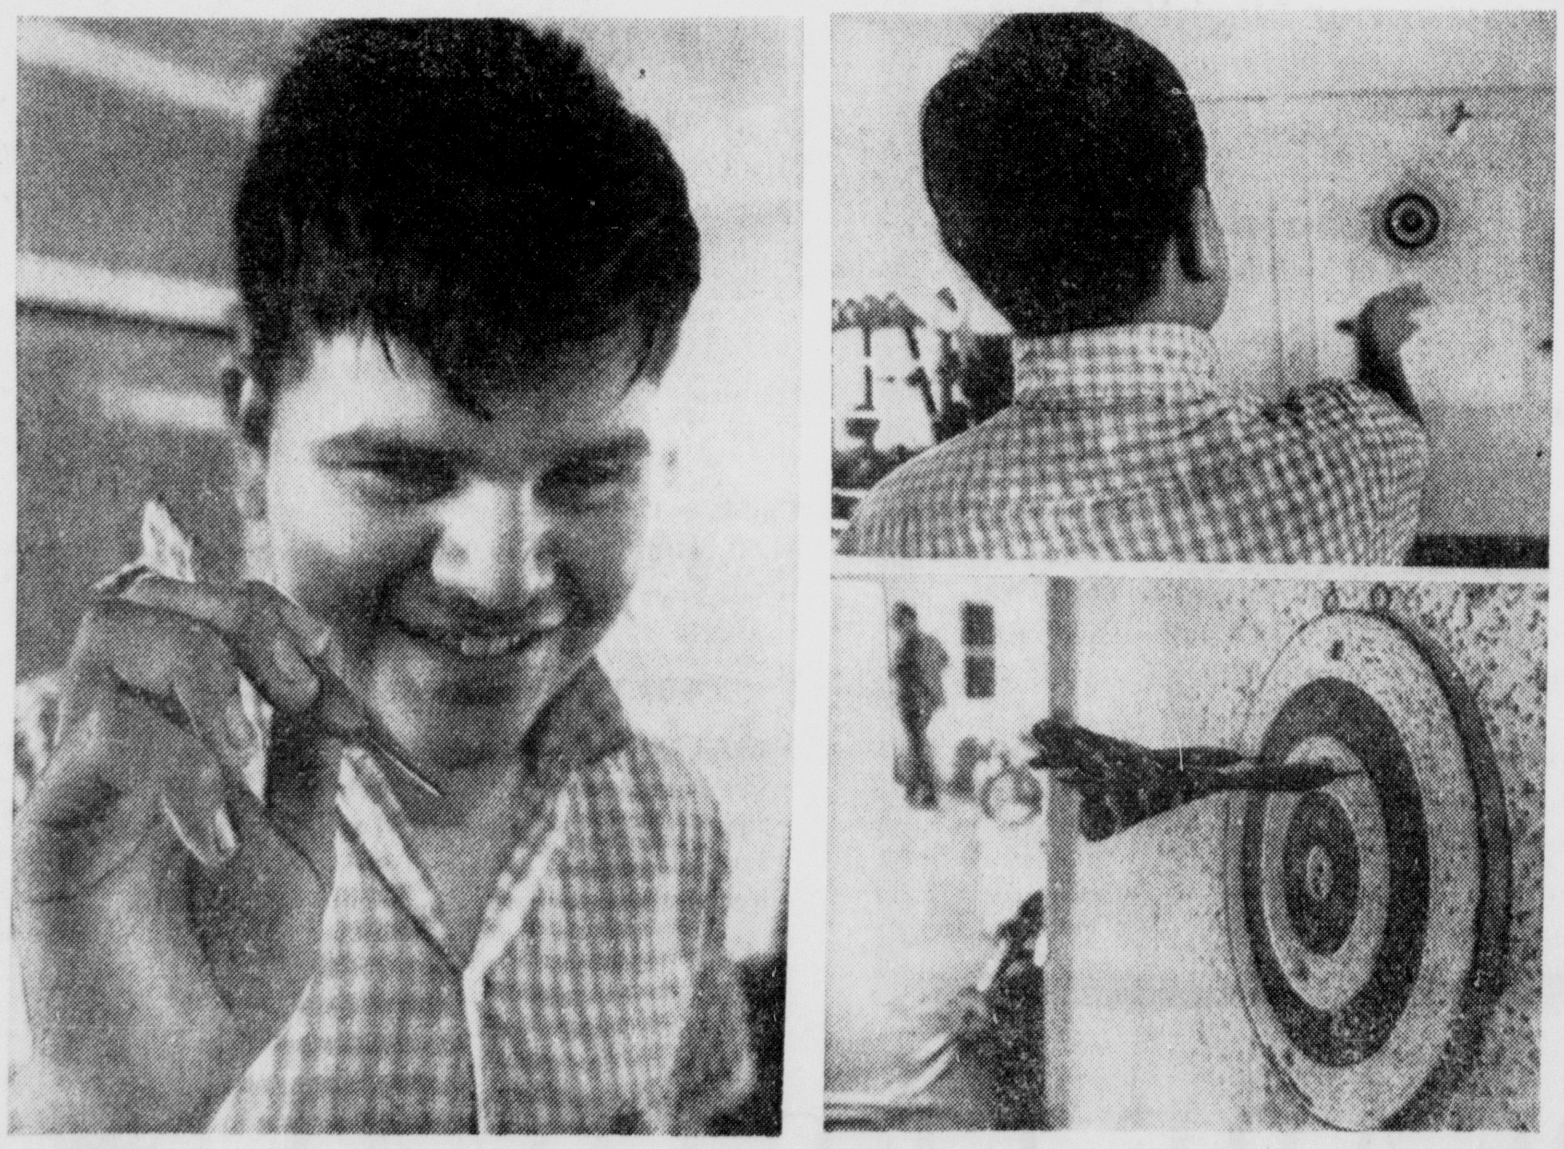
SERVING ALL OF MARIN COUNTY

ART BY TOUCH — A smile of satisfaction lights the face of Arturo, molding a leaf-shaped ash tray under the supervision of volunteer ceramics instructor Opal Shinn. According to Kaplan, the key to education for the handicapped is that "they grow with each experience in which they are allowed to participate." Another one of the classes offers the student a chance to learn the finer art of cooking.



GUIDED DARTS — Blindness is no handicap when it comes to playing darts at the Foundation for the Junior Blind. Noe, one of the better dart throwers, shows how it's done. A sighted volunteer worker first taps the dart board to give Noe direction via audible sounds. Noe is then on his own to zero in on target. His first try missed the board, but on the next two tosses he notched 50 points. Games like this help to build pride and self-confidence in the blind children.

A STRIKE — A strike for Penny is no less exciting than for any other youngster. At the recreation center, games, hobbies, and sports give the blind youths a psychological outlet and valuable life experiences from which they can live and grow into well-rounded adults.

Utilities Value Rise Won't Help County Tax Rate

The assessed valuation of property owned by public utility companies in Marin is up 1.7 per cent over last year, but the increase is not big enough to affect the projected county tax rate of $2.395 for fiscal 1969-70, county auditor-controller Michael Mitchell reported today.

The state board of equalization notified the county yesterday that the total assessed valuation of public utilities in Marin this year is $34,946,690, a slight increase over last year's $34,364,050.

The breakdown shows $3,237,170 for land owned by public utilities, $15,061,700 in improvements, and $16,647,800 in personal property.

Each year the state sets the assessed value for public utilities, which include telephone companies, Pacific Gas and Electric Co., Northwestern Pacific Railroad, and Radio Corporation of America.

From Moon Landing To Barbra Streisand

By RICK DU BROW

HOLLYWOOD (UPI) — This being moon-landing week, it seems right to speak only of the heavenly things on earth. So our subject today is CBS-TV's Barbra Streisand.

The lady currently is in Las Vegas, at the International Hotel. What she is doing there is singing. The word singing is sometimes loosely used to describe what various paid performers do. But Miss Streisand is singing, if you know what I mean. Every time she rips off the finale of "He Touched ME," the electricity bill in Las Vegas doubles, and the voltage is felt by one and all.

She is the nerviest performer you will ever see. I mean, it takes some kind of nerve to sing "Jingle Bells" with the temperature outside around 100. But she does it, and all I can tell you is that it is something else, because nobody ever sang it that way. A very groovy lady.

I think what I like best about Streisand, aside from the obvious talent, is her perversity in choice of material. The lady doesn't go by any book but her own. If she feels like singing a string of ballads, without the automatic by-the-book plight song to change the pace, then she will sing that string of ballads. And if some of those ballads are relatively obscure ones that she just happens to love, then you will get them. And you will never forget them.

She is so tuned in to the business of which she often seems to be the final perfect product that her subtle parodies of entertainment formalities touchingly reflect the nostalgia of the past as much as the lightning-quick irreverence of today. She is enveloped by the totality of American show business, past and present, just as surely as she has conquered it in her twenties.

And yet—because of this supremacy, this nerviness, this perversity in choice of material—there is something shocking, and ultimately lovely, about watching her perform in a club. The shock comes in realizing that, with all this prowess and tough experience in films, television and the theater, there is an extraordinary innocence about her in person.

I watched four Streisand performances in Vegas, and the memorable thing about each one, really, was the way her determinedly singleminded manner of doing things added up in the end to something more than an act: A revelation of character, of a person with dimension, values, passions.

Sausalito Set For Blood Bank Days Next Week

Large red, gold and white banners will wave over Sausalito next week for Sausalito Community Blood Bank Days Tuesday and Wednesday.

The 18 banners, donated by Sausalito Artists and Merchants, will bear the blood bank emblem, a hand framing a drop of blood. The emblem was designed by industrial designers Walter Landor and Associates.

The Irwin Blood Bank mobile unit will be at Central School from 2 to 7 p.m. both days.

Members of Sausalito Friends of the Library have volunteered to take donor appointments. Donors can telephone Mrs. Richard L. Whitaker of 104 Buchanan Street or Mrs. Harvey Z. Klein of 121 Buchanan Street for appointments.

Other Sausalito groups supporting the blood bank days include the Chamber of Commerce, Women's Club, Lions Club and Rotary Club.

Coffee trees are perennials.

Board Considers Light Tubing For Home Gas

Should a new type of lightweight steel tubing be allowed for connecting liquid propane gas to homes?

This question will be considered by the county board of appeals at 2 p.m. Aug. 7 at the Civic Center. County building inspector Hans J. Berge, secretary of the board of appeals, said the meeting will be held in either the supervisors chambers or the planning commission chambers. Ray W. Foreaker Jr. is chairman of the board of appeals.

N. E. Waltenspiel, who owns the Flame Gas Co. in Santa Rosa, has applied for permission to use a lightweight steel tubing known as X trube tubing to hook up gas to homes. It has plastic coating on the exterior.

The present county code calls for standard weight wrought iron or steel but does not cover lightweight steel tubing, Berge explained.

"This type of tubing was used in the Eichler Homes for radiant heating, and there were some failures in the tubing," said Berge. "So we want the appeals board to consider it carefully."

All basket work is either plaited or coiled.

Catch your Chevrolet OK used car dealer with his prices down.

You'd probably choose an OK used car even if your Chevy dealer weren't having his Grand Slam Red Tag Sale.

But he is.

His red tag on the windshield tells you two things: that your budget will be left in good condition after you buy. That the car is in good condition before you buy.

To put it another way, you get special savings on a wide variety of used makes and models that really are something special.

Red-tagged OK used cars have been inspected, road-tested and reconditioned, as necessary. And your Chevy dealer wouldn't have it any other way. Would you?

Visit your Chevy dealer during his Grand Slam Red Tag Sale.

For Ken Johnson It's Long Summer Of Baseball

By GARY TISCHLER

Ken Johnson is not hitting.

This may not shake up anybody but the immediate family, but picture Arnold Palmer in a perpetual sandtrap, Joe Namath with his hands tied, Carrol Baker with her clothes on, Santa Claus with an empty toy sack, Frank Sinatra with laryngitis, and you get a rough idea of just how important this business of not hitting is to Ken Johnson.

Right now, Ken, a great swatter at Redwood High School from where he was signed to a $20,000 contract by the New York Yankees in 1968, is in St. Petersburg, Fla., trying not to think about not hitting, hoping that this particular summer will eventually go away.

Ken is a shortstop with the Yankees' Fort Lauderdale Class A farm team, which is embroiled in a torrid pennant race in the Florida State League. That's what Ken is concentrating on — helping his team in the two weeks he has left to play before he reports for a two-month round with the Army in Mississippi.

It is one way of not having to think about the nightmarish slump he's been in ever since he picked up a bat and reported to Fort Lauderdale from a five-month stint with the Army at Fort Leonard Wood, Mo., a place known affectionately as Little Korea.

Right now, he's hitting around .160, with very little progress or signs to show that things are getting any better. It is a painful and unusual situation for Johnson, a natural hitter who is not used to hitting that low for that long.

"I guess my hitting is not really prospering," he said, talking by phone from a St. Petersburg hotel. "Day by day, it doesn't get any better. Right now, I just try to do what I can to help the team and hope the summer gets over with so that I can get a better chance in spring training."

Johnson has gotten off to bad starts before, but this has been a bad start that never ended.

"It has affected me," he said. "I guess I psyched myself out. Now, when I relax and don't think about it, it doesn't bother me that much. I'll just have to scratch this off as one of those years everybody has."

Even his fielding has been affected by the hitting slump.

"My fielding is very erratic," he said. "I'll go five or six games without making an error, then I'll make two or three in a game."

Part of Ken's problems this season can be traced to the fact that he missed spring training because of his Army duty and therefore got a very late start.

But the thing about Ken Johnson is his tremendous store of optimism and confidence. Like a man who has just been hit by a truck, lost $500 at the race track, and breaks a leg in church and gets up, dusts himself off and says, "Tomorrow will be a good day."

"I'll just have to forget about this," he said. "I know I'm a good hitter. I've never been this bad and I'm not that bad a hitter. I'm a good hitter and I'm just going to have to bounce back, find myself again next spring."

The experience this summer has not all been a lost cause. He has found that he likes Florida after all, after coming away with negative feelings during his first exposure.

"It's still basically a state for old people and there's not that much to do for anybody under 21," he said. "But there's lots of beaches and plenty of girls. The cities are interesting."

He lives at a boarding house in Fort Lauderdale close to the ballpark since he doesn't have a car. On the road, the stopovers include Miami, Key West, St. Petersburg and West Palm Beach. It is not a bad life, despite the hitting, despite the humidity and the heat.

For Ken Johnson, a firm believer in himself, there is indeed, always next year, which is bound to be better.

JIM GILMARTIN

Little Leaguer Hurls Against His Buddies

Eddie Andersen, star of the Twin Cities team who will pitch against Marinwood tonight in the Little League district semifinals at Mill Valley, will be opposing some of his best friends.

Eddie transferred into the Larkspur-Corte Madera league from — Marinwood. The youngster's pitching credentials at Twin Cities make him resemble a miniature combination of Walter Johnson-Bob Feller-Sandy Koufax-Juan Marichal as he has won 12 games and lost none, struck out 184 and walked only 9 in 78 innings, and has given up 14 hits and only 3 runs, all unearned. According to Manager Aldo (Casey) Pasquinelli, Eddie is a complete ball player.

THE NEWS stories of an accident at Sears Point Raceway Sunday identified injured sports car racer Austin Walther as a San Francisco resident.

Now Novato Residents

The fact is, Austin and his bride of about one year recently moved to 1133 Elm Drive, Novato. In Sunday's races, Walther's Super-Lotus was off the track with a blown engine when it was hit by a Mini-Cooper driven by Ron Moore of San Diego. The results: Double fracture of the right leg. Austin is now home healing (Austin Healey?)

Since Sears Point has become a subsidiary of Filmways, Inc., a television-movie outfit, Walther presented the new owners with a strong cast for their next epic.

YEP, THIS is the year of the hitters, allright. Wednesday night the Ladies Auxiliary of the Larkspur Fire Department and women affiliated with the Marin Municipal Water District engaged in a softball game at Larkspur which resulted in a 19-19 tie after seven innings. Imagine that — the fire ladies with 19 runs in their hose! But, of course, the water lillies had plenty of depth on their side.

Holliday On Channel 2

AFTER FOUR YEARS of spinning records for Radio KYA, Johnny Holliday of Tiburon has jumped off the disc jockey merry-go-round onto a fulltime athletic beat as sports director for KTVU, Channel 2.

Today was his last shift as deejay and the personable 31-year-old Holliday will assume his new duties Monday.

"It's a break I've been looking for," said Johnny yesterday. "I've always been keenly intersted in sports. At Channel 2 I'll have a new sports news show five nights a week at 10 o'clock in addition to other duties directing the sports programming."

Sports followers are familiar with Holliday's tonsils for he has "moonlighted" in the past as public address announcer for the Warriors and Raiders. John will have to switch some of his football allegiance now because Channel 2 will carry some pre-season 49er games, but he'll continue P.A. work at the Oakland Coliseum.

If you're still up at 10 p.m. next Monday, give Holliday an orb and a lobe. Support your local sports reporters.

Carol Mann Shows A Lot Of Courage

KIAMESHA LAKE, N.Y. (UPI)—You've got to have heart to be a success on the ladies pro golf tour.

Carol Mann, the second leading money winner on the tour, had heart yesterday in the first round of the Ladies Professional Golfers Association 72-hole championship.

The cool weather following a day of rain caused Miss Mann to come up with a muscle spasm in her right shoulder with five holes to go. However, she parred the last five holes to come in with a three-under 70 to shart the first-round lead with Susie Berning of North Lake Tahoe.

Betsy Rawls of Spartanburg, S.C. had a lot of heart too. She last won the LPGA championship in 1959 but had nines of 37-34, one stroke off the lead. The 34 was three under par.

MacKay Triumphs

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI) — Marin County stockbroker Barry MacKay, a former touring pro who lives in Ross, dropped the first set yesterday but bounced back to beat Tom Brown, San Francisco, 3-6, 7-5, 6-4 for the men's singles title in the first $1,000 Ampex Invitational Tennis Tournament.

Briles Shows Giants How It's Done

Perry Vs. Gibson Tonight

ST. LOUIS (UPI) — A backyard product from Santa Clara University—Nelson Briles — showed the San Francisco Giants how it's done.

The chunky righthander singled home the winning run off Juan Marichal last night and picked up his 10th win as the St. Louis Cardinals nipped the Giants 2-1 in the opener of a four-game series.

PERRY VS. GIBSON

Tonight Gaylord Perry (12-7) of San Francisco opposes Bob Gibson (11-8) in a battle of righthanders.

Briles singled home Julian Javier from second to snap a 1-1 tie in the seventh inning and send Marichal down to his fifth loss after 13 victories. Mike Shannon opened the seventh with a single but was forced at second by Javier. Dal Maxvill's infield out moved Javier into scoring position at second.

The Giants jumped to a 1-0 lead in the first when Bobby Bonds singled, reached second on Briles' error and scored on two infield outs.

TORRE'S DOUBLE

St. Louis tied it up in the bottom of the inning on a single by Vada Pinson and Joe Torre's run-scoring double.

When Ken Henderson of the Giants singled with one out in the ninth, Joe Hoerner replaced Briles and struck out Jim Hart and Bobby Etheridge to notch his 12th save of the season,

Willie Mays and Henderson each collected two singles and it was a grounder by Mays that plated Bonds with the Giants' lone run.

San Francisco and Los Angeles, both losers yesterday, remained virtually deadlocked in second place in the National League West, two games behind leader Atlanta.

Little League Semifinals On Tap Today

The remaining field of four teams in the Marin County District Little League All-Star Tournament will be reduced to two tonight in a pair of semifinal games.

Twin Cities clashes with surprising Marinwood at the Mill Valley American League Park and San Rafael National takes on Novato American at Novato's Rancho Park. Both games are at 6 p.m.

The winners will meet in the championship game at the Corte Madera-Larkspur park in Corte Madera at 3 p.m. tomorrow, preceded by a consolation game between the losers at 3 p.m.

Twin Cities had come through this far on good pitching, downing Gallinas Valley, 5-1 and Mill Valley American, 4-1. Marinwood has rolled over two opponents, taking San Geronimo, 10-1 and Kentfield-Greenbrae, 10-0.

Novato American has nicked Sausalito, 1-0 and Tiburon, 7-5 while San Rafael, after a first-round bye, blasted Strawberry, 17-0.

The champion of the Marin tournament goes on to the Sectional tournament at Santa Rosa, July 31-Aug. 2.

GETS CLUTCH HIT

Sal Bando Tries A Little Harder

OAKLAND (AP) — Third baseman Sal Bando of the Oakland Athletics admits he tries a little harder with a runner in scoring position.

It was a single by Bando that scored Reggie Jackson from second base to give the A's a 2-1 victory over the Washington Senators last night.

"To make money you have to hit. And to hit you have to contact with the ball," Bando said. Sal's single was his third hit of the game and the whole bunch didn't add up to one solid blow.

OTHER WAY

"But I can remember lots of hard-hit balls that went right at someone for outs," Bando said.

The winning hit was a bloop single to short center field, just beyond the reach of shortstop Eddie Brinkman and second baseman Bernie Allen.

Jackson, who advanced to second on a wild pitch, raced home before Bando's hit could be retrieved.

Manager Hank Bauer of the A's is looking for another pitching performance tonight like the one Jim Hunter turned in last night.

DOBSON

Chuck Dobson, 11-7, will get a chance to try to equal Hunter's four-hitter when he faces Washington in the second game of the four-game series. Barry Moore, 8-5, will pitch for the Senators.

Hunter, 9-7, gave up a home run to Lee Maye in the first inning last night, then settled down to blank the Senators the rest of the way.

It was a typical game for Hunter—fast. He needed only two hours and six minutes to defeat Washington.

"When the game goes fast, they are hitting my pitch," Hunter said. He said he means the batters are swinging at the pitch he wants them to.

NO TROUBLE

Four straight times Hunter retired Frank Howard, the second leading home run hitter in the American League. He was not particularly concerned about the huge Washington slugger.

Howard is 6-foot-7 and weighs 260 pounds.

"I would rather pitch to Howard than Mike Epstein," Hunter said. "But that's because Howard is right-handed and Epstein is left-handed."

Hunter now has won four straight complete games and has given up a total of only six runs and 20 hits over that stretch.

Bobby Bonds Learning Value Of Good Timing

Bobby Bonds is making an admirable effort to time the curve ball with which he always has had difficulty. The same day the budding superstar of the Giants reached the 100-hit mark this season he also struck out for the 100th time.

Good timing is essential to good hitting. That is axiomatic in baseball. It's a truism that needs no proof. The results are self-evident.

Pitchers, with off-speed curves, constantly try to keep batters off balance, upsetting their timing. Once a batter commits his body prematurely in a forward stride, it is extremely difficult for him to keep his hands back.

WHEN THE hands move forward too quickly with the body, the result is a feeble off-balance swing at an off-speed pitch. Bobby Bonds is well aware of the fact that this has been his problem with the curve.

Twice this season Bonds has changed the position of his hands in an effort to discipline them in staying back of his body. More recently, to discipline his body in staying back, he has been trying to hit to right field instead of trying to pull every pitch to left, the natural target area for a righthanded pull hitter.

IN THAT wild 14-13 Candlestick game that opened the four-game weekend series between the Giants and Dodgers, Bonds lashed two homers over the left field fence and he said he intended to hit to right. It seemed ridiculous but it made sense.

Bonds' timing was perfect on both homers because neither his body nor hands were prematurely committed. Bonds is not a defensive hitter. He attacks the ball aggressively whether trying to go to right or left. Thus, while it might have been his original intention to go to right on the home run pitches, he was in perfect batting position to do instinctively what he does best — pull with power to left.

ONE OF the two homers came off a fast ball which pitchers know they should never throw in the strike zone to Bonds. But pitchers make mistakes, too.

The other homer came off a high hanging curve. Now, this does not mean Bonds has mastered the art of hitting the curve. The curve he hit for homer No. 20 was the kind any batter should be able to hit. However, the fact that he was in perfect position to hit it — with bat and body back — pleased him mightily.

CLYDE KING also was pleased. The rookie manager of the Giants, for whom Bonds played at Phoenix, has been quietly counseling Bonds on good batting habits. Bonds has absolute confidence in King who, above all else, doesn't want Bonds to become a defensive hitter while trying to master the curve.

"He is doing an admirable job now," said King. "If he can cut down on his strikeouts that will be fine. We certainly hope he will. But we don't want him to become a defensive punch hitter, going up there with the thought of not striking out."

AND AS for disciplining his hands in staying back even after prematurely committing his body in a forward stride, Bonds knows that Stan Musial and only a few other great hitters could do that.

"Even Musial couldn't do it all the time," King has assured Bonds. "Nobody can."

Tiburon Run Tomorrow

Fifth annual Tiburon Run, covering a distance of 8.9 miles, will be held tomorrow, beginning at 10 a.m. from the firehouse in Tiburon.

Sponsored by the Marin Athletic Club and sanctioned by the Pacific Association of the Amateur Athletic Union, the course will go down Tiburon Boulevard from the firehouse, left on Paradise Drive to Trestle Glen Drive, then left on Tiburon Drive to the finish line.

Record for the race was set July 27 of last year by Chris Miller, running unattached, with a 42 minute, 46 second clocking.

Trophies will go to the first, second and third place runners, medals for fourth through 72nd, and ribbons up to 125th. There will be three special plaques for each of two divisions, age 30-39 division and those 40 and older.

No 'Yips' For Snead In Canada

MONTREAL (UPI) — Sam Snead is 57, old enough to have the "yips," the putting-stroke ailment that makes foot-long putts feel like long twisters, and can put a middle-aged golfer out of the tournament scene before his time.

Sam has had the "yips," but it looks like he has them beaten. He had seven one-putt greens and never needed more than two putts as he shot a five-under-par 67 for a one-stroke first-round lead in the Canadian Open which started here yesterday.

Sam has one stroke over Chick Evans, 31, who says he has never won anything of note before, and won $9,000 in 1968, his first year on the pro tour. Evans, who put on a strong finishing rush for a second-nine 33 to give him his 68, is from Northbridge, Mass.

Seven golfers are bunched at 69, including Roberto de Vicenzo and Tony Jacklin, the recent British Open winner.

They are followed by eight grouped at two-under-par 70, and 15 at 71, including Doug Sanders, Tommy Aaron, who eagled the par-5, 466-yard 18th, and defending Canadian Open champ Bob Charles.

Billy Casper, at 72, had a "very cold putter" which hurts his game.

Pinegrove, measuring 36-36—72 for the 65th Canadian Open, is no monster, but it does play 7,031 yards for the tournament. Of the 152 starters, the low 70 and ties will go on over the weekend for the $125,000 purse, with $25,000 to the winner.

Giants' Sherman And Guillotine

By ASSOCIATED PRESS

Coach Vince Lombardi of the Washington Redskins is supposed to be running a tough training camp in pro football. Little attention has been paid to Allie Sherman, but the coach of the New York Giants is a stern taskmaster, too.

Sherman, determined to bring the Giants back to their once lofty status, uses what some call a modified version of a guillotine. That's because it is supposed to let a coach know who's willing to put his neck on the line.

GUILLOTINE

The so-called guillotine consists of two blocking dummies about four feet apart. A defensive man stands between them on one side. On the other side is a ball carrier and a blocker.

When the runner gets the ball he drives straight ahead between the dummies. He is not allowed to go around them. The resulting collision between the linemen and the ball carrier has helped Sherman weed out a lot of candidates in a hurry.

"Allie's not kidding," said one player. "He's letting us know that if we don't shape up he's going to get rid of us."

SCRIMMAGE

With the first preseason exhibition games only a week off, the San Diego Chargers and New Orleans Saints engaged in a two-hour scrimmage at Irvine yesterday. The Chargers scored three touchdowns, the Saints none.

Gene Foster scored two of the San Diego touchdowns on runs of 31 and 25 yards. Rookie quarterback Marty Domres passed 69 yards to Jacque MacKinnon for the other TD.

The Minnesota Vikings put in a long contact drill with ends Carl Eller and Jim Marshall and tackles Gary Larsen and Alan Page performing brilliantly on defense. The Vikings also signed their second draft choice, Volly Murphy, a speedy flanker from Texas-El Paso.

TD PASSES

Craig Morton threw two touchdown passes during a 25-minute scrimmage by the Dallas Cowboys.

The running of halfback Frank Quayle impressed Coach Lou Saban as the Denver Bronco rookies scrimmaged for the second straight day in preparation for their game with the Kansas City Chiefs tomorrow night.

Dodgers' Parker On Disabled List

CHICAGO (AP) — Slick fielding Wes Parker of the Los Angeles Dodgers underwent an appendectomy yesterday and will be lost to the club a minimum of three weeks.

Parker suffered the attack early in the morning and the surgery was performed at Wesley Memorial Hospital. The club placed him on the disabled list where he must remain a minimum of 21 days before being reactiviated.

Tommy Hutton was called up from the Dodgers' Spokane club in the Pacific Coast League to fill in. Hutton, also a first baseman, has been hitting .397 this month and is .284 overall with three home runs and 26 runs-batted-in.

Golden Bear On Prowl In American Classic

AKRON, Ohio (UPI)—Golf's Golden Bear is once again on the prowl.

Winless in his last 13 starts, Jack Nicklaus of Columbus, Ohio, trailed unheralded Bobby Mitchell and Terry Wilcox by one stroke today entering the second round of the $125,000 American Golf Classic at Firestone Country Club.

Mitchell and Wilcox led yesterday's record assault with five-under-par 65s while Nicklaus fired a 66 despite slamming just seven tee shots in the fairway and hitting 12 of 18 greens in regulation.

Bert Green, Tom Nieporte, Steve Reid and Ray Floyd were just two strokes off the pace at 67 while 10 others, headed by Masters champion George Archer, were bunched at 68.

Top money winner Dave Hill led a 10-man group at one-under 69. U.S. Open champ Orville Moody finished at one-over 71 while Arnold Palmer putted himself out of contention at 75.

Wilcox, 50, of Bronxville, N.Y., had failed to survive the cut in his last five tournaments, but he reeled off seven birdies, nine pars and two bogeys yesterday in his round of 32-33.

Nicklaus, Mitchell and Rodriguez tied course marks with four-under-par 13's on the back side while Floyd's 31 on the front also equalled a course record.

Keating Has More Problems

SANTA ROSA (AP) — Tom Keating, Oakland Raider tackle who missed last season because of an Achilles tendon injury, is having more leg trouble.

Because of a pulled calf muscle in his left leg, he has missed two days of contact work at the Raiders' training base in Santa Rosa.

The tendon injury was in the right leg.

Despite a number of minor injuries on the club, Coach John Madden said he was pleased with the conditioning, but added yesterday: "If we were playing a game tomorrow, I wouldn't be."

In scrimmages so far, rookie Ken Newfield from Louisiana State University has turned in the best performance—an 84-yard gain from a flare pattern.

Athletics Uncage A Tiger

By HERB MICHELSON

OAKLAND — The continuing saga of who's in left for the Athletics may, finally, be spilling its final ink in the prose of the 1969 baseball season.

Those who have lost sleep over this long-unfilled vacancy should now relax, for a fellow named Jose Milages Tartabull has firmly planted his flag in said soil. Whether it will do him any good depends on the whims of Charles O. Finley; but unlike his four "regular" predecessors in the port pasture this season, Jose has earned himself a full-time job.

Manager Hank Bauer (and perhaps even Finley) must be wondering why they didn't think of Jose earlier. He ascended to the regular's role on July 8, after an injury to Tommy Reynolds, who was playing because on July 3 Mike Hershberger was injured. Mike had a starting shot because Reynolds was just so-so; Reynolds had started when young Joe Rudi couldn't hit a lick. And Joe was out there because Hershberger, who started it all, hadn't come through at bat. Or something. Oh yes, young Sacramentan Bill McNulty had a brief shot at getting the job after the Hershy-Reynolds hurts, but McNulty went zero for 17 with 10 strikeouts.

So hello, Jose.

Even for the itinerant Tartabull, this has to be a strange year. He was dumped by the Red Sox to Louisville in April and a few weeks later picked up by the A's. They looked at him in pinch-hitting capacities for several weeks then sent him off to Iowa.

Came the double outfielder incapacitation, and back came "Bool," who was originally the property of the Giants before starting his major league career with the A's in K.C. in 1962. He eventually reached the Red Sox in time to see a bit of World Series action in 1967.

For all this, Tartabull is still a wisp of a 30-year-old lad at 5-11 and 157 pounds. Jose uses the heaviest bat on the A's, a stick that quite possibly is heavier than its holder.

He put it in regular service in Chicago on July 8 and didn't put it down again until the All Star break. In this 13-game span, Tartabull reacted like a suddenly uncaged tiger. He hit safely in each of those games — going 21 for 58, or .362. When added to his pinch-hitting failures earlier in the season, the two-week streak still raised his over-all average to above .300.

Tartabull's presence in the leadoff spot more than compensated for the loss by injury of Bert Campaneris. When Campy's split finger heals and he returns to short, Bauer could bat Tartabull second and set up tantalizing hit-run possibilities. For Jose sprays his safeties. In the lexicon of the A's clubhouse, "Bool" is a "ping" hitter. And most of his left-handed pings go to left field. Interestingly, he hits better against left-handed pitching.

But more importantly, Oakland won nine of the 13 games in which Tartabull started. How much more can one ask of a skinny fellow who smiles a lot?

FISH AND GAME

By AL GIDDINGS

Young Conservationist's 'Good Deed' Backfires

Last week a young fellow was fined $50 for planting carp in Phoenix Lake. He actually thought he was rescuing some species of game fish from the area of Corte Madera Creek that is being cleared for a flood control project; and his actions in planting these fish were all part of his own conservation project, probably all in good faith.

The judge must have felt the young fellow was sincere too, as he suspended $45 of the $50 fine. We shall see if the carp spawn and create a problem.

ALONG THESE same lines, the Department of Fish and Game is recommending to the Fish and Game Commission that they prohibit the importation, transportation, possession and release into the wilds, all members of the family Claridae, which includes the so-called "walking catfish." These fish, if planted by some well meaning person, could give California a real headache. This fish grows to eight pounds and becomes a very aggressive predator. It has displaced black bass and sunfish in some Florida waters where it was unlawfully planted by tropical fish dealers. This fish can breathe out of water, and moves overland at times. Talk about seeing pink elephants, boy! How would you like to see one of these crossing your lawn? Once these fish get a foothold, no methods are known that will control or eliminate them.

One night this week I took a quick trip out on the bay with Walter Toews of Woodacre. We never got a hit, but we did run out of gas. It was 9:20, almost quitting time, and I thought the help was gone. You know what? I gave a big yell, and here comes Enos Foster along in his skiff. (That man is liable to be anywhere!) And Toews had just said, "This boat is sure more comfortable than those skiffs you're always in" — when bam — out of gas! Yep, old Enos towed us all the way in! He had no fish either; I think the tide was just too late. We saw about four caught. The best hitting time has been the last two hours of the outgoing so that made it too late for us. I guess you're all quitting at the legal time? Watch it! Check your tide book. One hour after sunset is the danger hour.

You know all this banging around in rough waters, dodging other boats, running out of gas, cleaning fish at 11 and listening to the gals about cooking dinner so late is quite a grind. I heard they got 15 sturgeon last week up by the Pump House. I think I will take a rest and fish bait for a day. You know, get there at 8 and be home by 3. Sure sounds good. The only problem is the sharks taking those hard earned ghost shrimp known as "bugs."

BOY, THAT Joe Mello must have caught so many trout up the Sierras that he is giving this fishing a rest. I thought sure he would be out salmon fishing at Tomales by now, but I hear he's been gardening. If you see him, tell him the seas are calming and the winds are slowing, and the salmon and halibut are just waiting.

THE FISH and Game Commission announced that 270 permits will be issued for the buck antelope hunt in northeastern California Aug. 23 to Sept. 1. Hunt applications should be available this week from Fish and Game offices and license agents. Your application must be in Department of Fish and Game Sacramento headquarters by 5 p.m. Tuesday, Aug. 5. The statewide public drawing for permits will be held Thursday, Aug. 7, and successful applicants will be notified by mail. The permit fee will be $15.

I RECEIVED a call about some kids chasing baby ducks, probably domestic mallards loosed in San Clementi Creek at Corte Madera. The kids were using boats and running some of the birds down. It doesn't make sense, and certainly isn't good conservation. Many of these birds mix with wild mallards and contribute to the overall wild duck population. Come on, you parents — give the kids the word!

Cyclists To Race At Santa Rosa Track On Sunday

The 20-miler, held on the one-mile track at the Sonoma County Fairgrounds, is one of the highest rated motorcycle racing shows in California.

Practice begins at 11 a.m. and qualifying at 1 p.m. Sunday. First of 10 races in the expert and amateur catagories begins at 2:30 p.m. and is topped by the 20-mile National race.

Moffat Upset At Modesto

Top-seeded Andy Moffat of Mill Valley was bitten sharply by the upset yesterday in the Modesto Swim and Racquet Club's 12th annual junior tennis tournament.

Moffat was ousted by unseeded Terry Rodgers of San Jose, 6-1, 6-2 in yesterday's play.

Lissie Manheim of Tiburon advanced into the semifinals of both girls 16 and 18 play. She'll meet Jackie Gondring of Modesto in the girls 18 semi today and Lee Connolly of Caracas, Venezuela, in the girls 16 semi.

Two Massacres In Rec Softball

A couple of genuine massacres occurred in the San Rafael Adult Softball League at Albert Field last night.

The Marinwood Merchants tore into Sears Point Raceway, 13-1, and Brandon Tire walloped Salt's Fish and Chip, 19-2. Both were B division games.

Rich Allen Back; Phils Still Lose

By ASSOCIATED PRESS

Richie Allen might be a strong candidate for Comeback of the Year honors in Philadelphia, but the Phillies seem certain to prove his return can't bring them back.

With the disappearing first baseman in the line-up for the first time since he went AWOL June 24 and was suspended, the Phillies shrugged off his presence and lost again, 7-3 at Houston last night. It was their 10th defeat in 11 games.

Even with him the first 63 games of the season, they rolled down a 26-37 record. When he pulled the latest of his disappearing acts last month that cost him $11,000 in suspended salary, the Phils went on a nine-game winning streak, but then collapsed to 13-18 without him.

The baffling slugger did his best against the Astros with a run-scoring double and a bunt single—he struck out his other two times at bat—but it will take more than Mr. Allen to make the Phillies a winner.

Earlier in the day, the Chicago Cubs showed again it will take more than Don Sutton to make them a loser as they beat the Los Angeles Dodgers 5-3, running Sutton's record against them to 0-13 in four years.

The victory increased the Cubs' Eastern Division lead in the National League to 5½ games over the New York Mets, who dropped a 4-3 decision to Cincinnati in 12 innings.

Atlanta, with Hank Aaron moving into fourth place on the all-time home run list, increased its Western Division lead with a 9-6 victory over Montreal while St. Louis dropped San Francisco and Juan Marichal 2-1.

Pittsburgh edged San Diego 4-3 in 10 innings in the other game.

Tigers' Lolich Takes Out Anger On K.C.

By ASSOCIATED PRESS

Mickey Lolich was stranded in Washington for awhile, but not long enough to suit the Kansas City Royals.

Lolich, left behind by teammate Denny McLain who flew the All-Star coop early, caught an evening commercial flight and got to Detroit in plenty of time to pitch the Tigers to a 3-1 victory over the Royals on a four-hitter last night.

RUFFLED

But the Tiger left-hander's feathers still were ruffled by the McLain affair. Denny flew off in his private plane after his brief All-Star appearance, leaving Lolich and his wife stranded without transportation. Mickey had planned on returning to Detroit in McLain's plane.

"Denny pulled a crummy trick on me," complained Lolich. Then he took out his anger on the poor Royals, striking out 13 of them and running his season's record to 14-2.

Elsewhere in the American League yesterday, Baltimore rapped Chicago 5-2, Cleveland edged Minnesota 6-5, Oakland nipped Washington 2-1. New York dropped California 3-1 and Seattle tripped Boston 8-6.

SUPPORT

Lolich, who couldn't get a little transportation help from McLain a day earlier, got plenty of long ball support from his other teammates against Kansas City.

After the Royals had scored a run on a pair of singles and a sacrifice fly in the fourth, Al Kaline's 12th homer of the season tied it for the Tigers in the bottom half of the inning.

One inning later, Don Wert and Tom Tresh both connected, giving Lolich a comfortable cushion.

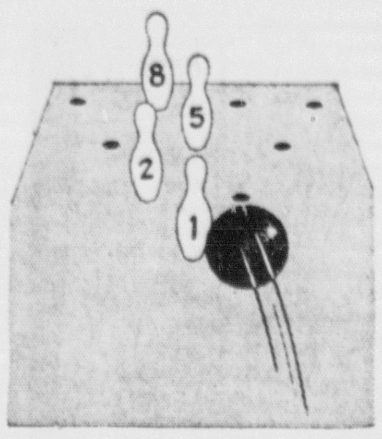
BOWLING TIPS

By DON CARTER



A strike delivery should convert the 1-2-5-8 into a spare. The 5-pin usually is the most troublesome in this set-up and a fairly good "pocket hit" is needed to bring it down along with the others.

Riordan Wins In Cage Action

Riordan Crusaders of San Francisco, sparked by Kevin Restani's 21 points, downed the Terra Linda Trojans 66-41 last night in the Summer Recreation High School Basketball League at Drake High School. Mark Jones' 17 points led the losers.

In another game, Wilson High of San Francisco, led by Ken Mims' 21 points, demolished Novato, 71-20. The Tamalpais Indians defeated Galileo by forfeit in the other scheduled game.

Water Ski Show This Weekend

The seventh annual Western Experts Water Ski Tournament will go at the Mira Monte Marina in Novato tomorrow and Sunday.

The meet, sponsored by the Water Skiers of Marin, will feature competition in jump and tricks.

Action will start at 9 a.m. on both days. Admission is $1 for adults and 50 cents for children.

Oakland Bout

OAKLAND (AP) — Terry Lee of Oakland signed yesterday to fight veteran Henry Hank of Detroit in the Oakland Auditorium on Aug. 8.

MARIN BOWLING

Weddell Top Gun

By RALPH CHATOIAN

Mike Weddell, San Rafael fireman and Marin County's Masters bowling champ, is again bowler of the week.

Weddell, the only three-time winner of the Marin Masters title, rolled games of 258 and 247 and ended up with an 857 four-game series in the 555 Trios at Country Club Bowl in San Rafael.

Other big ones in the 555 Trios were Mike Tauscher, 225-842, Walt Silva, 215-828, and Dick Treadway, 218-811. Jerry Tatum rolled a 239-829 in the 510 Trios at Country Club. High three-gamer at the San Rafael lanes was a 231-608 rolled by Tom Cowles in the Alabi mixed league.

Leading the women's scoring at Country Club was Dori Simeone of the Keglerettes, 568, quite a three-game set by this 148-average roller.

Dori was followed by Bea Hoffmann, 203-560 in the Blue Chips; Barb Tobin, 554 in the Hi-Lo's; Penny Conti, 209-553 in TGIF League, and Gayle Chu, 531 in the Hi-Lo's.

THIS AND THAT — Charlotte Warcup had women's high individual game of the week at Country Club, a 234 in the Peterson Point League. . . . Dot Brusatori, 137 average, rolled a 213-505 in the Hi-Lo's. . . . In the Keglerettes League at Country Club, Shirley Santos, 141 avg., went up to a 222. . . . Jerry Gallaher had high series in the Tour League at Nave Lanes near Ignacio, 609. . . . A score of 243 was best line of the week at both Greenbrae Lanes and Nave Lanes, Charles Reichert rolling his in the Monday Men's Trio at Greenbrae and Jack Cooper, manager at Nave Lanes, getting his in the 500 Trios. . . . Craig Cole had a big week in the junior circuit, rolling 222-557 in the Adult-Juniors and 212 in the Monday Junior Doubles, both scores at Greenbrae Lanes. . . . Other big scores among Greenbrae juniors came from Keith Ray, 213-578, and Rich McPherson, 227-615. . . . Kent Dlugokenski led Country Club Bowl youngsters with 213-555.

FOR BABE — This is the last weekend for the no-tap bowling tournament to benefit the Novato Babe Ruth Baseball League, the same league which has an all-star team competing in the state tournament at Auburn. The Nave Lanes event allows the awarding of a strike when nine pins go down, and women are given automatic strikes in the third, sixth and ninth frames. The tournament, called "Strike Out for Babe Ruth," is a mixed event, with the $6 per couple entry fee helping pay some of the costs of the Novato Babe Ruthers.

HOW TO PLAY
WINNING BRIDGE

By ALFRED SHEINWOLD

Revaluation Of Hand Must Be Made When Both Sides Bidding

In competitive bidding situations you must consider how many tricks your hand will take if you play it at a trump suit of your own and how many it will win if an opponent plays the hand. You must also consider how your hand compares with what your partner expects you to hold.

THE PROBLEM

In today's hand, taken from "The Secrets of Winning Bridge," by Jeff Rubens, West's problem occurs at his second turn to bid. West's hand is a defensive powerhouse, considering the fact that he has opened the bidding with three spades.

West would have made the same opening bid with seven spades to the K-Q-J and three doubletons. That hand would be worthless for defense, but the actual hand is worth a sure spade trick, a possible ruffing trick in diamonds, and the trick value or the nuisance value of J-x-x of trumps.

NO DOUBLE

East would not double four diamonds if his hand were good only for defense against diamonds. He would pass quietly and hope that North stayed there. East's double says: "Partner, we may be able to beat any contract. If they run from diamonds, let me know if you can co-operate in the defense."

DOWN THREE

When the hand was actually played West led his singleton diamond and East won with the ten and returned his singleton spade. West took the ace of spades and gave his partner a spade ruff. East then returned a trump to dummy's ace.

South led the queen of clubs from dummy, holding that trick, and continued with a low club to the ace. He then led a low trump to East's king. East cashed the king of clubs and then led a diamond, assuring West a trump trick with the jack of hearts.

500 POINTS

South was down three, and West's double made the penalty 500 instead of a mere 150 points. If West had passed four hearts, East would also pass, accepting West's warning that his hand was very poor for defense.

What do you say?

ANSWER: Pass.

The hand is not quite worth an opening bid. You would bid one heart if that suit were headed by the king instead of the queen.

Dorm Rules Upheld

FRANKFORT, Ky. (AP) — The attorney general's office says state universities are not violating the civil rights of coeds by requiring them to return to the dormitory at a set time.

ALMANAC

Today is Friday, July 25, the 206th day of 1969 with 159 to follow.

The moon is between its first quarter and full phase. The morning stars are Venus and Saturn. The evening stars are Mars, Jupiter and Mercury.

On this day in history:

In 1866 Ulysses S. Grant received the rank of general of the U.S. Army, the first American officer so designated.

In 1934 Chancellor Englebert Dollfuss of Austria was assassinated by troops of the Nazi Black Guards as Adolf Hitler tried unsuccessfully to take over that Central European country.

In 1943 King Emmanuel of Italy replaced Fascist dictator Benito Mussolini. Mussolini was executed in 1945.

In 1952 Puerto Rico became a self-governing free commonwealth.

A thought for the day: Roman poet Quintus Ennius once said, "No one regards what is before his feet; we all gaze at the stars."

Pakistanic Hindus Flowing To India

NEW DELHI (AP) — Twenty-two years after the partition of British India into India and Pakistan, refugees from East Pakistan continue to trickle into this country.

During the first nine months of 1968, 4,733 left East Pakistan.

A total of 4,207,569 refugees, at last count, had come over to India from East Pakistan, a fifth of them after 1963, according to the government of West Bengal, the state in which most refugees settle.

SUCCESSFUL INVESTING

Stock Check Needed For Quick Income

By ROGER E. SPEAR

Q. At 61, I'm living on modest alimony and dividends from stocks I've held many years. I must sell something (but what?) to get $1,000 to meet this year's expenses. What's your choice for sales from the following: 100 Arkansas Louisiana Gas, 175 Mapco; 60 North American Phillips; 45 Tampax; 100 International Telephone; 185 Polaroid; 100 Reynolds Tobacco. I must also watch the capital gains tax. — J. L.

A. If you need income so badly, your present growth portfolio should be revamped — with the aid of your lawyer or a tax specialist — to plan the shift of your capital into high-yield stocks and bonds. I'm neither a lawyer nor a tax accountant so I can only state my choice of Sales candidates. These are North American Phillips — earnings have been uneven but hopefully are recovering — and Mapco. Dividends from these two yield slightly more than 2 per cent and capital gains would be noticeably less than from any of the others. You have a $50,000 portfolio which might be reinvested to yield at least $2,500, nearly four times your current dividend return of $658. The difference is much more than the $1,000 you need to meet 1969's expenses.

Q. I'm a teen-ager who would like to invest in stocks and am thinking of Atlas Corp. What do you advise? — A. W.

A. I'm glad to hear of your interest in the market and can understand why you're thinking about Atlas and its uranium mines. Because of recent operating deficits, though, I don't favor it for your initial purchase. Instead, I suggest your looking into Livingston Oil, trading around 10 on the Big Board. LVO's production and sales of crude oil and natural gas have been developing a more stable earnings pattern since 1965.

Livingston also has a stake in CATV (cable television) through franchises — already granted or about to be — in Colorado, Idaho and Oregon. Revenues from this stake in an emerging industry should expand further in fiscal 1969-70 and accelerate during the next decade.

Transcontinental Pipeline Study

NEW YORK (UPI) — A proposal for the first transcontinental large diameter oil pipeline has been announced by three major companies.

Atlantic Richfield, B. P. Oil Co., and Humble Pipe Line Co. of the Esso group, said they would make feasibility studies for such a line from the Puget Sound area to the Eastern seaboard.

The same three companies already have decided to build an 800-mile 48-inch pipeline from the Arctic slope of Alaska to the Gulf of Alaska.

Retail Sales Tax Collections Up Over Year Ago

County-wide taxable retail sales for the first quarter of 1969 were higher than those recorded in 1968, according to the Marin County Chamber of Commerce and Visitors Bureau, with all communities except Belvedere sharing in the increase.

Total transactions exceeded $60.7 million — a gain of 13.2 per cent over the $53.6 million shown in early 1968. Larkspur's $2.18 million showed the biggest percentage increase (58.4 per cent).

San Rafael as usual had the biggest volume ($27.49 million) but only a moderate 14 per cent increase over a year ago.

Among other communities, Corte Madera sales totaled $7.17 million (2.9 per cent higher); Novato $6.12 million (up 18.1 per cent); Mill Valley $3.35 million (up 29 per cent); Sausalito $3.36 million (up 10.6 per cent); San Anselmo $25.4 million (up 15.8 per cent); Fairfax $1.24 million (up 9.2 per cent); Tiburon $1.14 million (up 23.3 per cent); Ross $90,000 (up 7.1 per cent); and Belvedere $126,000 (down 2.3 per

Surcharge Worries Knock Stocks Down

NEW YORK (UPI) — Uncertainty over the fate of the income tax surcharge and fear that corporate profits and expansion might be cut back pulled stock prices sharply lower in moderate trading today.

The decline hit several major categories with electronics one of the hardest hit groups. Steels, oils and chemicals generally worked lower.

Ford showed independent strength in the autos. General Motors and Chrysler eased.

Fairchild Camera led a decline in the electronics. Sperry Rand, Burroughs and National Cash Register also backed off.

United and National were weaker airlines. Eastern showed some stregth. Natomas and Phillips were weaker.

Du Pont and Union Carbide showed some strength in the chemicals. Prices fell on the American Stock Exchange in fairly light trading.

Petaluma Tax Receipts Jump

Sales tax transactions in Petaluma jumped 11.2 per cent for the first three months of 1969, according to C. G. Gealta, director of finance.

Gealta said the state over-all increase was 7.9 per cent. The greatest local increase was in the building materials and farm equipment category which jumped 34.1 per cent with sales of $852,000.

In other types of businesses, the taxable transactions and percentages of increase for the first quarter were: apparel stores, 15 per cent, $383,000; general merchandise stores, 14.9 per cent, $746,000; drug stores, 14.3 per cent, $335,000; food stores, 19.4 per cent, $923,000; package liquor stores, 13.9 per cent, $106,000; eating and drinking places, 19.9 per cent, $776,000; home furnishings and appliances, .4 per cent, $458,000; auto dealers and supplies, 7.5 per cent, $1,949,000; service stations, 12 per cent, $186,000; other retail stores, 13.9 per cent, $604,000.

Easier Trade Balance Likely, U.S. Predicts

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Commerce Department trade experts have predicted that U.S. exports will increase and imports decline during the second half of this year, easing the nation's balance of payments problems.

Commerce Secretary Maurice H. Stans said a survey of trade potential indicates exports will increase by about 10 per cent over 1968 for the year as a whole.

That would require a sharp upturn in the second half of the year because exports for the January to May period were up only 4.5 per cent.

The department's bureau of international commerce predicted a "sharp" decline in imports during the rest of the year based on assumption that the administration's anti-inflation program would begin to take hold. No specific percentage decline was estimated.

Shares Offered

NEW YORK (UPI)—Atlantic Richfield Co. has offered for public sale 1,500,000 shares of common stock at $115.25 per share. The underwriting group was managed by Smith Barney and Co.

THIS WEEK IN BUSINESS

Construction Begins For Tape Lab

Construction has begun on a $3.5 million research and development laboratory for the Ampex Corp. magnetic tape division in Redwood City.

The two-story 54,000-square-foot building will house administrative offices, research and testing laboratories, process development and pilot line facilities for producing experimental magnetic tapes. It is scheduled for completion in May, 1970.

This week Ampex Corp. filed a registration statement with the Securities and Exchange Commission for $60 million of convertible subordinate debentures. Terms have not been determined and will be announced at the time of offering which will be made through a group of underwriters headed by Blyth and Co., Inc. and Lazard Freres and Co.

BURGERMEISTER (FORMERLY BURGERMEISTER BREWING CORP.), San Francisco may become a subsidiary of Meister Brau, Inc. The latter has entered into an option agreement with Jos. Schlitz Brewing Co. to purchase Burgermeister assets. The sale has already been approved by the U. S. District Court in San Francisco under a 1966 decree which ordered Schlitz to divest itself of Burgermeister assets. Scheduled closing date is Oct. 1. Founded in 1891, Meister Brau has its principal marketing area in the midwest.

COLDWELL, BANKER AND CO. has signed an agreement with the Forest E. Olsen Companies providing for the sale of substantially all Olsen assets in exchange for shares of Coldwell, Banker common stock. Principal Olsen companies are Forest E. Olsen, Inc., Landmark Escrow Services, Inc. and Certified Mortgage Co., Inc. They will be operated under existing management as Coldwell, Banker subsidiaries.

INSTRUMENT SYSTEMS CORP., an integrated electronics company with diversified holdings in packaging, home furnishings, automotive and industrial products, has acquired four companies with total sales of $14.4 million: Grant Pulley and Hardware Corp. of New York state; Schiller Brothers, Inc. in New Jersey; and Midway Hardware Co. and Western Synthetic Felt, both of Los Angeles. Instrument Systems reported sales of $85 million last year and profits of $4.5 million.

SOUTHERN PACIFIC has asked the Interstate Commerce Commission to approve tri-weekly operation of its Cascade passenger trains, which now run daily in each direction between Portland and Oakland. A similar application for tri-weekly operation of the Sunset between Los Angeles and New Orleans was made last week.

KAISER ALUMINUM AND CHEMICAL CORP. has formed a new subsidiary company, Kaiser Trading Co. and will begin immediately to engage in the purchase and sale of various commodities on a worldwide basis. Kaiser Trading will concentrate initially on metals, chemicals and ores, functioning primarily on a "purchase-sell" basis, but will also seek possibilities in barter arrangements.

PACIFIC GAS AND ELECTRIC CO. earnings per share of common stock in the second quarter amounted to 62 cents — unchanged from the corresponding quarter of 1968. For the 12 months ended June 30, earnings were $2.64 a share, compared with $2.45 in the preceding 12 months.

COMMERCE CLEARING HOUSE, INC. reported sales of $22.2 million for the first half of 1969, compared with last year's $18.5 million. Net earnings were $2.1 million or 59 cents a share, up from $2 million or 44 cents a share for the same period last year. The company plans to establish its western regional headquarters at Northgate, Marin County.

WALLACE-MURRAY CORP., manufacturer of building products, plumbingware, automotive and diesel engine components and cutting tools, has completed its acquisition of Fayette Tubular Products, Inc. Wallace-Murray had sales of $205 million in 1968 and has 25 plants in the U. S. and Canada.

Knox Bill As Amended Does The Job Required

Sensible control over the future of San Francisco Bay seems assured — unless those who would extend control to land not within the bay block it by demanding "all or nothing."

Richmond Assemblyman John T. Knox's AB 2057, as amended and approved by the Senate Finance Committee on Tuesday night, meets the requirements for a "strong bay fill control" measure advocated by Gov. Ronald Reagan, by legislators on both sides of the aisle, and by what appears to be a substantial majority of residents of the Bay Area.

STRANGELY, HOWEVER, the committee action drew hisses from the large "save the bay" crowd that attended the hearing in the state capitol.

The hisses resulted because the committee amended out of the measure a provision to extend jurisdiction of the Bay Conservation and Development Commission beyond the bay itself to a band of shoreline beginning at five feet above sea level at high tide and extending back 100 feet from that level.

THE BCDC had asked controls extending back 1,000 feet from this five-foot line. This proposal, which would have placed large areas of Marin County under control of the agency, drew great opposition, and Knox cut it to 100 feet.

IN ELIMINATING the so-called "shoreline control," the Senate committee spelled out what seems to us to be a significant and legitimate limit to BCDC's jurisdiction.

Purpose of the bill is to save the bay from filling. This it will do in its present form.

Establishing the line five feet above the mean high tide line allows for control over areas subject to flooding by the bay itself.

Moving the line farther back, however, would mean that BCDC would go beyond being a bay fill control agency and become a zoning agency for dry lands lying within the jurisdictions of cities and counties around the bay.

Much land that is far from the bay and could not, except by long stretch of the imagination, be called part of the bay is within 100 feet of areas five feet above mean high tide, Actually, giving the BCDC jurisdiction to the five-foot level carries its powers quite far beyond the bay itself in some places —as in Kentfield, for instance.

To make BCDC a zoning agency for land that is far above sea level, never was part of the bay, and may not need so much as a cubic yard of fill for development, would contribute little to saving the bay. But it would undoubtedly result in much confusion and conflict. In the long run, we suspect, it would considerably hamper bay control itself.

IT IS TO BE HOPED, therefore, that the bill will pass the Senate in its present form and that the Assembly will concur in the amendment.

Bay fill control is there. Control of the salt ponds is there. Perpetuation of BCDC is there. An attempted power grab to turn BCDC into a land use zoning agency as well as a bay control agency can endanger the whole "save the bay" project.

Emotions were high at the Tuesday night hearing. But those who hissed the committee were really hissing the very thing they stand for: control of further filling of the bay.

Assemblyman Knox has done a good job. The Senate committee has, we believe, polished that job by eliminating a provision fraught with danger to future bay control.

Phew! Those Pretty Flowers

Those big Shasta daisies, which grow so abundantly in Marin's gardens and achieve a size in the neighborhood of four inches per blossom, are really handsome flowers. They resemble a white corona around the central sun of pollen yellow stamens.

But their fragrance is something else again. They smell bad, but they don't really reek. Their foul odor is not so obvious that it precludes their being used in bouquets of cut flowers. However, those who use them in this way may expect some quizzical expressions, furtive glances at the bottoms of shoes, and a generally uncomfortable attitude from the uninitiated.

AFFAIRS OF STATE

Failure To Act On Tax Reform Invites New 'Proposition 9'

By HENRY C. MacARTHUR

SACRAMENTO (CNS) — It has been apparent for quite some time that the 1969 session of the Legislature will not complete any program of tax reform before the contemplated date of adjournment Aug. 8.

Because of its lassitude on this subject, it was pointed out by Caspar W. Weinberger, state director of finance, the Legislature is borrowing a lot of trouble not only for itself but also for the state. Its failure to take action is merely an invitation for another Proposition 9, which was an initiative on the 1968 ballot proposing a limit on property taxes, known as the "Watson Amendment."

The so-called "Watson Amendment" went down to defeat primarily because the 1968 Legislature adopted a hurry-up substitute, which was labeled "tax relief" and provided a $70 rebate to taxpayers occupying their homes and a subsequent $750 exemption for them.

This was the anodyne offered hard-pressed California taxpayers until "further study" resulting in some better form of tax relief.

MORE THAN a year has gone by, and there is no indication that anything better is going to be enacted this year.

All of which brings the inevitable conclusion that if any organization brings some sort of revision edition before the public again, it might stand a much better chance of becoming enacted into the constitution.

ALTHOUGH there has been much speculation as to why the Legislature has not acted on tax reform, the answer appears to be rather simple. The year 1969 is not an election year, and therefore, if a practical and acceptable program were adopted this year, there would be no immediate political benefit. Wise politicians do not miss many opportunities to capitalize on issues that can do them some good when elections are in the offing.

The governor's tax reform plan, announced some months ago, recognizes, says Weinberger, that the homeowners' real estate tax is one of the most regressive in the state. Therefore, the plan proposes to shift some of the burden to three forms of taxation directly related to ability to pay.

The three forms are the sales tax, the income tax, and the non-residential real estate tax. None of these items will be welcomed for increases, but on the other hand, they are designed to benefit the homeowner and take some of the load for education off his back.

Nixon's Seventh Crisis Caused By Temporizing

(Reprinted from St. Louis Post-Dispatch)

There can be little question that President Nixon faces what is now widely described as a crisis of leadership. . . .

So far as domestic problems are concerned Mr. Nixon promised us a policy of standstill during his campaign, and he is carrying out the promise. He won election by exploiting the fears and prejudices arising from black protest, student rebellion, and a rising crime rate. He promised "law and order." He offered obliquely to shift the balance of tension in favor of the white majority. He presented himself as the candidate of firmness, of righteousness, of respectability. But he never presented a program of positive action to deal with the underlying sources of the social crisis, and his six months in office have not produced one.

IT IS PRECISELY because Mr. Nixon stands for no positive policy, but only for a strategy of jockeying among conflicting pressures, that his administration is in trouble. For weeks congressional leaders have waited, with respect to one urgent problem after another, for Mr. Nixon to present his program. They are now beginning to realize that there isn't any program. When circumstances force the administration to move in some direction, it settles the matter by trying to move several ways at once. The one common element in its strategy is a desire to maintain the status quo.

Thus Mr. Nixon narrowly wins extension of the surtax in the House, but meets a roadblock in the Senate's strong sentiment for simultaneous tax reform. To control inflation he needs the surtax, and to extend the surtax he needs a program for tax reform; but since any such program would upset the status quo, he is paralyzed with indecision, and the surtax remains stalled. Dr. Knowles is scuttled because Mr. Nixon cannot resist the American Medical Association, and then, in response to pressures from the other side, the President finds a "liberal" substitute for Dr. Knowles and offers a medical care program which essentially maintains the status quo.

To pay off Strom Thurmond, the administration tampers with the voting rights act and relaxes guidelines for school desegregation. Then, to appease the other side, it backs away on voting rights and files a series of school cases designed to show that the guidelines will be retained. Result, the status quo.

AND SO it goes with the student rebellion — tough talk from Attorney General Mitchell, exhortations by the President for toughness by university administrators, equivocation toward legislation on the problem, and the likely result, the status quo. Likewise the Safeguard antiballistic missile program represents essentially a continuation of Johnson administration policies, to change which would upset the military-industrial complex. Because he cannot resist the pressures of that special interest, Mr. Nixon strives to maintain the arms race in status quo.

There is a theory that the President has staked his political future on the gamble that if he can taper off the Vietnam war and bring about a detente with the Soviets, he will not be required to grapple with the deep social problems of racial tension, decaying cities, poverty amid affluence, and inadequate public services. If the theory is correct, he has deliberately chosen a policy of studied inaction with respect to domestic affairs. We would prefer to think otherwise, but we must admit the pattern of his administration tends to support the theory.

The truth is that our domestic problems are so acute, and the massive remedies they require have been so long delayed, that the country simply cannot afford a period of standstill. Mr. Nixon is a minority president with a Democratic House and Senate and a split Republican party whose moderate elements grow increasingly restive. The answer to his "crisis of leadership" is the adoption of positive domestic policies which can command the support of that constituency. More standstill can only deepen the crisis.

I expect to pass through this world but once; any good thing therefore that I can do, or any kindness that I can show to any fellow-creature, let me do it now; let me not defer or neglect it, for I shall not pass this way again. — Stephen Grellet.

Leitzell Driveway Found Unchanged

Your front page story of July 22 related charges that Charles R. Leitzell, San Anselmo's city engineer, had used city crews to "install" his driveway.

We are happy to state for the public record that we have visited the Leitzell home occasionally since they moved into it several years ago and have seen no change whatsoever in the existing driveway.

It will be interesting to see if the anonymous slanderers, whose cause Councilman Robert Scott advanced, will have the guts to stand up in public.

It will also be interesting to see if the I-J, which gave front-page space to these baseless charges, will have the decency to give similar prominence to a story on interviews with the Lietzells' immediate neighbors, giving their statements on the alleged changes in this driveway. Otherwise, we may see the usual case of the lie outracing the truth while a newspaper turns to more "interesting" front page stories than the fact that one of the best city engineers in the county has been grossly maligned.

Kennedy Already Out Of Race For 1972 Presidential Nomination

By ROSCOE and GEOFFREY DRUMMOND

WASHINGTON — Sen. Edward Kennedy will have plenty of time to decide if the unexplained events following the tragic drowning accident near Edgartown, Mass., in which he was involved will force him to abandon his presidential hopes.

The reason is that, in the judgment of Democratic leaders who wished him well, he had already decided not to seek the 1972 nomination.

Mike Mansfield, the outspoken Senate Democratic leader, who would have more reason to know than most, told a group of reporters before the accident that Kennedy, now assistant Senate leader, was turning aside from plans to go after the '72 nomination and wanted to tamp down all pressures that he try for it.

It was implicit in what Mansfield said that 1972 would not be a good year for Kennedy to run since, as Mansfield saw it, President Nixon was doing very well and would likely be re-elected.

THIS MEANS that Kennedy will have time to appraise the impact of the accident, and more particularly what occurred after it, on his political standing throughout the country.

Kennedy's standing has been high — although not so high as President Nixon's. Most politicians were sure that he could not only win the '72 nomination but could get it for the asking.

THERE IS a considerable difference between Mansfield's appraisal of the effect of the accident on Kennedy's political future and that of Washington's political writers.

Mansfield views it as insignificant and dismisses it as "something that could happen to anybody."

But political reporters conclude that it is a "serious blow" to his career, and they report "deep concern among his friends."

THIS JUDGMENT rests on two points omitted by Mansfield:

1—The adverse political effects do not come from the accident, "which could happen to anybody," but from Kennedy's conduct after the accident in not reporting it to the police until more than eight hours after it happened and in providing the police with on adequate explanation of why he didn't.

2—Kennedy is not "just anybody." He is a potential president of the United States, and the standards by which the public judges presidents and potential presidents are more exacting than those by which they judge "just anybody."

RELATIONS between the press and Kennedy are friendly. There is certainly no wish to do him harm. Reporters have almost invariably found him candid and cordial, and when he has not been available his aides have willingly spoken for him. This hasn't been the case since the accident, and the reporters find a curtain of silence between them and his associates.

What is needed from Kennedy, if he is to avert a permanent, perhaps fatal blow to his national career, is a precise, verifiable and persuasive account of everything he did and of every conversation he had with friends from the time he left the scene of the accident to the time, more than eight hours later, when he went to the police after they had already learned of it.

Edward has a great reservoir of good will and trust. His conduct as a political leader, especially in some very trying moments during and after the miasmic Chicago convention has been impeccable. His conduct as a private citizen must match it. He has earned credibility, but after the events in Edgartown it will have to be renewed or Senator Kennedy will have imperiled his political future.

Missiles Flying Over U.S.? Up To Nixon To Decide

By ROBERT S. ALLEN and JOHN A. GOLDSMITH

WASHINGTON — President Nixon may have to make the decision on whether the Air Force may test-fire Minuteman missiles from operational silos, across part of the United States and into the Pacific Ocean.

The Air Force has requested clearance for a number of such ICBM test firings. The request, pending for a couple of months, technically is on the desk of Secy. of Defense Melvin R. Laird.

Some Air Force officials believe, however, that a final go-ahead would have to come from the White House, because of the touchy policy question involved in such over-flights. There are some admitted safety hazards.

AIR FORCE spokesmen have told Congress that trajectories for the tests would not pass over heavily populated areas. The Minuteman test missiles would carry dummy warheads, and each would have a "destruct" device so that it could be blown up if it veered into an erratic or dangerous flight path.

However, Lt. Gen. Marvin L. McNickle, Air Force deputy chief of staff for research and development, has told the Senate Armed Services Committee that lack of a "foolproof" system for destroying errant missiles has prevented such "full range" operational tests of intercontinental missiles so far.

One problem is that blowing up a missile early in its flight, while it is still in the atmosphere, produces a shower of hardware. Another problem is that the Minuteman first stage is expended in the atmosphere and falls to earth, where it could do some damage.

IN 1966, to conduct test firings from operational Minuteman silos, the Air Force began using so-called "seven-second missiles." In those, the Minuteman first stage included fuel for a seven-second flight, only enough to take it about 5,000 feet downrange.

One such test, of a Minuteman I missile from a silo near Rapid City, S.D., was completely successful. The early version Minuteman behaved exactly as planned.

However, the second test, involving a more advanced Minuteman II missile at a base near Grand Forks, N.D., failed because of a faulty diode in a piece of ground equipment.

A second Minuteman II test at the Grand Forks base also failed. This time a capacitor in the missile's guidance system was blamed.

In 1968, two years later, another attempt was made to launch one of the same seven-second missiles at Grand Forks. Again it failed, this time because of a faulty electrical connection.

Now the Air Force says all those problems have been remedied.

As it is an ancient truth that freedom cannot be legislated into existence, so it is no less obvious that freedom cannot be censored into existence. — Dwight D. Eisenhower.

"Some folks seem to get as much kick out of intending to do right as others get out of doing right."

I-J REPORTER'S NOTEBOOK

By ANNE BARDWELL

All Is Harmony In Mill Valley —After The Meeting, That Is

"You're a play-at-home, stay-at-home, eight o'clock sleepy-time gal.

"Rosalie, my darling, Rosalie . . .

"Mary, Mary, sweet as any name can be . . .

"Wait 'til the sun shines, Nellie, and the clouds go drifting by . . .

"Good evening, ladies and gentlemen. From high atop the Office in downtown Mill Valley where we bring you Bill and His Boys."

AND THERE HE WAS, William H. Cunningham, Mill Valley's new city manager, playing away on the piano as if he were born to it. Next to him was Public Works Director Ross Benson providing the rhythm section with the spoons. And, around the piano in one of Mill Valley's local pubs Monday night were an assortment of city councilmen, press, city staff and friends, ranging in age from 25 to 55, singing the old songs as though they had never gone out of style.

Cunningham plays a mean piano and Benson's spoons were incomparable. Then there was the singing . . .

One wit suggested that someone ought to set the council meetings to music to keep things lively. "Down in Mill Valley, valley so low . . ."

Cunningham's attempts to play something more current ("By the time I get to Phoenix") failed. Even the young folk wanted the old tunes.

At the end, everyone went home promising to be in better voice for the next council meeting when the music will begin again — this time joined by Planning Director Harvey E. Bragdon playing his junior golden harp.

EARLIER in the evening tempers once again had gotten frayed as the council's liberal-conservative split showed itself stronger than ever.

The only note of levity was provided when Mill Valley's noted conservationist, Elizabeth Terwilliger, asked the council for permission to erect a fence near the city's new boat dock at the end of Sycamore Avenue.

After all, Mrs. T. said, we need the fence to protect the city's new boat and to store equipment . . .

In a slow-motion double-take, the councilmen, one by one, dropped their jaws and stared. Mrs. T. was well into her second wind by the time someone managed to hoarsely whisper, "Boat? What boat?"

"Why the city's new sailboat," Mrs. T blithely replied. "You don't expect us to have sailing classes without a boat, do you?"

The press section and audience started giggling while the council still gaped.

Finally, a councilman said, "I don't remember appropriating money for a boat in the budget."

Oh no, Mrs. T. explained. "Don (Dimitratos, parks and recreation director) got it for $500. He's awfully good at getting good buys."

Well, it turned out that Dimitratos was offered a bargain on the small Pelican and financed it out of recreation fees for the sailing class, a normal practice in providing equipment for specialty programs.

Cunningham, only on the job a few days, signed the purchase order assuming the councilmen were aware of what was going on.

Well, they are now.

SPEAKING of city government, Sausalito's city manager, George M. Patterson, a mean piano player himself, received a well-deserved pat on the back last week when the California Society of Certified Public Accountants awarded Sausalito the 1969 municipal accounting award for the greatest improvement in accounting procedures during the previous fiscal year.

The innovations which won Patterson the award were converting the city from single entry to double entry bookkeeping and installing a pegboard system for recording transactions.

Other improvements cited included adoption of a long-term capital improvement program, revised interim financial reporting practices, implementation of procedures for recording encumbrances, creation of a more meaningful chart of accounts, utilization of group purchasing procedures, and improvements in preliminary and final budget formats.

COUNTY COMMENT

Moon Landing Reflects Efficiency; County Communications Need It

Fusselman

How many times Sunday night did you rouse yourself and shake off the feeling that you had dozed off and were dreaming that you were seeing phantom-like beings hopping around in a never-never land, excitedly telling what they were finding and doing?

Yup, as an elderly German neighbor and friend of my grandmother would say, "So be I." David Brinkley just about hit it: "I don't believe it. I see it. I know it's happening, but I still don't believe it."

happening, but I still don't believe it."

The whole thing fairly boggles the mind — to sit and watch and hear President Nixon, alone in his office, talking to Neil Armstrong on the moon, over a quarter of a million miles away. Then the tight feeling in the chest that came with the fear that the Eagle might fail on the blast-off.

A few hours later came the good news that it had done its stuff — that they were docked with the Columbia and those three were on their way home. Three brave and wonderful wives could now try to relax from the tension they had been under.

When you consider that 10 or 11 years of good and earnest effort, which had apparently been quite free from bureaucratic nonsense and drag, could produce this detail-filled success, you can be hopeful that this same application of available, high grade intelligence will be solving the pressing problems of our cities, without the present bureaucratic nonsense and drag.

BEFORE ME are three clippings of extensive stories in the I-J about our Marin County communications department — June 4, July 8, July 16. It's good they are extensive.

This really important department is one the public rarely hears anything of. It is relatively as important to our county as that which made the flights of all the Apollo missions possible. Without that information and direction which comes from the dispatchers at "com-center," your police, fire and ambulance services, as well as the public works, would be as a blind man seeking his way. And conversely, any of the services needing help or assistance could be badly hampered and in danger without this radio service.

To keep such a system at peak efficiency requires the constant attention of technicians, who virtually live with components of all kinds and descriptions — exactly as the telephone service is maintained. This new man is violating every principle of the profession. Companies like the Tel and Tel spend much time on personnel matters, to see that that element of the service is smoothly operating as well as the equipment. This new director is doing just the opposite.

He was told by the board of supervisors to lay off his efforts to change and disrupt things and that a year would be taken to make a complete study of everything involved. This he is not doing, hence the resignations and deterioration of equipment which is bound to occur.

More to come.
